SOX IN LOS ANGELES

HAPPY BAND OF WARRIORS INVADE GOLDEN STATE.

CUBS TRAIN IN INDIANA

Manager Frank Chance Arrives in West Baden With Party of World's Champion Baseball Players.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 5.—The White Sox are comfortably housed in their training headquarters at the Lankershim hotel here after their long trip over the desert. Their arrival here yesterday morning came at a time of the morning when there was no chance for the local fans to show their feelings, or President Comiskey and his men would have both given the most enthusiastic reception ever given any ball team.

The Sox special pulled into Los Angeles at 8 o'clock, and was sidetracked until morning just outside the depot. Shortly after daylight the players and other members of the big party began making their appearance, and all of them were at the hotel for breakfast at 9.

A light, drizzling rain set in during the night, and it continued practically all of the day, a holiday for the players, but by noon the sun was out, and those that had not framed up other plans were taken to the Chutes park for their first exhibition game of the season.

Davis, Donahue and Sullivan were the only members of the first division that did not don their uniforms and go to the park. Sully went on to Santa Barbara this morning to see his wife and young, to visit his mother, and Donahue and Davis made the trip to Catalina Island.

Members of the second division were shipped off to San Francisco last night, and they will prepare for the opening game there on Friday afternoon. The club is under the management of Louis Comiskey.

The first game of the regulars will be played Friday with the Los Angeles team.

Los Angeles will give the White Sox a public reception Saturday.

CUBS ARRIVE IN WEST BADEN.

Training Will be Commenced to Loosen Sore Arms.

West Baden, Ind., March 5.—Manager Frank Chance and a small band of Chicago's world's champions invaded this town last night on spring training bent, after an uneventful daylight trip from Chicago.

The Cub leader voiced his disappointment at the absence of his disciples, and was inclined to attribute it to the frequent changes in the date and hour of the departure of the main squad from Chicago. He was most concerned over the whereabouts of Jimmy Sheckard, the Cub left fielder, who was reported to be on his way from Terre Haute, and, owing to the shortness of the distance, ought to have been here. Apparently he has been sidetracked somewhere, for the other Chicagoans which arrived here just before 8 o'clock included, besides Manager Chance, "Chief" Fraser, Joe Tinker, Carl Lundgren, Jimmy Sheale, Pat Moran, Artie Hofman, Heinie Zimmerman, Joe Donahue, the Spalding twins, Jack Pfeister, Chance and several war correspondents.

Outdoor work will begin to-morrow morning, according to the schedule announced by Chance, but the first day's exercises will be very light, owing to fatigue on account of the ruggedness of the gateway from Chicago, to which was due the failure to bring along the key to the big uniform trunk or to ship any balls along.

THONEY REFUSES TO SIGN.

Former Indian Does Not Go to Hot Springs.

Cincinnati, O., March 5.—Jack Thoney, the fast Fort Thomas boy, formerly of the Indianapolis and Toronto teams, was all ready to join the Boston Americans yesterday, but the train pulled out without him. The Beantown aggregation reached Cincinnati late in the afternoon, en route to their training camp at Little Rock. Thoney was at the station, prepared to join them, but when the time for departure came Mr. Taylor was not satisfactory and Jack refused to sign at the salary offered. President Taylor would not yield, and Thoney took the car back to his home in Fort Thomas, instead of going on for Little Rock. In the Boston party were President John I. Taylor, Manager McGuire and players Harris, Lord, Wagner, McConnell and Unglaub. The following joined the party here: Frank Donohue and Pat Donohue, brothers of Joe Donohue, Hogan, Ward, Carrigan, Gessler and Pitcher Robbins. The rest of the team will be picked up along the line. Terry McGovern, the famous little fighter, was also with the party, and he was one of the star players during their training stunts. There were also five Boston newspaper men in the crowd.

ELKHART PLAYERS FOR JACKSON

Wagner and Wilkinson to Join Michigan League Club.

Elkhart, Ind., March 5.—Albert Wagner and Harry Wilkinson have signed with the Jackson, Mich., ball club and will report for a try-out on April 22. Both are young players and have had experience in professional circles as well as with local teams. Wagner, who is signed as a pitcher, was on the Elkhart team last season, and was a star pitcher during last season, and was considerable applause for his efficient service. Wilkinson will try for a place in the outfield. He is a good fielder and can pitch if called upon. He played southpaw with Goshen team in Indiana last season. During the past season he played good ball on independent teams in Wyoming, where he was employed by the government and two years ago he was with the Flint, Mich., team until it disbanded.

