EXQUISITE DISPLAY OF ART EMBROIDERY

ANNUAL EXHIBIT AT ST. MARY'S OPENED TO PUBLIC.

SOUTH BEND GIRL'S ENTRY

Miss Crabill Shows Beautiful Table Set and Other Linen—Seniors Give Instrumental Concert—Closing Exercises.

The annual exhibit of art embroidery at St. Mary's academy was opened to the public yesterday afternoon. A throng of admiring visitors inspected the work of the students, which was hung about the walls and displayed on tables around the room. This exhibit is looking forward to annually by those interested in art needlework as an opportunity to see unusually beautiful designs and perfect handiwork. White pieces predominated in the display and the distinctness of the exhibit was enhanced by the pale blue and yellow of St. Mary's banners and the gold and blue of Notre Dame's banners, mingling with the display on the walls, and a profusion of ferns and cut flowers.

The display of the work of Miss Mary Bassett, of Las Cruces, N. M., is the largest individual exhibit and occupies almost the entire end of the room.

She is showing a table cloth three yards in length, embroidered in a delicate design of roses and leaves and matching napkins embroidered with a monogram; a gown of white silk crepe with a panel front and yoke embroidered in a daisy design with white silk; two silk dresses, lunch cloths in French embroidery done in daisy design; a lunch cloth in Mexico drawn thread embroidery; a dresser scarf in silk in Mexico Mattick embroidery and bordered with cluny lace, one in a pond lily design and one in a rose design; a sideboard scarf in Mexico Mattick (drawn thread embroidery) a Boston lunch set consisting of a centerpiece, six plate doilies, six butter plate doilies, and six sauce doilies with scalloped edges embroidered in Mexico Mattick; a tailored linen waist with the front yoke embroidered in daisy design; a cream colored cashmere kimona with substantial design; a library table cover embroidered in Mexico Mattick; a set of pillows in the orchardist design, the two blossoms of the 5th order and the other in 19 Knights of Columbus design.

Her display is artistically grouped and mounted and it seemed most marvelous that so much could be accomplished by one person, and that so full, in the short space of one school year.

Indiana Girl Second.

The display of Miss Mary Belle Milligan, of Indianapolis, Ind., is second of size. It includes two large center pieces done in pond lily, and conventional design; a dress padef of French and eyelet embroidery; a pair of pillow slips, silk grosfoed embroidered edges and a daisy border; a French and eyelet embroidered lunch cloth and sheer linen embroidered in French and eyelet; a library table cover embroidered in Oriental design; a sofa pillow in an Indian bead design and a pillow embroidered in Mexico Mattick.

Miss Josephine Crabill, of South Bend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Crabill, of Navarre place, has a display that is among the largest and most attractive. She is showing a large lunch cloth hemstitched and embroidered in a fern design and napkins to match embroidered with initials; a pair of pillow covers hemstitched and embroidered in a daisy border; and a pair of towels, with initials and monogram.

The display of Miss Gladys Murphy, of Ottumwa, Ia., includes three beautifully executed sofa pillows, a jewel of dragon design in tones of green, another in a rose design and another in conventional design in Oriental colors. With the pillows she is showing a centerpiece done in a conventional oak leaf design.

Miss Guadalupe de la Questa, of Mazatlan, Mexico, is exhibiting an entire set of lingerie done in eyelet and French embroidery; a centerpiece in Oriental design and a rose centerpiece.

Garcia, of Saltillo, Mex., a table cloth and dozen of napkins; Miss Anna Strauss, of Chicago, lunch cloth, rose centerpiece, library scarf and sofa pillow; Ethel Brownell, Chicago, centerpiece in poppy design; Miss Helen Davis, Bloomington, Ind., library scarf, centerpiece, two towels, grape centerpiece, lunch cloth, small centerpiece an lunch set; Guadalupe Garcia, Saltillo, Mex., lunch cloth and dozen napkins; Delina Dolan, Cuero, Tex., centerpiece, library scarf, towels; Margaret Molloy, Chicago, centerpiece in poppy design; Mary Mahoney, Chicago, library scarf; Mary Mahoney, Deming, N. GRADUATES GIVE CONCERT.

Brilliant Recital By St. Mary's Conservatory of Music.

Graduates night of the conservatory of music, which was held last evening, brought out the largest crowd that has yet assembled for any of the closing events of St. Mary's college year. More than 400 guests enjoyed the musical programme, two and a half hours in length, given in St. Angela hall. The stage was given over to a fine recital in festooning of white and yellow and ornamented with ferns and palms.

The graduates in music, who are the Misses Mayme Hess, Elena Arredondo, Mary Bassett, Ethel Brownell and Mary Bracken, were assisted in the programme by Prof. Richard Seidel, of the Thomas orchestra, Chicago; Prof. Frederick Ingersoll, South Bend, the advanced pupils of the violin class, and other students of the conservatory.

The entire recital was a brilliant demonstration of the ability acquired by the young candidates during their three years of training at St. Mary's conservatory. Enthusiastic applause was interrupted solidarity and sympathetically.

Miss Nellie Kearney, whose work is characterized by a remarkable perfection of technique, commenced a solo from Rachmaninoff, and the beauty of her rendition, from Schumann then were deeply appreciated. Miss Mayme Hess has a pleasing presence at the piano and her spirited rendition of the "Valse Caprice" from Raff gave Dunning chiefest much applause.

