EVANS' DEFEAT
ELIMINATES HIM
FROM GOLF RACE.E. P. Allis, III., Milwaukee, is Surprise of the Day at Chicago--Semi-Finals to be Played Today.

CHICAGO, July 25.—The western champion, Charles Evans, Jr., was defeated in the third round of the Western Golf association championship tournament Thursday by E. P. Allis, III., of Milwaukee. The elimination of Evans was the feature of the day's play in the third round at the Homewood Country club. The champion who was runner-up and medalist in the national championship last year, was defeated by the Wisconsin champion on the 2nd green, 4 and 3, chiefly on account of consistently better putting by Allis, who is comparatively a new man in tournament play.

Warren K. Wood of Homewood survived his match with Frazer Hale of Skokie, although the match went to 39 holes, Wood, getting a hard won victory after the third extra hole, Robert A. Gardner of Hinsdale, former national champion, defeated A. C. Perry of Calumet, 4 and 3. J. C. Ledue of Calumet defeated H. W. Lockett of Homewood, 1 up in 36 holes.

In the semi-finals Friday Allis will play Gardner and Wood will meet Ledue.

The defeat of Evans, while a well earned victory for Allis, who played par golf almost consistently, was a surprise to most of the followers of the championship. Allis was at the top of his game and playing championship golf while Evans seemed to be suffering from a lapse. Evans went to pieces in the early holes of the afternoon round, while Allis settled down and putted without a break. Allis' work on the greens was the best seen on a local link in years.

Webb Pitches Fair Ball But Has a Weakened Team to Help Him Hold Goat's Gang.

TERRE HAUTE, July 25.—The local team defeated Webb for the first time this year by batting hard and timely. The visitors presented a very crippled lineup, starting with Dehaven in left and Stremmel in right with Armstrong playing second. Later Armstrong went behind the bat and Dehaven to second. Shaw taking his regular position in left.

Ben Koehler got a watch on Boosters' day at Grand Rapids and then the following day the paper printed his picture and styled him "Greatest in Minors."

Pitcher Robert Clemons goes back to the Louisville A. A. team; Grand Rapids had to turn him loose, he was winning too many games.

No, that was no mistake. The man who won that game for Terre Haute was named Snadden, not Madden. We thought the same thing.

Joe Stanley, the Reaper manager, is having troubles of his own. About time he thinks he has a regular ball team to place in the field he thinks again and knows he hasn't. Some player is injured.

We noticed the other day that Eddie Wheeler, former leader of the South Bend team, is hitting the ball hard for Terre Haute. If our memory plays us right, Eddie is down in Beaumont, Tex. Seems there was another Wheeler named George in this league. So it's George who is doing it.

Jimmy Burke wants players and wants them badly. Jimmy is a good manager but it takes more than a bat boy and a glove with a hole in the center to win pennants.

Evansville dropped 13 games in a row. Then they picked on Joe Stanley's cripples and won one. We understand the bugs down there are predicting a pennant this season.

If you believe the A. A. team owners all had little ball players go to the Federal league.

Start a Batting Rally After Two Are Down and Send Over Five Runs on Blues.

KANSAS CITY, July 25.—Milwaukee struck a batting stride in the 11th inning today and aided by errors won a 10 to 5 game from Kansas City.

Kansas City got away to a three-run lead in the initial inning, but the visitors put across two runs in the next when Manager Clark hit for four bases with Jones on first. The game was even in the fifth when the visitors scored three and the locals two runs. It remained that way until the 11th.

With two out in the final inning Blackburne walked, Beall singled and Blackburne scored. Beall took second on an error. Jones doubled, scoring Beall. Clark walked. Woodruff was safe on Bretton's error, filling the bases. Jones scored on a passed ball. Hughes singled over second, scoring Clark and Woodruff.

Good Baseball is Being Played in Red Hot Race for News-Times Pennant—Clubs Evenly Matched.

Games Scheduled Saturday.

Singers vs. Dodgers at Singer park.

Ball Bands vs. Watch Co. at Springfield park.

Studebakers vs. S. B. Chilled Plov Co. at Berrien Springs.

