CLIMBING BRONCHOS AT DAYTON FOR THREE GAMES

SMITH COMES BACK AND DEFEATS BABES

INFANT LOSE SERIES TO SOUTH BEND BRONCS.

WALSH AND CORE HIT HARD

Terrific Triple by Former and Timely Double by Latter Gives Grant's Men Victory Over Zanesville Three to One.

Two great big juicy clouts—one by "Dude" Walsh for three sacks and the other by Collington Core for two bags—coming after Lloyd's failure to field a roller from Koehler's bat, put the big end of the score on the Bronchos side of the ledger yesterday and gave South Bend the series with the Zanesville bunch of scrappy players. The final result was 3 to 2.

Although Walsh and Core were the vital factors of the game in the hitting line, the real power, the man who made it possible for South bend to down the Infants, was "Big Ed" Smith, whose wonderful pitching was responsible for the Bronchos' victory, previous which he held the Chicago down to two hits and was robbed of a well deserved victory by bad umpiring.

Smith was as steady as a well oiled piece of machinery. He worked in beautiful form also, the only man passed was given free transportation because of his well known proclivity to pound out hits which generally run to extra bases. To Smith, the question of the game was a question of the opponent's argument. When he went to the mound he was confident of pulling off the victory and fully expecting to score a shut-out. As far as the shut-out was concerned he missed his guess, but triumph as fault of his, for it was Walsh who made the error which let the run with the only run scored by the leaders of the league. Alva, by the way, was the only man who was able to get more than one hit off the local twirler, the Zanesville leader having one of three of the scratch order having a sneaked off his delivery. Smith also was on the scene with some mighty clever fielding, handling two bunts in great style and grabbing a terrific liner to his left which robbed Houts of a hit. Smith's work in the field was the hardest drive made during the game and the play was all over before the fans had players realized what had happened. It was a case of stick out your mitt and the ball stick.

Smith Gets Support.

The support given Smith was of the excellent variety, outstanding the four errors which the Bronco secured. Out in right Core started his team-mates towards the game essentially by making a brilliant running catch of Hillinger's foul in the fourth inning. Core had to run and picked his stunt before Wells went after a high foul from Spangler and pulled it in after running over to the visiting players' bench in the fourth inning. Zanesville's only chance for a error he made in the second by making a one-handed pickup of Loop's grass cutter and throwing that man out at first. Carey got into the fray with a vengeance in the seventh when he fielded up the dirt behind second in fielding Houts' bunt and had plenty of time to throw the pitcher out to Koehler. Kroy was busy and he took care of few chances perfectly.

Sample Good Worker.

Pitcher Guy Sample had something on his tantalizing offerings and for the first time he was fortunate enough with ease. In the fourth, however, Lloyd gave the locals an opportunity and quick as a flash the chance was improved. With Koehler on as a result of a hit and Hillinger's fielding out for sacrificed and Walsh, with two strikes on him, smashed the ball to left center right up against the boards. The count was high and long and hot for the bad ankle with which he is handicapped. Walsh would easily have made a triple if he had wanted. With Koehler over on the triple, Core added a second run to the count by bringing the third baseman home with a pretty two-sacker to center. In the fifth Core was hit by a pitched ball but he got to center was dropped by Bagley. Smith's sacrifice put the catcher on second and Kroy moved him to third on his out from Waves to Rosenfield. Walsh landed for a clean single and Wells came home with the last run of the game.

Zanesville Gets One.

Zanesville scratched her only run in the fifth when Spangler led off with a hit and went the circuit on a sacrifice by C. Smith. Sample's bunting choice and Green's inability to handle Waves' short pipe. Score:

The Tribune's Special Service.

DAYTON, O., July 31.—Yesterday's was a battle of the pitchers with "Spitter" O'Brien, of Evansville, opposing ex-Cub and ex-Sailor Jack Taylor, for Dayton. The latter scored a sole run shut-out, the locals one run being responsible to an error. Score:

BRONCHOS AT DAYTON FOR THREE GAME SERIES

Team Leaves Painted Upward and Should Continue Climb.

Their strongest lineup to the front, the pitchers once more in winning form and the team playing more like an organization than it has since it first entered the hospital bed, the Bronchos left last night for a three day series with Dayton. They return for three games with Grand Rapids beginning next Monday afternoon. If ever the Bronchos were in shape to win, judging from recent performances, this is the time. Trust Walsh's stable is still weak enough to cut down the Dayton team's lead. Dayton made some strong bids in its work. Five team is fitting now at its best. Gilt edge is not worth a cent.

But it was only last Thursday that Grand Rapids Bronchos found that since the last slump his followers had lost some of that aggressive base running work that put so many teams up in the air early in the season. He told the men about it and they went to work. Saturday, the day before against Zanesville, with South bedded the hat, it won that game. Also it had a good deal of effect on the final game as Guy Sample, the Zanesville selector of pitchers yesterday, showed an almost confidence-shattering with been on teams that need not but interfere with his twirling.

On the next short stay at home the Bronchos are scheduled to meet with the sinking Raiders for the last Radiation. Dayton is in the last Radiation, having a less than even break at Dayton would mean much to the Bronchos.

