S.A.A. MAY NOT PLAY BASEBALL

Bartz Denies Plans For Season Have Been Made.

It is not certain at the present time whether the Studebaker Athletic association will sponsor a baseball team during the coming season, according to Walter Bartz, of the S. A. A.

Bartz said Monday that it would be decided at the next athletic board of directors meeting whether or not there would be a Studebaker baseball club. "We have had so many basketball games and tournaments lately that the board has not had a chance to consider the matter," he said. "Besides that we have the A. A. U. boxing tournament coming up."

A meeting of representatives from the different departments of the Studebaker organization was scheduled for Monday night in the club rooms, Bartz said, for the purpose of seeing how much interest in softball and baseball prevailed. Any developments from this meeting, however, will concern industrial competition only, according to Bartz.

Several ball players now are working out in the club rooms, but this is purely a matter of individual initiative, Bartz said, adding that no one was supervising the drills.

Stude. Administration League.

Flagg's 551 led Accounting to a twin victory over the Claim's quintet who trailed Hosford's 501 at the Lasalle alleys enabling the accountants to sit on top of the league for another week. With Sulzmann's 564 providing the punch, the Office Boys took the last two games from the Works Accountants whose best score was Gremert's 543. Porta's league high of 595 helped the General Ledgermen to make a clean sweep of their games with the Factory Accountants while Schulz's 564 and Wilson's 514 paving the way, the Service Accountants chalked up a double win over the Branch Accountants whose top score was Rudnik's 498.

The standings:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Accounting	21	12	.636
Office Boys	19	14	.576

Lee Mercantile League.

Pushed along by Rose Vargo's 413, the Shirts slammed the Jackets to take a half interest of the league leadership honors at the Lasalle alleys. Vargo's mark was followed by Betty Malloy's 377, and Anna Vlasedge's 350 enabled the Overalls to easily overwhelm the Lee Specials. L. Roetiker was high for the losers with 347. Julia Wozny's league high of 487 helped the Unusuals to get a twin victory over the Pants who rambled behind Sue Schultz' 379. With the aid of Fern Herrick's 396, the Shop Coats got a complete triumph over the Juniors. The losers trailed Hattie Chrans's 370.

The standings:

	W.	L.	Pct.

NEW CLUB SIGNS ROSS, JOE LOUIS FOR FOUR BOUTS

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, March 19.—A lot of Madison Square Garden's fistic promotional efforts have met with negative results during the indoor season, but Jimmy Johnston says he is just bidding time to announce a couple of "bell-ringing" propositions for the outdoor season.

The fact that Champion Barney Ross has agreed to defend his welterweight title against Leo Ambers of Herkimer, N. Y., and that Joe Louis, Detroit Negro heavyweight sensation, has signed for three New York summer fights—all for a rival organization—has not outwardly perturbed Johnston.

Even when it became known that the 20th Century Sporting Club, which will sponsor the Ross-Ambers bout and Louis' fights, also plans a heavyweight bout between Max Baer, former heavyweight Champion, and Max Schmeling, Johnston didn't lift an eyebrow.

CANADIENS AND RANGERS TO VIE FOR LOOP BERTH

By United Press.

MONTREAL, March 19.—The Montreal Canadiens and New York Rangers will meet in New York next Sunday and at Montreal Tuesday in the playoff for third place in the National Hockey league.

The second place playoff will start at Montreal Monday night and end at Chicago Tuesday, according to dates announced last night. The schedule already includes the battle for first place and the league championship between Boston and Toronto.

The latter game will be placed on a best three out of five basis. The others will be won and lost on total goals scored.

The second and third place winners will play for finals berth against the Chicago-Boston winner, with the Stanley cup at stake.

PERLEY CAGERS WIN.

The Perley school cagers added another victory to their long string by defeating the Monroe school combination 27-11 on the latter's court Monday night. The winners led 16 to 5 at the half.

BOXING PILOT STABBED DURING RINGSIDE FIGHT

By United Press.

