SQUAD HAS WORKOUT

FOOTBALL CANDIDATES AT NOTRE DAME SHOW PROGRESS.

DWAN TRIES FOR QUARTER

Guthrie, Downs and Healy Are Missing From University—McGuire, Prospective Center is Dismissed by Coach.

The finest workout of the practice season was enjoyed by Coach McGlew's football warriors at Notre Dame yesterday. Thirty in the day the tackling dummy was hung up and each man was given a thorough drill in tackling. The tackling machine is in almost continual use, especially for the linemen.

Yesterday Draper had charge of the backfield candidates and put them through an hour of starting and getting away from the marks. Bonnacker, Hill, Fuqua, Sliver and Dwan composed his bunch. Dwan has not made his debut into football society, though he is known for his clever work on the track. He is a stocky little fellow weighing about 150 pounds. He is fast, serve and heads with sugar well for his success as a quarterback. Watkins and Smith two new men joined the squad yesterday.

Yesterday it was learned that Dave Guthrie last year's star half back has left school and the question is being raised as to the return of big "Bill" Downs and "Tom" Healy. Neither Guthrie nor Healy has been doing work at center has been dismissed from the squad for breaking the training rules.

More Men for Michigan.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 14.—Workman and Patrick, good, husky, fast men of last year's reserves have reported for the varsity squad. Coaching has been heard from Tom and Harry Hammond and Schulte of the Varsity team. The two former are sure to be here and there are doubts only about the big guard.

Wisconsin May Protest Brush.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 14.—Word received here from Madison intimates that the Badgers are thinking of trying to protect Brush, the heavy tackle of the Minnesota football team. The Gopher supporters would consider such action unsportsmanlike.

Soon for Illinois Stock.

Urbana, Ill., Sept. 14.—The preliminary drill of the football squad of Illinois, at practice yesterday, tipping the scales at 215 pounds, when last year he weighed about 195, gave a rising impetus to football stock. Twenty-five men were in uniform. Twinkers on hand up to four, while Wheeler, subquarter, joined the squad. The appearance of Pinckney, the half back from Poulton, also caused cheer, as he is eligible and looks good to the coaches. Mannoch, Wiant and Appleton of the Varsity squad are in the game still. Mannoch is a big man, who may fill one of the gaps in the line.

McCormack is Disappointed.

Mukwonago, Wis., Sept. 14.—Coach McCormack's hopes of a substantial increase in the size of the squad received a setback yesterday when no additional man reported to him yesterday. Jimmy Turner checked here, but he was not accompanied by a half dozen other players as had been expected.

A rumor that Weinberger will not be in college this year has caused a stir. His absence will reduce the list of back field candidates to the minimum, Weinberger being the only fullbacks. Not a word has been heard from Indian Johnson or Davis, the big senior.

Fast Work at Indiana.

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 14.—The Indiana men are working with a spirit and zeal that never before has been seen here so early in the season. Yesterday the first scrimmage of the season was gone through with and a special formation was tried in which the two teams did some fast work. Pratt is shifting the men about considerably.

On Eastern Gridirons.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 14.—Although the full Yale squad was not here, informal practice was taken yesterday. Head Coach Jack Owsley, of Chicago, and Captain Tom Shevlin, of Minneapolis, arrived on the scene and signing and jamming were attempted by the few candidates present.

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 14.—The Harvard football season opened most auspiciously yesterday when 75 candidates reported to Coach Reid for the first practice. The squad numbered a large proportion of the men who played on the crimson team in the Yale and Pennsylvania games last year.

Coach Dashiell and Captain Howard, of the navy team, had about 40 members of the new fourth class on the field yesterday. There are plenty of good, active players among the new men, and the outlook is bright.

West Point, N. Y., Sept. 14.—In order to get a line on the men yesterday the first hard scrimmage was held. The work of the team showed that they are in good shape and promised well for a fast team. Especially noticeable was the manner in which they worked together and helped the runner. In a short line up of 15 minutes the scrub goal line was twice crossed.