Cynical, But Good Advice.

Always seem to believe what a man says without quite doing so. A man may mean what he says when he says it—but men and seasons change.

ED. REULBACH, HOLDING CUBS UP BY HIS WORK

FRANK BOWERMAN HAS RESIGNED MANAGEMENT OF BOSTON DOVES

The first manager of a big league team to throw up his job this season is Frank Bowerman, who has resigned managerial reins of the Boston Nationals. Bowerman could not stand the gaff of a losing team. Catcher Smith is the Boston manager for the remainder. This was Bowerman's first year as a leader. He was secured by Boston before the 1908 season in the trade that took Dreissend and Tenny to the Giants and was given the management this spring. McGraw would like to have him back and has made Boston an offer. He is popular with the New York boss. It is said the Giants a reliable veteran catcher.

HOME RUN AGAIN BEATS THE RAIDERS

TARLETON HERO WITH TWO LONG CLOUTS.

Brings in all Four Steele Runs—Has Won Entire Series by Four Homers.

The Tribune's Special Service.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 31.—For the fourth game in the three game series here, Fred Tarleton yesterday came to the rescue with home runs, making it possible for the Steeles to leave here without a defeat and pushing the Raiders back to the head of the second division. Score, 4 to 3.

Tarleton twice won the game for the Steeles. In the third inning, with the score two to nothing against the visitors and two men on the sacks, Tarleton picked out his favorite place in the left field fence and sent the ball over it, for his third home run in as many days. After Grand Rapids had tied the score in the sixth, again Fred came to the rescue and chased around the bases with the winning run—the ball repeating again outside the left field fence until brought in by a good hook fan.

In Tarleton's game, when honors were shared by the pitcher, Tarleton shared the honors with Donahue, each getting one and being partly responsible for the 3 to 2 victory. On the following day, however, Tarleton alone was responsible for the Steeles' home run going for the only hit allowed by Humphrey during the contest. Nolan, for Wheeling, allowed four bingles but blanked the Raiders by keeping them well scattered. Yesterday's score:

HANS WAGNER ON PIRATE SICK LIST

LEFT GAME YESTERDAY BECAUSE OF INJURY TO SIDE.

Bruised Muscles in Attempt to Slide to Home Plate in Wednesday's Game.

By Associated Press.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 31.—When in the fourth inning of yesterday's game between the Pittsburg and New York baseball teams on Forbes field Hans Wagner swung at a wide one, dropped his bat, quickly placed both hands to his body in the region of his heart, then started for the bench, it was plain to all those present that he was suffering great pain.

Immediately after leaving the game Wagner went to the club house, where he was examined by Dr. Bell, of the club physician. After a brief rub Wagner entered his automobile and drove the machine to his home in Carnegie.

Last Wednesday in the game with Cincinnati, Honus, in trying to slide to home plate, injured himself. The next day he decided to leave the game, although advised to do so by Manager Clarke.

Late last night Dr. Berg, who has been attending Wagner since the injury occurred, stated that there was no cause for alarm. Dr. Berg considered the injury sustained by Wagner to be confined solely to the muscles in the left side.

SCHAFER SENSATION OF PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE

Known as "One Bat Bet" By Opposing Teams.

George "Swipes" Schafer, the local beaver who is serving them up for Vernon in the Pacific league, is the sensation of the circuit, and has been since the start of the season. He is good sign when a pitcher's hams fans are sure of his ability and up money on the same. He is a much better sign when the opposing teams are so sure of his ability that they are rather surprised than otherwise when he fails to pull out a win against their home team.

But that is the position of "Swipes" Schafer. Already the home fans have ceased to fear a defeat when he is in the box. Already other teams have commenced to fear the Vernon team when he opposes them. His best recommendation is the label recently pasted on him by a Los Angeles sporting writer after the Angels had been held to two hits by Schafer. He is now known as "the One Bat Bet." And the double entendre in the fact that he is playing with a bat and team.

"Swipes" is sure "there" on the coast. He likes it there because baseball is played the year round and a ballplayer can go through the game without being jacked every eighth.

CHANCE DENIES REPORT.

Had No Conference With Griffith Over Kling Deal.

CHICAGO, July 31.—In answer to the report that he and Manager Griffith, of the Cincinnati Reds, had been in secret conference over the alleged trade of Catcher John Kling for Pitcher Spoth, Manager Chance, upon his arrival home yesterday, treated the matter with a laugh. Chance said there is a wood of truth in the report. He further denied that he had had any kind of a meeting with Griffith in St. Louis or that there was any deal on for the catcher.

CINCINNATI, O., July 31.—Manager Griffith of the Reds said last night: "Did I go to St. Louis to have a trade with Manager Chance of the Cubs? No, I did not. Manager Chance has nothing he is willing to give me with which I would make a trade for Kling in exchange, and as naturally I am not crazy to make a deal with him. Before false yarns about supposed meetings between scouts from the Head of the Cubs have been spread, then you can shake a stick at. I took a long trip to see Kling and Chance and they have been recommended to me."