Phillies Leave for Training.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 5.—The Philadelphia National league team, accompanied by club officials and others, numbering in all 36 persons, left yesterday for Shreveport, Texas, where the team will spend the latter part of March and beginning on April 2 will play seven games with the Philadelphia American.

Snell and Burns Are Matched.

Omaha, Neb., March 5.—"Farmer" Burns and Fred Snell have signed to wrestle in this city, catch-as-catch-can, St. Patrick's Day. Burns is training near here.

JOHN SANZEL EXPECTS TO DO MUCH AT CINCINNATI O.

Manager Gansel, of the Cincinnati Reds, is a star ball player and capable of getting all there is out of his team. While with the New York Americans he made a name for himself as the best first baseman in the league. Last year with the Reds he demonstrated his ability as a manager by the fine work he had Cincinnati in the first this year. Cincinnati has been down so long that few expect them to do the present this year, but Gansel hopes to put the Reds in the contention for the pennant. He has a good team with some big teams this year, but Dolly Stark will not be seen signed at shortstop and Rudolph Hans Lobert will be shifted to the third sack. This will materially strengthen the team.

PROTOS IN CHICAGO

GERMAN RACING CAR ARRIVES AFTER HARD DRIVE.

Studebaker War Machine is Greeted With Big Turnout in Fort Lauderdale—Thomas Crossbeam.

Chicago, March 5.—Crippled from a broken transmission and barely able to move under its own power the German Protos, fifth and last contestant in the New York-to-Paris automobile race, pulled into Chicago at 7:10 last night. Lieut. Koeppen and his crew quitting the machine at the Automobile club.

Chairman A. J. Banta, of the roads and tours committee, of the Automobile club, drove a Locomobile laden with members of the club to McCool, Ind., 40 miles east of the city, and met the Germans at noon. The heavy drifts along the road rendered traffic almost impossible, and only by dint of continued tugging and towing did the Locomobile succeed in reaching the city last night.

The German and French teams were entertained last night at the Automobile club. While the cars are being repaired the Germans will make the first-class time and they will arrange for a getaway, which will probably be made Saturday morning.

The Thomas Flyer, leading in the race, arrived at Omaha at 11:35 in the morning, according to a dispatch from that city, and left for Cheyenne, Wyo., at 11:45 in anticipation of remaining over night. The fearful condition of the roads delayed the car and the two hours were consumed in covering 19 miles out of Omaha. The Thomas Flyer was made by the Italian Zust, which was last sighted at Carroll, Ia., checking in at 6:45.

Practically every motorist in Leavenworth, Kan., turned out to welcome the Studebaker Flyer, according to a message from New York from Leavenworth, upon the arrival of the car at the post yesterday. Forty members of the Leavenworth Automobile club harnessed to Atchison, Kan., and escorted the Studebaker into the city. The run of the Studebaker was made in 15 days under severe weather and road conditions.

KLING LOSES FIRST BLOCK.

Cub's Backstop is an Easy Victim for Houston.

Kansas City, Mo., March 5.—Outplayed almost two to one by pool champion, Thomas Houston, of St. Louis, Johnny Kling, the Cub catcher, went down to defeat in the first block of the 400-point match for the pool championship of the world, the score of 102 to 48 last night. Houston gave a remarkable display, at times making combinations that appeared impossible, although occasionally he fell down sadly on easy trys.

Neary and Walsh to Fight.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 5.—Freddie Welsh, who fought Packey McFarland a week ago, has accepted an offer from Jimmy Neary to meet him in Milwaukee March 17. Neary is still unknown, but it is understood he will come to Milwaukee to-day to sign the articles. Welsh and Walter Little were matched.

SOUTHPAW HURLERS ARE NOW NECESSITY IN BASEBALL GAMES

Southpaws play an important part in any baseball aggregation and lucky indeed is the club that has a pair of good left-handers, as a general thing, writes The truth of this statement was demonstrated in the past season when the club that had two southpaws, pitching well finished one, two, three. Detroit has Killian and Steven, who this year are expected to be the Cleveland for the Cubs, but he could not get them from a number of teams in the American league and finally had to be satisfied with Killian, who turned out to be a fine left-hander, much better, but he pitches consistently against the Tigers. Killian's record was 22 victories and 12 defeats. Philadelphia has Plank and Bender, two left-handers, Waddell and Plank, finishing last year with 19 and 14 victories and 14 and 12 defeats respectively, the latter being the pitcher about half of the time, was 19 and 10.

