Y. M. C. A. Team Noses Out Armour Post in Exciting Game

NEW PLAYERS SHOW WELL IN INITIAL GAME FOR COOPER

Kizer, Burnham and Rhodes Also Big Factors in Piling Up Baskets.

The local Y. M. C. A. basketball team, playing one of its strongest games of the season, nosed out the strong Armour Post, American Legion team, of Chicago, by the score of 23 to 20. It was one of the closest and cleanest games seen on the local court.

The fans were disappointed in the absence of "Red" Dever, of the Chicago quintet, who was out of the game because of an injured knee, but Sachs, who went in at his position soon made them forget about the sore-topped tosser. Sachs will be remembered as a member of the strong Seward Blues team when that team was defeating all comers. He also gained prominence as a half-back on Paddy Driscoll's famous pigskin chasers.

The new life injected into the local outfit proved a combination that would give the best of them a strong tussle. Matt Butch, the high school player, put up a strong game at back guard and held the famous Smith in check at all times, with the result that he was unable to score a basket from the floor. While Butch was trailing Smith, Dixon and Liska, of the visitors, were able to toss in baskets, but not until they had received considerable opposition from Kizer and Burnham.

Kizer played the floor to good advantage and on many occasions raced back to ward off the visiting attacks. Kizer was high point getter for the locals with nine, closely followed by Burnham and Rhodes with eight and six, respectively. Kizer, Burnham and Rhodes were thorns in the sides of the Armour players throughout, tossing baskets just when the visitors were in danger of evening the count.

The locals had a big advantage in foul shooting, as Kizer was in rare form, scoring five out of seven. Smith, of the Chicago team, failed on two tosses at a time that would have given a great victory towards bolstering up the morale of his team. At that, Smith tossed two out of four. Both teams were unfortunate in having a number of tosses roll around the key, but Kizer and Burnham broke the ice for the "Y" team with a pretty ringer a minute after the game started. Kizer tossed a free throw a minute later and Burnham repeated with a shot from under the basket. Liska, of the Armour outfit, chalked up the first marker for his team, but Rhodes, receiving a pass after the toss-up, sunk another into the net for the South Bend aggregation.

Kizer, Burnham and Rhodes scored a total of 10 points for their team in the second half before the Chicago tossers could catch their breath. Trettin went in at forward for the visitors and fed the ball to Dixon and Liska with the result that Rhodes reduced the lead to three points. Kizer then threw two free tosses, but Liska scored his only basket for the half as the game ended. Lineup:

South Bend: R. F. Liska, Burnham, L. F. Samkowsky, Radabaugh, C. Smith, Kizer, R. G. Dixon, Butch, L. G. Sachs. Substitution—Trettin for Samkowsky. Points scored—Y. M. C. A.: Kizer, 9; Burnham, 8; Rhodes, 6; Armour: Dixon, 12; Liska, 6; Smith, 2. Referee—Halas.

In the preliminary game the First Presbyterian team defeated the Y. M. C. A. Intermediates 30 to 20.

PURDUE DEFEATS IOWA IN EXCITING CONTEST

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Jan. 28.—Sensational basketball shooting by White and Gullion in the last three minutes of play enabled the Purdue University basketball team to defeat Iowa in a western conference game here tonight, 27 to 26. Iowa had a 7 point lead until the rally. Iowa led at the half, 13 to 11.

WANTS RICKARD TO STAGE NEW MATCH

Jack Kearns Willing to Have Return Match Between Dempsey and Carp.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Jack Kearns, manager for Jack Dempsey, said today that Tex Rickard might be asked to stage a return match between the world's heavyweight boxing champion and Georges Carpentier in Europe next summer.

"I have not approached Rickard," said Kearns, "but the idea appeals to me as a way out of a most unusual situation. Here I am with the best fighter in the world on my hands and I cannot find an opportunity to get him into the ring with an opponent who appears to have enough chance to draw a paying crowd. At least that's the situation so far as match-making is concerned by promoters whose word and money is something tangible to gamble on."

"I am going to be in New York for a week or 10 days and hope to have Dempsey matched for at least one bout before I return to the coast. Right now I have no particular man in sight."

Rickard declined to discuss the proposition other than to say that he would listen to any suggestion Kearns might offer.

Diamond and Grid Sports Shown to Be First Cousins

Neale, Moran and Bezdek Ample Proof—Frisch, Thorpe et al. Cinch It.

