HOAR AFTER TRUSTS

IMPORTANT MEASURE PREPARED BY SENATOR.

PROVIDES FOR PUBLICITY

According to Law Proposed By Massachusetts Statesman Corporations Must Make Detailed Statements and Allow Inspection

Washington, Jan. 3.—Senator Hoar yesterday made public the full text of the anti-trust bill which he had added leave to introduce just before the senate adjourned for the holidays. The bill is divided into 11 sections and is carefully worded document, going at length into the various evils it is sought to correct.

As in other similar measures, publicity and the opportunity for a thorough investigation of the inside affairs of big corporations are provided. Frequent reports are to be required and the government officers are authorized to do whatever seems necessary to safeguard the interests of the public.

Law Effective in a Year.

In the bill, which now goes to the committee on judiciary, of which Senator Hoar is chairman, the following are the more important provisions:

"Then and after the 30th day of June, in the year 1904, no corporation joint stock company, or other association whose stockholders are not personally liable for their debts, created by any state or territory which engage in commerce with foreign nations or carry on such commerce unless shall comply with the following conditions:

"It shall file a statement in the office of the interstate commerce commission on or before the 15th day of September, 1904, and each year thereafter, showing the amount of its capital stock, the market value of the same, how much of the same has been paid in full in cash, what has been received by said corporation, joint stock company, or other association, in lieu thereof, and the value of whatever shall have been so received by it.

"The reports shall also show the names and residences and directors of said corporation, joint stock company, or other association, and all agents transacted with the management of its affairs, the amount it has paid in dividends, the rate of percentage of such dividends, and times of giving the same.

All Must Promise to Obey.

"Undertakings must be signed by officers, general managers, and directors that they will comply with the provisions of this and all other laws of the United States, in the management of the affairs of said corporations, joint stock companies or other associations; and that they accept the provisions and liabilities of this act, and the obligations by it imposed, so long as they shall continue to hold or exercise said offices or authority.

"The attorney general of the United States may at any time require of any corporation, joint stock company, or other association so engaged any statement he may think fit in regard to the conduct of its business. And he may especially require any such corporation, joint stock company, or other association to give a list of all contracts or transactions entered into within the 12 months preceding such requisition, in which it has sold any article or product, or carried any product for sale or transportation, at less than the ordinary rate of profit of such articles or products had been sold or carried by any other person than the party to such transaction. And he may further require the reasons for such distinction and the circumstances attending the same.

Provide Fine and Imprisonment.

"Every person, corporation, joint stock company, or other association engaged in commerce with foreign nations or among the several states who shall enter into any contract, combination, or conspiracy, or who shall give any direction or authority to do any act, for the purpose of driving out of business any other person engaged therein, or who for such purpose shall, in the course of such commerce, sell any article or product at less than its fair market value or at a less price than it is accustomed to demand or require therefor in any other place under like conditions; or who shall sell any article upon a condition, contract, or undertaking that it shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000, or by imprisonment not to exceed one year, or by both such punishments, in the discretion of the court.

Books Open to Inspection.

"All books of records and papers of every such corporation shall be subject to inspection by the attorney general of the United States, or by any agent he may designate."

Other sections provide the manner in which reports shall be made and the duty of the federal authorities in enforcing the law. The limitations on interstate commerce also are filed.

MITCHELL NOT IN POLITICS

Mine Workers' Leader Does Not Seek Office.

Indianapolis, Jan. 3.—National Secretary Wilson, of the United Mine workers, last night discussed the action of the Chicago Cook county democracy in electing President John Mitchell to membership.

"I know there has been a lot of talk in Illinois lately," he said, "regarding Mitchell's politics. There has been talk there of bringing him out for governor. But the amusing part of the situation is that while there have been talks in Illinois of making him the democratic nominee for governor, there has been talk of making a running mate of President Roosevelt in 1904. The truth of the situation, so far as Mitchell is concerned, is that he is not taking sides in politics and he has no intention of entering politics. He is not a politician in any sense of the word. Neither am I, for that matter. We both try to keep as really neutral as possible in politics. I don't believe Mitchell's private business will permit him to take any active part in politics. He is generally taken as he thinks he should, regardless of the opinion of the candidate.

