DOUBLE HEADER SATURDAY—SCANLON MAY WORK

LINDSAY LOSES HARD LUCK GAME

ERROR GIVES STOGIES NEEDED CHANCE TO WIN OUT.

BATTLE ELEVEN INNINGS

Wheeling and South Bend Clubs Stage Well Played Extra Verse Contest With Game Fortune Smiling on Visitors.

One little fumble in the eighth inning of the second diamond wrestle at Springbrook park yesterday deprived Pat Lindsay, hard luck hurler, of a well earned nine inning victory. But you've got to hand it to the little things in life always and every time, and Buzz Wetzel's slip-up shifted the contest for the Bronco into the extra innings, and enabled Monty's band to shove one over and cop a well played gamble, 5 to 3.

Patrick had the Stogies preaching up and strolling back in fairly regular order, with clever fielding stunts and some scientific hurling with stalwart, spited stopping sounds of victory. Southpaw opposed southpaw, Jimmy Graham serving out to the steeds, and each portable wheeler scored out of some tight places with honors. The Bronco had it on the visitors when that fatal mistake occurred in the eighth, and probably would have won out in the regular innings into the extras, and in the end, with things knotted in a scoring way, three bingles, one a scratch, found the Smokes at the plate.

Durham Hits Hard.

Bull Durham was the hitting leader in yesterday's game, three terrific bingles in five trials being counted by the big outfielder. Bull waited until Pat offered him something on which he could get his wrists and then Durham had the final set-to at the plate. The Stogie swung at everything that time, and wiffed. The first one was above his head, the second was a little lower and the third trickled between his shoulders. Bull tickled one which resulted in a tally, however, in the fourth when he laid against a straight one in the groove with the bases full and the pitcher fair over the left field hedge. Durham's bingle also counts the leather autofully, his two clouts giving him a total of five hauls, one of which was of most ticket length. And it all happened as follows:

How the First Tallies Came Over.

The pace was even for several seasons, each club reeling off a hit in the first and a pair in the fourth with Durham's bingle accounting for one in her half. Durham negotiating his three-point drive as the first man up. Wagner hit through the cross infield to right, scoring Bull. Monty forced Durham at second, Graham to Wetzel, play, rather Dunk, who ran for him, was. Murray's walk put two on, but Graham whiffed. He was saving his until the finale.

For the Stogies Geier opened with a single to center, with Montgomery knocked down by a leap but failed to hold. Lefty got on when Lewis booted, and Kelly grounded out to second the infield, and Phil tallied. Lefty scored on Montgomery's error, failed to get nabbed at third on Montgomery's leave. That was all, although Buzz got around to third on the play to catch Core and a passed ball, for Moffitt flew out to first.

Luck Breaks Bad.

Then Dunk Durham got a hand and sided in with "Monk," probably because he is a cripple. At any rate, the luck began to break with the Stogies in the next when Schmick, with Lindsay on second, drove a terrific liner into the infield. Again in the fifth the Stogies tied up, Geier's run slipped in the making, when Savalas completed a double out play, unassisted, Core had just scored Geier, who had let off with a pretty single, and Durham had reached first if for second at top speed when Kelly let loose a low hard cousin along first. Dunk didn't gather far from the bag on the pitch, so nipped what would had been at least a clean single if he had been a foot farther from the sack. Lindsay had Durham on second and past the plate in the eighth when Durham hit to center with one gone. Walsher forced Bull, but advanced, two sacks on Montgomery's hit to right, Monty being caught at first while it was away from him, giving Walsher home. Sager then flew out to first.

Nothing Doing for Bronco.

In the ninth, 10th and the 11th the Bronco had men on, but couldn't turn the trick, while in the final Lefty Geier got a bingle and then stored up 'till and drove over a home run. Wetzel hit the frame with a long drive to left, Montgomery and his outfielding backstop were both safe when Graham gave the Stogies the shade in a pretty fielding session at second on Hillman's hit, Wetzel being caught at the keystone. Sager whiffed and Murray flew out to short. With the fate breathing freely once again, Graham surprised with a clean drive to left which scored Walsher easily. Score:

CENTRAL LEAGUE DOPE.

Charlie Alberts, of Fort Wayne, will probably be purchased by the Terre Haute club. Casey has decided Alberts is too good for the Hoosiers.

Harry Martin cannot report to Terre Haute for a time yet as his injured leg would not stand the strain.

Infielder Kohl, of St. Paul, is backstopping for Eddie Wheeler now. The Miners have both John and Ed Sommers on the injured list.

Zanesville has purchased outfielder Dedrick of Milwaukee. Dedrick hit .324 for Milwaukee last season in 54 games. He was secured to play the left field position left vacant by the Eddie Hickey's illness. Dedrick is one of the game's long time every year players of some standout.

A freak play occurred in the fifth inning of the game between Dayton and Springfield, when Peggy Bender threw himself out at first base. Peggy struck out and Bohner muffed the third strike. The ball bounced out in front of the plate and Bohner ran to first when he saw the ball in front of him. Peggy picked it up and threw to Clement at first. Clearly did not call Peg out until Don stepped on the bag.

