WELSCHONCE'S HIT WINS GAME FOR SOUTH BEND

WELSCHONCE WINS GAME WITH 3 SACKER

DRIVES PILL TO FENCE IN RIGHT WITH TWO ON.

HOLMES PLAYS GREAT BALL

Settle an up Hill Fight From Start and is Captured by Pure Nerve and Hard Work —Score 2-1.

Welschonce drove the ball almost to Nutwood yesterday, and won the game with a three bagger in the eighth inning. Wells and Lindsey occupied the counterpoise at the time of the awful wallop, and sailed home with all she's roofed, while Goss and Curtis ambled after the pellet 'midst the pop bottles, extra lumber, and bleachers in right. Welschonce was unable to score due to Umpire Newhouse's failing eye sight on a play at the plate following Carey's blow to Murray.

Terre Haute had scored one in the first on Barkwell's walk, Cappy Grosscho's sacrifice, and Courtney's walloop left. From that inning on, things were tight, very tight. No one could score. Pat Lindsey grew angry, and pitched a fine game. Ducky Holmes was across the pan while old Cy Alberts twirled with exceedingly stingy grace. Hits came and went, errors accumulated, bases on ball were allowed, but the fielders plied their trade in decisive game and the game accounted a pleasure.

Five Double Plays.

Five double plays were pulled off during the festivities which added zest, seemed to be sure chances of scoring. Cappy Grosscho, distinguished himself by pulling off a hard hit ball after a hard run. Krug hit the ball and things looked salubrious for a runlet, but nothing doing for Cappy. He had run towards second to cover the bag when Curtis decapited to steal, and close-order drill followed. Curtis was caught with one hand making for double in ear fashion. Ducky Holmes showed more class than Johnnie Kling ever thought of showing when he pulled off a double play. Wells was caught off a singled game to second on Grosscho's sacrifice, and scored on Courtney's hit to left. McDonald singled, but Courtney was headed off at the plate. Ducky Holmes hit to Curtis, who was unprepared, Murray speeded neatly to third by Ducky preserving his brains sought bliss before he could quite reach the bag, and made a double play. Curtis to Wheeler. Curtis made a double in the second. He singled, went to second on a sacrifice by Curtis and was doubled. Mac to Wheeler when McCarthy captured Gov' drive to shortstop.

Welschonce and Holmes Star.

If Welschonce's stick out the particular a-ave of his drakeneed he would be forced to give the loving cup to Welschonce for the drive that won the game, and to Ducky Holmes whose catching was the sensational feature of the game. To all the fashionable, and that attended the ball, Ducky's head, by the way, good people, is all to be double barreled order. He thinks when thinking is necessary, and he fights all the time. He is also a left handed pitcher and ladies' favorite. Oh, you Ducky!

The battle was marred by the lugubrious atmosphere which caused great uneasiness throughout the fray. At times the atmosphere was so lugubrious as to cause expression in the ephemeral part of the universe and tears were shed by the hitra sky more than once. As Sly Henry Pluvious looked down on the contestants he felt like crying when the Hoosiers had not secured a rubber, the spectators grew melancholy for fear that things would have to be called to evade a drowning, and Manager Kelly felt, as he always, ever, a regular Fort Wayne blow-up swelling only from the clouds, noir.

GRANT WILL RETIRE.

To Allow McBrier a Chance to Make Good.

Angus Grant, that hustling little leader of the Dyas, has just surprised the Central league by benching himself in favor of Courtney McBrier, a mere youth. But the boy is playing sensational ball and seems to be a cracker-jack player. Whenever Aggie was questioned in regard to the matter he said the league and says that he has a better chance to make good than he used to have. If he really, has the youngster must have a good head, for that was Aggie's long suit, and all the time that he has been in the Central league he has been thinking of winning each. All this goes to show that Grant has only in mind the strengthening of his club, regardless of his own fortune as an active player.

BOBBY WALLACE, WHOSE ABILITY TIME DOES NOT SEEM TO TARNISH

When sizing up the greatest baseball stars of our national game do not overlook Bobby Wallace, the crack shortstop of the St. Louis Americans. Judge a present Wallace is dividing his time between third basing and shortstopping. The Britons are not doing much in the American league race, but Wallace is doing his share. This veteran of the diamond is playing about as good ball now as he ever did, and that speaks grand. Wallace started in the game as a pitcher with the old Cleveland Spiders under Pat Tebeau. As a pitcher he wasn't much weight, barring that he could beat the ball to the plate, and that he was a star out not to could hit the ball. When "Chippy" McGarr became ill one day Tebeau put Wallace on third base. He became one of the greatest third sackers in the game. Wallace is not so much to distinguish himself as a pitcher of the veteran. The season his playing stands out above all his teammates.

MOTORISTS CLOTHING MAY BE CLEANED

Advice to Tourists Concerning Care of Fabrics.

Cotton cloth—Rub with lard, then apply soap, in quantity to saponify the lard. Wash alternately with water and turpentine.

Woolen cloth—Same as for cotton cloth.

Linen cloth—Apply soap, or oil of turpentine, alternating with a stream of water under some pressure.

Silk—Rub with lard, then soap, after which wash with benzine and water alternately; let the water fall from a height, or use a stream under some pressure.

Caution—Before proceeding to clean a delicate fabric, it will be a good precaution to try the process out on a sample of the same material, with a view to noting if there is some peculiarity of the fabric that will resist cleaning—it might be made worse