SPORT IN BRIEF FORM.

A Little of Everything From All Parts of the Country.

Efforts to bring Sysesky, Artful and Hamburg Belle together have failed. The owners of the three fastest horses in the United States seem content to let them rest with the laurels they have won in classes with inferior sprinters.

The sporting world can't agree whether Nelson should meet Joe Gans or Jimmie Gardner. The adherents of each claim he is entitled to first consideration.

Herman B. Duryea, formerly racing partner of Harry Payne Whitney, is to become a breeder of thoroughbreds, probably at Silverbrook farm, near Red Bank, N. J.

His real name is Oscar Dalling Duryea. He is a brother of Charles Duryea, Ill. Birthplace, Cypress Island.

A fight of interest is the coming contest in Salt Lake City, Utah, of Gus Ruhlin and Jim Willis. The go is slated within a few weeks.

Eastern athletes are disappointed because Charles Paddock, the great California sprinter, has entered Wisconsin university. After he won the 100-yard run in 9 4-5 at Portland, Ore., he was asked to get him to enter an eastern college.

Yale coaches have given up hope of getting Thompson, the Andover guard. They are satisfied Cornell has bagged him.

After his loss this winter as "a three-base hits, while Coggswell, of Wheeling, leads with 11 two-base hits to his credit.

After all, the relations between Dayton and Springfield are just about as they were last year, were or ever will be—Dayton Herald.

Springfield Has Reputation of Being Home of Rowdies.

The following are a few o'clock of Springfield as given by baseball men:

"Springfield is one of the fickle managers in the game. Yes, to-day."—J. Hub Knell.

"Springfield is a cur and a coward. He did not have nerve enough to play yesterday but when the ex-umpire ran across the field and was the spirit of the game he was ready to continue."

"The trouble with Springfield is that the players are rowdies for the most, and are supported by a manager who generally makes it his business to encourage such."—Umpire Byron.

"Springfield would resort to and blackguard anything to win a game. Nobody ever cares to win in Springfield. If there is a chance it's about as big as that of a snowball in Padan."—John Gaston, manager Grand Rapids.

"Springfield is a good dirty player and some dirty players, but none can top the mark with Springfield."—Bert Dennis, manager Terre Haute.

"It is the city that is the greatest cesspool of rowdyism in the world. The actions of the rowdies headed by Hendricks as chief supporter and organizer of such events. If there is anything in dirty ball—saying that Hendricks is not—I do not know. Hendricks is not fit to be a model for rowdies."—H. C. Balmer, sporting editor Dayton Herald.

"A war respecting man cannot umpire at Springfield."—Chas. O'Connor, umpire.

"Springfield is the worst town in the country for an umpire. If the Infield loses they mob the indictator man."—Umpire Harry Woods.

"The directors are to blame for the rowdyism existing at Springfield."—Umpire Reddy Mack.

NEWS FROM THE TRACKS.

Bolivar Wins the Feature Event at Milwaukee, Wis.

The 2:12 pacing race for the M. & M. stake of $1,000 at Milwaukee, Wis., brought out a big field, 12 horses facing the starting judge. Of these ten finished, which of itself illustrates how closely the race was contested. The finishes were exciting; Bolivar took the race in 2:07¼. Ed. Patch, who took the first heat, hung close to the leader in the next three, landing second twice and third once. The 2:40 trot for a purse of $1,000 brought out six horses and though Little Wonder was favorite, Dr. Strong was bought in the race in three straight heats it was done in fast time for the class, two heats being in 2:17¼ and 2:12¼. Silver was second in each heat. The 2:15 trot was won by Ethel Dillard in 2:12¼. She finished the race in the lead in the three heats in succession.

