KEARY FOR LEADER

TALKED OF FOR PRESIDENCY OF CENTRAL LEAGUE.

BASEBALL MAN IN THE CITY

Stands Close to Ban Johnson, Hart and Comiskey—Grand Rapids Franchise is Not Forfeited—Trouble for Pitcher Kenlay.

Jack Keary, one of the best known baseball men in Chicago, who "got in" from touch with James A. Hart, president of the Chicago National league club; Charles Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox, and Ban Johnson, president of the American league, is being talked of for the presidency of the Central league and yesterday he made a flying visit to this city, probably for the purpose of investigating his chances for that position. Keary, however, has not decided on his plans for next year.

"I just took a run down from Chicago to see the boys," said Keary in a Tribune representative last evening. "No, I am not down here to buy any players. I want to sell several though and if there is a chance to place two or three catcher-jack men with South Bend, I am able to turn over the material. I have not made up my mind about this talk of the presidency but if I decide to come out for the office it will be with the intention of giving all of my time to the baseball."

Has South Bend's Support.

Keary held a conference with President Carson, of the South Bend Athletic association, yesterday and he was given to understand that in case he wanted the Central league presidency he could have the support of South Bend. Charles White, of Chicago, who was proposed for the Central league presidency by The Tribune, cannot be in the running for the office this season. If he wants a position to take the office he would be voted in on the first ballot of the directors of the league.

Keary is at present the head of the Inter State league, an organization composed of clubs in and about Chicago. He organized the league and carried it through a successful season. Keary also owns the Chicago Magnetics, one of the leading independent teams of the west. All young players regard him as their friend as he is always willing to help them along. Many who have had his assistance have probably placed more players in league company than any other baseball man in the country. Last season he sent 11 men to the Southern leagues and nine of them made good. This fall he has placed five men with the major leagues and he expects all of them to stick.

Grand Rapids is Held.

Grand Rapids is still "placed" as Central league territory and the prospects are that the circuit committee, of which E. B. Doran, of this city, is chairman, will decide to hold the city for next year. Albert H. Collins, one of the best known baseball men in the west, is now in Grand Rapids and has secured a number of players and much talked of down town park and accordingly it is understood has secured an option on an excellent site for Hall and South Division streets.

Collins was sent to Grand Rapids by William H. Holderman, of Marion, the latter owing the franchise of that city as well as at Marion. Relative to his plans Collins says:

"Grand Rapids will have a Central league baseball team next year that will be in the race, a down town park and a team that the city will be proud of."

Although not wholly settled it is almost assured that Collins will be in charge of the Grand Rapids team, which means that the club will be conducted on business lines. Collins is Michigan manager for the R. S. Hoover Manufacturing company, of Fort Wayne, and is well known all through the state as a hustler and has been prominently connected with the Indianapolis baseball affairs for many years. He went to Grand Rapids direct from St. Louis, Mo., where he was one of the representatives of the city at the meeting of the annual meeting of the national association of minor leagues.

The Central league is ready to turn the club over to Grand Rapids ownership or disposal of at any part of the stock to reliable, Grand Rapids parties, but it is also ready to back and finance the team if the people of that city do not see fit to take stock in the team.

Comiskey Wants Bert Keeley.

Bert Keeley, a former member of the Notre Dame baseball team and a pitcher of the Independent South Bend Greens, will be given a trial by Comiskey of the Chicago American league team next spring, but before he makes good in the major league he must make his peace with Manager Graney of the Southern team. Keeley is a native of South Bend and when he is not playing ball he is in this city, unless he is out to foster company. The young twirler agreed to terms with Grand last spring and the latter still has the correspondence which will tend him to his promises. During the season of the inter state league, Keeley played a fine game, pitched excellent ball and batted over the .300 mark.

Tragic Death of Pitzsimmons.

Frank Pitzsimmons known to every baseball crank and fan of South Bend, as the freshest first baseman ever seen in local baseball circles, is dead. He committed suicide last summer at Dodgeville, Ia., by throwing himself in front of a passing locomotive while in a fit of despondency. The news of Pitz's tragic death was brought to the city yesterday afternoon by Jack Keary. Pitzsimmons was a member of the Dodgeville Western league team and was playing an excellent game at the time of his death, but he had a "bee" that he was to be disgraced by a younger man and took to drinking. After leaving South Bend Pitzsimmons went to Marion City, Ia., and for two years was one of the best baseball enthusiasts of that town.

The death of the player was heard with regret by his old associates here

TOD SLOAN LOSES FORTUNE AND IS WITHOUT MONEY.

TOD SLOAN.

After traveling across the country in South Africa, entertaining with a bellicose that filled his friends with awe and making unsuccessful attempts to break the bank at Monte Carlo, James Tod Sloan, one time champion jockey of the world, is in Paris working as a clerk.