CHICAGO, March. 19.—Jackie Sharkey, of Minneapolis and Orville Drouillard, of Windsor, Ont., fought a draw in a junior lightweight bout at Marigold Gardens arena last night, and then their managers did likewise.

George Ades, the Canadian's manager, might claim a decision because Hugh Curtin, Sharkey's mentor, got a knife wound in the affray while Ades was unmarked. Ades still has to appear in court, however, to answer a charge of assault.

Chairman Joe Triner of the state boxing commission joined police and spectators in separating the two managers and said both might be suspended. Witnesses said the fight started when Ades implied in uncensored ringside remarks that his fighter had been "robbed" of a decision.

JOY IS RENAMED CANISIUS COACH

By Associated Press.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 19.—William P. (Hiker) Joy was reappointed head football coach at Canisius college. Former assistant to Maj. Frank Cavanaugh at Fordham and Boston college, Joy turned out winning teams here for the last two seasons and took the Little Three title last year. His home is in Milton, Mass.

If ever there were a time for you to keep your eye on what the Government is doing to affect you as an individual, it is NOW!

MANY exciting chapters have been written in our history since 1929. But the most exciting chapters are just ahead! Without a doubt, the next few months will be the most important ones our country has ever seen. New and startling developments are on the way . . .

Keep a Step AHEAD of the Crowd

by reading these exclusive, interesting and time-saving features in The United States News each week:

1. THE STATE OF THE UNION TODAY—The whole story of the week. It is ALL here. History-making events in the making. Condensed to a single page.
Can be read in from five to ten minutes. But it is more than a mere SUMMARY. It tells what HAS happened—and what can be expected.

2. WASHINGTON WHISPERS—Reports of things talked about BEHIND THE SCENES in Washington. These items are of genuine interest, because they are, in many instances, the REAL NEWS far IN ADVANCE.

3. THE PRESIDENT'S WEEK—A most human and most interesting account of the President's day-by-day activities, and also of the colorful happenings in and around the White House.

4. THE CONGRESS WEEK—In a nutshell—the whole record of what both Houses of Congress are doing. Illustrated.

5. TO PROMOTE THE GENERAL WELFARE—The news and the interpretation of what Washington is doing on unemployment insurance, old-age pensions, food, health, and so on.

6. WHAT THE PRESS OF THE NATION THINKS ABOUT WHAT THE GOVERNMENT IS DOING — Something DIFFERENT from anything ever before published. The pro and con on all the big controversial issues of the day—and also the EXACT PROPORTION of the newspapers throughout the country FOR and AGAINST.

7. THE TREND OF AMERICAN BUSINESS — A weekly business magazine IN A SINGLE PAGE! Brief and dependable. The weekly TREND, Government in business, Government regulation of business, business conditions, new developments, new problems.

8. AN ANALYSIS BY DAVID LAWRENCE of the outstanding situation in the news of the week. Mr. Lawrence, who has had more than a quarter of a century's experience in Washington interpreting Government, spells you from first-hand observation exactly what he thinks!

9. TOMORROW—A LOOK AHEAD—This weekly article was formerly published in "Washington-letter form" and distributed to business executives, leaders in Government and others who want to know what can reasonably be expected in the near future, in light of present-day developments.

WILL the Government pension the aged?
Is America to have federal unemployment insurance?
Are we in for a deluge of printing-press money?
Will the value of the dollar go down?
Is this a good time to be in debt?
What is the general business outlook?
Will the housewife have to pay more for groceries and meats in the weeks ahead?
How will the Federal Housing Program affect rents and real estate values?
Will Congress give us a thirty-hour week?

TODAY, the activities of the Government—as never before—affect you directly. Government in this country has ceased to be something incidental. What is now happening is so important to you in every phase of your living, that you cannot afford not to know the facts.

How to Keep Up With It All

THE QUICKEST and most satisfactory way to keep up with what the Government is doing for you, and to you, right now is through The United States News, the weekly newsmagazine of national affairs.
