

MAKE PUBLIC LETTER SENT BY NOTRE DAME TO SEVENTY COLLEGES

(By Associated Press)

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Jan. 31.—Notre Dame university officials today made public copies of a letter sent six weeks ago to seventy middle western colleges calling attention to the threat of professionalism in college athletics and asking co-operation in a concerted movement to clean it up.

The letter was mailed on Dec. 16, six weeks before there was any public hint of the football scandal which has resulted in disqualification of nine Illinois and eight Notre Dame men and today's announcement of it followed on the heels of an announcement in Chicago yesterday that the western conference planned a wholesale investigation.

While the letter was sent to seventy schools, only nine replied, it was announced and two of these were western conference schools. The letters said that while Notre Dame "had almost conclusive evidence that professionalism was making serious inroads into our great college sport," it might be difficult to prove the charges in court but that an investigation would separate the wheat from the chaff.

Point to Investigation.
The letter explained that Notre Dame of its own accord investigated the reports that three of its men played pro ball in Milwaukee, Wis., and that the men—Garvey, Anderson and Larsen—were confessed and were disqualified. The letter then said: "In conducting this investigation the members of the faculty board have been confronted with a situation that merits the serious attention of the faculty of every college and university in the middle west. We have reason to believe that a number of other players from leading colleges and universities of the middle west have participated in similar games. Indeed we have almost conclusive evidence that professionalism is making serious inroads into our great college sport and that it will require close supervision and very watchful care to prevent our college football players from competing as members of professional teams on Sundays during the football season."

"This communication is being sent to every college and university in the middle west in the hope that you will be glad to receive it so that you may exercise whatever preventive precaution you think necessary. From our experience in Milwaukee (on the Garvey, Larsen and R. Anderson cases) we know that witnesses are unwilling to give testimony that may be necessary to convict a college player of professionalism."

Merits Attention
"It would therefore be difficult to prove before a court what we believe to be true: That the promoters of professional football are rapidly professionalizing our college players. The situation, however, merits our very serious attention."

"It is hoped that this communication will rouse the middle west colleges and universities to concerted action against the promoters of professional football. Our co-operation with any such effort may be relied upon."

A statement from Father William Carey, chairman of the athletic board, said that "there seemed to be an incipient propaganda to keep alive the old superstition that Notre Dame does not observe eligibility."

"As a matter of fact," he said, "since 1913 Notre Dame has observed the same rules as the western conference. Freshmen are not permitted to play, every athlete must be up in his classes—and most of our athletes make a very high grade—and every hint of violation of any rule is carefully investigated. The fact that a year has been disqualified for playing professional games is looked on by many to mean that we have many professionals here, whereas it really shows only that we are untiring in our efforts to combat this evil and that we act without leniency."

Eight athletes of Notre Dame, among them two all-American football players, a championship track man and captain of the basketball and track teams, yesterday confessed to school authorities that they played in the semi-professional football game at Taylorville, Ill., last November, which produced the biggest collegiate athletic scandal in the annals of American colleges.

Immediate disqualification of each man was announced by the university officials.

The men disqualified are: Eddie Anderson, Mason City, Ia., all-American end.

Chester Wynne, Orinquo, Kas., all-western full back selection of several football writers, star hurdler and track team captain.

Roger Riley, Chicago, varsity end, captain of the basketball team and star track man.

Lawrence Shaw, Stewart, Ia., varsity tackle and Western champion shot-putter.

Harry Mohr, Huntington, Ind., sub-center in football, regular baseball player and last year's basketball captain.

Robert Phelan, Fort Madison, Ia., subvarsity full back.

Earl Walsh, Adrian, Ia., subvarsity back.

Dick Seyfert, Carlisle, Ill., subvarsity end.

COMMUNITY SERVICE BASKETBALL TONIGHT

The Community Service Basketball league will play only on Tuesday night of this week, due to the fact that the Atlas team has dropped out of the league. The game scheduled for Thursday night will be played on Tuesday night. The Business College five and the Quaker Maids were scheduled to play Thursday night, but instead they will play in the final game Tuesday night. The first game of the evening will be between the Beverages and the Stars, the second game between the Betsy Ross and the Kaysee.

TO SEND TEAMS TO RELAYS

(By Associated Press)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 31.—St. Louis university will send teams to the Drake Relays at Des Moines, in April 29 and the University of Illinois relay meet at Urbana, March 4, Father Hermann, athletic director, announced today.

RIXEY IS HOPING FOR BETTER LUCK

Eppa Jephtha Rixey.

