GIANTS MAKE A CLEAN SWEEP IN PHILLIE SERIES

Best Game of the Four is a Contest Between Demaree, Fromme and Alexander, Which Goes 11 Innings.

PHILADELPHIA, July 3.—New York won today's game here in 11 innings by four to two, thereby making a clean sweep of the series of four games.

It was the best contest of the week between the teams, both Demaree and Fromme of New York and Alexander of Philadelphia, doing excellent twirling, especially with men on the bases, and being backed up in almost faultless style by their teammates.

Burns' double, Shafer's out and Fletcher's sacrifice fly scored a run for the visitors in the third inning. Philadelphia took the lead in the fourth by scoring twice on Magee's single, Niehoff's error, Oldring's error and Doolan's sacrifice fly. Doyle was sent to the club house in this inning by Umpire Rigler for arguing after being detected selling a new ball.

A pass to Murray, two outs and an infield single by McCormick, who batted for Demaree, tied the score in the seventh. New York won in the 11th. With one out, Herzog doubled and scored on Merkle's single. Murray was thrown out by Dugey, Merkle taking Dolan, who had succeeded Lindeers at first base in the tenth, got Snodgrass' grounder and threw wild to Alexander.

Fighting Face of Joe Rivers Who Is to Meet Richie For Title Today

"Mexican Joe" Rivers, who will try to take Ritchie July 4 at San Francisco.

OPINIONS ON RIVERS-RITCHIE FIGHT

Joe Mandot—"I like Ritchie."

Billy McCarney—"Rivers for mine."

Geno Van Court, instructor of the Los Angeles A. C.—"I prefer Ritchie's chances if he is right, but I am not impressed with his condition."

Jack Wolgast—"Rivers will win. Ritchie is merely a fake champion."

Jimmy Croffroth and Spider Kelly also pick Ritchie to win.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Quiet reigned Thursday at the training camps of Willie Ritchie and Joe Rivers, who will clash here Friday afternoon for the lightweight championship of the world. Both have finished their heavy training and did only enough road work Thursday to keep in good shape. Each weighed 134 in the morning.

Reports that Ritchie trained down too fine and has gone stale were scoffed at by Ritchie, Foley, his chief trainer, and Joe Levy, Rivers' manager.

"I guess I am a very sick manager," said Ritchie Thursday. "I never felt any more fit in my life. I feel perfectly confident."

Said Levy, manager for Rivers: "It is certain to be a great battle, of course I expect Joe to win, but I am sure he will have one terrible fight." Rivers is merely a fake champion, not in reality a championship affair. At odds of 10 to 8 only $2,500 was placed by Tom Corbett, the betting commissioner.

SENATORS TAKE 15 INNING ONE FROM RED SOX

Johnson is in Several Tight Holes But Does Some Masterly Pitching and is Held by Fast Fielding.

BOSTON, July 3.—A pair of two base hits coming in the 15th inning today ended the longest game of the season here with a score of one to nothing in Washington's favor.

Collins had the better of Johnson in the matter of hits but the latter did some masterly pitching and with good support, Boston was in a position to score on many occasions, but the Washington pitcher tightened up every time.

In the ninth inning victory seemed almost certain for the home team as they filled the bases with no one out on two infield hits and the only pass out. Engle fanned and Speaker was out, Engle forced Speaker at the plate on a grounder to McIlvide and Wagner's grounder to Foster retired Speaker at home. Washington began hitting Collins with more frequency after the eighth inning. In the final inning after Milan had fled to Speaker, Gandil singled and Shanks brought Gandil home with a double to left.

Gandil home with a double to left.

The game was played rapidly, nine innings requiring only 27 minutes. The outfielders captured many flies, and 24 batters were retired in that way. Speaker getting eight and Lewis nine. Gandil left second base before the final out in the ninth and left the 16th inning and a three to nothing result resulted in an unusual double play.

Manager Griffith was put off the field for making too vigorous a protest on this decision.
