INFANTS TAKE GAME

GRANITES LOSE TO SPRINGFIELD BY CLOSE SCORE.

TELINDE ON THE MOUND

South Bend Giant Twirler Divides Pitching Honors With "Cy" Alberts Although Result is 3 to 2 Against Him.

Wallace Wheelock, umpire, played a very important role in yesterday's tragedy at Springbrook park and to him more than any other of the day, can be attributed the cause for South Bend's defeat by Springfield by a score of 3 to 1.

It was not the unfairness of the "umps", however, which plane him so prominently in the limelight of the local fandom, but on the other hand it was his zeal and his aim to carry out the instructions of the league president and thus prevent any pretense of disguise on the part of the players. The stroke, which sent the Granites to death was pulled in the third inning when Wheelock refused to argue with the managerial captain of the visitors. In the opening inning Hendricks was sent to the bench for his refusal to keep quiet on the decisions which he had no authority to go on. Two innings later he again essayed so coach, but was ordered to the bench. Walking to the plate he ordered batter Donahue out of the box and planted his foot on the rubber just as Telinde served up a straight one.

Hendricks Goes Out.

"That will just cost you five," Wheelock said to the Springfield player, "and off of the grounds you go also."

Wheelock was firm and Hendricks left the grounds.

The retirement of the Springfield team made necessary by placing of Dolliever in left and this man was responsible for the defeat of the Indiana. When he stepped into the game "Doc" Francis truthfully said, "Putting Jack out of the game and bringing in that youngster only strengthened the team."

The first time up in the fourth Dolliver hit to Johnson and took first in safety when the local man erred in throwing high to Connors. King Kelly sent him toward second with a slow one to Connors and he was retired, Johnson to Connors, Dolliver hit on Springfield's side of the score sheet and put Kelly on third. A flout to Anderson by Dickey put the former Sioux City catcher over the plate, whereas if Dolliver had been retired at first there would have been no score.

Dolliver Hits Hard.

Again in the following inning Dolliver was the goods from the visitor's point of view, for after Clark had hit out Alberts had walked he closed the sacks with a triple to left and won the game. In his effort to breathe the hit into a homer he was caught at the plate by a beautiful throw of Flemiste.

South Bend scored in only two innings, the first and the sixth. In the opening period, Anderson and Connors were retired, Johnson to Dolliver and Hitman, who got to first on error when Tieman went out from Alberts to Donahue to Dickey. In the sixth it took three hits, a triple by Connors and singles by Troutman and Johnson to put the first marker over the plate. Alberts was in trouble in the opening frame when consecutive hits and a wild fluke was coming in the sixth when Johnson led off with a two sacker, but the following men could not hit safe and the game went Oblewarb.

Pitchers are in Form.

Despite the loose fielding Telinde and Alberts pitched magnificent ball and on the merits of the work of these two men the game should be awarded to one in favor of the visitors, although South Bend had more hits and less errors. "Tilly" worked hard and faithful and allowed only four hits, the first coming in the fourth and the next two in the fifth. The seven faster also had a chance to get hits and did so in the sixth.

Caught Between Innings.

"To-morrow's game will begin at 3 o'clock sharp.

It looked natural to see Connors rap out a triple down the third base line in the sixth.

Cathcart, the third baseman of the Indiana, is with Dubuque and his place is being filled by Catcher "King" Kelly.

Fleming is a great improvement over Foy. So far he appears to be nearly as fast a man and he is by far a much better hitter.

Alberts and Belden were brought into the Central league by Mautner and Tieman was on the champion Fort Wayne team.

Tieman's draw of Haisman off third in the second inning was a clever piece of work and the play won the applause of the fans.

About 400 ladies took advantage of the day and flocked to the stand. The filler set is getting wise to the game and should be encouraged to come out and several bleachers will be filled with color on Tuesdays and Fridays.

Compared with the player displayed by Springfield, the Granites appear rather like a lot of wooden men. Since Grant has been out of the game the locals have shown absolutely no grace whatever, not a man opening his mouth to chatter, and Springfield has more zingers will put lots of life into the game and will keep the fans in good humor. There is no doubt that

WHEELING HAS GOBBERS DOWN.

Spectators Host Champions When Evansville Wins Game.

The Tribune's special service.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 5.—Dobbers are down in Wheeling. The successive defeats administered to the Stogies has proved too much for the fans and instead of turning out an attendance of 1,000 daily as was the case last season, the spectators are to be counted inside the grounds. The least host Evansville Friday and the players were hooted as the game dragged away. The score:

CONDENSED NEWS OF BASEBALL.

Boyle's Shake-up of Terre Haute is For Betterment of Team.

