ANDREWS JOINS NINE

YOUNG MICHIGAN PLAYER OVERS SHORT FOR GREENS.

LEAGUERS BEAT NOTRE DAME

Arrangements are Completed for the South Bend-Grand Rapids Game at Bellingham, Park Tomorrow — Baseball News.

Andrews, of Dowagiac, Mich., transferred to Michigan from Kalamazoo and despite the cold day took care of short in the game between the leaguers and Notre Dame, played at Notre Dame instead of Springbrook park. Andrews evidently is in form as he finished in good shape in practice and in the game secured two pretty hits.

Yesterday's game was pulled off on five minutes' notice but it was all that the players could do to finish the 9th inning. Moffit, who pitched the first three innings, struck out five collegians and did not allow a single student to cross the plate. Ferguson did not fare so well. Not wishing to take any chances he hobbled the ball over the plate and allowed the varsity to send seven men over the plate in the last innings. The score was as follows:

UMPIRE PETERS IS DROPPED.

President Bennet Appoints Hart, of Cincinnati, to Succeed Chicago Man.

Charles J. Peters of Chicago, will not act as a regular umpire in the Central league this year. Hart, of Cincinnati, O., having been appointed to succeed him. Peters was an umpire in the Three I-league last year and his work was such that it is alleged he narrowly escaped being roughly handled by the fans. The Tribune recently reviewed Peter's work and Bennet decided to take no chances.

The staff of umpires including Hart, of Cincinnati, Kane, of Louisville, Tucker, of Indianapolis and Cantillon, of Chicago have been ordered to report to President Bennet in Kingsville on April 24 two days before the opening of the league season. At that time they will receive their instructions and assignments.

President Bennet has issued the following statement in regard to umpires and players:

"We will begin with careful and conscientious work from the umpires this year, and in turn will look up the men just as long as they are in the turf. The club owners have agreed to stand by me and issue stringent orders to their managers to insist upon their players playing ball all the time. As the clubs will be reduced to twelve men by the first of June no team can afford to have very many runs out of the game at one time. A circular letter will be issued to managers to the effect that if any player is fined twice the Central league is to be conducted without a business loss this year and as long as I am at the head of the organization. I will not hesitate to fine and if need be stop any managerial. I am not taking an arbitrary stand, by any means, but am representing the various club owners, and will surely be carrying out the rules as they are laid down.

"There was too much rowdy business last year for the general good of the organization, many of the players taking advantage of good nature, but this year conditions will be changed. There will be no more of what is generally known as 'Umpire baiting,' and there are the guarantees that will receive equal attention from me if they try former tactics. I shall do nothing in a hasty way, but I shall make it a point that the men, but I shall insist at all times that players must act as gentlemen upon the ball field the same as when walking the streets of a city. The day of the rowdy in the game is a thing of the past so far as the Central league is concerned."

NEWS OF THE CENTRAL LEAGUE.

Indianapolis Panel Scouts Well at Fort Wayne Team.

"By numerous which is another word for alabaster," says the Indianapolis Star, we may have given the impression that the Ft. Wayne team is not such stickers. If so, we take it back. There is a team that should be able to stuff the ballot box in the Central league contest again. If necessary. The team is weak up of a very lot, and the players all seemed to be discouraged at the end of the game. Not on Nice to Play Baseball. Their habit of laying the ball down and then getting in first ahead of it was pretty to look upon, even if it was discouraging to a home partisan."

The Terre Haute Central league team will be in Fort Wayne for a three game series next Wednesday, April 20.

Lantz, well printed official schedules of the Central league season have been sent to all clubs on the circuit by Secretary Leslie M. The Proper Thing to Do.

"Public life" during one of his visits to Chicago, was the guest of honor at a dinner given by Mrs. Potter Palmer.

"Colonel, what would you do in a crowded theater if a man yelled 'Fire!!'" asked the hostess.

"I would take him at his word if I had my side arms with me," replied the famous plainsman grimly; "but it is not I should do the best best thing in case of fire."

"What is that?"

"Put him out."—New York Times.
