TEAMS BREAK EVEN

SOUTH BEND AND WHEELING DIVIDE DOUBLE-HEADER.

PLAY TWO GREAT GAMES

Staples Take First 1 to 0 and Loses Land Second 6 to 5—Captain Grant Gets Diamond Ring From Fans.

An error by Captain Angus Grant in the third inning of yesterday's first game with Wheeling brought defeat to the locals in the first half of the Labor Day double header, the one run resulting from the little giant's bad throw to second base giving the Hoggies the assist as South Bend failed to get a man over the plate. In the second game there was a different story as the Grandites pounded out more than enough runs in the first inning to win the game and in a seven inning contest victory came homeward to a tune of 6 to 5.

It was really to bad that South Bend had to lose that first game as Furrin pitched magnificent ball and deserved to win his game, but the fates were kind to "Bad Sam" Miller and while he was lambasted for many long screaming skirts, his support was so good that he got the game with an equal share of the honors. A inhalation of the score sheets shows that each team secured four hits, one of which was secured by the Hoosier being a scratch.

Game of Brilliancy.

This game opened with the weather king threatening to open the heavens and drown the humanoids who packed the grand stand and bleachers, but after the first inning the weather and teams rush the game through with life and ginger, the work resulting in some of the prettiest pitching ever pulled off in a similar period of time. Miller, Wheeling's twirler, and Furrin, "Jiggy" McCoombs, the clever second sacker of the Staple champions, But for his fast work around the second sack South Bend would have won the game, as Miller, Williams, Grant, South Bend, And Price, of Wheeling, were also stars, both men starting double plays to first base after making brilliant catches.

Furrin in Great Form.

With Furrin and Miller having a fine pitching duel, the game went in the grandstand into extra innings but in the third Furrin gave "Pat" Livingston a walk and when Miller sacrificed, Grant threw wild to Groesbeck at second and Livingston scored. Price sacrificed and Wessel then singled Lint—— "Zeke" being unable to get the ball to the plate in time to have off the runner. Throughout other times, when Wheeling's runners were on the bases, Furrin worked in great form and was given the very best of support. The same can be said of Wheeling when the locals threatened to cross the plate. The score:

Hits Easy in Second Game.

There was nothing to the second game but the pitching of Tom Williams and the batting of South Bend. Williams was in fine form and had to have on balls and a sun hit by a scheduled ball giving South Bend four runs. Place, the first man up reached for a single into left. Anderson was hit by a pitched ball and Wessel sacrificed down a bent to Vaughn which he beat out. Thomas lined a steamer through the infield on which Place and Anderson scored. With none out Lentzer walked and Livingston sacrificed down a bent to first even though he would have had the sack because of the throw being bad. Roger Bresnahan's walk and Connors was forced home. A hit by Groesbeck and a sacrifice by Grant brought home, but Cline called the latter out although Schriver did not even touch him.

Grant Gets a Diamond.

This ended the scoring as at this stage of the game Grant stepped in and made a fine catch of Williams' first game by hitting out a triple but Frank Earl Hering, representing the fans of South Bend, stole a——ch on the captain and caught him at the home plate, which was the finest action of a diamond collapse. The address was too much for the player and he took three strings at the ball and sat down.

After the game the diamond Mr. Hering said that the gift was in appreciation of the efforts of Grant to——ve South Bend a first division team——also for his efforts to——ve South Bend a——ter ball club. Grant's——ch——ity the fifth inning South Bend added two more runs to the score by clean hitting after two were out. Connors singled, Letcher hit for a double and Roger sent them in with a single into left.

Williams Pitches Great Ball.

Williams was pitching great ball and——ed——ed until the sixth that Wheeling was able to put a man over the plate. Then Bower's error and McTiernan' hit——ve the Hoosiers a score. In the seventh score by Grant and Groesbeck, with Williams' hit to center by Wessel gave the visitors one more run. Score:

By Agreement the second game was to be called at the end of the fifth inning and Canton seeing neither but four runs in the game, Williams said the game be called. Furrin was called in accordance with the agreement and did everything possible to bring about this desired end and was more than in their work that they were, one and all, anxious to quit.

South Bend won the game by a score of 7 to 5, the only run being made by Place in the first inning when he hit safe, reached second when Miller sacrificed and came home when Connors flew out to center. Canton failed to get a run because Williams was after strike out and after Plummer opened with a hit in the second inning he was struck out and the next six men to face him. Only two hits were secured by Canton. The score:

GOSSIP OF CENTRAL LEAGUE.

Springfield Has Signed Pitchers Collins and Grim.

"A local friend of Manager Dennis, who formerly played ball with him, made the statement that Dennis had instructed him before leaving here last night to bet any amount of money for him that Springfield would not beat out Dayton," says the Springfield Gazette. "He told the friend that he would see that Dayton won the remainder of the games with Terre Haute and that Wheeling intended throwing a couple of games to the Dayton team in order to——ing the Old Soldiers in the race."

Lonchbom, the star twirler of the Springfield team, has been given his unconditional release by John Heydler, president of the Ohio State League team. He has lost the last three games pitched, added to the fact that he is no longer in condition and cannot possibly pitch another game this season. Lonchbom has been guilty of violating the rules of the club and taking no care of himself. It is not known where he will go, but it is possible that he will not pitch any more ball this season.

Grand Rapids leads the league in attendance, Wheeling is second, Evansville third, Springfield fourth and South Bend, Dayton, Canton and Terre Haute in the order named. Canton is certainly going to a fairer in the league and if there are any changes in the circuit it will be Canton for Fort Wayne. It will probably be some other town. The Canton team has been an average attendance, with Sundays and weekdays together, of about 300.

Every team in the league will clear up some money for the season, with the possible exception of Terre Haute and Canton. The Hoosiers had good attendance from the start.

Hub Knoll's Dayton team has been and is out of all the season, yet players say Hub is getting more playing out of his men than any other manager in the league and that there are better teams down at the bottom.

Hagiere and Ryan are in charge of as probabilities for the league next season, with Ryan in the lead. The Franchises are to be transferred.

It is said that Manager of Fort Wayne, is figuring on taking a franchise in the Three I league, where salaries are not as high as in the Central.

Down in Springfield they are figuring on having a new ball park that will be located near the center of the city. The present park is a long ride from the city and yet the city has made no effort to get another.

Jack Ryan stated while here that he has signed to manage the Canton team next year and that he will have a winner for the town. Good luck to you Jack.

One More "Pipe" From Wheeling.

JEFFRIES REMAINS SILENT.

Betting on Long Fight Favors James Edward Britt.

San Francisco, Sept. 5.—James J. Jeffries, retired champion—a——prospective referee of the Britt-Nelson battle Saturday, has not replied to the offer of the Colma club to give him $1,000 for his services in the ring. Jeff has signified his intention of accepting however.

Britt still rules favorite at 10 to 7. This fact has given the affair an unhealthy aspect. It is generally conceded that Nelson would be ring side favorite.