BY HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Staff Correspondent.) NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Three of the greatest football teams in the country were turned out last season by prominent figures in the baseball world.

Penn State—coached by Hugo Bezdek, former manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Centre—coached by Charley Moran, National league umpire.

Washington and Jefferson—coached by Earl "Greasy" Neale, outfielder for the Cincinnati Reds.

Because these three eleven were so prominent in the spotlight, attention was drawn to the rather close association between baseball and football strategy.

However, this has been evident, if not so apparent, for years. Major league baseball has for a long time borne a strong inter-collegiate football complexion.

Jim Thorpe, regarded as the greatest all-around football star ever developed, made good in baseball. He is still in the game, and hit over 300 last season in the American association.

Frisch Star Gridder.

Frank Frisch, star infielder of the New York Giants, was a brilliant halfback during his college days at Fordham when the same speed that marks his diamond work made him one of the most elusive backs in the east.

Howard Barry, one of the greatest backs developed at Pennsylvania, and an all-around athlete on the track and field, is now a utility outfielder with the Giants.

The New York Yanks have under promise Killinger, the All-American back of the 1921 Penn State team and a third baseman whom Hugo Bezdek brands a sure sensation in the major leagues. The American league champs also have another football product of Hugo Bezdek's 1920 eleven, Hinkley Haines, an outfielder.

Eddie Collins, star second baseman and captain of the White Sox, was a great quarterback at Columbia. Rip Collins, pitcher for the Boston Red Sox, was a star with the Texas Aggies before the war.

Del Pratt, second baseman of the same club, was an All-Southern star while playing with Alabama, a university which also developed two other stars, Joe Sewell and Riggs Stephenson, who made good with the Cleveland Indians.

Many Other Stars.

"Greasy" Neale earned his nickname because of his great open field running while playing with West Virginia Wesleyan. He had developed into one of the best coaches in the game, as proved by the fact that he was voted a star for the New York Giants, the same club he gave up baseball as Bezdek did.

Jack Stahl who managed the Boston Red Sox some years back, was a great halfback at Illinois, and a great pitcher at Columbia.

Hugo Bezdek never played major league baseball, but he managed the Pirates. He learned his football at Chicago, where he was a star tackle. Charley Moran is not the only umpire actively connected with "big time" football, as Ernie Quigley is one of the most competent referees in the west.

Eddie Slake to Get Real Test

EDDIE SLAKE.

Eddie Slake, a promising middleweight of the West Side, will receive his baptism of fire Monday night at Z. B. Hall, when he meets Johnny Hunch, of Gary, in the main bout. Slake has been carefully groomed for this match and hopes to make a good impression on local boxing enthusiasts.

A number of good preliminary bouts have also been scheduled, including matches between Dave Popp and Steve Ziegler at 128 pounds. Battling Rose will meet Jake Resnick at 122 pounds, while Steve Neibair and Young Stockweather, two middleweights, will swap punches in another bout.

Official Rules of Golf

(Editor's Note—This is the first of a series of golf articles covering in full the rules and regulations now in use by the United States Golf association. The next article will appear on the sport page of The News-Times next Sunday.)

These rules are as approved by the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews in September, 1912, and as adopted by the United States Golf association Jan. 11, 1913. Revised and in effect Jan. 7, 1921, as adopted with amendments concurred in by the Royal and Ancient Golf club and the United States Golf association. Also special amendments adopted by the Western Golf association.

United States Golf association. In making these rulings and interpretations has made few changes in the wording or in the import of the rules of golf as adopted by the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, and has only added such definitions and explanations as appeared to be called for or suggested by custom and decisions of competent experts. The interpretations and decisions marked R. & A. have been taken from the decisions as rendered by the rules of golf committee of the Royal and Ancient Golf club.

Special attention is called to rules of the Western Golf association, which will be marked W. G. A. as they appear for western golf rules govern all play in this district.

(1) Side—A "side" consists either of one player or of two players. If one player plays against another the match is called a "single." If two players play against two, each side playing one ball, the match is called a "four-some." If one player plays against two, the match is called a "three-some."

(2) Advice—"Advice" is any comment or suggestion which could influence a player in determining the line of play, in the choice of a club, or in the method of making a stroke. A player may ask anyone to indicate the line to the hole before the shot is played. (R. & A.)

(3) Course—"The course" is the whole area within which play is permitted; more particularly, it is the ground between the holes which is specially prepared for play.

