CARSON LIKES KEARY

SOUTH BEND MAN FAVORS CHICAGOAN FOR PRESIDENCY.

CONTEST IN CENTRAL LEAGUE

Magnates Have Excellent List of C.-n-didates From Which to Pick a Leader at Terre Haute Meeting Next Week.

Dr. Frank B. Carson, of this city, is not a candidate for the presidency of the Central league and he is to Terre Haute backing J. P. Keary, of Chicago, for that position. Dr. Carson is of the same opinion as his brother directors of the league, firmly believing that the leadership of the organization should fall to a baseball man who is not connected financially or officially with any club holding a Central league franchise.

If the directors should decide to change their views on the subject and finally decide to elect a president from among their number, then Dr. Carson would become a candidate for the position and would put up a determined fight to land the honors.

"I have the utmost glory in holding down the presidency of a minor league," said Dr. Carson to The Tribune, "and as long as there is a chance to place a capable outside man in the office I shall continue to hold the office but to resign from my position, if, however, a change of sentiment takes place at the Terre Haute meeting of Jan. 15 and the magnates decide that it would be better for the membership of the league. I am for South Bend and will do all in my power to benefit the city. Whoever gets the presidency will be instructed to boost all possible for South Bend and I will do my share in the press as the front of every month. The Central league has passed the experimental stage and henceforth will cut quite a figure in the baseball world of Indiana. The announcement of the candidacy of John T. Powers and C. E. Lamberton for the same position which Jack Keary wants, gives promise of a warm fight at the Terre Haute meeting at Terre Haute on Jan. 15.

COMMISSION HOLDS SESSION.

Several Decisions Handed Down at Cincinnati Meeting.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 1.—The national baseball commission met here yesterday and several decisions were handed down and the case of Pitcher W. D. Beaslin, of the Ilion, N. Y., team, who was sold to Pittsburg, was reopened.

BRIEF NEWS OF PUGILISTS.

Marvin Hart in Good Condition For Fight With Gardner.

Marvin Hart, the Louisville light heavyweight is to fight George Gardner, of Lowell, Mass., to-night at Boston. Hart is in better form than when he fought Kid Carter.

Kid Herman has an offer from Kansas City, Mo., to meet Young Corbett in a 20-round contest.

Tommy Ryan, world's middleweight champion, has announced that he will defend his title for the last time when he meets Philadelphia Jack O'Brien on Jan. 22 or 27.

Tommy Ryan is trying his best to get Frank Kaffy's signature to an agreement to meet Martin Duffy in Chicago.

Buddy Ryan is already down to weight for his match next Monday night in Chicago where he is to meet Jack Kennedy, after that he and Buddy will go to Detroit to meet Martin Cronin. Ryan's ambition is to get "Jimmy" Britt into the ring with him.

Developments in the contest between "Young Corbett" Jimmy Britt match are looked for soon. Tex Rickard of "North Corbett" is working to get Eddie Hanlon against Terry McGovern.

Johnny Murphy, a brother of Tim Callahan, states that the managers of the Western clubs if they want to, can easily explain why Tim administered the knockout to Jimmy Britt in 1904. He says that he was present at the time. He says he would have honored his contract," said Murphy. "Going right into the circuit of the western club it is only fair to expect that the pitcher would insist on not being compelled to accept an obstreperous referee."