CATCHER WELSHER IS PICKED AS A COMER

Baseball Man Thinks Young Stogie Will Stir Up Things Baseballistically.

A young fellow has been holding down an outfield position on the Wheeling club, who has not attracted much attention among the Central circuit as yet, but who will bear watching at every turn of the game, according to local baseball men, who have seen Catcher Welsher in action this season. A boy in years, the Stogie conducts himself with a natural baseball air which marks him as a coming player, and he is free to predict he will create a stir in the big, fast baseball circuit.

Welsher is only 19 years old and is a catcher, his position in the Wheeling club, being explained by the illness of several of Manager Patrick's regulars, which left a gap to close. In two games here he has hit safely five times, and has displayed a knowledge of the game surprising in one so young. John Henry Myers, one of the best judges of baseball talent in the country, from the Terrapin mound, "That young Welsher catcher, you know, John ought to know, for the youthful Stogie tingled fierce off his delivery.

On the last swing around the circuit, he caught a number of games here, and displayed prowess behind the bat. He is no mean outfielder, either, picking off five chances in yesterday's game without an effort. He is a fast runner, and has a good arm out of the bag, but will be more fitted to fill out. He hits from either side of the plate. Eddie Coffey, former South Bend player and one of the heaviest players the Central league has ever seen, thinks well of Welsher.

Coffey's selection of a ball player as a comer is generally taken serious in this section, for he is considered an astute judge of young material. Coffey says he thinks young Welsher steady and meteoric, he will develop into a wonder. And when Eddie Coffey makes a prediction of that sort, the principal in his prophecy is usually worth keeping in sight.

EX-CENTRALS IN MAJORS.

Carey, Bush and Walsh Star in Big Ten Performances.

Ex-Central leaguers were conspicuous in yesterday's games in the majors. Scoops Carey was instrumental in piling up a big score on Chicago yesterday, hitting once and scoring four times. He had two bases on balls and two putouts. In the same game McMatchie, ex-Stogie, secured a run and a hit, a stolen base, one putout and one assist in the field. Pitcher McCarthy won to the same day before yesterday, but didn't count in the offensive departments.

Ownie Bush broke into the scary of the Cleveland-Detroit game, with his bonfires of clouting. Bush hit .300 in 10 games, playing with Infielder Ball, of Cleveland. Owsie had two putouts and eight assists.

In the Philadelphia-Brooklyn extra inning session, Dolly Stark, last year of the Stogies, hung up a tally in the first frame for the Trolley Dodgers. Dolly has been playing shortstop regularly for the Dodgers for nearly a week and showing good form. Hunt Walsh, ex-Central leaguer, was pitching right and for the Phillies, but for two decisions, and scored once. He also sacrificed.

BIG LEAGUE PIPE DREAM.

Rumored Detroit Club Will be Transferred to St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 22.—That there is a big whispering being quietly planned by the magnates of the American league is the weird rumor given credence by close friends of Owner R. L. Hedges of the Browns. The fact that Hedges has been meeting for the past two days with Comiskey of the Chicago and Navin, is cited in support of their belief.

The scheme is said to be to transfer the Detroit club to St. Louis, drop the Tigers into the Mississippi valley, to take in one of the American association cities as the eighth member of the organization. Another rumor is that the American league magnates are trying to deal with the National league to put the eighth club in Pittsburg.

Men close to Hedges claim the scheme last winter was to drive him out, then lend a helping hand to the growers, but the deal for the Browns by Ewing and Hedges' friends claim he has refused help from the other moguls.

Infielder Lewis Sold.

The Tribune's Special Service.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 23.—Infielder Lewis has been sold by the Evansville baseball team to the Cairo, Ill., team, in the "Illini" league, and will play shortstop. Lewis is a promising infielder, being one of the fastest infielders ever seen on an Evansville diamond.

Kendallville Reds to Play.

The Tribune's Special Service.

KENDALLVILLE, Ind., June 22.—The Kendallville Reds will meet Peru July 22 or 26.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Buzz couldn't keep up the hitting streak. He's human, you know. He pumped out one another, though, in three times at bat.

Full credit continues to hit hard. A double and a triple forms a good record for a day's work.

Lewis backed Kerr up against the center field to down his long fly in the third. The drive looked good during three-fourths of its flight.

Lewis made a fine catch in the 11th Graham hit both Kelly and Wetzel, but Finch Hitter Holmes couldn't deliver. Bunt took several in his body during the session.

Graham was forced to quit after pitching his 11 in the match. He is suffering from a sore ligament. Lindsay is credited with but one time at bat. Pat sacrificed once and walked twice.

Durham cut off a drive off Core's fly in the fifth, which was a good piece of work. Durham hit hard and got ten away from the Stogie Lefty could have stopped long thing. As it was he couldn't get any closer to home than second base. Durham made a fine throw to the catching Schmidt-pitched ball.

Kerr made all three putouts in the third. He had a hazy day in center field, but got them. Sam Sager knew what to do all things coming his way but one times.

