WILL ENFORCE RULES

PRESIDENT G. W. DEMENT GIVES OUT IMPORTANT STATEMENT.

MANAGERS MAKE PROTESTS

Head of Central League Says Clubs Must Stay Within Salary and Playing Limit—Lists for Good Season.

The Tribune's Special Service.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 25.—The rule adopted at the recent meeting of the Central league limiting clubs to 11 men has called for protest on the part of some of the club managers and complaints are being received by President Dement. It has been stated in some papers over the circuit that if a club suffers in consequence the trouble will probably be remedied by the managers of the league winking at the law regarding the limit, on the number of men allowed each club.

"It is my intention to strictly enforce the rules of the league this year" said President Dement, when questioned regarding the limit on players. "It is going to be my endeavor to make the Central league a prosperous organization the coming year, and the best way to accomplish that will be to enforce the laws of the league and deal with all in an impartial manner. The salary limit is also a hard law to be strictly enforced. If the magnates make a mistake in limiting the circle to 13 men each they will soon discover the fact, but the rule will be enforced until it is changed.

"So far as I am concerned the Central league clubs will stay within the salary limit, too. If any of the owners go beyond the limit it will be done without my knowledge or consent. I appreciate the necessity of such clubs, and I do not blame the managers for going beyond the limit. The magnates realize that it is necessary to live up to the laws of the organization to make it a success. We expect the Central league to become a permanent institution and it is the duty of us to make it such by being fair and honest with ourselves. I am sure the sympathy of every club owner in the league and I feel that each one will give me loyal support. We are a harmonious body, understand each other and I am sure we will have a prosperous season."

NETTER WORTHINGTON.

THE BIGGEST TOURNAMENT.

Many Star Bowlers Will Gather at Cleveland Next Month.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 25.—The annual tournament of the American Bowling congress, which will be held in this city the week beginning Feb. 8, is expected to beat the branch that has divided the ranks of the association for two years.

Two years ago at the congress at Buffalo the bowlers of the east and west had a disagreement and split, the former seceding from the organization. As a consequence the eastern cities were not represented at Indianapolis.

The same questions on which the parties split at Buffalo will be again discussed at Cleveland.

The tournament will be by far the largest in the history of the association. More than 100 teams will be entered, representing 20 of the larger cities.

Big purses are at stake, and big men in the sport are out after them. Cleveland will hang up a minimum list of $1,000 and Indianapolis suggested $4,000 put up by Indianapolis.

Among the stars who will come here after glories of the pin money are the following, well known to every enthusiastic bowler: Jack Ryan, Buffalo; Harry Jaeger, Yorkville, N. Y.; Charles Schmidt, Milwaukee, the national champion; Lee Stroup, Assumption; Steele, Mahoney and Bell, of Chicago, Gazelle and Zimmerman, of Toledo, Collins and Selbach, of Columbus, Ohio, Ryan and Ryan, of Toledo, and Wassell, of Denver, the "Crack shot of the Rockies." These men and many others will help make the Cleveland tournament what it seems destined to be—the greatest bowling meeting ever held in the United States.

FLASHES FROM THE DIAMOND.

Tim Hurst Will Not Officiate as an Umpire Again.

Two American league teams, Chicago and Washington are seeking the services of Patsy Donovan for the coming season.

As the result of a conversation between President Ban Johnson, of the American league and Barney Dreyfuss, of Pittsburg, schedule framer of the National league, negotiations looking to remodelling schedules between the two leagues so for the greatest (not) at standstill.

The Milwaukee American association club will go into training at Peoria, Ill., on March 24, it was decided there until April 2.

Ed Killian, of Battle Creek, Mich., has signed with Rockford in the Three I league.

Tim Hurst, known to baseball fans wherever the game is played, has held the counter for the last time. Umpire he changes his mind the doughty arbiter of the diamond and central fire-ones to mean a heated argument, not only does he officiate no more, but he may quiver the coming season. He has arranged to go into business in New York. President J. Ed. Grillo of the American association had been dickering with Hurst for some time but thought his chances of securing the veteran were hopeless. Hurst, however, called on Tim's services if Hurst does decide to umpire.

