Red Sox Drop Contest To South Benders, 5-3

SOUTH BEND, Sept. 6—South Bend's Studebaker baseball team grabbed a 5-3 Michigan-Indiana league decision here Labor Lay night from the Lafayette Red Sox despite the loss of three ball players and its team captain.

In a contest fraught with tension and delays, South Bend's first baseman Walter Humay was the first casualty. Humay caught one of Art Herring's pitches on the back of the head and was forced to leave the game. Catcher Ted Radcliffe and Team Captain Al Costello were the next casualties, being ejected from the game by plate umpire Ray Fitzgerald in the midst of a debate over Pitcher Costello's contention that Catcher Radcliffe Tommy DeMarch were out of the battle late in the game with a pulled leg muscle after a long running catch.

Lafayette's Sox were also affected by Umpire Fitzgerald's decisions. Second Baseman Bob Cummins was thumbed from the game in the seventh after protesting a called strike.

The South Benders tallied first in the initial inning when Ray Scott singled and Humay doubled. Lafayette evened it in the third on a double by Herring and singles by John Galvin and Joe Gaddarelli. Single runs crossed the plate for South Bend in the third and fifth before the Red Sox had a two-run seventh to tie the game. Bob Cummins, Lafayette second sacker, Galvin walked, Dominic Angiolo singled, and Tom Thomas also singled. An error by Scott also helped.

The decisive runs came in the final half of the seventh. Scott singled and was moved by John Creevey's sacrifice. Howard Easterling drew an intentional walk. Then after Dick Hosinski fanned, George Kolosnar singled and Hank Richie's fly into center was dropped by Galvin.

The selling job on Purdue's football channel has been great across the west coast. . . . Paul Zimmerman, writing in a Los Angeles paper, claims that a careful check of the football experts in Chicago and around the midwest, surprised him a little. . . he says that the majority near Purdue as the Big Ten champs. . . Zimmerman's title, and that the critics also rated the Boilermakers as a co-favorite with Michigan for the conference crown.

Zimmerman claims that the midwest Rose Bowl selection will be decided at Minneapolis on Nov. 6, when Minnesota's Gold and Maroon Blacks face Bernie Bierman's powerful Gophers. . . the coast scribe says Purdue is the choice because the Boilermakers are likely to have more offensive imagination.

. . . Just like that. . . there's nothing to it. . . bring on the Illinois, we want to join in that title dream and make one our coming trip to the Rose Bowl.

. . . We've marveled for months over the way Wisconsin escaped all of this advance publicity. . . Harry Stuhldreher has practically all of his key men ready, and the Badgers, finished second last year, also, they whaled the daylights out of Marquette last Saturday, good right along, even with the best of the schedule, blissfully ignored by the wise guys who name the victors in advance.

. . . To say that Nov. 6 at Minneapolis is the key to Big Nine treasures this year, is easy enough. . . but from a Purdue standpoint the Oct. 2 date at Northwestern must be vastly more important right now. . . no team ever won anything without eliminating the concentration on the immediate problems.

. . . What a weird night at Columbian park stadium Sunday! Rainfall must have started and ceased six or eight times during the evening. In spite of the muddy going, infielding was surprisingly good and the pitchers were able to hold down the Red Sox finally burst forth with that big seventh inning.

. . . The play-offs? Yes, we realize it is all very puzzling, but we also believe that the title scramble should be an exciting affair when it once gets under way. We'll try to explain briefly how it all works.

. . . Three teams in this half are tied for first place. . . Fort Wayne, winner of the first half. . . if the standings of yesterday were to be final, with Benton Harbor first, Lafayette second, and South Bend third, Fort Wayne would meet Lafayette, the second team, and the other two clubs would clash in the first series. . . these initial sets are two-out-of-three. . . then the winners would tangle in a three-out-of-five series.

. . . First teams in each half are to get the odd games of the series at home. . . these Lafayette would open at Fort Wayne, return here for a game, then go back to Fort Wayne, if necessary, at Fort Wayne.

. . . Benton Harbor would have the same advantage over South Bend.

. . . However, if the Red Sox won 1st night at South Bend and can knock off Michigan City here tomorrow night, they would be tied with Benton Harbor at 17-6 each. . . Lafayette would then meet the Buds in a sudden death tilt for the second half honors. . . in that case, the Red Sox would meet the last qualifying team and Benton Harbor would face Fort Wayne.

. . . But there are so many "if's" involved, with games carded Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights, that we'll all have to wait and see how the last dizzy flights for playoff positions turn out.

