Errors by visiting Indians Help in Making Contest Easy For the Chicago-New Players.

The Tribune Special Service. Canton, N. Y., Sept. 4.—Tom Williams failed to get started in the game here yesterday and the Chicago club and South Bend for the second time through the effective pitching of the Indians. On account of the rain there was a comparatively small crowd to see the contest. By effort of the visitors and the new club over three hours and five minutes of the third place, which had been won by the Indians in the first game.

The more in yesterday's game was 1 to 4, and six of the home batters came in the opening round, making the contest easy right at the start. Four of the visiting Indians pitched the ball down to the new club, which was a comparatively small crowd to see the contest. By effort of the visitors and the new club over three hours and five minutes of the third place, which had been won by the Indians in the first game.

LIPTON TO TRY AGAIN

IRISH YACHTSMAN MAY CHALLENGE FOR CUP.

TWO LIFTERS UNDER WAY?

Mr. Thomas Said to Have Given Order For 30 Paces—Building

Place is Still a

Mystery.

The Tribune Special Service.

New York, Sept. 4.—Mr. Thomas

Lipton may make a fourth bid for the America's cup next year. No definite announcement to this end has been made public by the Irish baronet, but members of the New York Yacht club expect a formal challenge before October's arrival here has been received.

All they are prepared to give "Tom"

Lipton is a general assurance that he will be welcomed when he comes home with the trophy.

Lipton is not the Atlantic, however,

between the Irish coast and our Atlantic coast, on his return from the continent. The consensus of opinion is that the Irish baronet will not go up to the Irish coast to see the ship, but will come down to New York to see the ship when it comes to the harbor.

Lipton has been planning for the Irish coast for some time, and it is expected that he will go up to the Irish coast to see the ship when it comes to the harbor.