Chicago, with White working well in the last half of the season, finished the year, finished third. White won 27 games and met with 12 defeats. Although had a bad arm most of the year and was but eight games out of 38. Had he been in the form of the year previous the White Sox might have finished second. Cleveland, however, had had Bob Rice, southpaw all year, Otto Hess, and he pitched had 11 games during the entire season and really was not in condition to work in half of them. Had he been right there is no doubt of Cleveland finishing higher up, but when he was pitching he was good. Rice is a southpaw whatever to send against clubs that are batting strongly at weak and left-handed pitchers.

Next came New York, Doc Newton was Griffith's only left-handed pitcher, and he is almost a has-been. St. Louis had Harry Howell, a rookie, who was one of an accident and he was released to Boston. Boston had to back on Jesse Tannehill and since his shoulder went back on him Manager Stahl has had to be satisfied with Dineen and Dineen alone.

Washington had Walter Johnson, Patten and Graham, the latter was scarcely ripe for the big league and Patten seems to have seen his best days. This year most of the managers have left-handed pitchers and Washington will carry two, Johnson and Graham, all season. McAleer, who had no one quit pitched last year, is in the same fix and will have three or four young left-handers to try out. Johnson, of course, he will carry two southpaws all season. Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis, Boston without one when playing Chicago and Detroit, two clubs that have no lefts, acting to bat against the shakiest with the forehand motion.

Cleveland, Chicago, three or four southpaws to select from and Cubs's Mack has picked up a double-southpaw, despite the fact that still expects to have Plank.

REPORT IS DENIED

CARSON HEARD NOTHING OF HOGAN'S RELEASE.

MUST BE BIG PIPE DREAM

Report Sent From Toledo That Zanesville Had Secured Hogan Leader For Baseball Club is False.

Some ambitious sporting writer from Toledo yesterday afternoon sent out the report that Marty Hogan, manager of the Zanesville baseball club in the Central league, had been given his release and that he would be succeeded by William Smith, former manager of the New Castle, Ind., baseball club.

From all indications the report is untrue as Marty Hogan has been the mainstay of baseball in Zanesville for many years and was regarded as one of the most capable men in the P. and O. league, of which Zanesville was a member last season. He has won an army of friends in Zanesville since he has been leading the baseball clique and it is believed that the fans would not stand for Hogan's loss from baseball circles.

News to Dr. Carson.

"It is news to me and I am almost certain that the report is false," said Dr. Carson, president of the Central league, when asked for a statement in the matter. "Why, just yesterday I talked with Mr. Hogan over the telephone and he said that everything was going fine in the Zanesville baseball circles. He said that he had an opportunity to arrange a game with New York on June 11 in Zanesville and wanted me to arrange it so he could have an open date that day. Hogan is a good manager and I know that he is satisfied with his contract for the schedule adopted for the season, have been requested to mail schedules to the president not later than to-day so copies can be mailed to the presidents of the clubs in time for the meeting to be called in Zanesville, March 17, St. Patrick's Day. Arthur Cohen, of Grand Rapids, Mich., drafter of the schedule which was adopted last season by the Central league, has submitted another schedule this season. The circuit drawn up by Mr. Cohen looks good for it fills the requirements set by President Carson in his call for the meeting, and it is filled with about as little traveling as can be done and get around for the games. It is but a 140 game schedule that has been arranged, for Mr. Cohen is confident that this is what will be adopted by the committee.

"The Central plan South Bend opens at Terre Haute and closes at home. Holiday pairings for Decoration and Labor Days are made with South Bend at Fort Wayne. The Fourth of July will be celebrated by clubs exchanging for the Decoration Day assignments. His schedule gives South Bend 19 Sunday games at home and the same number abroad.

Schedule Today.

Schedule makers who are competing for the $50 prize offered by President Carson for the schedule adopted for the season, have been requested to mail schedules in to the president not later than to-day so copies can be mailed to the presidents of the clubs in time for the meeting to be called in Zanesville, March 17, St. Patrick's Day.

HURDLER SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Jack Scales Unable to Enter Meet With Indiana.

While running over the obstacles yesterday afternoon in a practice event at Notre Dame, Jack Scales, was seriously injured and it is believed that he will not be able to enter in the meet Saturday with Indiana. It is thought that Coach Maris will have him on the hospital list for a few days. The injury comes as a blow as Scales was counted upon to win points in the hurdles and jumps for the high school in the meet with Indiana.

