A yell, a wail and then a lament went out from the throats of 995 rooters at Springbrook park yesterday afternoon at 3:55 o'clock. It was the death knell of Umpire Allie Mauck, one time pitcher of Baltimore, now hailing from Providence, Ind. The cause of it all was Mauck's decision in calling Spangler out in the second inning when that "Dabe" rounded third and scored on Connors's hit to right. Markley told the umpire that the South Bender failed to touch the bag and he believed him. Hence South Bend was shy one run and one out nearer defeat.

For Mauck that decision brought all kinds of trouble and before the end of the week that czar of the diamond will in all probability take to the high bush and instead of drawing $150 per month will undoubtedly hoe potatoes down in some agricultural district. At least that is what will happen if he follows the advice thundered to him by Captain Tom News, of Evansville, and sarcastically repeated by Captain Angus Grant, of South Bend.

Grant Called Mauck.

Mauck had more trouble in the fourth and in fact in every inning of yesterday's farce. But in the fourth Grant gave him a call which was the blunt to his free, and caused him to find and put up the leather of the "Dabe" out of his game. This was too much for the spectators and for the second time Mauck heard the chant of a funeral march from the stand in the crowd and from the benchers to his right. The trouble of the fourth was occasioned by Mauck calling Bonner safe at first, when he was thrown out by two feet. With Grant out of the game Coffey went to second and Tim took to left. For two innings all was peaceful and quiet. In the ninth Mauck again forced himself into the fire, calling Bonner out because Anderson, who was not even in the game, told him that the "Newsboy" had cut second.

"Newsboys" Get Seven Runs.

When the contest finally ended Evansville had won by a score of 12 to 4, seven runs being made in the ninth inning, three of which were the result of errors. The visitors were caged and excepting for Grant's home run in the third and the batting of Willis was inoffensive. It was the first poor game played in the Central league this season, so forget it. INTEREST AT TERRE HAUTE.

Ladies Attend Ball Games in Large Numbers.

Special to The South Bend Tribune.

Terre Haute, Ind., May 14.—The Central league season is now about two weeks old and it is a little early to make anything like a reliable forecast of the future.

One thing is noticeable, and that is the Central, so far, is playing faster ball than the larger leagues, and in most, if not particulars, the attendance will be much larger than last season. Though the clubs have played only a round into form, they are keeping the score below the figures of the American association and National and American leagues, and the managers of each of the eight clubs express confidence. All claim that they have a chance for the pennant and the determination of the eight clubs and their managers indicate a spirited contest. While it is said that Marion, Evansville and Terre Haute have the strongest teams, the play, to date, shows that the clubs are evenly matched, and it is too early to take a guess from either of the other five without playing half the 154. The truth is that the season is young and it is early in the game. It is anybody's race to the finish.

There is nothing about the situation in Terre Haute discouraging. While the attendance has been below the three-opening weeks of last season, this is attributed to the cold weather and not to any falling off of interest in the game. The largest attendance yet this season of 1,500 and this was on a day when the weather was far from favorable either to the "fans" or the players. All along the attendance has remained near to the 1,000 mark but now that the weather has changed to a more suitable time these thousands will be expected at games opening a series, and no doubt the management will expect not less than 2,000 at each game. The ladies are taking an interest in the game, and they will not be content to sit quietly at their "fancy work" and wait for "ballies day" to see a game of ball.

Manager Wallace has put forth every effort to secure a pennant winning team and in this effort has brought together a string of husky men who can and will play ball. They are all confident on the streets as well as at the ball park, and are observant of the strict rules of the league regarding their habits. The citizens of Terre Haute who are admirers of the national game are becoming interested in the new league, during the two weeks it has been a reality, and will of better pride, they want Terre Haute to call winners. The team management, has won the favor of the highly respectable element of the city, and the conduct of the players, so far, has been satisfactory. Terre Haute will do her part. It has been barred since the end of the season of 1900 and she is only hoping that the other seven towns will be as loyal to their clubs and do as well in the way of rooting and substantial patronage.—MONT L. SARBIN.

LATE NEWS OF PUGILISTS.

George Gardner Wins Decision Over Marvin Hart at Louisville.

George Gardner has given the decision over Marvin Hart at the end of the 15th round in their fight at Louisville, Ky., last night. Hart at the end of the 12th claimed that his right hand had been broken and gave up the fight.

The decision said that Armstrong, of California, won on a foul in 3 rounds at 118 pounds at Sacramento, last night. The contest lasted three foul rounds, when Gardner, with a left hook to the jaw, put Armstrong out.

Tony Ansloff, of Chicago, was given the decision last night in a hotly contested 10 round bout with Jack Ryan, of Philadelphia, at Indianapolis. In the ninth, Jodie took the count of 9 in a fierce exchange of blows. "Jack" Cullen was given the decision over George Cole, of Chicago.

At Portland, Ore., last night Joe Gans, current light weight of Baltimore, Md., and Tom Tracey, of Portland, met in a contest which was scheduled for 20 rounds. In the middle of the ninth round Tracey's seconds threw up the sponge. Tracey was so much for Gans and after the fourth round there was never a doubt about the result.

ROUND TRIP ONE WAY.

How Railroad Agent Figured He Would Make Money.

Former Gov. Hogg of Texas isn't so absolutely as his "long-tow-and-lights" speech would indicate, but he never fails to add a rap at the railroads. Just before the last Democratic national convention, "Harry" Archer, passenger agent of the Kansas City Southern, offered a $5 round-trip rate to such Texans as wished to attend the convention, and Hogg, meeting Archer in the lobby of a hotel, jokingly referred to the low rate as an evidence of how much the railroads profited on the full three cent a mile rate for ordinary passengers.

"And I suppose you'll make money on this $5 for the round trip" said the big man.

"We certainly will, for we'll only carry you fellows one way," replied Archer.

"Our way?" exclaimed Hogg. "You advertise this as a round trip."

"That's true," replied Archer, "but we figure that about of the boys will don't blow out the gas when they get to Kansas City, will be run over by the trolley cars."
