

Ringle and Miss Rosetta Walter was performed Saturday evening at the parsonage of Rev. E. Brenlon. The young couple are highly respected young people.

The United Brethren congregation have decided to erect a parsonage for their pastor, Rev. L. Orville Oyler. The dwelling will cost $3,500.

Charles Warner, of Plymouth, Ind., visited a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Warner.

Rev. A. Wilder and family left Monday for their new home at Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Horton moved to Argos, Ind., Tuesday.

Earl Carbiener has gone to Mishawaka, Ind., where he has secured employment with the Dodge Manufacturing company. He will also pitch for the Dodge baseball team this season.

The Misses Bertha and Emma Volland, who have been spending the winter in Bremen left Thursday for Holland, Mich., their home.

Daniel Fore returned to his home at Cambell, Cal., Tuesday. Miss Rose Miller, of this city accompanied him to the golden state.

J. C. Fries was at Osceola, Ind., Wednesday