ANNIS ISSUES STATEMENT. BRONCHOS AND POTTERS TIE

EDWARD SMITH IS STAR OF FINAL GAME

BIG TWIRLER BATS IN TWO RUNS IN EIGHT WITH DOUBLE.

WHEELER IS CANNED

Umpire and Manager Have Alteration on Merits of Kenworthy's Hit—Lowe Looking at South Bend Players.

By Tribune's Special Service.

ZANESVILLE O., Aug. 17.—South Bend and Zanesville battled into a tie and darkness yesterday afternoon. A battle royal resulted from the final contest of the two teams and the 2 to 2 score tells vividly the story of the great struggle.

Edward Smith, the veteran of the Bronchs staff, was opposed to Kenworthy, the Potter star. Kenny had the better of the big fellow until the eighth inning when the Bronchos counted two runs on hits by Carey, McCarthy and Smith. The game looked suited for the Bronchos when they garnered the brace of tallies, but a hard batting rally in the ninth tied the score. Umpire Newhouse called the game at this juncture because of growing darkness and noise.

Manager Wheeler was benched in the fifth inning for disputing a decision by Murray.

Bobbie Lowe, the Detroit American league scout, was in the stands and watched the game. He was looking a few players over, but refused to state their names.

Smith Deserves Credit.

Edward Smith deserves much of the credit for the Bronchos' showing. He pitched a wonderful game of ball. He was stingy of walks and careful about giving Kenworthy a chance to hit shoulders. His slashing double in the eighth tied up the score.

Kenworthy started Zanesville's sixth by hitting a double down the left field line. Smith then walked Bender. Bender was a foul and was benched after a lengthy debate by Murray. Connolly sacrificed Kenworthy to third and he scored on Prymock's sky ball to one around Krop.

Carey and Mac Score.

For the Bonded Men Carey singled over second and went to third when McCarthy fouled out in the same place on a fast hit and run play. McCarthy stole second. After Holmes had grounded to Kenworthy, Carey made a crashing dash over Swartling's head and scored both runners.

The Athletics tied it up in the ninth. Montgomery doubled to right, was sacrificed to third by Hellrid and he scored when Donahoe cracked one to left.

MANAGER WHEELER AND HALF OWNER ANNIS MAKE STATEMENTS

The South Bend ball club will remain in South Bend this season. No deal has been made transferring the club to any other city this year. No expense will be spared to land the Central league pennant in South Bend. No legitimate effort will be spared to make the South Bend team a championship aggregation. Whether South Bend has a Central league team next year is up to the citizens of South Bend. If they continue to support the team loyally as they have supported it this season, they will probably have a team, for it is a paying proposition. The pecuniary benefits derived from the club are small, and scarcely pay for the trouble, even when the team is supported as it is now, but they will be larger this year than ever before in the history of the league. I have spent my share of money to make the club a winner. Chances were poor for a paying team at the start of this year. The team lost last year and the year before. I have decided to quit base ball in South Bend unless I devote my time to the development of a winning team in Grand Rapids. I own half of the South Bend club, Mr. Wheeler owns the other half. I can make no deals embracing the sale of the entire club. I shall sell my half if I can get what it is worth at the end of the present season. What Mr. Wheeler intends to do rests entirely with him.

BERT ANNIS.

If the prospects are good for attendance, equal to or better than the attendance in South Bend this season I will buy Mr. Annis share in the South Bend ball club this fall and maintain the club here next year. What is more, I shall give South Bend a good ball club next year. I must, however, be assured that I shall get more than expenses out of the club. I can't afford to waste a summer playing base ball without profit. I like South Bend as a base ball town better than any city in which I ever played. The fans here are the liveliest bunch that I ever saw. The fans are boosters. But notwithstanding this I can not afford to play ball, own and manage a team here for respect and love of the city. That would be absurd. The personal prospects are strongly in favor of my purchasing Mr. Annis' half of the club. I have an option on his half and will take it up as soon as I have assurances that South Bend will stick to base ball. I have those assurances for the present season, but I am wondering whether South Bend would stick if the team were in second or fourth place instead of in the lead.

