Special to The South Bend Tribune.

Terre Haute, Ind., May 1.—The "Babies" won, but only after the hardest fought game seen in Terre Haute in several years. With the score two to nothing against her, South Bend carried the locals off their feet and with the prettiest team work in the batting line turned the tables and defeated Lonie Smith's aggregation of stars 3 to 2. Only in one inning did the "Babies" score but while Grant's youngsters were at it they worked three men over the rubber and throughout the rest of the contest kept one to the good. Terre Haute was out-generaled and out-played and but for a misjudged fly ball in the second inning would have met with a goose egg defeat.

Reed pitched a great game after the second inning allowing only three hits, one each in the third, fourth and fifth. He also fielded his position in excellent style and had much to do in winning his own game. From start to finish South Bend played as a unit and the error column was forgotten by the sorers. Great at second was the star of the game. To use Lonie Smith's expression, "The captain covered all the bases and everywhere else." He not only drove two hits, scoring up two runs and taking care of fouls in such a manner that several hundred participants applauded him, a rare occurance in this "burg." Tieman, Bauer and Spangler also came in for honors.

Terre Haute scored in the second by hooting three hits, Richardson, Wheeler and Kling, the latter being hit by a pitched drawing a base and Beecher going to first after being hit. The result was runs by the two first mentioned men. Until the fourth inning the "Babies" went out in rotation, South pitching good ball.

In the fourth, however, Grant and his band of seven men came in from the bench. Richardson opened up the inning and the Terre Haute fans witnessed a beautiful exhibition of team work with the ball. Anderson led off by drawing a base on balls. Grant made a fancy hoist which sent "Nolan" to second. A sharp single scored the right foot line by Robinson advanced the runner to third where he remained until after Tieman gave a base on balls with Kenn at the bat.

Anderson started for home at a ten-second clip. Beem making him safe by bunting for a sacrifice down the foot line. Then came a trick play which won the game. Grant signaled the men to get off the bags and in an attempt to catch Tieman, Walters threw the ball to the scorery and both "Babies" scored.

Great Chief Attraction.

Manager "Dauger" Grant is the chief attraction of the lemons during this visit to Terre Haute. All the fans have inquired for the little general of the diamond and those who have succeeded in forcing his acquaintance are asking him to explain where he secured so many fast youngsters. Excepting Reed and Outcault, no one signed by Grant were unknown to the fans. The good showing of the work of the team in the opening game has been a great surprise to the base ball population of the "Hub."

Among newspaper men here it is hinted that South Bend has a first division team. Nixon, of the Express, concedes that the Greens are good for at least third place and Carey, of the Tribune, states that the "Babies" have shown up every bit as fast as the bunch.

Smith Changes Opinion.

Lonie Smith, the financial head of the Terre Haute team, has undergone a decided change of opinion, regarding the boys from the valley of the St. Joseph and now states that his conclusions of last week were far from what the events of Thursday and to-day warrant.

South Bend began the Central league season with a system of team play, the equal of which has never been seen in this city. Grant's youngsters have come in from third being worked in excellent style. There were also other plays which were introduced which proved to be new to the former players of the Three I league.

Manager Grant has confident disciples in the ranks of the team which has only reach in good. During the game the players were given a ten mile jog through the city. This is followed by breakfast and later by a meeting at which remarks for the good of the club were made. During the remainder of the morning the men were at liberty. The team left for Terre Haute on the 10:45 p. m. job this morn. Into the majority of the men Terre Haute has not been before.

Greens are Gentlemen.

On all sides comments on the gentlemanly conduct of the Greens are heard and the team will go to Evansville Monday with the best wishes of Terre Haute.

Hogan, the center fielder from Canton, Ohio, has not joined the team and will not be called into action as long as he continues to report to Grant as "sore." The Kent Tribune is making good. Cecil Ferguson is probably as popular a ball player in this city as Terre Haute and his friends are doing nothing but praise for the lad. He is confident that he will make good with the Greens and is anxious to get into the game.

Arrangements are being made for the holding of a concert or Sunday excursion to South Bend during the ball season. The Vandalia is confident of carrying from 500 to 1,000 fans from this city and about 200 more from along the line, into South Bend on all such occasions.