Eppa Rixey hopes that the 1922 season will be a little more kind to him than was fate last year. Rixey's contract with the Reds for last season provided that he receive a bonus should he hang up twenty victories for the year. He hurled his nineteenth win early in September. Then, with plenty of opportunities, he failed to ring up the twentieth game.

RICHMOND HI MEETS LOUISVILLE FRIDAY; THEN CONNERSVILLE

Local high school basketball tossers will journey to Louisville, Ky., to do battle with the DuPont Manual Training high school five on Friday night. The DuPont team represents the same school which Richmond has played in football during the past three years. They put out fair basketball teams, but they are not expected to have as good basketball as Indiana teams. Richmond should win over the Kentuckians by a fair sized margin.

The Kentuckians always look forward to the coming of a Richmond team, because of the friendly rivalry which has existed between the two schools. On the last invasion of Richmond to Louisville, the Kentuckians entertained at a fine party in the evening after the football game and showed appreciation of Richmond's sportsmanship.

After the Louisville game is tucked away, the Richmond crew will drop off at Connersville and engage the highly reputed high school team of that place Saturday night. Connersville has a team which is practically a par with the locals and will give a battle which will tax the endurance of the Red and White.

Last week, the Connersville team lost an overtime game to Rushville on Rushville's floor by a five-point margin. Richmond met the same fate at the hands of Rushville the week before. This rates Richmond and Connersville high.

SECURE JUNIOR HIGH GYM FOR NET GIRLS

Games in the Girls' Community Service basketball league will be played in the David Dennis Worth junior high school gym, according to P. H. Slocum, secretary-treasurer of the league. The gym will not be available for about 10 days.

Teams are now getting several practice sessions before the opening of the league, and getting themselves accustomed to the rules of the game. The games will be played every Tuesday and Thursday nights.

Practices will be held in the South Eighth street Friends church on Thursday evenings. They will, however, meet in the high school gym the coming Thursday night.

The Earlham college gym will be available for practices for the league on Saturday afternoons. The teams that are scheduled to use the gym next Saturday are requested to be there promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

St. Louis Team to Meet Eastern Soccer Opponents

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 31.—The Scullin team of St. Louis, champion of the west, is to meet the winner of the east for the national professional soccer title in March. The eastern representative in the contest and the place have not yet been decided.

George Hilly, president of the United States Football association, the ruling body, announced today that four teams remained in the running for the eastern championship. The Scullins won the western championship by defeating the Caledonians of Detroit. It is probable that the championship game will be played here.

SEEK FRIENDS IN HOUR OF NEED
"In the hour of need we quickly seek our best friends," wrote Chas. Schridl Ward of Wet, 957 73rd Ave., Oakland, Cal., "our little boy and girl had a severe cold, a cough that choked and flushed the face of the sufferers like unto convulsions. Foley's Honey and Tar was a wonderful emergency remedy." Cases like this give Foley's Honey and Tar its reputation as the best remedy for coughs and colds. A. G. 6 GIANT CONTRACTS FOR 1922 RECEIVED

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Signed contracts of six players, four of them new men, have been received at the offices of the New York Giants, the club announced today. Eighteen Giants now are under contract for 1922.

Alex Gaston and Virgil Barnes were the old men to send in their signed papers. The others were Frank Samide, catcher, of Denver, Colo.; Floyd Brown, also a backstop, from Logan, Ia., and Olen Shores of Independence, Kas., and John Albertson of Montrose, S. D., right-handed hurler.

Virgil Barnes is a brother of Jess, the Circleville, Kas., hurler who played a hero role for the Giants in the last world's series. Virgil is a right-handed pitcher. With Gaston he forms what McGraw calls his "pony battery."

All these youngsters will undoubtedly be assigned to the recruit squad, for which five games have so far been booked. The underlings will play at Beaumont, Tex., March 18 and 19; the Indianapolis American Association club at Marlin, Tex., March 24 and 25, and the Portsmouth, Va., team on April 8.

Bowling

PENNSY BOWLING.
Richmond Pennsylvan bowlers defeated the Cincinnati bowlers on the Cincinnati alleys, Monday night, by 56 pins, in a match game. Although the Richmond team dropped two out of the three games the one game they did manage to win was by such a majority to capture the total pins. Richmond rolled a total of 2660 and Cincinnati knocked over 2604 pins.

PROTECTIVE LEAGUE OF SPORTSMEN PLAN SESSION HERE FEB. 18

"American Sportsman's Protective League" will meet in Richmond on Saturday, Feb. 18, in the K. of P. hall. The league is a national organization and will be represented by sportsmen from all over the United States.

