AWARDS ARE MADE IN WOMEN'S STATE CHAMPIONSHIP MEET

AWARD CHAMPION SEVEN TROPHIES AFTER TOURNEY

WINNERS ARE ANNOUNCED IN EACH FLIGHT OF MEET.

PLAYERS LEAVE FOR HOME

Successful Tournament is Brought to Close After Five Days of Play at Chelsea O'Leary Country Club.

BY MRS. HARVEY F. ROSTNER.

All hail, Naomi Hull!

Indiana now has a new women's golf champion. Through a decade of rate yesterday Miss Hull defeated Mrs. Walter East, South Bend's last hope for acquiring the crown. A peculiar coincidence was that when the men's state championship was played in South Bend the finals were played in the rain. South Bend's hope at that time, Dan Sanders was also defeated, the laurels going to Johnny Simpson of Indianapolis, in a sensational 41-hole match.

However, in the women's cross, South Bend had some claim to the champion as it has adopted Miss Hull who is a teacher in the Lincoln school.

Miss Hull won the championship in spite of the fact that she was low medalist. It is seldom, if ever, that the medalist is also the champion.

While she succeeded in throwing off the medalist "jinx" she took no chances with any others and refused to change her ball or alter the golf clubs that she had used when playing her best game.

Future is Brilliant.

The champion is the possessor of "Mush, a cool head, and perseverance and undoubtedly will go far in the golfing world.

Her proud but anxious father and mother arrived Friday to lend their moral support. Miss Hull is a member of a golfing family, as her mother, father and brother all play. Mr. Hull, while he did not attend the match, was in the gallery during his daughter's game, showed his anxiety by nervously pacing up and down the porch, runners keeping him in touch with the progress of the match. It was indeed a happy family that greeted Miss Hull on her return to the club house.

After the championship match was over the women golfers gathered in the lounge room to see the awarding of the large array of prizes. They were artistically arranged on three tables and Mrs. A.. A. McClamrock, former president of the association officiated in the distribution with Mrs. J. E. Neff and Mrs. F. E. Shamblaus, South Bend, assisting.

Awarded Seven Prizes.

Little Miss Hull when she left the table had her own arms full and both her father and mother loaded down with trophies. She received seven most beautiful trophies, two of these, however, she will have possession of only a short time as they are passed on again in 1926. One is the state championship cup which already has five names on it and on which here will be added, and the Gorham silver vase given by J. M. Studebaker, Jr.

The beautiful gorham silver basket given by A. H. Krohne will be her permanent possession as well as a small replica of the championship cup. She also won the Flemish silver vase given by Bert Meyering for low gross prize in the Erskine park event and a set of platinum pins was her reward for pinning the driving contest.

Mrs. W. J. East as runner-up was awarded a set of silver spoons and a replica of the half dozen sterling silver aperitifs. Mrs. East also received a pair of silver vases given by the News-Times for low 54 hole medal play.

In this afternoon's Studebaker league double header at Playland park M. and A. Final will meet Plant No. 5 in the first game at 2 o'clock, with General Office and Foundry clashing in the afternoon.

BASEBALL NOTES.

Midsummer rains, fickle in casting their support among pennant leaders, in major baseball for the last month, have again produced the drooping hopes of the New York Giants.

By forcing inactivity on the part of the leading Pirates rain enabled the champions New York team to once more reduce the gap between first and second place to a single game. While the Corsairs were idle, the Giants won over Chicago, 4 to 3.

Five hits proved sufficient for the Reds to pile up their seventh straight victory at the expense of the Boston Braves, 4 to 3. A wild pitch by Barnes scored Roush with the winning run.

Brooklyn rallied behind Dazzy Vance in the last few innings of a game with St. Louis and then choked off a counter spurt by the Cards in their half of the ninth to pull out a victory, 5 to 4. Vance banged eight.

Only one game was played in the American league, Boston smashing 15 hits off Karr to beat the Cleveland Indians, 7 to 2.

WOOD SHOTS FEATURE PLAY OF NEW INDIANA WOMEN'S GOLF CHAMPION

BY KENNETH S. COON.

Batting his ball on eight of the 18 holes necessary to defeat Mrs. Walter East, South Bend, Miss Naomi Hull, the young physical director of the Lincoln school, and Kokomo's lone entry in the Indiana Women's association's championship tournament, won the state championship last week afternoon.

The new champion not only survived a field of 16 leading golfers in the state, but demonstrated she has a game that will stand up against takers sure to be found in her region in will be with her putting, and go with her reign on the fairways.

Tournament play will improve the 21 year old schoolmam for in the fourth annual meet just completed she was counter in the semi-finals and final than in the qualifying and first round matches. Nervousness marked her matches in the early stages of play, and while she did not shak it off completely, she was scorer of her game in the last few days than in the rest of her matches.

To Mrs. East went the honor of playing one of the best shots of the game. On the fourth hole her drive was into the trap at the left of the green, and in a very bad lie. A perfect approach shot with the niblick dropped it two feet from the pin. It was a beautiful shot and drew the applause it deserved, and followed the match.

