Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 24.—Although clinging firmly to the lead in the two-man team event of the national bowling tournament, Chicago lost its grip, temporarily at least, on the individual championship yesterday.

Contestants for individual honors will have to do better than 651 to annex the championship. This mark was set by C. M. Anderson, of St. Paul. Bowling in magnificent form, he went straight through from start to finish without a break of an error and exceeded the mark set by Otto Kupfer, of Chicago, by 18 pins. His count is four pins better than that made by Martin Kern, the present holder of the title. Anderson's scores by games was 205, 239 and 218, an average of 217.

Kupfer's figures subsequently were threatened by A. W. Allison, of Washington, who rolled 622. Next to Anderson, who rolled 651, E. D. Feiler, the plucky member of the Columbian Knights team, of Chicago, sent his carvings into the pins with telling effect and landed well up among the leaders.

Officials Tie the Air.

So mixed up in the schedule that the overworked tournament officials did not know until this noon how many two men teams were left to roll. There are eight. Unless one of them should break even with the Birsch-Rolle team, it is probably is practically assured to Birsch and H. Rolle, of Chicago, who scored 1,313 pins. These figures are 35 better than the total made by Kraus and Nothnagle, of Cleveland, and Kraus and Nothnagle, of New York, who at Chicago with 1,302. Steers and McLain, of Chicago at Buffalo with 1,297, and Collin and Schlach, of Columbus, at Indianapolis with 1,295.

Two pairs rolled yesterday, Tuttle and Willsing, of San Francisco, getting some recompense for their long trip by rolling a place in the prize list with 1,278.

A feature of this score was 232 made by Willsing, which ties the high individual game for national tournaments made at Indianapolis by Kaltenacher, Chicago, and Dickel, Youngstown.

Will C. Barton who rolled a total of 641 pins in the tournament yesterday averaged 197 to the game. He also rolled 4th among 201 bowlers.

SPRINGFIELD IS ALL RIGHT.

Business Men Will Not Allow Town to Be Dropped.

The Tribune's Special Service.

Springfield, O., Feb. 25.—Springfield will retain its franchise in the Central league, notwithstanding the efforts of certain parties to make it impossible to play Sunday baseball here. Businessmen who have been interviewed state that they will interest themselves in keeping the city on the baseball map and that any attempt to stop the game will be met with sharp resistence on their part.

Sunday games have been played in and about this city for the last three years with little or no opposition, and it may be safely stated that if the Sunday game is prohibited here the letter of the franchise, Springfield will certainly be in the league.

Now that it has gone this far, all reports except that from South Bend, Indiana, are to the effect that unless the matter may be stirred up as never paper stories, published merely for the effect of stimulating interest in the game, and that purpose they have accomplished, Springfield will be one of the where possibly it is the most talked of matter at the present time.

Baseball will pay in Springfield. Those who love the game are anxious to see it continued here, and those who are not are hoping just as strongly that it will be a reality as they realize what it will mean to them in a financial way.

The matter has been thoroughly threshed out already, but it is a safe proposition that there will be a few surprises handed out a week from Monday when the magnates of the Central league meet in Springfield to adopting a schedule. Take this how even and stick a pin to it, Springfield will be in the Central league, and if W. A. Dunsh, the present owner of the franchise, is not the man to stand by the local team there are scores of substantial businessmen who would jump at the opportunity to get control of the franchise.

CONDENSED NEWS OF BASEBALL.

Directory of National Association to Meet in Chicago March 2.

Outfielder "Davy" Jones has been sold to the Minneapolis American association team by the Chicago Nationals.

The board of directors of the National Association of Minor League clubs will meet in Chicago March 2, when the question of an increased draft price will again be considered. It looks as though the compromise offered by President Johnson of the American league, would be accepted by the minors.

The Western league is meeting in Chicago this afternoon. The principal work of the session is to adopt a schedule.

The schedule committee of the Southern Baseball league is in session at Montgomery, Ala., to-day.

Baseball pun stills whatever asked $2,500 for the Japanese player signed by Manager McGraw. "Mugsy" is working the game for all it is worth. Three years ago when leader of Baltimore John gave out that he had signed an Indian for his club. The man was said to be a star, a bad one of those redskins. Mugsy kept the Indian in the straight until Chicago was reached. Hotel a hotel waiter recognized the "Indian" as Grant, the quality ball player.

Senator Baird, of the Michigan legislature, will introduce a bill allowing the playing of baseball in Michigan on Sunday. Outline interested in the Detroit American league baseball club are said to have the measure framed up for them. The bill is confined to personal game participation. By voting to table an amendment to the bill prohibiting Sunday baseball games and theatrical performances the senate killed the bill last week. Yesterday Baird did the bill after several attempts had been made to amend it and a motion postponing its consideration indefinitely had been voted down.

BOOKS HAVE GOOD DAY.

Long Shots at New Orleans Have Easy Going.

The races at the New Orleans La., Crescent City track yesterday were given over to the long shots entirely and favorites were down to defeat with startling regularity, just one of the first choices getting first money. The winners ranged in prices from 4 to 1 to 25 to 1 and since the Bay was over the books had all the pick. The winners were Frank Rice, Sacrifice, Tinkish, Tom Maskim, Whatever Possesses.

