THINGS TALKED ABOUT BY WOMEN

Canned Broccoli.
To can asparagus or cauliflower and retain their natural color, flavor, and form: Wash and pick over the berries carefully, leaving them, into the cans. As you do so do not handle them but once. Fill the cans full, then shake them gently and fill up again. Put on the rubbers. Make a syrup of one-half pint of hot water and one teaspoonful of sugar to each quart of fruit, but bring to a boil and pour the hot syrup over the berries. Put the cans into a dripping pan and pour in the hot water. Put the cans into a dripping pan and pour in the hot water. Put the cans into a dripping pan and pour in the hot water.

Prepared Broccoli.
Boiled heads, firm berries and stalks to be used when the berries are a medium size. Boiled heads, firm berries and stalks to be used when the berries are a medium size. Boiled heads, firm berries and stalks to be used when the berries are a medium size.

Raspberry Cream.
One quart of black raspberries, washed and picked over, put in a quart of water and boil for one hour. Strain the berries through a fine sieve and add one quart of cream. Beat the cream with a wire whisk and add the raspberry juice. Beat the cream with a wire whisk and add the raspberry juice.

She Got What She Wanted.
This Woman Had to Insist
Chicago, Ill.—I suffered from a terrible headache and stomach trouble for several years. I tried everything but nothing helped. I was told to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I bought a box and took it. In a few days I felt better. In a few weeks I was completely cured. I can now eat and sleep as well as I ever did. I am so glad I found this medicine. I can now eat and sleep as well as I ever did. I am so glad I found this medicine.

BOATING RACE FAILS TO DRAW

AMERICAN COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION

For Single Employees at Hudson

Although considerable rain fell Sunday afternoon, there was not sufficient to dampen the spirit of the Hudson River Boat Race, which was held on the Hudson river.
