THREE WELL KNOWN MEN JOIN SOUTH BEND.

GREENS TO PLAY TO-MORROW

Manager Grant Arranges Game With Reserves.—Arrangements Being Made For Opening of Central League Season.

here in Sioux at Kilhart, who dropped a runaway horse. The driver had become entangled in the reins and was bumping along over the cobble stones. Hoar took a high dive at the animal's head, grasped the lines and brought the frightened horse to a standstill. The whole town is in a wonderful state over his nerve and the news has spread.

Parkins Will be Retained.

Pittsburg is making ready to recall "Lefty" Parkins, the pitcher loaned to Evansville. He is the best man on the staff of the Hoosiers.

Central League Diamond Dust.

Grayling, the infielder from Detroit, has been released by Anderson.

Fort Wayne has released Hall and Overmyer and Anderson has dropped Pitcher Heyman.

Manager is releasing most of the youngsters signed for Fort Wayne and is filling in the team with older hands.

Buck Washer, the Akron twirler, who was signed by the Staples some time ago has reported to Manager Kelly.

Burchell, the former Evansville twirler was given a trial by Philadelphia yesterday after the game was already lost. He did nicely.

Thomas, who played third for Wheeling two years ago, will be a regular at second for the Cleveland team this year. He is expected to do some great batting.

Pops, of Terre Haute, is a hot weather pitcher. He is practicing with the team, but probably will do little work in the box until after the weather becomes warmer.

Monroe Gordon, a Fort Wayne lad of about 18, was saved from death by drowning by the prompt and intelligent efforts of William Hogue, who rescued him from the depths of the St. Marys river.

Fort Wayne is playing as follows: Caddell, catcher; Murphy, third; Hogue, short; Lindsay, second; Myers, field; Bulwinkle, right; Dennis, center; Miller, left; Maier, Graf, Wagner and Bishop, pitchers.

Evansville lines up as follows: Clancy—Crouse and McGinley; pitchers, Frost, Willis, Parkins, Ferguson, Minor, Curtiss, Nowa, first; Quinn, second; Markley, third; Jacobs, short; Fleisters-Kiock, Hartley, Lytle.

Manager Grim has signed the Marion regulars. They are now McGraw, shortstop; Quinlivy, second base; Wilkinson, center field; Grim, first base; Pickett, left field; Herbert, catcher; Seibert, third base; Letcher, right field; Easton, Meyers, Merryman, Barr pitchers.

Manager Lindsay, of Anderson, has signed Charles Crouse, of Detroit, for third base to fill the vacancy made by the jumping of Gilligan. Crouse played a short season with Cincinnati two years ago and was with the Three-I leagues last season. He is said to be a clever cover for third and handy with the stick.

News of Local Favorites.

Maurice Powers, the former Notre Dame catcher took part in the Boston-Philadelphia American league game yesterday and caught a great game, having six putouts and two assists to his credit.

Powers pitched and played centerfield for Toledo against Columbus yesterday afternoon. Columbus in the fifth inning after Columbus had won the game. Harry Arndt played right field for Columbus. He is to play that position regular, his hitting being above par.

GETTING A HOME

Serious Question That Confronts the Man of Family.

House is Paid For While Occupying it Same as Paying Rent.

One of the greatest necessities that confronts a man of family or one who is about to marry is the question of providing a home. In days of yore the advice was given to a young man contemplating matrimony to first provide the cage for his bird, but in these modern days the matter of providing a cage is made simple. A man must either own his home, or rent one. In the first case considerable capital is required or else he must go deeply in debt, in the second he is paying out money without receiving anything tangible in return. In other words he is paying interest to someone else for the privilege of living in the other house and in the end has only accumulated a stack of rent receipts to show that he has honestly acquired the right.

The satisfaction of owning a home, and yet paying for it with the same investment as in paying rent, is made possible by the owners of the south east addition on Miami street. They have partitioned a plot whereby any one wishing to own a home can have it built according to his own ideas interwoven with a little or a nominal sum and the balance on a monthly payment plan, meaning if from the start, really he is merely paying rent, but in the end you have a home. It is really the best proposition ever offered a homeseeker.

Buying a lot in the south east addition is profitable as an investment. Miami street is in the heart of the rapidly growing southeast portion of the city. It is the joining link between South Bend and Mishawaka. You can buy a lot for $16 down and pay $5 a month until all the payments are made. The price includes street improvements and taxes until 1905. If you do not want to build a school house for the lot is conveniently located. If you have made but a single payment it is the place to buy because property here is increasing in value faster and more than in any other part of the city. It is in convenient access to the large factories. It is a pleasant place for a home. The star was opened on this month and already 6 lots have been sold. Take a look at the addition in-morrow. If you can lay aside $1 a month from your earnings, buy a lot with the certainty that your money will increase rapidly. If there is any other information you may desire see Wilson Ward, James H. Tarlton, Fred Keller or Charles Wheeler.

DISTANCE TO BE CONSIDERED

A simple way of showing the relative distances from the business center of the city to Portage Park and other new additions is to draw a circle on the city map, taking the intersection of Main and Washington streets as a center. Starting on the north at Portage Park the circle will cross Washington street on the west near Walnut street; Michigan street on the south at Park street, and Visula avenue on the southeast between Osborne and Sample streets. Then it is readily seen that a home in Portage Park would be many blocks nearer down town business than a home in any of the other new additions.

When residents of Portage Park drive to city they have street cars running every 15 minutes past their homes. Then they have a short walk they have to bridge to cross, now railroads to cause delay and constant danger to themselves and their children.

When you consider that every lot in Portage Park has high elevation; that they are far away from the smoke of factories; that the streets are being graded and the contract for sidewalk and curb has been let; that there is a building restriction which prevents a shack being built or moved in next to you, you will be compelled to admit that Portage Park is one of the most desirable locations for a home in the city.