MAY PROVE MURDER

PROBABLY FATAL QUARREL IN GOSHEN, IND.

Peter O'Neill Stabs "Red" Wade and Death Seems Certain to Result.

Special to The South Bend Tribune.

Goshen, Ind., Jan. 3.—Bert Wade, better known as "Red" Wade, is no his deathbed as a result of a fatal stab given him on a quarrel last night by Peter O'Neill and O'Neill is in jail awaiting developments.

Wade and O'Neill are broad chapers and were in partnership. Wade drew $1.24 due the firm from Eder & Son. Last night about 9 o'clock O'Neill summoned Wade to his home to make a settlement. A controversy arose resulting in the quarrel which led to the stabbing. O'Neill claims that Wade made an attack on him and exhibits a cut in his coat and a bruise on his arm as proof of his statement. Wade denies this and as he is very careful man the indications are that he could have avoided O'Neill without trouble.

Wade was drunk for cold weather having on an overcoat, an leader coat, a working jacket, vest, shirt and undershirt and the knife which O'Neill used penetrated all of the clothing and entered Wade's left side, making a gash five inches long and a flesh wound seven inches in length. The blade passed through the muscles of the back bone. The only witnesses to the affair are Mrs. O'Neill, wife and Riley Myers, who resented at the house.

After the stabbing Wade, with the assistance of an officer, walked to the office of a physician where his wound was dressed. He was taken to the hospital department of the jail and then home. Physicians say that he may live for three or four days, but claim that death is certain. After the stabbing O'Neill went to bed with his clothes on and when an officer called to arrest him gave no resistance, saying that he expected the officer. He was accompanied to the jail by Mrs. O'Neill and Myers, who will be held pending an investigation by the grand jury, which will be summoned in the event of Wade's death.

O'Neill is 34 years old and Wade is 27. Both are married and Wade has two children. It is stated that no addition to the controversy over the dissolution of the partnership, but rumors over Wade's alleged attentions to the farmer's wife and that this entered into the trouble, as well, so far as known here, has never been in trouble but O'Neill has attracted police attention in the past.

The vein that caved is 115 feet below the surface. The settling quickly in the street just in front of the hotel. Telegraph and telephone poles were seen to be warping and the telegraph poles along the curb were twisted to be walking. The cause was at once apparent and the alarm given to all the residents of the Two sixgiants were removed from the hotel and the two drove away to a place of safety. AFTER INDIANA LINE

PROMOTERS SAID TO DESIRE ITS

Talk of Absorbing South Bend—Elkhart Railway to Make Link in Chicago-Toledo Route.

The Elkhart Truth of Jan. 2 prints a rather detailed story concerning the interurban electric railway situation which it says:

"Information was given out today by a man closely indentified with the Chicago-Indianapolis railway projects in this vicinity that a deal is proposed, in connection with the building of the proposed Toledo-Chicago electric railroad, to purchase or absorb the Indiana Railway company property in making the link between Goshen and South Bend. It is not stated at this time whether negotiations have opened with the Indiana Railway company, but it is understood that they will be in the near future.

"From the same source, it was learned that the much talked of extension of the Indiana Railway company line from Goshen to Warsaw has been abandoned and that promotion has been brought to bear to have all the important towns south of Goshen connected by electric lines with Elkhart without Goshen being included.

"Goshen is heavily interested in the new Nappanee line and the desire to tap Wakarusa, Bristol, Milford and Leesburg and Warsaw by a direct Elkhart connection is traced to the influence of Mr. Hawkes, who desires to reroute incidental to the operation of the road brought to Elkhart instead of Goshen.

General Manager J. M. M. Smith, of the Indiana Railway company, was greatly annoyed when shown these statements last night.

"I have heard talk regarding the absorption of our line for the purpose of making a link in the linked of Toledo-Goshen route. The truth is that no such arrangements have been made, our road has not been sold and there is absolutely nothing of a definite character in relation to the subject."