Known as "The Babies."

South Bend's team hereafter will be known as the Babies. The young appearance of the players being responsible for the new title. This fact has caused considerable comment among Terre Hoosiers, who state that they have never seen an aggregation in league circles with so many young faces.

"The Babies" are scoring. They fight for every inch of ground and the speed to which they carry on the contest has made the members of the team favorites in Terre Haute.

South Bend has a fairer team to-day than she has had since the national game was introduced into that city. This may seem strong to the fans who remember the line composed of Fuller, Mulvin and others, but it is nevertheless true. "The Babies" are my pride," said George Wolf, of the Hotel Oliver after yesterday's game. "I am proud of them and when they come home next Friday to open the season in their own city I want them to get a rousing ovation." President F. E. Dawson, of the South Bend Athletic association, stated to a Tribune scribe the morning made by Manager Grant with him there is nothing to good for the team. "We are just 100 per cent stronger than I thought we were," he said last evening.

God Chance For Pennant.

Because of the strong showing made by South Bend this week, the Terre Haute press admits that the team has an excellent chance to land the pennant. The baseball history all state that the Greens will have a hard fight for it, however, over some in this city. The going to narrow is expected to be a cracker and the advance sale shows that the crowd will be large. Both teams will put up a hard fight for the contest. Schafer and Torrence will do the twirling.

"Scrap Iron" Beecher is going to have trouble with South Bend fans and the chances are that the beginning of it will occur during the opening game at South Bend next Friday. The left fielder has peculiar ways, which will serve to bring the attention of the local fans to the fact that Beecher knows this and is jealous of the town sport. Tell the fans to watch Beecher and see if there is a distinction. Again the game in front of the grandstand at 2:30 o'clock, I feel safe in saying, will be as well as before."

Caught Between Innings.

Moffit did not know that he had been selected to pitch Thursday until he reached the grounds, neither did Tieman know he was going to catch.

The Greens looked like home when lined up against the Terre Haute veterans, but their smoke was just as dense as that from the men of the coal fields.

South Bend is in the race for the Central league pennant and instead of being weak has proven that she is developing the best team made in the history of the city.

The Greens have captured Terre Haute and the best at all times is filled with fans. The gentlemanly conduct of the men both on and off the field had for the reaching Hub.

The opening contest in the league shoved South Bend to be especially strong in the field. Vorpagle's pick-up of Scully's bunt in the seventh Thursday was a beautiful piece of work, while the fielding of Bauer at short, Grant at second and Spangler at first was of lightning like caliber. Anderson and Robinson were also fast in the outfield. Eddie Coffey of whom much is expected did not have a chance.

Moffit and Tieman, South Bend's "kid" battery worked together in great shape Thursday and only for Terre Haute man, Kling succeeded in stealing a base. The Fort Wayne reinforcer has a great "wing" and when he gets it working will be a dangerous thing for a man who jumped from the prairie into league company. Moffit is the best ever. The New Carlisle youth pitched good ball. He refused to take to the cooler even when the Terre Haute sluggers were at the mercy of their power.

FORT WAYNE TAKES EASY ONE.

Evansville Pitchers Fail to Show Up in Good Form.

Special to The South Bend Tribune.

Evansville, Ind., May 2.—The Evansville team went down to defeat before the Fort Wayne team this afternoon. The visitors were easily the winners from the first. Wheeling Team Shows Up in Rather Poor Form.

Special to The South Bend Tribune.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 2.—Wheeling played lively and could not hit the ball yesterday so that Marion won the second game at an early stage. Pitcher Fox tried to win his own game but was given miserable support. Marion's work all around was fast. Wheeling has signed a new short-stop in Stillwell. The team is being otherwise strengthened. ANDERSON GETS FIRST ONE.

Cold Weather Makes Contest at Dayton Featureless.

Special to The South Bend Tribune.

Dayton, Ohio, May 2.—The Central league season opened here yesterday in almost freezing air which shrunk the crowd and chilled the players. Anderson had no difficulty in throwing out a victory in a featureless contest. Score:

Anderson	1	0	1	0	2	0	0	0	0	— 4
