GRANTITES HIT HARD

NINE BINGLES YIELD A TOTAL OF 19 BASES.

RICHARDSON IS THE STAR

South Bend Wins Game From Canton By Score of 5 to 3—Contest Is Spectacular—Pfiess Gets a Triple.

The Tribune's Special Service.

Canton, O., Aug. 24.—South Bend got on batting tops and by hitting the ball when men were on the bases and when hits were good for runs Canton was defeated by a score of 5 to 3. The game was spectacular, the work of the Grantites especially being such as to open the eyes of the rooters.

The main "goose" of the day was big Richardson, who made John Henry Myers, the local shift artist look like a babe, three hits during the South bend catcher a total of five bases. Little Pfiess was another star of the game. The former Cotton Stoins leaguer hit for a triple and a single, bunted down two sacrifices and pulled in two flies in right field.

The Canton team was shaken up by Hendricks' attack in right field in the opening inning. He was sent to second when "Goat" Anderson showed Myers and Soaks how to place the bunt for a sacrifice. Richardson then made a hard drive to center with a two-bagger to right center.

Fariss had the synecquer in the third and his single put the Cantonites on the air whip. When they recovered from the effects of Richardson's hit in second and Myers had hooked Coulter' fly. This made matters easy and when Richardson secured his single two more runs went over the plate.

Richardson's home run in the fifth, the run on his fifth for it was his second single, which moved Anderson after the latter had singled "Sticky" hit was to the fence. The last run came in the eighth and was due to a pass to Richardson, a sacrifice and Anderson's single.

Canton scored one run in the third inning. Osborne hitting the ball over the right field fence for a homer. Another run was made in the fifth, when Myers reached first, Anderson reached the base line, the latter getting to third and scoring when Sager bunted Hopke's grounder. Score:

Caught Between Innings.

Richardson certainly can hit hard. Moffit is due to work against Alberta to-day.

Pfiess seems to be one of the finds of the season.

Fariss played a great game at short for the locals.

A double header will be played this afternoon or tomorrow.

Six putouts in center shows that Anderson was not a wall flower. Fox was also busy as he had four putouts in left field.

Fariss pitched good ball, although nine hits were made off his delivery. When Canton had men on bases "Sticky" steadied and worked hard.

GOOD FOR TERRE HAUTE.

Hottentots Have the Call on Wheeling Staples.

The Tribune's Special Service.

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 24.—Terre Haute defeated Wheeling yesterday by a score of 5 to 1. Wheeling can now win both of the remaining games and put the "Huts" will have the call on the singles, having won 11 of the 13 games played. This shows the Bricklayers of baseball, as Terre Haute is a tail-end team while Wheeling is at the head of the list. Wheeling should have outfielded the hosts yesterday but Smith ably supported by Andrews, held the hits well scattered. Score:

JACK CHESBRO AND HAL CHASE, TWO GREAT PLAYERS OF NEW YORK HIGHLANDERS

JACK CHESBRO. HAL CHASE.

These two star members of Charles Griffith's Highlanders are to the home rooters of the Gotham team, as they say, the highest and most powerful of a mythical all-stars American leagues team and it pitcher. Jack Chesbro of late years, has shown to the admiring public that he is still the "Spitball" on the Griffith staff. Although his end of his tennis Chase has revolutionized first base playing. His ground scoops stunts are constant revelations to the fans and the rivals.

WOLVERINES IN TRIPLE PLAY.

Grand Rapids Loses to Springfield in Hard Game.

The Tribune's Special Service.

Springfield, O., Aug. 24.—Yesterday's game was brilliant in the extreme. Hammond pitching great ball and receiving the best kind of support. Butler was not effective, but the brilliant plays of the Grand Rapids team pulled him out of several bad holes. In the third inning with two bases full the Indians have retired the side on a triple play, Butler to Carey to Barnes. The score was 4 to 6. Summary:

HEARD ON THE CIRCUIT.

Rumor and Comment Picked up in Central League.

Evansville fans feel that Manager Hraw will have done all that could be expected if he leads the team in the first division.

Miller, the little Wheeling southpaw, leads the pitchers of the league by a good margin, with Leadbloom, Christian, Smith, Freeman, Jones, Coy, Kennedy, Van Ande, Bliss, Ehman, Hammond, Hammond, Schafer and Wise in the order named.

"The Springfield News checks over alleged short-comings of President Carson, but says there are points which will probably induce his re-election," says the Grand Rapids Press. "Papers after the opinion how about the president not backing up the Cubs in the fight with Kokomo, disregarded the fact that the Indians must there would be some mighty poor games."

"Fortunately for the Grand Rapids team, Kokomo is a city of 30,000 and teams took a chance about the time and the hosts did not fall back into the second division, as Marion generally do with such a streak of losses as the Cubs had. The Cubs have proved that they are to be the second and first place in and wholly out of reach although it could only be gained by almost a straight string of wins. This is a better question than the fans expected in the spring and it takes—Grand Rapids Press.

YOST IS AN AUTHOR

GREAT MICHIGAN FOOTBALL GENERAL WRITES BOOK.

MUCH INTEREST IN GAME

Coming Gridiron Season to be Best in History, According to Ann Arbor Coach—Otto Hats a Publisher.

Knowing the woes of the average football coach and competing them with those which must beset "Hurry Up" Yost that he may turn out winning combinations as he has since making his debut at Michigan, the announcement that Yost has abandoned the responsibilities of authorship must be received with more or less of a shock. Such is the fact however, and better still, a former South Bend man, Otto H. Hane, is now publishing the literary effort of the great football coach. Hane by the way, is a graduate of the South Bend High school and of Michigan university. He is now in South Bend visiting his relatives and old friends.

"There are many literary aspirants who will sympathize with Yost in his flying tackle of literary fame. He knows how to dodge the hard literary tackle, don't you know?

"I have not used 'Hurry Up' methods in my book," said Yost when speaking about the publication.

"I have not used the 'Hurry Up' method in my book." said Yost. "I have pursued a course which might be compared to old style football coaching. I have been taking it slow and sure.

"My course the book is a football. That's my hobby. I'd rather turn out a winning team than count the money of Rockefeller—even if it belonged to me.

"I haven't written the book alone for the money. I have a hobby and I don't expect to lose anything. My intention is to see that a copy goes into every high and preparatory school in the country.

"My prospects for football this year are immense! The best ever!" says Yost.

"I have letters from the presidents of 16 universities, prep and high schools, asking me if I'd be willing to accompany coach.

"The tenor of each letter however, is that football has reached fancy heel in their respective localities and it is necessary for them to keep up with the times.

"Most of them ask for Yost graduates." he said with a silent broadening of the ever present smile. "And I have decided to go to the south and southwest. Football in those sections has been snapped up. You will find them all over the west and south, and their success last season spoke well for them.

"Yours, this year promising interest! And I believe it will mean more development because in most instances the schools are retaining the men who coached last year, insuring a continuation of the same system and discouraging the shifting of coaches. It certainly argues well to break records not only for the quality of foot ball shown, especially in the south and west, but also for the interest manifested by the public in the work of the teams."

After her source of aggravation to young Whitney in connection with the second race, Tungis ran in the 1:58 trotting pacing race Miss Medlin, on the list of winning stallions. Last winter when the Whitney stallions were sold, Harry Payne purchased Hamburg, the sire of Tungis, Medlin, Dolly and others. Tungis, Medlin, Dolly, leading stallion of the day, and Charmer Hanover bought him in for $11,000.