The organization was first started by Ben Cole, of Connersville, for the purpose of protecting property of sportsmen. Later, the membership increased and the field of the organization expanded. The league is now reaching out and using its influence in all branches of sport.

Mr. Cole is president of the league; D. M. Bottoms, of Dayton, secretary, and R. E. Graham, of Richmond, chairman of the convention which will be held here.

States Represented
The officers of the league expect representatives from Washington, Ohio, Illinois, Michigan, Kentucky, West Virginia and other states of the Union. Many members of the league are wealthy sportsmen who are taking an active interest in the welfare of the organization and they will do all they can to advance the influence of the league.

A movie will be shown in one of the local theatres which is produced by the "Field and Stream" magazine company at an expense of $10,000. The film will consist of six reels which deal with trout fishing, moose-hunting, riding, harpooning a giant herring hog fish, deep-sea fishing off the island of Bimini, Florida fox hunting, and quail hunting in Florida.

Illinois University Coach Accepts Third Track Date

(By Associated Press)

URBANA, Ill., Jan. 31.—Coach Harry Gill of the University of Illinois has accepted a third date on his southern track trip, the last one being with the University of Arkansas track team April 20. This will necessitate a change in the date of the University of Texas meet from April 19 to the 18th.

The 20 Illinois track men will leave Champaign April 13, meeting Rice institute in the first dual contest. Rice has a strong aggregation with Lindsey the star dash man and hurdler. The Illinois jaunt is the first spring training trip ever taken by a western team and the second in America. Harvard's tour through Virginia after the Penn Relays last season being the first.

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single skin and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Advertisement.

Chips and Slips

When the deal between the Cleveland Indians and Boston Red Sox, which was made primarily to put Stuffy McInnis on first for the Indians, was pulled off it was believed that Joe Harris, former first sacker of the Indians and of late seasons an outlaw, would be one of the men to go to the Red Sox as part payment for McInnis.

The rumor then was that Harris stood a good chance of obtaining reinstatement from Judge Landis. Now, Mr. Rumor has it that the monkeys are off. Landis has given no indication that he will forgive Joe and others in Harris' class.

All of which makes it look gloomy for Mr. Harris.

Joe had a chance to win fame in the majors. He was drafted from Chattanooga by Cleveland in the fall of 1916. It took him a few weeks to break into the game and then he hit the pill so hard they left him at first. The war interrupted his baseball business the next year. He rejoined the club in midseason, 1919, and again showed his terrific hitting ability when he got a chance in the lineup.

The papers gave him due credit, of course, and Harris decided he deserved a nice large increase in salary the following year. I have it on pretty good authority that Joe wanted more than anyone on the team outside Manager Speaker. Owner Jim Dunn was willing to meet him half way, but that didn't suit, so Harris balked and joined an independent team at Franklin, Pa. At the beginning of the 1921 campaign Harris wanted to return, but arrangements were not completed. Last August he formally applied to Judge Landis for reinstatement.

If Harris fails to win a pardon from Judge Landis the Indians probably will send Doc Johnston to the Sox instead. But that won't help Harris.

Two Swede farmers were in trouble over a cow. The animal, which belonged to Lars, had strayed into Ole's barnyard one fine day. Ole held her for damages, which Lars refused to pay. At the end of a week the matter was taken before the local justice of the peace. Lars' lawyer, in attempting to prove that Ole had no right to damages, did not mince matters.

"Ole," he thundered, "how about the milk from that cow while she was in your possession? Who got it, Ole? Milk is worth money. Come, now, didn't you milk her?"

"Ya," said Ole unhesitatingly. "Didn't you milk her all the time?" Ole stared unblinkingly at the sheep-bonded volume in the lawyer's hand. Then the look of bewilderment left his face. "Naw," he said earnestly, "Ay milk her only twice a day."

There is a berth open in the Community Service bowling league for any good team that cares to enter. The Telephone boys were forced to drop out of the league, due to the fact that they are working at night at the telephone office. Any team that cares to enter is requested to get into touch with P. H. Slocum at the Community rooms, in the K. of P. hall.

Franklin and Washab will stage a battle royal when the two teams meet at Franklin, Tuesday night. Both teams have been making extra preparations for the game. Washab defeated Franklin early in the season and the Franklin gang is determined to avenge that defeat.

Richmond high school will surely have a tough time of it this week as they have two stiff games scheduled for the week end. Friday they will travel to Louisville, Ky., where they will play the DuPont Manual five. Saturday night they will play the Connersville five at Connersville. The two games on the weekend will not tell so much on the team but the long railroad trip will tire the team considerably and they will not be able to put up the brand of game they are capable of playing. They will be lucky to take the scalp of the Fayette county lads, Saturday night.
