The Tribune's Special Service.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 18.—South Bend quit Grand Rapids for night with an even break, yesterday's game being a victory for the cripples by a score of 5 to 2. Both teams put up fast fielding and save the pitchers excellent support. Purrell, however, was an easy proposition for Grant's batters and the 12 hits made during the bombardment, together with several passes, made matters easy for the visitors.

Moffit, like Purrell, was wild and one of his foot shots all but caused fatal results, left fielder Johnnie Bufka being hit in the back of the neck and rendered unconscious. He was carried from the diamond and sent to his home in an ambulance. Doctors to-day state that Bufka is suffering with concussion of the brain, but that his condition is not serious.

South Bend outfied Purrell off his feet at the very start of the game and Coffey and Grant took first on passes.

South Bend Sees the Ball.

Sager hit safely and sent Coffey home with the first tally, Sager himself scored, "Buck" Connors drew a long single to right scoring the second run. Fast fielding kept the visitors from again scoring until the sixth when Connors made a long drive worth a two bagger. Connors walked, Smith struck out and Tieman was fielded out. Then following two long singles by Moffit and Coffey and Grant's error.

Connor's three bagger, followed by Moffit's single in the eighth gave the "Cripples" another run. In the sixth the South Benders had a regular attack of the "Grand Rapids" expense. Grant and Sager each hit safe, Schafer went out on attempting to bunt, Sprague made a single, Connors drew a base on balls and Smith scored when Tieman made a single which brought in a run. Tieman stole a safe hit and Moffit was fielded out with three runs over the plate.

Sore Makes Home Run.

The inside hits were scattered. Pete Burg knocked a home run in the "Grand Rapids" sixth and Sore hit safe in the sixth a base on balls to Burg, followed by hits by Morrissey and Geyer netted the other run. The score was:

CHANGES IN CENTRAL LEAGUE.

Fans Surprised to Learn of Release of Cross and Goodwin.

Several important changes which are now being made in the Central league playing staff will eventually place the Central at the head of all class B leagues in the country. The directors have placed the organization on a sound financial basis and every effort is now being made to place all teams on an equal playing standard.

Already steps have been taken to strengthen the Evansville, Dayton and Grand Rapids teams and the magnates interested in those clubs claim that within the next few days the three said and clubs will be playing just as first ball as Fort Wayne, South Bend and Terre Haute.

Probably the greatest surprise of the season for the Central league fans was the release Thursday of Catcher Cross and Pitcher Goodwin by Evansville. These men were regarded as stars all last year in circuit and why they should be let out by Manager Berryhill is a mystery that the "crusade" are trying to solve.

Last year Cross led the catchers of the Central league in fielding and also in batting. It was for this reason that Angus Grant, the best judge of players in the Central league, tried to sign him for Sioux City. Goodwin, one of the best pitchers in the league, is especially remembered as he will have to struggle in landing a job in either the Western or Three I leagues. Cross will remain in the Central, having already signed a contract with Manager Sandgren on the circuit. He wants to come to South Bend and it is not improbable that he will be given a berth with the Wagonmakers in view of the fact that the team is in a crippled condition.

The sudden brake taken by the Dayton team is pleasing to baseball enthusiasts all over the league. On their last trip through the Central, Manager Morrison the "old soldier" won on and off the field and this despite the fact that the team tried out not less than 42 men and spent several hundred dollars in transportation. The Gems lost that started the season, all having cut by Catcher Hawkins, Second Baseman Austin and Outfielder Foy and Pitcher Kennedy. Since "Dab" Knoll has taken charge of the club the path of the team has been a flowery one and the Gems have not yet been chalked up on the records.

The passing of the Grand Rapids team to the management of Jack Grim who and Sadler (Scanlon) has had a tremendous effect on the fans of the Furniture city and it will not be surprising to see the Wolverines begin a climb towards the top of the ladder. Butterick, the top first baseman, has been released and attachment proceedings against the Grand Rapids club some time—no cause of non-payment of salary and which move led to the change in the management—will be dropped by Butterick taking his place on the sacks.

Under the management of Jack Grim the Peoria team is at last promising to be a pennant winning possibility. Pitcher Fox, who left the Wolverines to South Bend and Fort Wayne to not nothing of seven out of eight taken from Grand Rapids. The Peoria bunch is an aggregation which knows the game from A to Z and Grim is a champion batting to hitting the ball that the "Distillers" do not work. In Grim, Cooley, Roland and McGrew, Peoria has an infield that is as strong as any on the circuit.

NEWS OF THE CENTRAL LEAGUE

Gossip of Players and Clubs Well Known to Local Fans.

Jacobs, released by Evansville has not signed with the "Old Soldiers," but has sent a 10-day leg bone to Peoria in Illinois to play with an independent team.

The Peoria Journal has coined a new name for the Fort Wayne team. The "Champs" are called the "Madmen."

Grand Rapids—Cross has not been enjoy on the pig-chewing game. The idea at Terre Haute says: "The Dayton players not only play well, but are well behaved off the field and at bat. They are not such a bunch of kickers as some of the Three I and Central Sandgren and Wheeling teams."

Manager Jack Grim, of the Peoria team has schedulled that he would attake up his batting order as his team is now batting .300.

When it comes to first base running and taking advantage of every hit made and of all the mistakes of opposing teams, Fort Wayne is certainly the team to beat. Manager Berryhill's stress on this line and the fact that games are won on comparatively few hits is due to the excellent coaching bestowed into the men by Dode Myers.—Fort Wayne Journal.
