BRONCS WIN THIRD GAME WITH NOTRE DAME IN 11 INNINGS

'VARSITY LOSES TO BRONCS AGAIN

SMITH'S MEN LEAD COLLEGIANS IN SERIES.

NOTRE DAME BESTED, 4-3

Leaguers Forced to 11-Inning Struggle to Defeat Gold and Blue Nine —Buzz Wetzel Stars for Benders.

Two victories and a tie game in three meetings with the Notre Dame baseball club is the record set by the South Bend Bronchos this season. Heretofore the collegians have invariably bested the leaguers in their exhibition games because of their superior condition, gained by a month of gymnasium play before the professional players even begin to loosen up. It required 11 innings for the Bronco to capture yesterday's game at Notre Dame, but Summers' wildness finally enabled them to cop the third of the five-game series, 4 to 3.

Three relievers were on the mound for the Benders. Moffit, Myers and Richards performing for Manager Smith's squad, while "Mike" Summers was seen in the role of barber throughout. Lee Fenner, Notre Dame, Capt. Connolly, "Mike" Sullivan as umpire, officiated in good form. Notre Dame, despite the Bronchos pitchers work, like Indians in relire his club mates. In the 11th the gold and blue nine nearly won out when he called a ball which traveled over the plate, Summers then ran home plate to the far corner in foul territory fair. From his position behind Coy pitching mound a mistake in judgment was possible, however.

Buzz Wetzel Stars.

Buzz Wetzel livened up the struggle somewhat by putting up a stellar game as relief. Buzz did not have an easy time of it, however, for the Irish which took a rather nasty beaned. He nabbed three toward the left with one hand, and had a double play started in the fourth, but Ben Koehler lost the ball as he started to make the throw to first.

The Broncos grabbed the lead in the first inning, and were never headed, although Notre Dame evened it up in the ninth, and necessitated two more innings. The Bronco forged to the front in the 11th on a hit, an acceptance of a bingle, Summers walking three in this session. Koehler opened with a present of the first sack, Geier followed with a duplicate, and Kroy advancing a sacrifice, Koehler was forced out, Wetzel pulled a fast one, Geier followed Ben to tally, Wetzel placing the ball perfectly for that sort of a play.

In their half the collegians threatened. With two gone O'Connell reached first on his doubtful hit along the third base line, Geier fielding it hard to left, and Summers drove out over Phil Geier's head. The dandy little gardener turned and raced with the ball, and succeeded in pulling it down with a leap into the air.

MONGULS OF THREE I LEAGUE IN TURMOIL

Quincy Club Secures Injunction Against Organization.

CHICAGO, April 18—Instructed to fight the injunction obtained yesterday by the Quincy baseball club against the Three-I league, which enjoins the league from adopting a schedule or forming a circuit of which Quincy is not a member, President Al Tearney, accompanied by his secretary, left last night for Springfield where he will attempt to get an immediate hearing of the case. Representatives of the Quincy club obtained the injunction from a Springfield circuit court. When the league meeting ostensibly called for the purpose of adopting a schedule for the 1911 season was brought to order, a deputy sheriff appeared and served the writ. Affrayed the club owners engaged in a stormy session.

Club owners in the southern division of the league who have been aiding the Quincy club in its efforts to secure a franchise, held a conference here last night with Tearney and others and decided to stand with Quincy. They declared that they would nail up their ball parks before playing in a circuit in which Quincy is not a member. Representatives of the northern division of the league were unable to determine what action they would take, they would play exhibition games among themselves before agreeing to a 18-ish league.

TRIAL FLIGHTS OF AEROPLANES HERE

AVIATION COMPANY BUILDS MACHINE FOR SOUTH BEND.

May Make Headquarters This City—Expect to Make Preliminary Spins in This Vicinity—Plans.

Open country in the vicinity of South Bend will soon be the scene of trial flights of flying machines, according to announcement of the McClellan Aviation company, which is now turning out the latest improved model of biplane at the South Bend Chandelier company. Three more aeroplanes of similar design will be built by the company, which plans to make its headquarters in South Bend or Elkhart. The machine now being built will be ready for inspection within a week, officials of the company stated to-day.