A brilliant shot of Miss Hull's on the 11th fairway, a long iron shot, drew much comment from the gallery. With the ball in the middle of the fairway the champion shot it into the hill which borders the right of that fairway. The rebound dropped it on the green within five feet of the cup. The champion gambled on the roll of the hill which seemed stacked in her favor.

The only birdie score of the final match came on the eighth hole when Miss Hull sank a long putt on the green for Miss Hull. She sank a 14 foot putt for the one under par score. The eighth hole is 325 yards.

Miss Hull averaged 105 yards on her drives for the final match as compared to 140 by Mrs. East. Her breaks shots constituted about the same proportion of difference over her opponent, and it was this phase of the game that gave her the chamption.

The putting alone was the chamption a bit weak. This was her third state championship and she will be a plausuesque figure in many to come. Kokomo's may rightly feel proud of its youthful champion. South Bend's pride is being let as in the structor of its youth.

GLENNA WINS TROPHY.

Defeats Mrs. H. D. Sterrett 1 Up at Groton.

By Associated Press.

EASTERN POINT, GROTON, Conn., Aug. 1.—The Griswold trophy passed into the permanent possession of Miss Glenna Collett, of Providence, R. I., yesterday, when, in one of the hardest fought matches in her career, she defeated Mrs. H. D. Sterrett, of Hutchinson, Kas., 1 up in the final round of the seventh annual women's invitation golf tournament at the Eastern Country club.

Miss Collett, who recently won the French championship, was pressed by her opponent throughout, but on the 18th green with the score even the Kansan missed an easy putt and lost the match.

When putters looked far from bright for Miss Collett soon after the turn, she found a four-bad clover and tied it between her tips for the rest of the match.

JACK IS OWN MANAGER.

Dempsey Casts Kearns Aside and Asks Commission to Wait.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—According to his own admission in a telegram to the New York state athletic commission, Jack Dempsey to-day is his own manager.

Dempsey's frank admission with regard to casting Kearns aside after his statement recently that his manager's contract had still a year to run and his allusion in the telegram to "a lot of money being involved" was based on speculation as to whether the heavyweight champion was competent to dip deeply into his purse in order to shake off Kearns.

Dempsey declared he had not yet agreed to fight any one but Willie Meehan, his scheduled opponent, mentioned in the matter of the delayed appearance before it, but he failed to indicate he would fight Meehan. Willie next July 4 as announced by his press agent in Los Angeles, Calif.

Official action on the Dempsey case is expected to be taken by the board next Tuesday. If definite information showing that steps have been taken to bring about a bout with Dempsey fight is not presented at this meeting the board may vote to recognize Dempsey no longer as champion and order an elimination bout for the title.

LOCAL NET STARS LOSE.

Dr. Forster and Koehler Are Eliminate in Tennis Tournament.

Dr. H. E. Forster, one of South Bend's two entrants in the Erskine park tournament, was eliminated in his third round match by Richard Crane, captain of the University of Michigan tennis team, Friday afternoon at the Woodstock club Indianapolis, where the tournament is being played. The score was 7-5, 6-4.

Forster gave his powerful opponent a bitter fight in the first set. With the aid of numerous net rushes Crane battled through to win the next two games and match. Forster weakened rapidly in the next set and, despite brilliant rallies, could not match the sustained tennis of the Michigan star.

Forster and "Cotton" Koehler, who have been the sensation of the tournament, lost in the third round. Koehler bowed to-day.

The second of South Bend's two entrants in the state tennis tournament was eliminated Friday. Rick Kipp, Indianapolis, one of the favorites, defeated Cotton Koehler, South Bend, 6-4, 6-4, 6-2, in a third round match.

KOEHLERITES ARE READY FOR CONNS

REAL CONTEST IS PROMISED FOR PLAYLAND DIAMOND.

Big Delegation of Elkhart Fans to Accompany Team to South Bend.

Big Dave Davenport, who during the past two games has struck out 18 batters, will endeavor to maintain his former reputation as a strike-out wizard, when he faces Ray Williams' Elkhart Conns to-morrow afternoon at Playland park. This game promises to be one of the most interesting of the year and incidentally will draw one of the best crowds of the season as Elkhart will bring over 1,000 fans on special interurban cars and by automobiles.

Opposing Davenport on the mound will be either Johnny Cowell, speed ball king, who gained a big reputation last year with the Bremen Greens, or Woodhouse, who battled "Wee Dick" Kerr-twice in May this year at Playland while the Elkhartans were with the Kalamazoo Blues. Woodhouse joined the Conns about three weeks ago. Fresh will do the backstopping for the Elkhart outfit, while Lawrence Shook will work with Davenport.

The famous Conn concert band of 32 pieces will accompany the Elkhart nine. Some of the best musicians in the world are members of the Conn organization, who are pioneers in the music world. The concert will start at 2 o'clock, an hour before the game commences, and will continue throughout the tilt. The gates at Playland park will be opened at 1 o'clock sharp.

With only three defeats this year, the Conns come to South Bend with a reputation which the Koehlers have been registered over such clubs as the Fairbanks-