As heretofore, we shall continue to support all bills that we think point wisely in the right direction, and every effort will be made to secure consideration from the committee on rules and to secure the passage of the bill in the house and later by the senate on this new bill, which in the main is comprehensive and sound.

"The provisions cited for credit currency do not immediately relate to and affect the bond-based currency, but make the volume responsive to the greater or less demand for volume, the machinery for which must work easily and quickly, and avoid the necessity of what people commonly call emergency currency."

"LUCKY" BALDWIN QUITE ILL

Aged Turfman and Mine Owner Living Under Assumed Name.

San Francisco, Jan. 3.—Under the name of "Edward Jackson," "Lucky" Baldwin, the millionaire turfman and mine owner, is lying in a Third street lodging house suffering with cancer of the lip. He is being treated by a cancer specialist who promises to cure him in a short time. Baldwin went to the Third street house the day after Christmas in order to be near the doctor, who has offices in the building in order to conceal his identity he used only his first and middle names, registering as Edward Jackson.

The aged millionaire is eccentric, but it is probable that business shrewdness led him to conceal his name. He knew that Mr. Baldwin, the millionaire, would have a much larger bill to pay than Edward Jackson. The doctor did not learn the identity of his patient until yesterday.

Baldwin has had more ups and downs than many men whose lives are classed as adventurous. He has made and spent several fortunes and through the unexpected rise in the value of one of mining stock he had taken on a bad debt as almost worthless was the foundation of his fortune, his fertility has proclaimed has served him many times in good stead. He is now living on his ranch near Santa Anita, in which he worked personally with pick and shovel two years ago.

ENTERS CITY OF FEZ

PRETENDER TO THRONE OF MOROCCO GAINS POINT,

SITUATION MORE SERIOUS

Sultan Loses Ground With Advance of Rebels and Is Being Deserted by Many of His Followers.

—Jews are Nervous.

Madrid, Jan. 3.—According to information received by the Liberal paper pretender to the throne of Morocco has entered Fez and met with a good reception.

Telegrams received from Tangier agree that the situation is more serious. The pretender refuses to be responsible for registered letters. The dispatch says that the sultan's position is extremely critical as the Jews numbering 18,000 in Fez, smarting from injustice and cruelty, are inclined to support the pretender and an outbreak in the city is apprehended.

A letter from the sultan was read in the mosque to-day acknowledging his recent defeat, but promising to punish the rebels.

Regardless of the promise of the sultan that the pretender and his followers will be punished, there is much uneasiness felt in the city. The tide seems to be changing, many openly declaring for the pretender and against the sultan. The position of the sultan is a delicate one and his right to rule is hinging in the balance.

NEWSBOY IS HELD UP.

Tribune Carrier Attacked by Thugs and Robbed.

A Tribune newsboy was attacked and robbed by young thugs last evening in the vicinity of Chapin and Sample streets. Although efforts were made to secure policemen at the time the robbers made their response and no arrests have been made.

A very bad gang of boys of various ages congregates at the northwest corner of Chapin and Sample streets and has done so for some years. It is said that these toughs usually are stopped at Wilson Bros. shirt factory the just the corner in their way home from work and have even gone so far as to lay timber hands on them. The Tribune directed attention to these young thugs some time ago, but it seems that no steps have been taken to break up the gang.

The newsboy who was the latest victim of the gang was passing the corner and in passing the corner was attacked and pushed through a gate leading to the rear of a saloon located on the corner. The gate was then closed and the youthful highwaymen struck the carrier, stole his umbrella and took some of his papers. About the same time a lot of the thugs stole a bunch of bananas from a wagon near by. A telephone message was sent to the police station and a call for assistance. Later then the carrier boarded a Chapin street car he found four gamins in the car and they ran down town.

It is believed that the corner offers a good opportunity for public investigation and that a bad gang could be broken up.

"Feminine graces will be rewarded with candy and compliments, never with promotion and confidence."