The aviation company has been organized for the purpose of showing aeroplanes in action in this section of the country where they have not been seen heretofore. Its plans are to exhibit at county fairs, at the Elkhart meets, including race, height contest, petition flights, and the like, according to the desire of the county officials desiring flying machine exhibitions.

When the first aeroplane is turned out of the factory, which will be ready in or out for several days before a flight will be attempted, the preliminary trials being necessary to balance the machine. Work on the aeroplane has been progressing unknown to the general public for several weeks.

The officers of the company are: R. C. McClellan, president; H. L. Williams, vice-president; N. K. Miller, secretary and treasurer. Mr. McClellan is the old balloonist, who set a record for long distance flight from Spokane, Wash., to Idaho. Mr. Miller, who was formerly connected with the Buckeye chandelier of Elkhart, announced the intention of the company to limit its scope to this section of the country, although requests for exhibitions have been received from as far west as Montana.

William McGreanor has charge of the construction of the machine. He will be joined in the near future by a team-mate from Spokane.

OPEN AUTOMOBILE CLASS.

Sixteen Students Enrolled to Take Course—Work Outlined.

An automobile class was opened at the Y. M. C. A. last night. Sixteen students have registered including men from Niles and Warsaw. M. L. Williams, manager of the Twentieth Century garage, is instructor of the class, and outlined the course to be followed in the nine weeks' course. It was decided to meet each Tuesday and Thursday at 7:30 o'clock.

All lectures on the automobile will be given at the Y. M. C. A. Shop work will be given at the Twentieth Century garage. In the novice practice in driving a machine will be given the students, Saturday afternoon being set for the date of this part of the training.

Among the various exercise to take place in the class course are seven machines, a High school student, desiring to learn to drive a car, and drivers wishing to learn the mechanical work.

The Junior Cube defeated the Spalding Juniors yesterday afternoon by the score of 13 to 3.

CIRCUIT SPARKS.

Ed Somerlott, the first sacker recently released by Grand Rapids, has signed to play first base for Holland in the Michigan State league and manage the team, according to an announcement made by Jim Saturday, the Holland manager. Somerlott, however, and what his future in the Michigan State is uncertain.

Owner Varnell and Manager Casey, of Fort Wayne, are reported to have been surprised by the work of a first baseman, Carl Ball, who was a regular nine name until Lucy land the initial sacker, who can not be from as he left, landed. McLafferty, the big first sacker secured from a Michigan league, is said to be a classy fielder and a hard hitter. Ball, it is said, says he can play a better shortstop than Justice, and it is probable he will be kept as a utility man.

Casey is looking better to Hilltop Jess every day as he rounds into shape. The Wayne manager copped two games from the Hilltop last week, other day, besides stealing a bag.

Springfield baseball fans are hoping to land in the Central league again. They believe a change in the league is the only thing necessary to give them a chance for the Buckeye town to slip into the breach.

Joe Bailey is registering, for it is almost certain Joe Connolly will be with his club this season. He has been shipped transportation and is expected in this week.

FORBES WINS BY KNOCKOUT ROUTE

EX-CHAMPION WINS OVER BRITT IN 20 SECONDS.

EMPIRE HAS FINE CARD

Athletic Club Stages Good Bouts—Matchmaker Mahers is Praised —Preliminaries Prove to be of High Class.

Harry Forbes, ex-bantamweight champion of the world, took one more stride toward the center of the stage in the bantam division last night, when after 20 seconds of fast fighting he knocked out Tommy Britt, of Schenectady, N. Y., one of the best little boys in the east, at the Auditorium theater. Too bout was scheduled to go 20 rounds at 116 pounds. The bout was under the auspices of the Empire Athletic club.

As the gong tapped for the opening of the first round the boys met in exchange of blows at once, Forbes jabbing his left to the face. They clinched, fighting hard, with neither having any apparent advantage. They broke from the clinch and Forbes fell into a fast and was counted out by Referee Sanitry. Forbes was down for more than 10 seconds, if proper several moments' work to bring the little easterner around. Harry's right traveled scarcely more than a foot.

Forbes, in the ring last night's fight is one ring champion who can "come back," and is probable he will now be matched with Johnny Coulon, the bantam champion, with a match was promised to the winner of Tuesday's bout. Britt said he would like to fight Coulon, and a good showing with Harry he would relire from the game, as he was in his last fight. Adding, however, he would probably take another swing at the game if he was got away with a lucky punch.