From a wardrobe that was equal to that of any Beau Brummel he wore and which made him a pet of society, he has descended to a suit of both clothes and a place in stores.

He is in Paris, employed temporarily by a French automobile concern at a paltry salary, a salary that in a month does not reach the figures of one day's expenses two years ago.

Always of a determined spirit, he recently told some acquaintances who met him in Paris that he would never return to the United States and suffer the humiliation he knew would be his should they learn that he is now earning a salary of $25 a week, when he was accustomed to as much as a salary when he lost now his relatives.

Sloan was worth $200,000 a few years ago.

and many are the stories with the "old war horse" as the boys, which his former team mates are telling. "Tod" was the biggest player on the diamond," said his old captain and admirer, August Gerard, last night. He never knew when the team was beaten and if the opponents had 28 runs against the old boy was just as full of vim and talk on us at the beginning of the game.

"Jack was the life of the team," according to Harry Arndt. "I shall always remember the time he knocked a pitcher over his head when he held down the coaching box. He couldn't hit but he was a terror on the first bag and was always playing ball to win."

Pitzsimmons made his first appearance in South Bend as a member of the Maniates, Mich., team during the year that the Greens won the independent championship of the west. The next year he came to the city and on his recommendation Manager D. A. Grant signed Eddie Collins.

Mautner Dodges Deputy Sheriff.

The Tribune's special dispatch.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 28.—The sheriff of Allen county, Charles Mullen, of the Detroit ball club, for "alleged" was called in the criminal court yesterday afternoon and continued because of the absence of Robert Mautner, the manager of the Fort Wayne ball club, who is the prosecution witness. Mullen was present in court. In the meantime the sheriff's deputy scoured the city on a hunt for Mautner, who could not be located during the day.

Heretofore it has been Mullen who has dodged a trial. Months ago when service of the writ in the case was to be made Mullen was in Cincinnati, then in several cities in Columbus, Chicago and Toledo. His friends at each place warned him to and he did not let him to escape the service of the writ. Finally, he surprised everybody here by coming to Fort Wayne voluntarily, accepting service, and giving bond for his appearance in court when the case came up for trial. Now it seems to be Mautner who is dodging a trial.

Mullen at one time was the pitcher for South Bend and later for the Fort Wayne club. He signed with Manager Frank Selee, of Boston, and was released. He entered a bonds and went to the Detroit club. The case had perhaps grown out of these circumstances.

LATE NEWS OF THE DIAMOND.

Baseball Men at Cincinnati Making a Trade.

A big deal in baseball involving a trade of American league stars between Detroit and St. Louis is believed to be on at Cincinnati. C. S. Ferguson, authoritative owner of the club that between President Bill K. Johnson of the American league, Manager Barrow of Detroit, and President Lee Hedges, practically the owner of the St. Louis browns.

The men have not admitted anything except that Barrow's visit to St. Louis offer for a catcher. Detroit and St. Louis both have players of high class who are unknown in the cities they represent. Bedrick is one of them, while it is reported Jimmy Barrett is dissatisfied in Detroit. Ferguson is trade of Heidrick for Bresnahan and Barrett, if all goes well this time.

President Herrmann, of the National Baseball commission, which is investigating the Cincinnati-Boston controversy, has received a letter in which he rights to players were in dispute by the Cincinnati club, which has agreed to the Brooklyn National league, Brooklyn had the player the prize sign and claimed he was simply loaned to Syracuse, while the latter declared that he was released outright to them.

Oldfielder McGuire and Pitcher Fiery were awarded to the Buffalo club. Pittsburg claimed that the Buffalo club had paid for the men was a trick on the Buffalo boys, for it was shown that Pittsburg had arranged to trade Pitcher Kleinegger, Catcher McAllister and Infielder Yeager for the men.

T. F. Burns and D. C. Packard, Western league magnates, made an official endorsement yesterday at Omaha, Neb., regarding the status of the controversy between the American association and the Western league. Burns and Packard are on the arbitration board, of which Hugh J. Griffiths, of the Jersey City baseball club, has selected another member. The decision of the board is up in Ecbl. Each league will set forth its side of the controversy in writing within the next ten days, and a settlement effected as soon thereafter as it is possible for the board to meet.

William Floyd, of the Memphis club, who was expelled at St. Louis last week by the national board of arbitration has been at West Baden, Ind., on Oct. 18. He is sick, and says he was physically unable to return that day. He says that if he is given ten days' notice he will appear and substantiate the charges which he has made.

DAUB ENTERS GOSHEN SCHOOL

Intends to Play Football Against South Bend Saturday.

The Tribune's special.