SIMPLEX LEADS 24 HOUR AUTO RACE

MISHAWAKA CAR HAD TRAVELED 539 MILES AT 11TH HOUR.

SLIGHTLY BEHIND RECORD

George Robertson Said Loaned in Local Car at Start of Brighton Beach Race—First Splurge Overcame Later Delays.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, July 31.—George Robertson, who was first away from the starting line in the big 24 hour automobile race at the Brighton Beach race track at 9:05 o'clock last night, was leading again at 8 o'clock this morning. His car was a Simplex, the American Simplex car, of Mishawaka, Ind., in front for a few miles and then the car had a varied career, having to leave the track several times for small repairs. Grosse shot ahead with the Stutzen, only to be passed by De Palma in the Fiat car in the 23rd mile.

Simplex Regains Lead.

From that point on to the end of seventh hour De Palma held the lead but at 4 o'clock the Simplex overtook him and passed the Fiat. A tire soon had falling into the machinery a new tire was required and the Simplex had to go to the infield for repairs and it was out of the race for 80 minutes. The Fiatter car then took second place.

At the score at 8 o'clock, the end of the eleventh hour was as follows:

Simplex 539 miles, Rainier 513 miles, Fiat 488 miles, Palmer & Singer 472 miles, Lozier 372 miles, Stearns 362 miles, Acme 310 miles, Haynes 144 miles. Record for 11 hours, 549 miles, made by the Simplex last year.

The Haynes car, which was out of the race for several hours, went on again about 8 o'clock after having a new hub adjusted.

The Simplex which was 15 miles behind the Schmutz's record for nine hours, finished the 450th mile in 8:11:35.

The most serious accident which has occurred thus far in the race was the sensational spill of the Stearns car. The machine was going at speed when it capsized on the turnout of the back stretch. Marquis and Lang Werson were injured. The latter men were around the Stearns camp this morning. They say they will be ready for the race.

Hard luck seemed to follow the Stearns car. At 7:20 o'clock when it was making good headway with Lamont Greene at the wheel the steering knuckle broke and the car was thrown into the fence on the back stretch. A crew of mechanics immediately set to work on it. No one was hurt.

EVANS AND SECKEL TO MEET IN GOLF TRIALS

Defeated Hunter and Edwards at Homewood Yesterday.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Those ancient rivals, "Chick" Evans, of Edgewater, and Albert Seckel, of Riverside, will battle again for golf supremacy, this time with the western championship as the prize. Both lads conquered prominent contenders in the semi-finals at the Homewood links yesterday and by overwhelming scores. Paul Hunter, the sunny-hatted expert from Midlothian, fell before the cunning Evans, 4 to 3, and another Midlothian lad, Jack Edwards, was beaten by Seckel, 5 and 4.

Evans and Seckel know each other's game to a tee, and the match to-day should be a bonanza. They have played each other so often that it seems it has come to be a by-word between them. As a rule Evans has proved the conqueror in the five battles they have played "Chick" has taken four. He defeated Seckel twice in the Illinois public championship at Westward-Ho, once in the Illinois public title, and only two weeks ago in the Westward-Ho open tournament by one up. Seckel trimmed Evans last year in the final round at Lake Geneva.

Evans and Seckel were about the day given the victory to both lads. They are experience match players, despite their youth, and don't let a point slip by them. Evans had a severe attack of illness three or four weeks ago, but he has recovered his strength judging from his long shots from the tee. It will be a battle between a Princeton man and a Northwestern aspirant, as "Chick" will enter the purple colleges in the fall.

Citizens Fast Changing Location.

What will happen to South Bend and Mishawaka, if all the people move to "St. Joe Lake Place?" Nothing detrimental will happen, as it will have the same effect on the health of the people as the Chamber of Commerce stimulates business industries. The people are flocking to "St. Joe Lake Place" in numbers, cutting, you know they just take the Osceola car and in thirty-five minutes are at their summer cottage, over-looking beautiful St. Joe. For a short distance back of Osceola, You will find the most prominent men of Texas and professional men of South Bend, Mishawaka, Osceola and Elkhart, known as the St. Joe River Resort company, are now closing out its first plat, located on St. Joe River, and each Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning, leaves Jefferson and Main sts. Osceola station in automobiles, and escorts prospective purchasers to the "Lake Place," where guests may enjoy a launch ride, and see the cottages, which are being built on the ground, which is sold from $10 to $100 each, $1 down and 50 cents per week without interest; every parcel should buy for the sake of the family, every person should buy for an investment.

The Central Power-House of Publicity

Nowadays one central "power-house" can furnish electricity for running street cars, lighting a city—or for cooking a dinner or running a sewing machine. What was mere "hallucination" about electricity 20 years ago, now seems matter-of-fact.

Nowadays, also, one central "Power-House of Publicity"—such as The Tribune represents and is—can furnish publicity to one man sufficient to "run a store" or to develop an entire suburban town; and to another enough to rent a furnished room or to sell a second-hand sewing machine.

Electricity itself has not a tithe of the wonders are possible to newspaper publicity—nor is it any more certain and effective in its workings and results.

Whatever task you have for it, Tribune publicity is a tireless force that never shirks—that never proves to be "too expensive."