Takes No Chances.

Forbes, however, after the bout, "Jimmy's a tough boy, so I couldn't take any chances with him." Tom was the holder started after his man from the first round, but Forbes showed the warmest which characterized his fight last night. Forbes, in the first round, meets, including race, height contest petition flights, and the like, according to the desire of the county officials desiring flying machine exhibitions.

even break. Joe did not appear to be as good shape as Morse, and when the boys next meet, one of the best scraps ever witnessed in South Bend will be on.

Given the preliminary with boys from South Bend and Mishawaka in the ring proved highly entertaining. Doc Decker, a local boy, and Ray Bechtel, of Mishawaka, furnishing the main go of their bout. Bechtel secured a big lead in the early rounds, but Decker came back in the concluding rounds to a draw.

Boys Settle Grudge.

Two local boys appeared in a rough-trailer to settle a grudge, and it took just one round for Kid Blaze to convince Referee Sanitry that Kid Perry was the better boxer. Blaze showed Perry down twice in their short two-minute session, and the referee was so grieved at the close of the round Sanitry stopped the bout.

M'FARLAND WINNER.

Former South Bend Boy Has no Trouble With Tommy Murphy.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Packey McFarland, formerly of South Bend, the fast Chicago lightweight, outboxed and out-fought Tommy Murphy, of Brooklyn, in their 10-round bout here before the Fairmont Athletic club last night. But one round, the second, was conceded to be Murphy's, the Chicago boxer having the shade in the other nine. McFarland loved with Murphy who was tired, the latter part of the fight.

The day round gave indications of a good fight. Each opened with energy and the round ended honors even. In the second Murphy brought the crowd to its feet with a terrific uppercut left to the wind, staggering McFarland to the ropes. But Murphy's lead was short lived McFarland came back with a smile, and then began to show Murphy he had a little on the Brooklyn boxer. Suddenly, quickly, Murphy was upset, and the award of the clever boy from the stockyards.

McFarland did the leading throughout the fight and gave an exhibition of boxing that pleased the fans, who brought rounds of applause from the big crowd. In the fifth he began to force the fighting in earnest. With a right and left jab to the face he sent Murphy to the ropes and followed his advantage with another done of the same medicine. Murphy attempted to break through McFarland's guard, but was unable to reach him.

Through the remaining rounds, McFarland forced Murphy hard, landing stinging rights and lefts.

PAIDLE IN ELKHART.

South Bend Councilman May Start a Saloon There.

It is stated that Councilman Joseph A. Paidle, of this city, is interested in the securing of a license for a saloon in Elkhart. Councilman Paidle, it will be remembered, is one of the "four five" in the South Bend council who recently refused to vote to license the city license. Probably he will be regarded as thoroughly sincere in his stand against saloons in South Bend, but it is understood that it costs $125 to run a saloon in that city. If Paidle is after a license he may be turned down unless he has a strong backer in Elkhart. It is said that a number of saloons in Elkhart city is limited to 22. The published list of those who will apply for license at the May term of the county commissioners court, which is the only place where all of these will be granted a license. The number is too more than the limit allowed in Elkhart city. It is certain at least two applicants will be unable to secure licenses.

Not only this but the commissioners will cut down the number of saloon privileges in future years. If more people who may apply in the future. It seems, therefore, that unless Paidle has a pull in Elkhart he will be unable to accomplish what it is said he desires.

"SHERIFF" CORE.

"Sheriff" Core, "Lefty's" build would certainly qualify him for the job of running down criminals—or moonshiners—and if heredity has anything to do with it, he will make a good sheriff. But heredity doesn't seem to have much in common with Lefty and the sheriff business in this case, as the big outfielder's pride of his attempt to aid his father, who lives a West Virginia sheriff, to capture a moonshiner, ended in failure. The boy was sent up, down, or somewhere in the mountains, and located a shack or some sort wherein the moonshiners were supposed to be located. "You come out of that shack with your hands out, about," ordered Sheriff Core. When the moonshiners appeared at the door as anticipated, Sheriff Core's son did shoot—around the corner. Lefty had a good work-out that night with the whisky kids chasing him through the woods.