It is no longer a question by the unattached fan as to which of the Factory league games scheduled is going to be the best, for the clubs now appear to be of equal strength and any one of the three games might prove a trifle better than the other. But the patrons are assured of good baseball being played. This is primarily the end toward which the managers of the several clubs have been working for and they have succeeded. However, not one of the club managers has lost sight of the main change to battle for and that is the championship and the News-Times pennant, which is emblematic thereof.

The race has assumed a status where it is no longer a club race, a situation which has been predicted by the writer for several weeks. Of course there is bound to be a top and bottom to the percentage column and that all six be in the lead at the same time. But the fact remains that all the clubs have strengthened to the extent that every contest scheduled from now on is sure to result in a ball game.

Clubs of Equal Strength.

Taking the results of the three games played last Saturday the scores of all the winning clubs were a prime base. The winners were one, two and three for the Dodgers, Watch Co., and Singers, respectively. This in itself would prove that all of the clubs were quite on even terms in comparative playing strength. Of course the club in the van is certain to have the better of the element of luck for if that didn't exist there would be no winning and losing clubs.

No better game has been played by any club in the Factory league than that played by the Watchmakers last Saturday, yet the Studebakers came away with the long end of the four to two score. Things just broke bad for the Watchmakers, getting hits when one and two men were out and unable to deliver when hits meant runs, thus wasting them. Such things are expected in baseball but it is discouraging to the fellows who are obliged to accept them.

Two Games Transferred.

There will be a considerable change from the original in Saturday's games, one of which is to be played on foreign grounds, the Studebakers and South Bend Chilled Plov Co. playing their game at Berrien Springs, while the Singer-Dodge contest, originally scheduled for Mishawaka, has been transferred to Singers. This gives the leaders another game on their home grounds which they did not expect, and gives them still further advantage in their fight for the pennant.

The Studebaker-South Bend Chilled Plov Co. game was transferred because the Studebaker club has its annual picnic at Berrien Springs on Saturday and they couldn't expect a better attraction in the baseball line than a league contest between the two teams. With the Plov Boys going as well as they have in their last two games it wouldn't be a big surprise to have the Plov Boys slip one over on Richards' crew and if they do it is quite certain that the pennant does not fly in Studebaker's back yard.

Chance to Tie Leaders.

As one Mishawaka club took the Singers into camp last Saturday, it is possible that the other Mishawaka club will duplicate. Should this come to pass and the Ball Bands and Studebakers win their games three clubs will be tied for first place. But the Plov Boys insist they will lose no more games this season and if they keep their promise all kinds of tangles can take place in the race.

Quite as certain are the Watchmakers of abstaining from further defeats and if they keep their promise the Ball Bands, whom they oppose at Springfield this afternoon, will get a chance to creep up on the leaders. The Ball Bands and rosters plan their hope on pitcher Davis, who has not lost a game this season and the result will be known Saturday evening unless the weather man interferes.

JACK O'CONNOR IS SUED

McNulty Wants $35,000 For Punch in the Jaw.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 25.—Umpire "Jack" McNulty Thursday brought suit against the Federal league baseball club of St. Louis and Manager "Jack" O'Connor for $35,000 damages because of a punch in the face O'Connor gave him on the grounds of the club on June 28, last. McNulty alleges that because of his injuries he no longer will be able to earn a living as a baseball umpire.

When the attempted double steal. When the shower interrupted play Boston had a runner on third with only one out.

RAIN STOPS ONLY GAME

BOSTON, July 25.—The contest between Cincinnati and Boston, the only major league game started in the country Thursday, was halted by rain in the last half of the first inning. Cincinnati had scored one run in its half of the first on a base on balls, a single and an error by Rariden on an attempted double steal. When the shower interrupted play Boston had a runner on third with only one out.

ANOTHER SHIFT ON IN THE BIG LEAGUES TODAY

Sox Look to be the Best Bet for the West—Giants Must be Stopped This Trip or They'll Win Sure.

Big league battle grounds shift once more today. Again the east invades the west in the National league while the western teams in the American league will tackle the teams in the east.

Some weeks ago when Connie Mack, Jake Stahl (baseballically speaking), Frank Chance and Clarke Griffith were traveling westward to tackle the teams in this section of the country, it was remarked in these columns that it was up to the western teams to stop the advance of the eastern aggregation.