The shake-up in the Terre Haute team at Grand Rapids showed the men that there has been a check on positions and harder playing is the result, says the Terre Haute Tribune. Wolsenberger and Britton come near the standard of Hardin, but it can be better than Boyle's in hitting only. Hardin is a good hitter and if he can work to develop the speed will make them all hustle to win. The fans don't get discouraged as quickly when new men are playing every day.

Dufleur went from Lake Forest to Shenandoah yesterday afternoon in a hack, a distance of about 30 miles. The hardest part of the journey was to get ahead of the local club and if the boys break even in South Bend and Grand Rapids, the local fans will be from their satisfied.—Springfield News.

Ernest Woodmansee, the well known wrestler, formerly of Cincinnati, now of Chicago, has asked for a job as Cubs trainer, and has the selection of Umpire Bonsfield. Ernest is well qualified to handle Ernie's bonnet and he thinks he can make good where the former chief of police failed. He filed his application to President F. Pfeyler Wednesday night.

Lott Lowry, a jeweler, one of South Bend's enthusiastic baseball fans, will again this year follow out his custom of making a presentation to the first member of the South Bend team, of the Central league, who hits a home run. It is in a miniature ball and bat and is very artistically associated with it the initials of the lucky recipient of the memento. The design is not only artistic but pleasing. The charm is on display at the Lowry jewelry store and is attracting considerable attention. Mr. Lowry is a lover of the game and is greatly interested in the sport.

WHEELOCK IS WRONG

UMPIRE MAKES DECISIONS IN VIOLATION OF RULES.

GAME OPEN TO PROTEST

Indicator Man Exceeds Authority in Benching Hendricks for Coaching and Unjustly Takes Hit from Kasbo's Record.

Notwithstanding that to outward appearances the work of Umpire Wheelock was the best seen here since the opening of the Central league season, two of his decisions yesterday threw the game between South Bend and Springfield open to protest. When he ejected Hendricks on the coaching lines in the first inning he exceeded his authority and when he declared Kasbo's hit in the ninth inning foul he acted entirely in the rules adopted in accordance with the national agreement.

When Hendricks insisted that he should be allowed to occupy the coaching box without fines at the same time that "King" Kelly was doing a stand in the rear of third he was perfectly right and for that reason he should not have been ejected. The rule governing the proceeding is as follows:

"The coaches are restricted to coaching the base runner and there shall be no unnecessary noise or confusion in coaching boxes. No shall not by words or signs, motion or try to incite spectators to demonstration, and shall not use language which will in the opinion of the umpire, incite the players of the opposite side, the umpire or the spectators. In case of that two coaches are on duty, one must be placed in the uniform of the team at bat, and the other in the uniform of the team in the field. The coaches occupy the space in the coaching box first and the other third base, to each the runners. If there be more than the legal number of coaches or his rule be violated in any respect the captain of the opposite team may call on the captain of the offending team to do so, and thereupon the umpire must order the illegal coacher or coachers to the bench, and if his order is not obeyed within one minute he shall forfeit the game to the side of 25 against the offending player and upon a repetition of the offense the offending player or player shall be debarred from further participation in the game, and shall leave the playing field forthwith."

The other point in question is fully covered by the following rule in the rules:

"A fair hit is a legally batted ball that settles on fair ground between home and first base, between home and third base, or that is on fair ground when bounding to the outfield past first or third base, or that, while on fair territory beyond first or third base, or that touches the person of the umpire or a player while on fair ground."

In this case Kasbo bunted the ball towards third base as King Kelly came in from third to field it to first. As he reached the ball it was bounded towards foul territory, but instead of being fair it was foul when it was first on unlabelled territory he stopped it while standing more than a foot inside the foul and not only robbed Kasbo of a hit but also robbed Kasbo of a base. Kasbo then signified his intention of so doing, was a clear violation of the rules, Manager Orland decided he dares to do so would be perfectly justified in protesting the game.

Could the game be protested Umpire Wheelock would be a dead goose, for he was a pleasing to witness his work.

Springfield is Strong.

The showing of Springfield yesterday was far above that of Terre Haute and Evansville. Comparing the Hoosier contents and Little Stogs, the Infants have the edge on the Indianapolis team since there is a decided improvement in the two Indiana teams there will not be much hope for them to finish in the first division. The season though is young and there is no telling what the wheelers may do when clubs are making desperate efforts to weed out the poor players before the return to their stamping grounds.

Cullen, the Springfield captive pitcher and an old hand which will come gave favorably with any in the league. The outfield is also strong. The only fault which can be laid at the door of Manager Orland is that he failed to land a better hitting team, but at that it will be wise for the fans to wait for the pennant and that there will always be something doing every time they come to South Bend.