Though not yet at its best, the going was excellent at the New Orleans La., Jockey club's city park yesterday. Four favorites won and the fourth and fifth races were well backed. Sharp Boy was the first race and Lady Peggy repeated this performance in the last race. The winners were Brooklyn Belmont, Thoroughbred, Green Gown, Sun Shine and Lady Peggy.

Dan Nicholas led the procession in the fourth race at San Francisco yesterday and Divine beat Parrack a block for the place. Meanwhile re-rated to-day. Mr. Parrack, who is a good judge of horses, had put several good things. Other winners were Roman Gold, Andrew Mack and Wise Boy.

Ball plans to have the fight somewhere in Canada on Dominion Day. It must be to a finish, he says.

MORRISON WINS FROM ROSS.

Benton Harbor Fighter Defeats Kansas City Man in Four Rounds.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Feb. 25.—Jimmy Ross, of Kansas City, was down in defeat last night before Johnny Morrison, of St. Joseph, in the fourth round. A terrific right hook to the jaw did the business.

Tommy Ryan, Morrison's manager, who was in Ross' corner, had a battle with Benny Yanger, of Chicago, who challenges any 130-pounder in the world to beat Morrison.

HOW TO OPEN A BOOK.

Right and Wrong Way in This as There is in Everything.

Many people, when they first come into possession of a new book, are apt to spoil the back by not knowing how to open that book properly. Here are a few hints as to the best way of opening a volume: It should be held with its back on a table, the front board cover should be let down, the leaves being held in one hand. Next, the other board cover should be let down. Following this operation, a few leaves should be opened at the back, then a few at the front, and soon, alternately opening back and front, gently pressing upon the sections till the center of the volume is reached. The best results will be obtained if this is done two or three times. If the book is vigorously or carelessly opened in any one place, the back will very likely be broken—Pearson's Weekly.

Spaniels Always on Duty.

Spaniels are full of resource, and their exploits in retrieving wounded birds are wonderful. A small brown and white spaniel broke its forelimb which was set in stiff bandages hardened with some preparation. It could only go on three legs, but hopped out to the stubble with the other dogs when those were taken for a walk. There had been a pleasant shoot, and the little spaniel could not resist slipping off to small down the side of a small belt. It discovered a winged cock pheasant, hopped after it on three legs and caught and retrieved it, hopping into the road with the big bird in its mouth.—Country Gentleman (London).

Arsenic in Daily Food.

The average person takes about 0.003 grains of arsenic in his daily food. Fish, rock-salt, water, and wine are comparatively rich in arsenic.

MOST REMARKABLE PAIR OF TROTTING OSTRICHES IN THE COUNTRY.

BLACK DIAMOND AND WHIRLWIND.

Really the most remarkable pair of "trotters" in the country are Whirlwind and Black Diamond owned by Thomas A. Cockburn, of Arkansas. These trained ostriches are driven in a pneumatic speeding wagon and under favorable conditions can do their half mile in 1:00 or better. This is a 2:00 clip which only the fastest horse trotters can surpass when hooked to a sulky. In addition to the speed of the birds has been pitted against many other speedy birds, including heavy harness horses, but with the more racing than has lost.

Black Diamond, the larger, though not the faster of the birds, stands about nine feet eight inches high and weighs two hundred pounds. He is 12 years old and has been driven by his owner for five years, valued at $10,000.

Not all ostriches can be

Mr. Cockburn, who owns an ostrich farm, tries out 12 or 14 young birds each year, and considers himself lucky to find one among them that like Black Diamond, can be trained to race. This instinct developed in a remarkable extent and will struggle like a thoroughbred to win a race when pitted against a horse. He was broken to harness years ago, and is at once the fastest and best trained bird in the country.

NEW IRON INDUSTRY

HERMAN T. COHN ARRANGES TO OPEN BIG YARD.

Establishment Will Be Located on South St. Joseph Street—Affiliated With Large Concerns.

Herman T. Cohen has secured the immediate w.ll the Cohen department store on South Scott street, and will in the future be engaged in the iron and metal business. The new industry will be located at 425-427 South St. Joseph street, immediately south of the Schuler & Kingel building and, will be known as the Ind.a Iron and Metal company. The place will be fitted with all the necessary equipment for the successful conduct of the business on a very extensive scale.

The establishment will be run in connection with the Alex Cohen yards at Indianapolis, and the Cohen & Sedgwick yard at Anderson, Ind., each representing a large and successful business concern in the state. The subject of these gentlemen in affiliating with the local concern is to gain a foothold in this city owing to the vast amount of iron and metal to be manufactured and sold in the city of South Bend.

Associated with Mr. Cohen in the management of the business will be Philip Cohen, a former attache of his father's store here, and who has been in business in Indianapolis. Mr. Cohen is one of South Bend's young and energetic citizens and has been connected with his father's business for considerable time. The proportions to which the business has grown with the younger Cohen at its manager is a fitting testimonial of his business ability. He expects to make the new venture a success. The place will be ready within a few days.

Food for Japanese Soldiers.

Rice and dried fish are the uniform food of the Japanese army in campaigning times. The rice is first boiled until it is thick and glutinous. Next it is placed on a china slab, rolled out and cut into squares. The squares are then placed in the sun to dry. They become as hard as a ship's biscuit, and are ready to be stored. A certain number of squares are allowed to each soldier a day. All he has to do is to break up a square in boiling water and add the dried fish. In a few minutes he has before him a thin soup, which to him is very good. If he cannot procure boiling water he eats his rice square as a biscuit.