POLICE STOP LANG-KAUFMAN FIGHT

Big Crowd Disappointed in Gotham Pavilion.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Three thousand fistic fans who had assembled at the Fairmount Athletic club here to see Al Kaufman and Bill Lang, the big Australian, fight 10 rounds, were disappointed last night when the club management announced that the bout was off. John Harvey Mitchell, the young president of the board of aldermen, who is acting as acting mayor during Mayor Gaynor's illness, had notified the club that he would not permit the fight to be held. The police had surrounded the place and, although four preliminary bouts were held anyhow, the main contest was abandoned.

Kaufman was stripped and in training when the announcement was made. Lang stood near him, garbed in a bath robe. Notwithstanding its disappointment, the crowd was good natured and while fists were a few hoots, filed out in an orderly manner.

Announcement had previously been made that the Bender paid for seats would be refunded.

Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promoter, who was on hand, said that in all probability Lang and Kaufman would fight next Friday night, if permission to the American league park in Philadelphia two weeks hence.

OFFER BIG PRIZES IN HORSE PARADE

FIRST AWARDS WILL LIKELY BE IN CASH.

Committee is Anxious That Entries be Made at Once in Order to Perfect Arrangements.

Either a special prize of a cash prize will go given the winners of first and second places in the work horse parade to be given by the South Bend Humane society on Labor Day. This was decided at a special meeting of the executive committee held yesterday afternoon in the office of Judge Timothy E. Howard. In case cash prizes are offered, the prizes will be $3 and $2.

The committee is desirous of securing donations of special prizes that the expense of conducting the parade may be reduced as much as possible. A pair of horse blankets to be given the winner of first prize is the general sounding class has been secured from the Pendleton Knitting Manufacturing company, through A. H. Rice, of the company's repository. A prize will also be given for the oldest buggy horse in the parade, special attention will be given to the horses in class with reference to the number of years they have been in the hands of their present owner. A driving horse 28 years old has been entered by Mrs. Ella Ferguson.

A general interest in the parade is indicated in the response being received in post cards sent out a few days ago to work horse owners. Details of the parade, including arrangements by H. A. Pershing, secretary of the society, and matters are rapidly being shaped for the event.

The society desires to impress the fact that every horse is not supposed to be entered to compete for a prize. A number will be entered for the pleasure of showing the people of the city what South Bend possesses in the way of work horses.

The object of the parade is not to show off the high grade horses only," said Mr. Pershing. "But all horses which are sound, well kept and serviceable. The society desires to impress upon the fact that the work horse, which will be a credit to the city and county and every baker, grocer, butcher, lumber dealer, coal dealer and other business concern should be on to enter their horses in order to make the display elaborate and varied.

A horse 12 years old, owned in Mishawaka has been entered in the parade. Entries are expected to be continued up until the last moment in as soon as possible in order to complete arrangement for the parade.

WILL SOUTH BEND HAVE LEAGUE BALL?

INTERVIEWS SHOW THAT PROPOSITION IS UP TO FANS.

WHEELER MAY OWN CLUB

Annis' Stand Indicates That He Will Leave Local Ranks—Has Given Bugs Bender Game for Three Years—Let's Boost.

Interviews with Mr. Annis, half owner of the South Bend baseball club, and Mr. Wheeler, half owner and manager of the club, published elsewhere in this page, indicate the standing of baseball in South Bend this year, and point out the prospects for next year in a poignant manner. Both interviews are terse bevvies of the situation, broad and plain enough to show South Bend fandom that the owners are square with the people, and honest in the beliefs. Whether South Bend has a baseball team next year under Edward Wheeler's management and ownership rests entirely with South Bend fans.