With Scales out of the running, Notre Dame will stand but a slim chance of getting away with the honors. Two other men are in the hospital, who has shown form in the distances is suffering from a sprained ankle and is unable to take part in the meets for weeks. Devine has been suffering from a severe cold since Saturday. He is a star performer in the half mile having won the honors second around 2:01, and is always world half-mile place in the half with little difficulty in the coming meet.

COZZENS IS A FIND.

Brooklyn School Boy Expected to Make a Record.

New York, March 5.—Athletic trainers, including Brick Hjestberg, of the Irish-American athletic club, believe they have found a quarter mile sensation who will one day beat world's records, in Arthur H. Cozzens, a Brooklyn boy. Cozzens has shown some great running, particularly in relay work for his school, the Brooklyn Prospect High school and has never yet failed to win a race for his school. Cozzens is the latest star in the school's long roster of labor.

TO BATTLE BRITT

"PACKEY" M'FARLAND AGREES TO TERMS.

Articles Call for Twenty Round Fight in San Francisco March 31—Ketchell is Matched.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 5.—Sam Berger has reached a satisfactory agreement with Jimmy Britt and "Packey" McFarland, of Chicago, to take place in San Francisco on Tuesday night, March 31. Berger had the Chicago lightweight on the wire last night and all the details were arranged. McFarland said he was willing to fight Britt and there was not the slightest difficulty in settling the details of the fight.

It will be necessary to sign a new set of articles on the arrival of McFarland in San Francisco, but the details were incorporated in the paper that Berger had wired to the Chicago boxer. The articles call for twenty rounds between the Washington-Athletic club on March 31, weight to be 133 pounds. Outright. Marquis of Queensberry rules are to govern and the fighters are to take 55 per cent of the receipts for their share, to be divided 65 per cent to the winner and 45 per cent to the loser.

Jimmy Britt agreed to deposit $1,000 with John Clark, of San Francisco, as stakeholder, of which $1,500 is for the welter weight. Britt and $1,000 on appearance forfeit, deposit for the club, agreed to deposit a like amount with Clark.

Coffroth has matched Stanley Ketchell and Frank Mantell for Saturday afternoon, March 31, at his Mission club, San Francisco. Ketchell and Mantell were here to-day and agreed on a fight at 154 pounds.

Boxers Arrested by Sheriff.

Toledo, O., March 5.—Wood county authorities have arrested Guy Bernard and Eddie Mack, who had contracted to put on a 10 round bout at Bradner, O. The boxers started the first round without interference, but the sheriff rushed into the ring and stopped them in the second. Young McGovern and Eddie Kelsey, the referee, put on a four round bout, however, but succeeded in getting away later.

LAUDS AMERICAN VIM.

French Scholar Surprised at Energy in United States.

New York, March 5.—M. Louis Madelin, French scholar and author, president of the Society of Historical Research, sailed for home to-day on the steamer Savoie, after a five months' tour of America, extending from Boston to San Francisco and from Canada to New Orleans. He was the representative and lecturer of the Alliance Francaise. M. Madelin has been the guest of many universities and has visited workshops, factories and other institutions of American industry and production.

"I have been in the midst of so many marvels that it is difficult for me to render adequate tribute to the resourcefulness of your country," he said yesterday. "I have given 42 lectures, including that on Napoleon as the type of energy. But you have no need of such a type of energy, as I see it. Napoleon was a man who spent his energy regardless of himself in the most striking manner in your great factories. The steel works at Homestead impressed me as a veritable prodigy of energy. I was struck by the utmost completion of the conception of matter. But this impression of marvelous energy at Homestead I have seen repeated everywhere throughout America.

"The American soldier is destined to be a great power because of the wonderful American energy he possesses. My visit to West Point, where I saw the flower of the nation, impressed me with the aggressive force of America. I hope that West Point will never change—which I hope will not be the case—she can draw an army proportionately without built from this great reservoir of energy.

"All Wellesley and Smith colleges I had an opportunity to see the charming young women who took part in this advanced form of female education. These colleges appear to give most wonderful results in physique and in dignity. Do the young women retain it all? The same, perhaps, could be asked of young men partaking higher education. The west gives the foreigner a wonderful impression of the energy of America. Its young people are in a state of development, growing almost unlap one's eyes."