A few of the western teams did brace and handed a few to the invaders from that elite section, commencing with the Oakland Athletics, who spent a few sleepless nights while in our adjacent territory.

Cleveland handed him a few to start with and then Detroit did go and do likewise. Chicago with the exception of Chappell and the other bright stars who joined the team since the first play-ball whistle was blown last spring, handed Cornelius another round. St. Louis played part of that old refrain, "Everybody's Doing It."

The Mackmen are now a few points lower than they were when they left home. New York and Boston did not fare any better in the west.

Senators Go Good.

Only one team, those Washington Senators, did anything like adding to what they had. They defeated most of the teams in the west and went back home fortified stronger in their position than they were when they left their own sweet home.

Now the eastern teams are back on their own lots. The Mackmen pitchers have been worked about as hard as they can be worked. Griffith is now beginning to look dangerous. With Boehling going as he is and then with Walter Johnson to come in and save the games, those Senators are looking dangerous. The team is playing good ball and those Athletics should worry.

Cleveland is not playing any too strong a game. Despite the difference in their positions, the Sox looked to be about the strongest proposition the west has to offer in the way of possible pennant contenders. Callahan has his men going good. Chase and Chappell are two strong additions and the only thing that is holding those Sox back is that Ed Walsh is not himself this year.

Walsh Is Missed.

Had Walsh been in the game all the season those Sox would be about to the top that the Mackmen would be hanging on by a strange hold. Walsh was left at home when the Sox could be counted on as being about as dangerous as any team in the National league and it's up to the western teams to stop those leaders, the Giants. Philadelphia is not out of it by any means, but they are not as dangerous as the Giants.

Pittsburgh had a chance to stop the Giants but they failed in all three attempts. Had the Pirates managed to take at least two games, the fans in the west would have brighter prospects.

Chicago and Pittsburgh are the only teams that look strong enough to halt the Pirates. St. Louis has a bunch of cripples and not much can be expected of them. Cincinnati is not playing too fast a game and are down in the cellar, below the Cardinals.

One Game Started.

So general was the rain in major league territory Thursday that no attempts were made to start games in New York, Brooklyn and Philadelphia, while in Boston the Braves and the Reds had played less than an inning when the downpour came. It was the last day of the current series in each city and in consequence double headers are likely to be arranged for, to be played during the next eastern invasion of the western contingent.

Pittsburgh had to leave New York without a single victory, the Giants having taken three straight. In Boston, Cincinnati took two out of three, while Chicago had to be content with one in three in Philadelphia. Brooklyn and St. Louis divided the two games played in the former city.

The eastern clubs in the National are on their way west Thursday night but only one game—Philadelphia at Pittsburgh—is scheduled for Friday. In the American league Chicago will open in Boston, Cleveland in New York, St. Louis in Washington and Detroit in Philadelphia.

BLOUNT MAY JOIN
THE FEDERAL LEAGUE

Curley, Former Wayne, Thinking of Offer Made Him by Pittsburgh Team.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 25.—While all the other ball players are scouting around for jobs since being given their freedom, Manager Blount is coolly adding the finishing touches to the local scenery and signing for telegrams from clubs anxious to land his services. Blount is not worrying about his baseball future. He prefers to close the 1913 season as it should be closed.

This morning Blount stated that he liked the offer received last night from the Pittsburgh club of the out-law organization and would probably grab it unless another better one was received. When Blount reached Youngstown from Erie Sunday night there were eight messages awaiting him.

Blount is inclined to complete the season with a club that will make him a free agent at the close of the season. He has already been approached indirectly regarding the taking of the management of the Steelmen next season, and if possible he would like to again take the local club.

Former Sox is Listed as a Good But Rather Erratic Pitcher.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 25.—George Kaiserling, pitcher of the Indianapolis American association club, has been sold to the San Francisco Pacific Coast league team, according to a telegram received from Manager Mike Kelley, who is in Chicago seeking new players for the local team. Kaiserling is a good but erratic pitcher.

Kelley also announced the purchase of George Norton, a young left hander, from the Hastings club of the Nebraska State league. Norton has been the sensation in the Nebraska league all season, although it is his first professional ball. He will report to the Indians August 13.