The violins added a wealth of beautiful melody to the programme. The tenderly solemn strains of the "Andante Religioso" from Lalo's Concerto in G Minor by the Misses Hilma Bickel, Goerfer, Gretchen Lotz, Loretta Corbett, Margaret Conner and Prof. Seidel, touched and charmed the audience. A violin duetto by Prof. Seidel and Miss Richelsdorfer, whose skill is of a high order, from the "Symphony of a Brilliant future, was beautifully rendered.

A vocal solo, "Summer" by Miss Alice Drake, and Nevins' "My Rosary," sung by a sweet soprano of young women were enjoyable breaks in a long programme of instrumental numbers.

GOLD MEDAL IN TENNIS.

Miss Day Wins Singles—Big Margin in Archery Contest.

Miss Alice Day was first place and a gold medal in the tennis singles, the finals of which were played off yesterday afternoon. Miss Day and Miss Beatrice Dodsold entered the final singles to compete for first place. They began playing at 3:30 o'clock. Both players were evenly matched and both made an excellent showing. The returns were splitted and in a series of brilliant plays kept the ball passing swiftly back and forth over the net.

The first set was taken by Miss Day, games were won alternately by the players until 16 had been played and the score stood 9 to 8. Miss Day took the next two games in succession and the set closed with a score of 9 to 11 in Miss Day's favor.

The second set Miss Dodrick won first in the archery contest with a margin of 67 points. Second and third places were won by Miss Mary Lee and Miss Blanche Dessert. The archery contest was held on the south side of the college, starting at 9 o'clock in the morning. Miss Lee did not score 9 points. The other counts are 5, 7, 8, 5 and 1, respectively. The total score stood: Miss M. Claire Okie, Sibley, Illinois, 215; Miss Mary Lee, 111; Mary Lee, 111, and Frances Frederick, 218.

The archery contest made a pretty picture. The contestants were outfitted dresses of white that were picturesque in St. Mary's woodland setting. They carried bows and arrows and quivers of their side with colored ribbons. Several hundred spectators stood about on the campus watching the contest.

Miss Frederick through the contest was nervous and hesitating, but she was accurate and her scoring consistently excellent. Miss Lee did not start out well, but made up her score in the last distance. Miss Dessert's shooting was not up to her usual mark. She started out well but weakened. Miss Okie's shots were not up to her score stood lowest but on unlucky day. She changed her bow yesterday and the new instrument did not respond well.

The archery contest was followed immediately by the finals in the tennis doubles which closed the annual tennis and archery tournament. Misses Mary Mahoney and Everesta Brady won from Misses Harriet and Alice Day with a score of 6 to 5. The match lasted 1 hour and 40 minutes.

The officials in yesterday's contests were Prof. Farrell, Roger Dunne, referee; M. H. Sinnott, umpire; Chester D. Pease and Robert Hurt, timekeeper; J. Murphy, announcer; H. Milburn, scorer.

The contests in cycology and boat racing were held this afternoon. They closed the annual tournament of outdoor sports.

Mgr. Falconio Prominent.

Mgr. Diomede Falconio, who will be in charge of the commencement exercises, has been prominent in the church work on two continents for many years. He was appointed by the Vatican as papal delegate to the United States with headquarters in Washington, in 1902, while apostolic delegate to Canada. He was sent to Canada in 1899, after having served in Italy for a number of years as apostolic delegate to Malta.

Before going to Italy, Mgr. Falconio spent a number of years as professor and president at St. Bonaventure's, the college of his order at Allegany, N. Y., and at Mount St. Alphonsus, Richmond, in New York. During his residence at Allegany, in 1871 he became a citizen of the United States. He received his citizenship papers in Cincinnati, O.

Mgr. Falconio was born in 1842 at Pescocostanzo, Italy. In 1866, he joined the Franciscan Order of Friars and five years later was sent to the United States as a teacher of philosophy at the Franciscan college, Allegany, N. Y. He remained there the following year. He remained in the college seven years and was then sent to assist the bishop of Cincinnati, Ohio, in his diocese.

In this diocese Mgr. Falconio labored as vicar general and administrator until 1878, when he returned to New York and spent some time. A desire to visit his native country caused him to Italy. He returned to New York after a time, where he was appointed to various offices in the Franciscan order, culminating in that of superior general. Good Faith Investments

When all is said and done, when the experience of ourselves and neighbors is reviewed and considered, we are forced to the conclusion that real estate when bought right, is the one best bet in the investment market.

Henry George, called the world's attention to the "unearned increment" or the increase of land values caused by the development of a city—and to which the owner does not specially contribute. While failing in the institution of his favorite reform, Henry George put a lot of people wise as to the profits of real estate investments.

Ask any 20 investors in South Bend or Mishawaka and they will tell you to put your surplus earnings in real estate—If you can buy it right.

There remains unsold almost 200 lots in Milburn Place now offered at average prices. These lots are selling at prices almost 50 per cent lower than any real estate between South Bend and Mishawaka.

To show our good faith in this proposition we will sell any lot listed by us for 25 per cent less than its value as fixed by any three disinterested appraisers.

This is Your Chance to Buy Right

Suburban lots increase in value as the City grows toward them, these lots are between two properous cities, rapidly building closer. It follows that rapidly increasing values are most certain.

These lots are high, dry and level, near South side car line and splendidly adapted for a home.

Come out to-morrow and see the many advantages of this offer.