(4) Teeing Ground—"The teeing-ground" is the starting place for a hole. The front of each teeing-ground shall be indicated by two marks placed in a line as nearly as possible at right angles to the line of play, and the teeing-ground shall include a rectangular space of the depth of two club lengths directly behind the line indicated by the two marks.

(5) Through the Green—"Through the green" is all ground on which play is permitted, except hazards and the putting-green of the hole that is being played.

(6) Hazard—"A hazard" is any bunker, water (except casual water), ditch (unless excepted by local rule), bush, sand, path or road. Sand blown on to the grass or sprinkled on the course for the purpose of placing a ball and the player is at liberty to drop it. (R. & A.)

(17) Addressing the Ball—A player has not addressed the ball when he has taken his stance in addressing the ball and does not merely oscillate, it has moved, and the movement constitutes a stroke. (R. & A.)

LOCAL HIGH FIVE SWAMPS STURGIS BY 68-15 SCORE

Coach Burnham's Protégés Have Runaway Time With Michigan School.

The South Bend High school basketball team defeated the Sturgis, Mich., school quintet, 68 to 15, yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock on the Y. M. C. A. court. The Michiganites displayed a fighting game throughout, but Coach Elmer Burnham's orange and blue protégés were too much for them.

One minute and a half after Referee Halas had blown the starting whistle, Ollie Edwards, Benny Ednar and John Nyikos had each chalked up a field goal. It cannot be said that the victory was through the work of one man, but rather the machine-like passing, dribbling and shooting of all.

Capt. Scheer totaled three baskets for his afternoon's work. It was through the efforts of the little leader that Edwards and Nyikos were able to score so many times. It was generally Scheer who would come down the floor with the ball, and pass to his teammates.

Ollie Edwards, whose athletic prowess is well known to followers of the Bender quintet, seemed better than ever. Passing with accuracy, and playing a faultless defensive game, he probably played the best game of his season. He scored eight times from the field. Johnny Nyikos succeeded in sinking the ball through the oval nine times. This makes the fall center high point man for the last seven games.

Wes Benny Ednar tallied seven times via the open field route, and was another who looked better than ever in yesterday afternoon's massacre.

Capt. Charles Hartz was the one hope of the Michiganites. Had all the members of his team been of his calibre they would have had at least a fighting chance against the orange and blue. He had a remarkably good eye for the basket from long range, scoring twice via the long route and twice from under the basket.

Johnny (Ike) Voedisch was put into the game shortly after the contest had started, playing the back guard job to perfection, and later when shifted to running guard he dropped a counter from the field. He was slated to start next yard berth, but a last minute shift favored E. A. Baker.

The next time Capt. Scheer leads his team against an opponent Voedisch will probably be in the back guard position. Morris Dome, who is now eligible for varsity competition, scored twice via the open field route and is expected to be working regular in a second berth before the season is over.

Providing present pending negotiations materialize, Coach Burnham will send his basket tossers against the Nish Senn High school quintet at Chicago next Saturday afternoon. South Bend (68) B. F. T. O. Edwards, rf. 8 0 7 0 er has "addressed the ball" when he has taken his stance and grounded his club, or, if in a hazard, when he has taken his stance preparatory to striking at the ball.

(18) In Play—A ball is "in play" as soon as the player has made a stroke at a teeing-ground, and it remains in play until holed out, except when lifted in accordance with the rules.

(19) Ball Deemed to Move—A ball is deemed to "move" if it leaves its original position in the least degree; but it is not considered to "move" if it merely oscillate and come to rest in its original position.

(20) Ball Lost—A ball is "lost" if it is not found within five minutes after the search for it has begun.

(21) Terms Used in Reckoning the Game—The reckoning of strokes is kept by the terms—"he did," "one more," "three more," etc., and "one off three," "one off two," "the like." The reckoning of holes is kept by the terms—"so many holes up," or "all even," and so many "to play."

A side is said to be "dormie" when all the holes up as there are holes remaining to be played.

(22) An "umpire" decides questions of fact; a "referee" decides questions of golfing law.

(23) Removing the Ball—When either ball is on the putting green the player may remove the opponent's ball; the opponent shall then be deemed to have holed his next stroke.