J. H. Antz's Alwin, a maiden up to the time meeting at Hopkinton, Mass., was taken to Metuchen, N. J., Wednesday, from a large field, which included the Brooklyn Derby winner, Cabrogen, the Buffalo Derby winner, Oxford, Oliver Greenwell, Atlantic former champion, and Ethel Gamble, in a drive in one race at Sheepshead Bay. The special feature of the card at Metuchen was the attempt of Dan Patch to lower his own and the world's pacing record of 1:58 to a mile and 1:55 to a mile in 2:00¾. He succeeded, however, in reducing the track record three-quarters of a second.

John W. Gates, it is reported, is "very sick" and has instructed his trainer to carry his own colors on the turf.

SAM LEEVER BEST PITCHER.

Mathewson is Now Second Twirler in National League.

Sam Leever by his recent great work in the box has passed "Christy" Mathewson and now leads the pitchers in the National league. Leever, the Pirates' new man, is on the top of the list, but he has pitched only two games.

MYRVIN HART, LOUISVILLE PUGILIST, POSSESSES REQUISITES OF CHAMPION

Myrvin Hart, the Louisville pugilist, is certain that he has the timber in him to make a champion and he expressed the greatest desire to meet all the big lighers of note in order to demonstrate his ability. Hart has an amateur fought in the Bluegrass city way and others were at San Juan hill in the heavy weight bands with Spain, he ought to be able to lick anything that came along. "I don't brag much about what I can do," he said, "but I know I can lick any of the big men in the world, and I want to do it. I want to make a champion and be at the top lighers of note in order to demonstrate my ability. Hart has an amateur fought in the Bluegrass city way and others were at San Juan hill in the heavy weight bands with Spain, he ought to be able to lick anything that came along. "I don't brag much about what I can do," he said, "but I know I can lick any of the big men in the world, and I want to do it. Hart has an amateur fought in the Bluegrass city way and others were at San Juan hill in the heavy weight bands with Spain, he ought to be able to lick anything that came along. "I don't brag much about what I can do," said Hart, in a recent interview in Louisville "and would just as soon make a match with Jim Jeffries as with Mike Schrock, who, I suppose, will be my next opponent. I do know that I can lick anything in sight, and all the other lighers are my pupils and the sooner they come on the better, I'll like it." All of this goes to show that Hart possesses one of the requisites of a champion pugilist—he can talk.

PADDEN PASSES TO RANKS OF THE MINORS.

The announcement that "Dick" Padden has tumbled from the line-up of the Chicago Cubs and has been sent to the manager's shoes of the Minneapolis team, of the American association, will be no surprise to fandom.

Padden has been fighting all season to hold his place in the Cubs' line-up, the wing has seemed for him will the majors. In the minor leagues he should prove a capable manager, but as he succeeds one of the western's most popular men, Mike Kelly, he will not have the backing he should get.

From a consistent loser, Watkins brought the Milers up near the top and each season saw them, one-two-three, in the pennant race. Watkins is the best manager in the game, there is little doubt, and he is playing the sort of ball that made people work.

Has won 19 of them, giving him a percentage of 793. Mathewson has worked in 21 games and won 17 of them. Ames will manage behind the mask, Lefty Leifield will be the left fielder, Lefty Taylor is seventh and McGinnity tenth.

Scanlon is Brooklyn's best pitcher. He has succeeded in winning half the games he has pitched. Ed. Reulbach, Chicago, with 11 wins out of 16 games.

PAW PAW LOSES CONTEST.

South Bend Central Leaguers Score Easy Victory.

The Tribune's Special Service.

Paw Paw, Mich., Sept. 14.—The South Bend Central league team easily defeated the local club yesterday afternoon, scoring eight runs in the last inning of the game. The game was interesting only for the fact that the Central league players pulled off several spectacular plays with hardly an effort. After clinching the game the Hoosiers were easily handled. Ed. Patch, who took the place in the box, hung close to the leader in the next three, landing second twice and third once. The 2:40 trot for a purse of $1,000 brought out six horses and though Little Wonder was favorite, Dr. Strong was bought in the race in three straight heats it was done in fast time for the class, two heats being in 2:17¼ and 2:12¼. NELSON DRAWS COLOR LINE.

