Clean Sweep of Shirtwaists

89c

Real $1 and $1.25 Kinds

Over a dozen styles—all the newest—in white lawns, black lawns and fabric colored effects. The daintiest and prettiest waists of the season—some with lace and embroidery effects. All in this lot are $1 and $1.25 garments. Clean sweep offer. Your alternative choice at 8 cents.

Saturday's July Clean-Sweep Offers Will Keep Us Very Busy Every Hour.

Our unrelenting determination to make a clean sweep of all summer goods by August 1st has tempted us to cut prices far deeper than such worthy goods deserve. The lower the prices are forced the faster the goods will sell. And that's what these low prices are made for—fast selling. Profit is not the object of this sale at all. Saturday's prices point that out very forcibly. The object is to dispose of the goods. It's a particularly good time to buy when prices are down the way they will be here to-morrow—that's why we'll be busy every hour. Every offer is a real bargain for you. Look into this matter thoroughly. Read further and see what these offers really are.

moved and Kathan and Scott substituted.

The third day of the summer meet of Marion, Ind., Driving association drew a larger crowd, but the association will lose money on the meet because of the absence of pool selling. The heats were taken by Coast Marie, Jerome Coast, Coast Marie after four heats, in the third heat Coast Marie won from Boyd Wilkes by a nose.

Governor Folk is planning a coup with which he expects to put the race track gang at St. Louis, Mo., out of business. Governor Folk, who has been apparently fettered by Politic orders, go to the track every day and are accumulating a mass of evidence about the gambling in progress there.

WINS STUDEBAKER CUP.

E. A. Freeman, Lords in Advertisers Golf Tournament.

The Tribune's Special Service.

Cleveland, O., July 21.—The Studebaker challenge cup donated by the Studebaker Manufacturing company, of South Bend, was won yesterday by E. A. Freeman, of Cleveland, O., winning the championship of the annual tournament of the American Golf association of advertising Interests.

Freeman defeated J. E. Hole, of Cleveland, 1 up, 5 to play.

The Courtship of a Son of Suat.

They were seated in the parlor and the lights were burning dim.

He was a dummy here—she a fan so fair and trim.

Suddenly her face he "opened up the pages" by murmuring "Love."

That father was the umpire, on the stairway just above.

"I'll like to win this game," he said. "With me you've made a hit.

"You've shown me that you have the speed" and you are looking fit.

And if with you, my trusty dove, I make a bit likewise,

Won't you help me 'advance a bit' and make a 'squeeze?'"

She answered: "How's your 'salary whip?' I hope it isn't lame;

If so, there's nothing left for me except 'postpone the game.'"

The umpire on the stairs remarked: "I'm sorry, I'm sure,

Called this young man out, 'stealing home' before the 'game's a tie.'"

"I want a 'free pass' to your heart," he said, with "sacrifice."

And straight with "sacrifice" one round her neck," the other was "wild-high."

Just here the umpire butted in, the gasped, "Oh, father, please,

"There's nothing wrong, for George is only showing me the 'squeeze.'"

"All right," the irate umpire said, "I'll just keep up the fun

By showing George another play that's called the 'hit and run.'"

Hence, the lovers left the porch, George started home, then called another count—

The son of Suat "hit" down the steps, the umpire said, "You're out."

Story is a Fake.

A report is going the rounds of the entral league circuit that a stock company has been organized in South Bend to purchase the Terre Haute franchise in the Central league. The story is a fake of the worst kind and hardly needs a denial. The only city which has considered such a proposition is Fort Wayne.

Barton Jumps Terre Haute.

The Tribune's Special Service.

Canton, O., July 21.—Jimmy Barton, the short stop of the "Hats" jumped the team last night. He will be succeeded by King, late of the St. Louis Cardinals.

WAS HER CHARITY TREE.

Southern Lady's Beautiful Way of Helping Good Cause.

"The oddest charity I ever saw in a small way," said the Colonel, "was in the quiet university town of Athens, Ga., last summer. I was walking with a friend through the principal street, when we passed a house where a slow-looking white-haired woman was sitting on the porch. Close to the front gate was a large pumpkin, or Japanese orange tree, which was laden with ripe, delicious fruit. My companion expressed a desire for some, and I approached the woman on the stoop, offering to pay for what she would permit us to take.

"You may pick as many as you please, sir," she said, "but if you care to give me something I shall be pleased. All the fruit that grows on that tree goes to charity."

"I gathered a pocketful of oranges and gave fifty cents, which was received most gratefully. I learned that the woman was the widow of a Confederate officer, who had nothing but her homestead and she took in embroidery to live. The proceeds from that pumpkin tree, which amounted to $25 some years, was impartially divided among local charities in which she was interested. Anybody in Athens would as soon have stolen flowers from the grave in the cemetery as steal fruit from that charity tree."