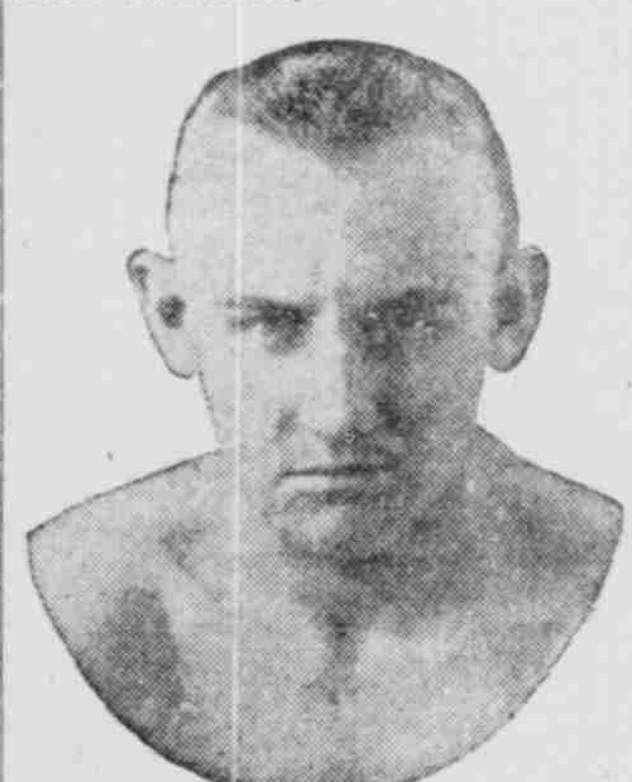

(24) Weight of Ball. Size of Ball—The weight of the ball shall not be greater than 1.62 ounce and the size less than 1.62 inch in diameter. The rules of the golf committee and the executive committee of the United States Golf association will take whatever steps they think necessary to limit the power of the ball with regard to distance, should any ball of greater power be introduced.

This limitation to become effective as of the date of May 1, 1921.

Welsh and Ruhlin Conclude Their Preliminary Training for Fracas

Boys to Put Finishing Touches On Here for Fight at Mishawaka Tuesday.

Johnny Ruhlin, the Mishawaka fighting Irishman, who is to oppose Eddie Welsh in a ten round boxing exhibition Tuesday night, Jan. 31, at the Century theater, Mishawaka, completed his preliminary training at Michigan City Saturday and for the remaining days will work out at McGowan's gym in this city. The Mishawaka promoters have made arrangements to have all who are interested to see Ruhlin work out to attend this afternoon's training at the local gym. Many fans have not seen the Ball Hand favorite in action and this will afford them an opportunity to do so before the bouts on Tuesday.

EDDIE WELSH

Word was received last night from Ike Bernstein, manager of Eddie Welsh, to the effect that Welsh will reach South Bend this afternoon and will complete his training at the local Y. M. C. A. gym Monday. According to their managers, both boys are in the pink of condition and ready to give the best exhibition of their careers.

Ed Smith, the well known Chicago referee, has been secured to act as third man in the ring and this assures the fans that there will be no stalling tactics. Smith needs no introduction to local boxing enthusiasts, having appeared here on many occasions for local bouts.

The main attraction is drawing perhaps the greater amount of attention due to the fact that Welsh made his start in this vicinity, but the supporting card is one of the best balanced that has been presented for local approval. Two semi-winners, an inexperienced local part, and an attracting much enthusiasm. Mickey Brennan, one of the cleverest lightweights in Michigan and a recognized headliner, will meet Frankie Harvey of Milwaukee in an eight round bout preceding the windup.

Both boys are expected to be in the ring to furnish a great deal of excitement.

Johnny Thiel of this city will swap punches with "Red" Curry, a local favorite because of his willingness to mix at all times. Curry has appeared here on many occasions and his services have always been required for return matches.

Curry's manager posted his forfeit with a local bank yesterday and stated his protégé was just rarin' to go. Both boys have much to gain in this bout. Each experienced a knockout before local audiences in recent bouts but the consensus of opinion appears to be that the blows landed were lucky and detracted nothing from the ability of the boxer.

This started road work Saturday and hopes to be in top notch shape for the Mishawaka bout.

Good Curtain Raiser

The curtain raiser between Danny McGowan, the Notre Dame bantam, and Young Stanley of the Studebaker club, in a six round exhibition is bound to please the audience if they put up as strong a bout as that furnished by them at the soldiers testimonial celebration at the Studebaker building. Both bantams are as fast as chain lightning and exceptionally clever.

The advance sale for the bouts has been heavier than expected, especially in the nearby towns. Elkhart, Goshen and Niles have sold every ticket they could lay hands on and have made requests for more.