Goshen, Ind., Oct. 28.—Roy Daub, who for five years was a star full back and for two seasons a center rush on the Goshen High school football team, recently resigned his studies in the institution and will participate in the game with South Bend next Saturday afternoon. Daub is a 180 pound man and unusually fast considering his weight. It is said that he will again take the full back position on the team.

The announcement that Daub will play with Goshen against South Bend Saturday was received with surprise by the students of the local High school and Coach Schrier said trouble is expected if he is in the lineup at Fortlaphead when the teams meet on that gridiron. In reference to the matter Coach Schrier said:

"Word has reached the management of the local team to the effect that Daub will participate in the Goshen-South Bend game Saturday. Two years ago the South Bend team received an injury which put the hands of the Goshen team and he suspended but Daub cannot be rushed in at this time or the game between the two eleven will be indefinitely called off. The South Bend management has positive proof that Daub did not enter the Goshen High school two months ago, which is required before a student can take part in athletic contests with outside teams. In fact, Daub never has any intention of entering the Goshen high school, until Monday of this week when he came to Goshen and he was gone afterward."

MICHIGAN STAKES HER ALL.

Vest Will Have Eleven in Pink of Condition For Minnesota.

The Tribune's Special Service.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 28.—The Wolverines will be in perfect condition for the Minnesota game next Saturday and win or lose there will be no excuse for Michigan stakes her all on the game and will either return or lose a championship. The eleven will average 200 pounds and the trio of backs 190 pounds.

Every regular player reported for the final scrimmage yesterday. Heston and Gregory, who have been kept on the side lines for two weeks because of injured limbs, showed up more actively than ever after their rest. The gymnastic headgears were worn for the first time and although the injuries have been kept hidden before this season, no complaint was made. The gymnastic headgears will be used in the Minnesota game.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 29.—Minnesota is in football crazy. The people say there is more excitement than for two years, ago, when the board of trade closed to allow its members six quitters to leave the town to Michigan. Despite the fact that scalpers have garnered hold of many of the tickets and are holding them at high at the Minnesota people to see the game, they are willing to secure the ticket at any price.

HARD GAME FOR 'VARSITY.

Notre Dame and Physicians and Surgeons Meet on Cartier Field.

Notre Dame and the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Chicago, are playing on Cartier field this afternoon.

The scandalous white continued yesterday and down the number of candidates and the coach found it necessary to fill up the regular with extra in order to run signals. Shaughnessy was worked at full and Hayes was switched to half. McDermott and McEvoy filling the end positions.

There is considerable anxiety over the game, as the 'varsity has got been in a scrimmage that week and the defense are expected to put up that offensive work. Physicians Notre Dame is a big team and it is thought that the offense will be able to make the necessary gains if the line can hold the visitors down long enough.

To-day's game will probably be the hardest contest seen on Cartier field this season. It will be the first to call forth all there is in the 'varsity.

SHROFF WILL MEET FOLEY.

Local Boxer is to Face Strong Man Tuesday Night.

"Cy" Shroff has accepted terms and will meet "Kid" Foley in a semi-windup of eight rounds at 140 pounds in next Tuesday night's boxing show. The local boy has been doing hard training for some time and hopes to be in good condition for the bout. Shroff expects to go out after bigger game if he can get something in the city. Promoter Engelbrecht states that he has been in St. Joseph and Dunkirk, Harbor, Mich., and completed arrangements to run an exposition in the city for the bouts. Tommy Grant, will be matched with the latter and will have a delegation of Battle Creek sporting men in the ringside.

New York, Oct. 28.—John Young, a member of the famous four-oar crew of the Eumba Boat club, which, in 1876, won the world's championship at the Philadelphia centennial exposition, died yesterday at Newark, N. J., aged 51 years.

FASHION HERE AND IN CHINA.

Comment by Ambassador From the Flowery Kingdom.

At a dinner party in Washington, the new Chinese ambassador discussed American fashions satirically.

"Now, in China," he said, "our fashions never change. I wear the same sort of hat, the same sort of coat, the same sort of shoes, that a man in my position wore a thousand years ago. And it is the same with the Chinese women. Their fashions also have not changed in I know not how many dynasties. Long ago, in China, we found the costumes that seemed to us the most graceful and the most comfortable, and we cling to those continued. We love them.

"But you—here in America—how often it is—every week, every first night—that you change your fashions! Only the other day I met on the street an American naval officer of whom I am fond. He had a parcel under his arm. I stopped my carriage.

"'Come,' I said, 'let us have a little chat—a comfortable little chat.'

"But the naval officer shook his head. He said hurriedly:

"'No, I cannot. In this parcel there is a bonnet for my wife. Were I to stop and talk, the fashion is bonnets might change before I reached home.'"
