MAKE ONLY ONE HIT

LITTLE EVAS EVEN UP MATTERS WITH SOUTH BEND.

COY TOO MUCH FOR GREENS

South Bend Loses Second Game to Evansville by Score of Three to Two—Foy and Grosscup Show Stars.

The Tribune's Special Service.

Evansville, Ind., April 28.—Inability to hit Pitcher Coy tells the story of South Bend's 2 to 3 defeat by the Little Evas yesterday. The latest recruit to the pitching staff of Ryan was in great form and the only visitor who was able to land safe was Catcher Tiernan, who dropped the ball into deep center and sent South Bend's only two runs over the plate. This occurred in the fifth after Connors had been given a life on a low throw of Lynch to first base and after Sager had bunted to Coy. The latter had plenty of time to catch Connors at second, but he threw wild and both men were safe on the sacks. A sacrifice by Grosscup moved the runners up another notch and then Tiernan walloped the ball for a clean single.

South Bend threatened to make a bid for victory in the ninth with her heavy batters up but Anderson struck out and Letcher and Connors who followed were easy out to first.

Evansville tied the score by runs in the sixth on an error by Grosscup and hits by Chandler, Lynch and Haisman.

Game Was Spectacular.

Like the game of Thursday the contest was spectacular and probably as swift a game as has ever been played here, only one hour and 20 minutes being required to finish the game. Notwithstanding the fact that South Bend broke into the error column her fielding was even faster than in the opening game and Leon Foy carried the face of Chandler by invading the territory of Grosscup and Ryan by stealing Haisman's fly off the fences. The running catch was by far the most remarkable witnessed on Evansville diamonds and the brilliancy of the feat was lost on the fans.

Grosscup and Fortine also won applause by pretty work. The former covered all the territory in the vicinity of short and his catches, of several runs. Lynch, too, featured himself in the same manner.

Coy Bad Inning.

Aside from the sixth inning Fortine was in great form particularly with men on base. Up to that time Evansville had been unable to solve Ryan at the bat. He struck the Evansville manager out once and the other time held him to a weak ground hit. In the first inning he knocked down a hot one that was headed for Grosscup's throughout to field the ball and retire the side. The summary:

Caught Between Innings.

Foy was in.

There is nothing slow about that optimistic Evansville.

Rain threatened to end the game in the fifth. When it is considered that the weather was threatening the attendance of the day was very good.

With good weather to-day, it is expected that 1,500 fans will witness the game. Indications point to a repetition of Sunday's game the last of the series.

Evansville is stronger than ever the most enthusiastic fan had dared to expect. Jimmy Ryan has gotten a fine outfit young men on the team on the strength of the expect some fine ball this year.

The fans really expected to see South Bend make another whirlwind finish in the ninth and when they saw the heavy batters come to the plate and the winning they was under terrible suspense. Coy however, was equal to the occasion and retired the side.

OTHER CENTRAL LEAGUE GAMES

Dayton Takes Contest From Fort Wayne Champions.

Dayton, O., April 28.—Dayton defeated Fort Wayne yesterday by smashing hits in the fourth inning. While the visitors obtained one more at that the hoosis they were scattered and ineffective. Donahue's sensational one handed catch and Windle's batting scuring a triple and double out of four times up, were features. Score:

CONDENSED NEWS OF BASEBALL

Big College Games Are Scheduled For This Afternoon.

Iowa defeated Northwestern 7 to 1 at Evanston, Ill, yesterday.

College games for to-day are as follows: Chicago-Wisconsin at Madison, Illinois-Michigan at Ann Arbor, Iowa, Knox at Galesburg, Northwestern at Beloit.

DePauw defeated Ohio State 3 to 1 at Greencastle yesterday.

The Wheeling papers give the Singles a great send off on their initial appearance for the season. Thursday. Comments such as follows:

Sagatar—The general verdict was that the team has the strongest ball team in the city. Coy and Foy are pitching of Coffey and Cogswell will help some. Coy is in fine form and showed in a difficult game he seemed to be an impossible shaker. Foy showed up well in left field.

The Hazelwood Herald had a lucky rather of a goop to his credit that pitcher Coffey of a bingle.

Intelligencer—When Cogswell drew the ball to Connors in the first inning it was a pretty piece of ball playing.

Sinnagler showed what he is made of when in the game yesterday he stuck to the bag and held down the fort. He did it in such a manner as to keep a man on third from scoring.

Coffey made a grandstand catch of a hard one which brought down the house. Coffey's pitching was good and when he reached the grandstand at the close of the inning.

The team is surely a pennant winner if the city ever had one.

Ed Connors, the Wheeling Manager and pitcher, is a couple of good wins in Osborne and Donohue, and the Sallies have been strengthened by their acquisition. The team is playing ball and they are bound to be behind their record of the past two years.

Springfield dropped at Wheeling, possibly in sympathy with the New York, but Evansville has the champion hard luck story of the day. Tied South Bend.

WHEN GANZEL IS RELEASED

There will be handsome in fandom, when Ganzel is released by the Giants, will rather date Vallombrosa.

Make the welkin ring for Jack Ganzel, the Giants' first baseman, who is a great hit in Boston and Brooklyn and gets a handsome bunch when Jack Dwyer is released.

When Clark Griffith gave that cheer to Ganzel when he released him he knew what he was about.

Marks other United league teams will be signed before it is all over. The Highland Park team is a good one and yet may that club prosper when Jack Ganzel is released.

IMPORTED IRISH TERRIER IS WINNER AT VARIOUS AMERICAN SHOWS.

A SCOTT PICKERED METORIAN

Historian is acknowledged to be one of the best Irish terriers seen in the show ring. He was imported by Jerome Scott McCosh, of Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., prior to the New York show, and has won everything he has entered before him, and here on his English reputation, where he had won over 30 firsts and specials. With his advent Mr. Cochran, of Yonkers, imported Sinistaire's rival champion, Knaphil Tip. The last named beat his rival at the Pittsburg and Buffalo shows, but at Brooklyn, which followed, with Mr. Singleton judging, Sinistaire was placed over his rival. In appearance he is a sound, sturdy dog, well knit, and possessing a hard biting, punishing face.