. . . No matter how it all turns out, Lafayette's array is gain some sort of playoff share has been a valiant one. . . you may recall that the Red Sox were down 3-14 in the fifth game of the last time until Sunday, John Rosser's outfit won 12 and lost two to whirl into the contention.

. . . The long awaited rain certainly tossed a wet blanket on the Labor Day sports activities. . . even the golfers had to hustle a few shots in between showers.

. . . Boston probably enjoyed the

Red Sox Close Loop Schedule Here Tomorrow

The Lafayette Red Sox will close their regularly scheduled Michigan-Indiana league season here tomorrow night at 8:15 when the Michigan City Cubs come to town for their final bow of 1948.

The Cubs are a popular ball club here and their last two battles on local soil are well remembered. Lafayette's double-header last Sunday was a twin victory, but Rudy Rumler' clever hurling silenced local bats in the other. Rumler is the probable starter for Michigan City, unless the lanky righthander was used last night.

Lafayette has its pitching staff in good shape and Manager Rosser will probably have a choice of two or three starters, depending upon how the club came out of the South Bend battle last night.

Season tickets are coming out just even and the final dural in the book will be honored tomorrow. Fans may call 6910 or 7830 after 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon for reserved seats.

It is quite possible that both teams will be fighting for a playoff berth, and it is a certainty that the game will have some bearing on Lafayette's playoff status.

Michigan - Indiana League Playoffs Open Friday; Four - Way Scramble

At a Michigan-Indiana league meeting held in Michigan City yesterday afternoon, a fast action championship playoff was decided upon, with four teams competing for the title and games to be played every day, starting Friday.

STILL UNDECIDED

However, at the meeting it was impossible to name definite pairings because only Fort Wayne and Benton Harbor were definitely qualified and the other two places depended upon the outcome of Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday games.

Original plans called for the first two teams in each half to qualify, but forfeiture of 11 games shuffled up the first half, so it was decided that only Fort Wayne, the winner, would qualify and that the first three teams of the second half would compete for championship playoff spots.

Fort Wayne, national champ again this year, is to meet the second team of that trio, with the first place team meeting the third in a two-of-three set. Winners of these two series will clash in three-of-five for the 1948 crown.

TIGHT RACE

Standings at the meeting (before Monday night games) showed second half contenders as follows: Benton Harbor, 17-6; Lafayette, 15-6; South Bend, 15-8; St. Joseph, 13-9; and Michigan City, 11-10. Lafayette had a chance to tie Benton Harbor for the top spot, but other three clubs all had chances for the fourth playoff position.

It will be impossible to announce playoff pairings before Wednesday, and probably not until after Wednesday night reports are in. The league has been so well balanced, except for Kenosha and Kalamazoo, that the playoffs loom as the most exciting in M-I history.

Aussie Netters Wallop Ferrer

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 6 (AP)—The two great closers, Ted Schroeder and Frank Sedgman, crushed the rest of Australia's forlorn Davis cup netters with two more amazing victories today.

With the big trophy already safely stowed away, Schroeder opened the third day's play by crushing Billy Bidwell, 6-2, 6-1, 6-1, and Parker then racked up this country's fifth straight triumph over Australia by trounching the veteran Adrian Quist, 6-2, 6-2, 6-3.

Another small crowd of under 5,000 saw the two American stars completely dominate their opponents, as they had in the opening singles on Saturday. Schroeder, at the top of his brilliant game, needed only 57 minutes to chase Bidwell from the stadium.

Parker, in accounting for his second straight victory of the series, was much too steady for the 36-year-old Quist, scoring almost at will against the Aussie captain and losing his service only once, in the closing set.

In suffering their worst defeat in cup history, the Australians salvaged one victory in the four matches played. Quist somehow took a set from Schroeder on Saturday, and the Israelis' doubles team of Sidwell and Colin Long won the other yesterday in bowing to Gardnar Mulloy and Billy Talbert.

Sedgman, who was the only other holiday more than any other city, both the Red Sox and Braves capping double headers to increase first place leads. . . Baltimore wasn't too unhappy, either, as Cecil Isbell's startling Baltimore Colts scored a shocking upset over the New York Yank eleven.

Cubs Elude Cellar In Split With Reds

CINCINNATI, Sept. 6 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs divided a twin bill with Cincinnati today to remain safely above the cellar in the National league, one percentage point ahead of the cellar-dwelling Reds. The Reds won the opener, 5-1, and the Cubs took the nightcap, 4-2, which was called at the end of the eighth inning because of darkness.