Pat Lafferty, of the Fort Wayne Shamrocks, who played a few games with South Bend at Dayton last year, will play ball this year at Kansas City, Mo., in the Western league. Pat has had a few commercial positions.

C. W. HALDERMAN TALKS.

Marion Man Looks For Successful Season For League.

The Tribune's Special Service.

Marion, Ind., Jan. 25.—C. W. Halderman, vice-president of the Central league and owner of the Marion franchise, looks for a successful season in the Central league. In an interview he said:

"Despite reports there will be no trouble in the Central league. The fact that Mr. Dement was unanimously re-nominated certainly does not the league stands. I think it was wisdom to have last year's circuit intact, and I predict a prosperous season for the Central league. I expect to see every club in the circuit represented here and I am in the intention to consider the circle to keep inside the $2,500 salary limit. Of course, I intend to have a winning team at Marion. Jack Orth will likely be the manager. Get as you will to get a list of players to make winners.

BRIEF NEWS OF THE PUGILISTS.

"Kid" McCoy Files a Petition in Bankruptcy in New York.

Norman Selby, the pugilist better known as "Kid" McCoy, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in New York yesterday, giving his liabilities as $13,346 and assets as $150.

The fight between Gately-Ferguson and Gus Ruhlin arranged to be pulled off last night at Philadelphia, was called off last night owing to threatened opposition from the police.

Dick Moroney and Tom Sharkey have accepted the offer from Philadelphia and will box there next month. The bout will be for six rounds.

Joe Gans and Terry McGovern are slated to fight at Brooklyn, Nov. 7th. Charlie Neary, too, has stepped in long enough to be in the game and it is possible that the two lads may get together. Neary and Gans fought six rounds early in the season and the decision was given to the former.

WANTED AT MILAN, MICH.

Claude Edwards is Arrested in South Bend.

Claude Edwards, of Milan, Mich., was arrested at the home of a relative in the south part of the city yesterday by Detective Cutting and Bodine. He is wanted at Milan, Mich., on a charge of grand larceny, it being alleged that he stole a clarchet of jewelry from a grocery store. He confessed to the crime to-day and stated that he would return to the scene of the robbery without requisition papers. When the detectives found Edwards the latter admitted that the game was up and he good-naturedly offered to accompany them. "I expected you, gentlemen," he said; "you see I am a sort of a mind reader and I just told my sister that I was going to take a long trip and that I would probably be back in a year." "Then you know what you deserve," noted the officer. "Of course. It's about a money-deal."

"Then you stole the money?" suggested the detective.

"No, I didn't steal it. I just reached over the latter and took it," he explained, said, "there was a boy there, but I didn't want to anything. Edwards is six feet two inches tall and weighs 175 pounds. He is about 25 years old.

WILL RELEASE KENNEDY.

Police Fail to Make Case Against Notorious Crook.

James Kennedy, alias J. B. Costello, alias Yackey, will be released by the police at 7 o'clock this evening and will probably run him out of the city. Kennedy is alleged to be one of the smartest and most dangerous crooks that ever in this part of the state. His last job was the robbery of the Bell Telephone company's office, which headquarters in South Bend. He was arrested several weeks ago at 1212 Notre Dame street. He had several days before robbed the Bell company and Kennedy had served several months in prison. In 1893 he was sentenced for larceny and in 1895 began a sentence for robbing a brewery.

A Fortunate Fool.

Joe Lincoln, the poet of Cape Cod, through a strange combination of luck, eligible to the Pal Mace's Club, could not be on the other hand pass himself off as brother to the living statesman. He was mistaken for the first time the other day said:

"Mr. Lincoln, I have always greatly admired your poetry, but you are only a coolies, just my idea of a poet, for all your poets were thin and wore tight long."

"Mister," returned Mr. Lincoln in a burst of confidence, "if I depended on my poetry I should fit your idea precisely. But I write a story occasionally and am obliged to get enough to eat and to have my hair cut when it needs it."—Philadelphia Post.

Discourses on the City Boy.

To a good sized congregation at the First Presbyterian church last night Rev. Dr. Johnson in an interesting way discoursed on the possibilities before the city boy in the country. He pointed out the opportunities for the growth in the country, and how to find neither by staying in the city. His chair rested some fine music at the services.