Joe Gans Cannot Get a Fight With Him.

San Francisco, Sept. 14.—"There are two things that Battling Nelson won't do," declared Billy Nolan yesterday with much emphasis, "and one is to give away weight to Jimmy Gardner and the other is to fight Joe Gans. This you can state without fear of getting wrong. Nelson is a lightweight. He will do the lightweight limit, 133 pounds, but no 133 or 135. Gardner is a good man and that is a reason why Nelson should not leave his class to fight him. Nelson is a lightweight.

Central League Dope.

The signing of "Lefty" Core for "the 1906 Wheeling outfield is a ten-strike for that team. When Core went to Wheeling last spring he was a raw recruit, but his work at Canton, O., and Wilkesbarre, Pa., has given finishing touches to his style of play and he is now ready for faster company. Price's release will probably be sold to Canton, O., or Erie, Pa., it is said that "Mose" Wartmeder is secured by the Singles he will be welcomed by the Wheeling bunch, a fast public will hold sociable. He is as good a fielder and better than Price. In Price this season batted much better than the Oklahoma school teacher.

The Sugar Bowl has been fitted up in view for Wheeling, Louisville, or the Atlantic association, is after dates as is Danville, champions of the Illinois-Indiana league.

The boys around Dayton now say that dead post-season spring with Springfield the "Post-season" series. Evansville defeated Mt. Carmel 8 to 1 yesterday.

Guess Once More.

Gans and Nelson have taken part in every game played by South Bend since the fight for the championship opened. Here's better yet. Hooks played two full seasons and part of the third with Fort Wayne and never missed a game. Farrer, Hanlin Tribune.

Sager missed three games during the season and Hooks failed to appear on the third week in at least four games this season.

Throw Game to Kazoo.

The Kalamazoo Gazette says: "The South Bend Central leaguers thought they were up against an easy stuck Tuesday and did not try to play. Big innings passed before they discovered their mistake and by that time six runs were in. But they could not overcome the lead and the game ended with the score 8 to 2."

Dodges Vs. Hammond.

The Dodges, of Mishawaka, will play Hammond at Springbrook park, next Sunday. An excellent contest will result.

MAY HAVE VILLAGE

BELIEVED COMMISSION VIEWS COUNTY WITH FAVOR.

Efforts of Mishawaka Business Men to Secure State Epileptic Establishment Are Appreciated.

L. L. Whitcomb, of Franklin; Stephen I. Brown, of Knox, and Nora Mattherly, of Washington, who compose a commission appointed by Gov. Hanly to select a site for the proposed Indiana village for epileptics, left South Bend at 7 o'clock this morning on the Three I railroad, intending to go to Hamlet, Ind., to inspect a site proposed by people in that part of the state.

The commission came to South Bend Tuesday evening to inspect sites offered by business men and other citizens of Mishawaka, who have been conducting a long campaign in the hope of securing the village for St. Joseph county. Two sites were inspected, one being a farm of about 160 acres, about three and one-half miles east of Mishawaka and lying on both sides of the Indiana Railway company's electric line to Elkhart with the St. Joseph river as a northern boundary. The other site is south of the river and east of Mishawaka and contains about 1,500 acres. It is owned by Samuel Julian and others.

Members of the commission refused to express themselves as favoring one site rather than the other, but it is thought they are more favorable to the former. They appeared to be very well pleased with their treatment in South Bend and expressed the hope that they would be able to establish the village in this county. Hon. Thad M. Talbott, jr., of this city, and Dr. C. W. Sink, of Mishawaka, are of the opinion that the commission will be favorably impressed with much favor upon the county and they have hopes that the county will be selected as the home of the proposed village.
