Dayton, Toledo City, and the Omaha club, of the Western league secured him from Steve City in order to exchange him for Anderson.

Pitcher Kent, Dayton manager, and Bert Dennis, Fort Wayne secretary, are in the city.

ASHHURST MYSTERY IS STILL UNSOLVED

Disappearance of Philadelphia Postmaster Attracting Attention.

By Associated Press.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 6.—The mystery regarding the disappearance of Richard A. Ashhurst, postmaster of Philadelphia, in Atlantic City, a week ago, remained unsolved. A heavy snow wind made the surf rough to-day and prevented those interesting the search for the missing man in continue dragging about the piling of the Atlantic City Million Dollar pier, where he was last seen.

The finding of Mr. Ashhurst's cane on the pier Saturday night has confirmed the belief of Atlantic City that he was drowned.

Friends of the missing man in Philadelphia have advanced the theory that he may have been robbed and thrown overboard as he usually carried considerable money with him.

JOSEPH H. HIBBERD DIES AT 84 YEARS

LIVED IN ST. JOSEPH COUNTY 40 YEARS.

Followed Life of Adventure During Young Manhood—Sailed as Whaleman—Is California Pioneer.

Joseph H. Hibberd, father of Senator John A. Hibberd, and one of the best esteemed citizens of South Bend, died last evening at 6 o'clock at the home of his son, 519 West Washington avenue. He was 84 years old and was well known among South Bend's oldest citizens. He died from general debility, made acute by a stroke of apoplexy during the day.

Mr. Hibberd is survived by his son Senator Hibberd, and a daughter, Mrs. Fred Hill, of Owego, N. Y. Four grandsons also survive, Helen L. and Marjorie, daughters of Senator Hibberd, and Carl L. and Harriet H., children of the late Charles H. Hibberd, who died in Los Angeles, Cal., some years. Arrangements for the funeral are in charge of Rev. Charles A. Decker, of the First Baptist church officiating.

Mr. Hibberd was a native of Onondaga, N. Y., where he was born of Ezra and Charlotte Hibberd. His father died when he was a boy and his mother Cora, and his mother was born in Saratoga, N. Y., May 11, 1789. Mr. Hibberd's boyhood was spent on a farm and when 18 years old, he shipped at New London, Conn., for a sea voyage.

For three years, Mr. Hibberd sailed the seas, and made several whaling voyages, filled with excitement and danger. He sailed the Pacific ocean and the Behring sea and made a trip around the Horn. He left the sea in 1849 with a party of 49 for the land of California, in 1852, attracted by the discovery of gold. He spent two years there and returned to his home in New York, where he lived for a few months and then he made the trip west, overland. The accidental drowning of his brother in the Tuba river influenced him to return home.

He filed for a time with his parents managing their farm near Syracuse, N. Y., and then he married Miss Ruth Helen A. Baldwin. He removed to Madison county, New York in 1865 and two years later came to South Bend.

Mrs. Hibberd died Jan. 1, 1901 and Mr. Hibberd has lived in South Bend since that time. In 1888 Mr. Hibberd purchased the property at Washington avenue and Chapel street, where the residence of Joseph D. Oliver now stands. In 1895 he erected the home at 519 West Washington avenue, he occupied until his death.

Mr. Hibberd was a republican of the abolitionist type and for 33 years had been a member of the First Baptist church, of South Bend.

Thieves desiring to telephone society, entered the home of Mrs. Ed. Ellis, 1 Jones street, and cut the telephone cord. Mrs. Ellis is home to telephone news early in the day.

SLEET STORM MAY FOLLOW BLIZZARD?

and made little progress against the drifts.

No Service to West End.

As the snow drifted deeper on east and west streets, no service to the West End street car line was possible for many hours. Service on the Washington, Jefferson and Mishawaka avenue cars on the Chapin and Sample routes only ran at infrequent intervals.

The downtown section presented an unusual sight, business being tied up. Theaters had closed and the crowds around the theaters in search of places waiting for an opportunity to go home. Fabulous prices were offered for wheelerg convenience, but affered to take any one who was willing to take any one who was willing to take any one who was willing