Mishawaka expects to pack the house alone, many of the clubs there buying up blocks of seats.

According to the promoters, attempts have been made by South Bend interests to prevent the holding of the show, but all attempts thus far have failed. The Ministerial association was first approached, but those gentlemen could see no harm in the bouts so long as the city fathers had sanctioned it. A final attempt was made Saturday to induce Pres. Atty. Jefferson to call the bouts off, but he also reiterated with the reply, "If it was good enough during the war, it's good enough now. I witnessed many bouts between soldiers and see no harm in it as long as the boxers are evenly matched."

Attacks Commercial Trend In All College Athletics

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Athletics as carried on today by American colleges place emphasis upon gate receipts, and lead to the danger of forgetting what the real work of a college is, in the opinion of Kenneth C. M. Sills, president of Bowdoin college. He expressed these views in an address to the alumni last night.

"The college," he added, "is still fundamentally an educational institution, and not a country club nor an athletic club."

PICK STUDEBAKER INDOOR TEAM FOR CONTESTS ABROAD

Games Being Arranged With Detroit, Chicago and Other Amateur Teams.

A representative Studebaker factory indoor baseball team to play home and home games with the Detroit factory, Chicago industrial teams, and other amateur clubs in the middle west, is being selected by I. J. Cortwright, athletic director and recreational supervisor at the Studebaker corporation.

The organization of this team is in keeping with the new spirit of athletics which the Studebaker corporation is fostering, declared Mr. Cortwright Saturday. "We have some mighty good baseball men working in the factory," commented the athletic mentor, "and I feel confident that one will be organized which will be a credit to the industry."

Further details concerning this team will be announced at a later date.

Recent games in the Studebaker indoor baseball league as announced by Cortwright follow:

Trim Shop 27, Gears 15—Batteries: Varany and Dausen, Nelbar and Grandy; umpires, Claytor and Prentikowski.

Trim Shop Plant One 40, Sedans 5—Batteries: Swartz and Kuyawa; Olsen and Chedia.

Tools 23, Forge 3—Batteries: Barry and Brickman; Zillmer and Zwickler.

Shippers 11, Stores 10—Batteries: Hiquist and Roetiser; Pfeil and Alward; umpire, Christopher and Bolton.

The first two games were played at the Washington school gym, while the last two were played at the Y. M. C. A. result of this game, with the Superior Type and Lincoln Life teams taking sixth and seventh places respectively.

A number of good scores were turned in during the two men event. Dunn and Crouch of Chicago had the heaviest pinfall with 1135, closely followed by Wiesner and Miller, also of Chicago, with a total of 1133. In the singles, Wiesner of Chicago, with 603 and Jones of Chicago, with an even 600, were the leaders.

The Lincoln Life team will play on the Conservative Life team of South Bend this afternoon at the Shafter Alleys at 1:30.

Brady Deposits $50,000 For Dempsey-Wills Bout

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—William A. Brady deposited $50,000 in the Mutual bank here today to stage a fight between Jack Dempsey, world's champion and Harry Wills, negro, of Toledo, O. The fight is to be held in America on or before July 4.

A similar deposit must be made by Dempsey or his manager, Jack Kearns, in order to complete arrangements for the fight.

Wills did not make a deposit, Brady said, but he added that the appeared here to meet Dempsey for the world's heavyweight title at the earliest opportunity.

The plan is to hold the fight on July 4, but an earlier date will be suitable to Wills and Brady. The place for the fight has not been determined.

Brady, who is now engaged in theatrical interests, was the manager for both James J. Corbett and Jim Jeffries when they were world's champions.

BOWLING FANS SEE STELLAR MATCHES

Lincoln Life Team Winner in Feature Match in Interstate Tournament.

Local bowling fans witnessed some matches last night at the playhouse of the Inter-State Bowlers Tournament being staged at the Orpheum. Alleys that they are not liable to forget for some time. The playing was featured by close scores throughout and the uncertainty of the winner until the final ball was rolled.

The most interesting match of the night was that between the Superior Type Co. and the Lincoln Life teams, both of Port Wayne. It was nip and tuck throughout and the final count showed that the Superior team were the winners by a single point.

The Lincoln Life bowlers captured the first two games with a fair margin and were looked upon as sure winners. In the final game the Lincoln's cracked and their lead was gradually worn down by the consistent rolling of Jackson and Ehle of the Type team.

The Jefferson hotel team of this city were shoved down two pegs in the standing for last night, as the
