SOUTH BEND SWAMPS WHEELING WITH HITS AND RUNS

DAVE MARTIN WINS FIRST GAME HERE

MOWS STOGIES DOWN BY STERLING PITCHING.

ALLOWS ONLY FIVE HITS

McCarthy, Kroy and Schmick Shine in Field—Wolchonce and Carey Get Three Wallops Each.

When Dave Martin and Manager Wheeler's sluggers finished with Philly's Stogies, they looked like a cheroot alongside a Porto Rican perfecto with an unpronounceable name. The Bronchos hammered in six run by virtue of some vociferous wallopping of the orange while all that the Stogies could glean off Martin, was one orphan.

David Martin, celebrated his first effort for South Bend by pitching one of the cleanest and headiest games of baseball in his career. An unfortunate base on balls, and an lucky hit gave the Smokes their only run. Burns was the Stog who gathered the walloop and he was caught going to second. It looked to most of the fans, and the South Bend players, that Zeller, who scored from second on the hit, had beaten the throw home, but Mike said that Burns was out after the diminutive Wheeling second sacker had rung up the counter. Therefore the runlet counted, although it looked like a mighty close play, and as fine large for four innings it that owing to Humphries' heaving, which was of the diamond tiara type or equally brilliant for "them few innings."

McCarthy in Limelight.

It is hard to say which players have succeeded as well if be had been supported by the bedding the Grand Rapids bunch accorded him but the defense that Wheeler's tribe put up was a mighty good one. Wheeler's tribe of Bronchos captured the game by such an unbalanced score, the play was remarkably fast for both teams, although the South Bend bunch offended twice in succession. There was Wolchonce with unclean boots, McCarthy plays a wonderful game on short and want both to his right and to his left in big league manner after some sharply hit balls had gone through his mitts. Had the wind, was entirely without the bounds of Baldy's prowess or that of any other shortstopper in big league, because of the terrific whip necessary to stop the ball from going to the left wind blowing it would have come a slowly pegged ball to curve, but Mac sent his throws straight as a string to the exact spot for Bill Schmick, Big Bill was a mighty good man at the sack as a first sacker, the way he reached out to receive throws and cut off hits by inches.

Teddy Kroy made himself felt by the Bronchos in the fifth inning, in the ninth, robbing the fast Stogie of what looked like a sure single. The ball was hit on a line to right center and Teddy, by hard sprinting, just managed to get his fingers on the tips of the short grass. Jewell made a sensational stop and throw of Holmes's hard hit over second in the sixth. It is improbable that Henry would have reached first on the play, he was hitting at his best speed, but he did retrieve less, and deserved the big hand that the fans gave him.

The Bronchos hit in great style. Carey was hitting the ball hard in the 6th and a two sacker that would have gone for a home run over the fence had it not been for the fierce wind that was blowing toward home plate. Carey had hitting in his mitts, and he sent Jim Koehler tried to bat left handed and his first attempt resulted in a three sacker to left field. His other attempt resulted in a hard hit single. Carey batted in a thousand by virtue of two sacrifices, a base on balls and a single. Dorcy Holmes continued his sluggish streak by pickling the pill for a two sacker which strained the batting rally in the fifth.

Wheeling Steals one Orphan.

Wheeling scored in the second inning. Burns walked and Zeller Malmo got a sacrifice. Chance fouled to Dorky, but Burns hit to right center. Wolchonce made a great try for the ball and touched it with his bare mitt but could not hold for second on the hit, but was nipped.

Holmes continued his hitting by bingling to right for two outs to start the fifth. He was in a bad way for second on the play, but Wolchonce as he wrenched his aching side, Phillips showed what a good sport he is, when he refused to give Dorky a runner whereupon Dorky ding ten loss in the scoring. Kroy worked "Hunny" Schmick for a base on balls and Holmes scoring. Wheeler poped out to the catcher but Wolchonce litterly knocked the cover off the ball when he connected with it and Kroy and Holmes scoring Martin and Kroy and sending Schmick to third. Schmick came through with a reprieve by he left when Shofren galloped after and caught. Koehler ended the fifth by a fly to Dorky. Carey came in the seventh on Koehler's three bagger, Wolchonce's double and Schmick's hit.

BILL PHILLIPS IN A PUERILE ROLE

Refuses to Give Ducky Holmes a Runner Yesterday.

Ducky Holmes needed a runner after making his two bagger yesterday and Bill Phillips wouldn't come across with the relief. Ducky's legs in doubtful condition and he was really unable to play. The crowd appreciated Ducky's condition and hooted Phillips unmercifully for his selfness. Inasmuch as Wheeling didn't lack a chance in the game Phillips could have been perfectly justifiable on the part of Phillips to deny a man whom he knew to be badly injured a runner.

