Newspapers by Ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image/513578811

Downloaded on Oct 18, 2022

SURPRISES FOR FANS

SEVERAL CHANGES TO BE MADE IN LOCAL LINEUP.

ANDERSON IS ONLY FIXTURE

Manager Grant Willing to Trade All Other Players to Get Heavy Hitting Team—Moffit is Dissatisfied.

Several surprises are in store for local baseball fans during the next few months and before the opening of the Central league season of 1906, South Bend may practically have an entire new team in the field.

From information which comes from a reliable source it can be stated that it is the intention of Manager Grant to have a squad of heavy hitters and fast base runners when the gong sounds for the opening game, and that in bringing about the desired results it is pretty certain that with one exception, there is not a man on the team, he will not trade. The exception is "Cozy" Anderson.

Grant is already getting signatures to contracts and up to the present time he has two new pitchers, a trio of infielders and three or four outfielders under his wing. It is by no means certain that Moffit, who is acknowledged to be the best pitcher South Bend uniform will again don a South Bend uniform, mainly because he thinks he is not getting enough money for his work. "Bugsie" expected to get $300 for the year, but falls to realize that his services are worth less value than he will go into higher company.

It Was Bernhard, Sure.

"Jimmy Ryan, Harry McCormick, Jack Hendricks and several other big towers were given an order at Joe's a few days ago," says the Joe-Joe-Joe-