VETS FINALLY WIN

DAYTON MANAGES TO BITE OFF HALF OF DOUBLE BILL.

HITS AND RUNS DIVIDED

Singles and Tallies Fall to Go Together in Either Contest—Martin Holds Vets to Four Safeties but Loses.

The Tribune's Special Service.

Dayton, O. Aug. 1.—The Vets managed to stop the South Bend team's habit of beating them every time by winning the first game of a double header here yesterday though the visitors came back and won the second game. The score of the first contest was 3 to 1 and of the second 4 to 6.

Kennedy, for the locals, and Martin, for the visitors, were the principal works in the opening game, which was a pitchers' battle and which was won by the Vets in spite of the fact that they were clearly outhit by the visiting Hoosiers. Wild Bill Kennedy kept the visitors' bats well anchored, however, while the locals were lucky enough to hatch the few they got and sandwiched in a three-bagger and a single.

Dayton got its run in Walker followed by Cora's triple save the Vets their first run and hits by Bailey and Kennedy scored the second. Martin's single in the third inning started him home with the only score of the visitors. The score:

The locals took kindly to Hale's endeavors in the second game, but at that the Vets outhit the Blackbirds and practically threw the game away on boots. Kenney was on the mound for the visitors and he was hit hard in the early part of the contest, but when he showed signs of weakening Grant shelved him and sent Williams out to take his place, which was a wise move.

The visitors practically won the game in the third inning, when every one of the noisy tenants faced Hale. Kesser was granted a life by virtue of O'Leary's error and Williams was hit by a pitcher as three for Bailey's product in succession were safe. Mahoney was punched with the ball, filling the sacks, and Hale passed Johnson, forcing in one run. Hayworth's single followed and Bush and Mahoney and Hoover were out, Grogan to Bailey, to Johnson in Hoover fled to Cora and Coffey tallied on the out and after Crutchfield's single Williams fell a victim to Grogan to Bailey, but Grogan muffed Williams' throw to Cora and the runners were safe. However, Kesser on his second appearance for the round rolled as easy one to Walker and was out at first ending the inning. Grogan's single in the eighth inning, six tallies and went after Hale and his gang again in the fifth, when three singles, a base on balls and a double counted for three more and clinched the contest.

The Veterans were beginning to find their batting eye in the third when they shoved over three runs. Grant's hook, two singles and a two-base hit by Bailey, Johnson and Walker, with the locals again round Kesser, the first two hitters bumping him for a double and single which resulted in a run and Grant pulled Roy out of the game and substituted Williams behind the bat and put the Vets down with nothing or a score after the sixth. HOME AGAIN TO-MORROW.

Locals Begin a Nine-Day Sojourn at Springbank.

Manager Grant and his bunch of players will be here to-morrow for a stay of nine days in your midst, and will endeavor to pull themselves out of the last hole during the sojourn at Springbrook. The Cantonese will be here for a series of three games, and it will play four games in three days, a double bill being dated for Saturday. On the preceding text of the Chinks an awful rain storm struck the city and the game was called off in the entire. It is highly probable that Rube Marquard, having won 13 games in a row, will try to make it 15 in one of the contests, and he is to be good form to-morrow. The locals will have a tough job winning both games.

Canton's visit will close with the game Sunday and Monday Teddy Pena and his Wheeling Stogies will arrive for a series of three games, the first one on the Champs. If the locals manage to take a fair proportion of games from the Chinks and Stogies there will be a good chance to pull out of the hole and finish second to the Cubs. The latter are just as bad as they ever were in the leading line and will furnish great enjoyment to the bugs.

Corcoran Deal Still Pending.

The deal by which Tommy Corcoran, recently released by the New York Giants, was to manage the Dayton team, is still up in the air. The Vet club is said to have been figuring with Bobby Lowe to take charge of the team.

DECISION TO BRITT

CALIFORNIAN DEFEATS NELSON IN 20 ROUNDS.

DANE LEADS IN ONLY TWO

Second and Seventh Periods Were in Battler's Favor—Jimmy Stranger at End Thet at Start.

Auditorium, San Francisco, Aug. 1.—Jimmy Britt, of San Francisco, gained the decision over Battling Nelson, of Hegewisch, Ill., at the end of 20 rounds of as fast and as pretty fighting as has been seen in San Francisco in many years. At no time was either man in danger of a knockout until near the end of the last round, when Britt's right and left swings and uppercuts which he landed on alter another at will on Nelson's face all but put the Dane down and out.

Nelson did the greater part of the leading from start to finish, but he was outdone by Britt in cleverness, and everything but gameness and ability to take punishment. Referee Welsh, after announcing his decision in favor of Britt, said it was close in only 20—the second and the seventh.

By his game fight Britt wiped out nearly the aspersions that some former battles had cast upon his name, and of that keeping away from his adversary in the chief part of his ring generalship. His defense showed up better than ever before and his accuracy with his rights and lefts proved his man almost at will and from the tap of the opening gong to the end of the last round there was no lack of stamina in his blows. If anything Nelson showed more of the effects of his five rounds than in the first, while in the last half of the fight Nelson's hitting powers obviously diminished.

Nelson Wild.

While Britt took no foolish chances, Nelson made a plaything out of the opportunities he gave him and those Britter had been able to land. Nelson disappointed many of his admirers by his wildness. In the last eight or 10 rounds he swung with right and left for the face scores of times, and missed by a good margin.

Britt made the following statement to the Associated Press after the fight last night:

"I have been going round two years chasing Nelson and he has been dodging and not making any cry as to the question of the defeated fighters. I bided my time and when I could fight my own fight and not one for the public I knew I could win. I knew I could not have gone a half round with him. I never drew a long breath. I am willing to meet any 133 pound man in the world."

Nelson was seen in his dressing room. He said:

"I have no excuses. Britt fought a good fight, but at that I think he won in the last round. I think I ate too much before the fight. I don't want the pace and but. I did my best."

"We have no complaint," said Nolan, the Dane's manager. "The decision was just. Nelson is a good loser."

Referee Welsh said after the fight he was required that 65 per cent should go to the fighters and 40 per cent to the club promoters, but after the fight it was learned that at the 11th hour the club promoters had agreed to give up an extra 10 per cent to Nelson and the Dane. This at the club cost with only 30 per cent. Of the fighter's money 65 per cent went to the winner and 35 per cent to the loser. There were in the neighborhood of $25,000 Approximately 10,000 people witnessed the fight.