Hank Sauer's 38th homer of the season with a man on base in the eighth inning was the winning blow for the Reds in the first game.

Rockets Fizzle; Bills Win, 42 to 7

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 6 (UP)—Striking through the air with George Ratterman and over the ground with Julie Rykovich, the Buffalo Bills swamped the Chicago Rockets today, 42 to 7, in an All-American conference football game before a crowd of 22,816.

On the attack, the Bills showed a marked superiority in line play as they starred to six touchdowns, two in each of the first three periods.

On the defense, they bottled up Chicago's Angelo Bertelli and held the Rockets to a lone touchdown in the fourth quarter, by which time the game was hopelessly lost.

Fullback Dewey Proctor challenged Chicago's score in the final minutes when he plunged across from one yard out.

Buffalo ran up 20 first downs to 17 for Chicago in winning its first conference game in the season's opener, the Bills had bowed to San Francisco 35-14.

Chicago set a new league record for most yards penalized, 165 yards, while Stan Vlasaty set a new individual record by being on the throwing end 42 times. In all, the Rockets completed 21.

Saints Win Two

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 6 (AP)—St. Paul swept both games of its Labor Day doubleheader with Minneapolis, capturing the afternoon game here 8-4 behind Dan Bankhead after winning the morning game in St. Paul, 9-3.

The victories gave the Saints a sweep of the three-game series and 13 wins in 23 inter-city games.

BOSTON, Sept. 6 (AP)—Boston's Braves today lengthened their National league lead to four games by whipping Brooklyn by clipping the Dodgers twice, 3-1 in 14 innings and in the second game called after seven innings because of darkness.

The second largest home crowd of the season—39,610 paid—saw left hander Warren Spahn pitch the distance in the first game in which he gave the Brooks but five hits as he won his 12th decision. Right-hander Johnny Sain won his 18th in the abbreviated afterpiece.

Stays With Tribe

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 6 (UP)—Al Lopez, playing manager of the champion Indianapolis baseball Indians of the American association, will remain with the Hoosiers for at least two more seasons.

The former big league catcher signed a new two-year contract during the week-end. Lopez won the distinction of piloting a winner in his initial year as club manager.

A touch and you GO— that's DYNAFLOW!

YES, it boils down to just about that. You start your engine, set a lever — and from then on your treadle foot takes over.

You press the accelerator — and move softly and smoothly away.

You speed up, slow down, halt completely — and your right foot alone, operating gas treadle and brake, does it all.

How come? Simply because Dynaflow Drive is the one passenger car drive in America that gets completely away from gears which function in fixed stages.

Changes in the way oil flows, instead of changes in gears, adjust your engine power to your driving requirements.

Whether you are starting out, climbing a hill, surging past others or cruising easily, there's nothing for you to do except feel gas.

For very fast starts, extreme pulls, reserve braking power, you flick the selector lever—and your engine seems suddenly to double in size.

For parking, there is a very special setting, exclusive to Dynaflow Drive, that rigidly locks rear wheels.

Even rough and chattery roads are made smoother by power that flows along through a cushion of oil — your whole car is "sweeter" in its feel, far silkier in its actions.

Quite rightfully is Dynaflow Drive called the most important development since the self-starter.

It's a basically different way of transmitting power — and one you should know about firsthand.

See what your Buick dealer can do about arranging that for you. The merest sample of Dynaflow magic will make you want to place an order pronto, whether or not you have a car to trade!

Here's your Buick Dealer's Four-Square Selling Policy

1. NO PRICE PADDING. You receive an itemized bill of sale. We display all prices in our showroom.
2. NO "LOADING" OF ACCESSORIES. All cars are delivered with accessories as ordered; no "extras" except those you specify.
3. NO COMPULSORY TRADE-INS. We will accept your order and deliver your car with or without a car in trade.
4. NO COLLUSION WITH "GRAY MARKETEERS." We will not knowingly sell Buick cars to anyone who operates in the "gray market."

Cards Rip Redskins

DENVER, Sept. 7 (AP) — The Chicago Cardinals, champions of the national football league, had all the earmarks of sure-fire repeaters last night as they battered the Washington Redskins 48-20 in an exhibition game that drew 18,000 Rocky mountain fans.

It was a great contest in the first half as Washington's Sammy Baugh threw two touchdown passes to Hugh Taylor and Dan Sandifer, and the Cardinals replied with two passes to Ray Mallouf and one to pass from Paul Christman to Elmer Angsman.

But Chicago exploded for 32 points in the third quarter and bottled up Baugh so badly that once he was thrown behind his goal line.