Mr. Annis' statement is a fair and square explanation of the half owner's position. No concealment or ambiguity is found in any part of the interview. He wants to get out of South Bend ball circles. He would like to see South Bend keep the team, and wishes Mr. Wheeler and the South Bend fans to see per agreement with the manager who has first option. He is, however, determined to drop the club. Therefore it is up to South Bend whether it will have a team here next year or not.

Wheeler and Annis Agree.

Manager Wheeler's statement is in accordance with the views expressed in Mr. Annis' interview. Mr. Annis talked to The Tribune last night. Mr. Annis said that he was sure that Mr. Wheeler did not know anything about the stand taken in Mr. Annis' statement.

What does the situation mean? It means that Mr. Annis is willing to sell his baseball club next year and reward for Edward Wheeler. That means that South Bend will have a first division ball club and possibly a championship. It means that Mr. Annis is willing to support Mr. Wheeler. He has shown that he is a capable manager, a gentlemanly player, and a man. If South Bend doesn't support him it does not deserve to have a team. Mr. Annis has given him or just tells the story of South Bend's future in Central league baseball.

In spite of the optimistic view of the situation taken by Mr. Annis, he wants to show Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Annis the goods this season. It is certain that everyone who cares to see baseball in South Bend must turn out as they have been doing for the past two years. Why not? South Bend is represented by the best team in the league. They have the pennant well within their grasp. But it will take desperate playing to land the pennant. Bugs Bender, the female playing menace that baseball. Plant baseball, is what fandom pays for. If they pay for it, make a splurgem, and one finds that he should go to the games.

South Bend Loses Booster.

Manager Annis' statement appears more than appears on the face of the matter. Mr. Annis will probably leave baseball in South Bend. When South Bend loses Mr. Annis it loses a booster and one of the men who had made baseball in the city. During the past two years Mr. Annis has made South Bend has been a booster in the league race. Never before in the history of the league has fandom seen such baseball as Mr. Annis has provided.

This year Mr. Annis will make a good deal of money in South Bend. Two years previous he has lost. It is up to him. Whether he sells the club or not, he will be a booster. It is up to him. He is entitled to sell if he wishes. It would be much more pleasant if the fans were made to a man who would keep the team here. It would be more pleasant for Mr. Annis according to his own statement.

Why Annis Leaves.

Mr. Annis wants to leave South Bend to devote all his time to the Grand Rapids ball club. He believed that Grand Rapids is a better ball town than South Bend. He has never seen proof to that it be the opinion. Whatever may be the result it seems certain and is evident that fandom here owes Mr. Annis a great deal of appreciation for tackling a losing proposition this year, getting a competent and capable manager, and spending money and effort making the club a success.

Let's boost. Let's say and do and make the rounds that South Bend will have a ball club this year, that the owners are trying to win the pennant, and that South Bend will have a ball club next year if proper and remunerative appreciation for this year's success is shown from now until the close of the season.

Let's boost.

Full Complement Reduce Demand for Men—Preparing for Cruise.

Enlistments in the United States navy from Indiana, since Jan. 1, have been below the number enlisted in the same period of both 1908 and 1909. The number recorded to date is 173. During the same period of last year the number was 191 and during 1908, 1,- 000. The falling off in the number of enlistments during 1909 was caused by the "trip around the world," which attracted young men from all parts of the United States.

The falling off in enlistments of the present year is due to the fact the complement of the navy was practically filled at the beginning of the year. Only men in high physical condition are being enlisted. Important branches of the service, however, there has been a constant demand for men, particularly men qualified as machinist's mates, coppersmiths, boilermakers, cooks and stewards. The demand for cooks and stewards was so that at a salary of $65 to $70 per month, according to information supplied at the South Bend recruiting station, in charge of William King, chief gunners mate.

The station has received a chart from recruiting headquarters at Indianapolis, indicating the course taken by the vessels of the celebrated world cruise of the navy. A large number of men will be needed to man the ships and other branches of the navy which will make a cruise this winter to the Mediterranean. The vessels of the fleet will leave about Nov. 1.