Graham was extravagant with his gifts. He hit three and walked four, the only safety being third in the 11th when he drove a hard strike. Pat received six on whiffers.

Can you recall Buzz ever pulling off a like stunt before?

TWO OFFERS FOR GRAD FRANCHISE

OHIO CITIES WANT TO BREAK INTO CENTRAL LEAGUE.

ESSICK WILL HURL SUNDAY

Vinegar Bill Selected to Twirl an Pennant-Raising Day—Brooches Plan to Attend Detroit-Chicago Game—Dope.

That Grand Rapids will lose its franchise in the Central league is becoming more certain every day since the league took over the Central holdings in the Wolverine city. Several applications have been received at headquarters, for berths in Carson's circuit, and President Cutten regards both favorably. One is from the Newark club of the Ohio State league, and the name of the other is withheld from publication.

Newark is situated but 24 miles from Zanesville, and has a population of 25,000, although the baseball public is much larger in proportion than most Central league cities. The baseball fever there is at fever heat, and Dr. Carson believes it would add strength to the Central in case the league disposes of the Grand Rapids franchise. An invitation to Grand Rapids people interested in the ownership of the club and anyone contemplating purchase of the club to attend the league meeting here has been extended by Dr. Carson, who is president of the Grand Rapids club, ready to keep the club in Michigan.

Grant Investigating.

Owner Angus Grant, of the Evansville baseball club, was notified by President Cutten to investigate conditions at Newark. Grant was selected as being most conveniently situated to take a short trip to the Ohio city. Grant is a big lumber operator in Indiana and is located in the Buckeye state, and is either the O. & P. or Ohio State leagues, which the league head would like to have in the fold.

A meeting of the league directors has been set for Monday at the Oliver hotel, as if Grand Rapids fans wish to keep a club in their city it is up to them. They will have an opportunity to present the matter either in person or by representative.

Planning Pennant Raising Here.

While the Wolverine fans are wondering whether G. R. will be on the baseball map less than a week hence, South Bend rooters are engaged in booming pennant raising day, which occurs next Saturday. Monty's band has been engaged by the Jefferson Boulevard Boosters' association, and following a parade about the business district beginning at Stoffel's cigar store morning, at 10 o'clock, the rooters will hike to Springbrook park where, after their will hoist the pennant with appropriate ceremonies. Each club member will carry a South Bend pennant attached to a cane.

Vinegar Bill Essick will on Sunday is the announcement that Bill Essick will perform from the Bronco. Vinegar has not lost a game since he joined the steeds during their last stay at Grand Rapids, and has pitched some wonderful ball, being the only hurler responsible for the Dayton Veis to no, rings this season.

In the double-header scheduled with Zanesville for to-morrow, Dave Martin and John Henry Myers are slated for the mound duties. Dave Martin would take the bill this afternoon.

Plan to Attend "Big" Game.

The Brooches are planning to attend the Detroit-Chicago game Monday, or if one can be found the advancement of their blue day contest to Saturday, and they expect to get some pointers in watching Ty Cobb and Jennings, and Hugh Jennings in their hitting strength when they invade Cleveland. They intend to outfit even the Ross who have been slugging the ball all season for average, and have a fine time in the Middle-town-Cleveland contest. Jim Dunn will down a partition with the Graham outfield. Midgs has been on the supposition that he can take the league lock over the franchise it was decided by Cutten to transfer from Grand Rapids, name from the blackbird and send him to the Wolverine city if he wanted to go. Midgs was reached over the telephone at a Michigan lake resort where he and Pope Wills were depleting the free tribe stock, and gladly agreed to break in at Grand Rapids Sunday. Midgs was released yesterday with 30 fish they had congealed over into Indiana. Gus, hooked by the ex-Bronco secretary, weighed over five pounds.

Schaefer Wants Better Contract.

Although it was reported Sixto Schaefer had gone to Grand Rapids to join the Graduates, it develops yesterday that the Sixto was a free agent class unless better inducements are offered. He has had an offer from Wheeling, but refused it because he could not get a contract whereby he would be given his unconditional release at the close of the season.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 23.—What is declared to be the greatest military baseball tourney in the history of the national sport, will start Saturday when the first games of a series for the championship of the maneuver division of the United States army will be played. Ten teams are entered for games each day until July 15. More than 300 players and a large number of officials are camped at Fort Sam Houston will participate.

NEW ORLEANS, June 23.—Five southern athletes will compete in the national track and field championships in Pittsburg June 30 and July 1. They are E. H. Schoen, pole vaulter; R. A. Barker, weights; Dave Johnstone, hammer; Ed Ryan, the Young Men's Gymnastic club, and Jim Gourlie, Rockville run, Broadway, Brooklyn. Keokuk Player S'aps "Ump."

KEOKUK, Ia., June 23.—Placer Hilly, of the Keokuk team assaulted Umpire Magee yesterday and was ejected from the grounds by the police. Hilly was hit on the head by a pitched ball. But Magee failed to see it and did not allow the hazier to go to first. Angered at the decision the player struck the umpire in the face twice before players interfered.

Challenge Chester Player.