RUSSEL FORD, NEW YORK'S STAR PITCHER, FIND OF 1910 CAMPAIGN

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Russell Ford, the pitching marvel of the New York American League club, has proved the find of the season. Ford's record for the time he has done much to keep Highlanders as high up in the pennant race. Ford has more than made himself a star in the eyes of the public. Instead of the youngsters who break in to the show, has done even better work than the team's followers expected. Many nice things have been said about Ford's work this season, and few persons thought he would pitch such spectacular ball when he donned the spangles under the big top.

Ford, Starkey's protege, Seaton by Brown.

Russell was with the Highlanders for a few weeks in 1909, then was sent to Montreal. He was not long in showing Kinkead that he was good. In the first half he pitched in 19 games, striking out 189 in 180 innings. Ford's major league training was gained with Cedar Rapids, Ia., in 1908. He was there under Jackson, of the Southern association, who took him to the show, has done even better work than the team's followers expected. Many nice things have been said about Ford's work this season, and few persons thought he would pitch such spectacular ball when he donned the spangles under the big top.

LONGMAN SITS UP AND TAKES NOTICE

Looking for Material—Vaughn May Be Back in Line-up.

Coach Longman, of the Notre Dame football team is beginning to take notice of the coming season. He is aware that last season saw some of the best men graduate from the team and that it will be a mighty consolation, necessary before a championship crew can be manufactured out of the material that now is in sight.

Doubts are entertained by those in the inner circles of Notre Dame athletics concerning Fritz Vaughn's inclinations toward Pelucotin. If is fairly well assured that the All-Western full back will be seen behind the Notre Dame line again this season.

FIGHT CHAMPION JACK JOHNSON? NOT FOR HIM

Billy Ford, Starkey's Protege, Seaton by Brown.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—If Billy Ford, the Philadelphia heavyweight ever had serious intention of engaging in combat with Jack Johnson, he relinquished the idea to-day. Ford was unconscious for over an hour from blows given by Billy Brown in a match at the Sharkey Athletic club last night, and when he recovered from the beat-on fighter until he was revived.

Ford was given an unmerciful beating, receiving left and right beatings until he fell unconscious.

REAL ESTATE MARKET SLUMPS DURING JULY

Business in County Not as Good for Same Period Last Year.

While the South Bend market was fairly active, the condition of the real estate business in St. Joseph county during July was not as satisfactory as for the same period last year. This intelligence was gleaned from the size and number of deeds registered in the office of the county recorder during the month. The total monetary value of deeds of all kinds was but $372,835.11, against business of $587,379.49 during July of 1909. The total number of deeds was 187.

The largest deals recorded during the month concerned South Bend property. Lawrence E. Tuttle purchased of Mrs. Marie F. Gorsuch, the Tuttle property, located on the corner of Washington avenue, formerly known as the Isaac Gorsuch home. The property, which was set out in the original plat of South Bend, sold for $14,000. Mrs. Gorsuch also disposed of $10,000 a 10-acre tract on Elwood avenue. This property was purchased from E. J. Fugarty and on it will be formerly the home of W. E. Gorsuch.

CONDUCT "SCHOOL" FOR MILK DEALERS

FOOD INSPECTOR F. W. TUCKER IS "TEACHER."

Several Ask for Instructions in City Court—Fine of $20 for Violating Statute.

A school of instruction for a number of South Bend milk dealers with F. W. Tucker, deputy state food inspector, of Indianapolis, acting as teacher, resulted from cases brought this morning before Judge G. A. Parabaugh in the city court. Inspections by the state officer yesterday resulted in the arrest of a number of dealers, several not named in complaints were also in attendance. Following a plea of guilty by one dealer, the spokesmen of the milk men's organization asked that the inspector give instructions as to the import of the pure food laws. The request was recognized by the court and Inspector Tucker was instructed to explain the food statutes to the dealers. The "school" was later conducted in another section of the city court room, Tucker explaining and acting teacher and hospitalizing the meaning of the pure food laws in detail.

Alexander C. Mann, 111 Sixth street, was fined $20 and costs for violating a pure food law. He admitted the charge and paid a fine of $10 and costs. Additional charges were filed by Inspector Tucker against James H. Mann, 111 Sixth street, and Ernest Sourort, and against John A. Hoffer, River Park. The River Park dealer pleaded not guilty to selling artificially colored ice cream and the case was continued until Friday morning. Sourort pleaded guilty to the same sensing. He will be arraigned to-morrow on a charge of selling milk below the standard.

Due to the absence of witnesses and the need of additional evidence pure food cases filed several weeks ago, were again continued this morning. Charges against Frank Lasso and Frank Lasso, Jr., were filed last month and Wednesday while cases against A. C. Nardi and the Major Bros. Packing company will be taken up to-morrow.
