OUTDOORS

Fishing for fun times

■ Elkhart festival at McNaughton Park has plenty to offer.

By LOUIE STOUT

The U.S. Open Matchfishing Championship and a youth fishing derby will highlight the Elkhart City and Parks Department Fishing Festival next weekend in McNaughton Park.

Most of the festivities will be held Saturday. In addition to the competition, local clubs and vendors will be displaying at the Park Pavilion Saturday between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. and an aquatic biologist will conduct a presentation about "Fish of the St. Joe River" at 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

U.S. Open Matchfishing (USO) will be getting up goodies all day and Mike McNelly, Executive Producer of the Versus Network, really fishing and competing at the U.S. World Championship for Fishing Team will be on hand. Live music will be provided throughout the afternoon.

The Matchfishing will be conducted from the St. Joseph River bank between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. The Matchfishing anglers from the U.S. Canada and Europe will be participating and the public is invited to look on.

At 1 p.m. Saturday, the U.S. team participating in the World Spearfishing Championship this fall will conduct a fishing demonstration.

The Midway Bait and Tackle "Kids Fishing Derby" will begin with check-in at 8:30 a.m. Saturday with competition from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Entry fee is $4 per child and the first 50 to enter receive goody bags. The top three finishers in two age groups (7-12 and 13-17) will receive prizes. Kids must provide their own gear and bait, although bait will be sold in the park. For more information about the youth contest, call Mike McNelly (574-474-8800).

For information about the Matchfishing or other festival events, contact Tony Hoyer (574-202-4877).

Eagle parking closed
The former "Duck" parking lot across from the Eagle Lake boat launch in Edvardshaus has been closed.

The lot is now owned by First Sun Bank which has signed off the area and prohibits boat trailer parking. There is limited parking along the road.

RAB results
South Bend native Greg Mangum (Preston, Ind.) and Kevin Fischer (Elkhart) caught a limit of bass weighing 14.51 pounds to win the RAB Bass event on Lake Winoma last weekend.

SOCCER
Invaders making an impact

SOUTH BEND — The game of soccer has always existed behind basketball, baseball and American football in youth participation and overall popularity in this country.

Last summer's run by the United States soccer team in the World Cup helped a little bit, but at Indiana is still struggling.

Assistant coach Chris Anderson thinks gaining attendance for the club is a work in progress and something that will take time to accomplish.

"It (attendance) could be better, but we're working on it and trying to get it out of people to the games," Anderson said.

While South Bend may not seem like a hotbed for soccer talent, the Invaders have been very successful in selling players onto other professional teams.

"We have had over 20 moves on brother pro teams and three have played in World Cup qualifiers," Anderson said.

After a slow start, the Invaders have won their last two games in their first record to 2-2-1 as they head on the road for their next four contests, with stops in Chicago, London and Toronto.

Founded in 1988 by former Notre Dame soccer player Mario Manta, the Invaders are currently a Premier Development League (PDL) team in the United Soccer League (USL). The league not only has a professional team, but also youth teams ranging from ages 8 to 17.

The youth leagues have attracted plenty of local talent, including South
