GEIRER'S HOMER WITH TWO ON GIVES GAME TO BRONCS

BRONCS VICTORS IN ERRORLESS CONTEST

STEEDS TAKE THIRD GAME FROM ATHLETICS, 3-2.

MARTIN WINNING PITCHER

Dave Hurls in Good F m, Weakening in But One Inning — Geier's Homer Gives Locals Shade of Battle.

The Tribune's Special Service.

ZANESVILLE, O., May 27.—Despite their hard hitting the South Bend Bronchos were unable to snatch victory from the locals here yesterday until the eighth inning, when three singles, one of which was a four-sack ride, gave the visitors the game. Eleven hits were driven forth by the Bronchos with Stremmel, American association twirler, on the mound, but until the eighth the Steelers could not make them count. The final tally was 3 to 2.

Martin hurled for the Benders, and held the Steels safe except in the fifth when two runs were scored on three one-base hits and some slow fielding. With the visitors hitting the ball hard and threatening to break up the game at any moment, the Athletics maintained their lead obtained in that frame for two innings, when the hits of the Bronchos began to bring results. Both clubs played errorless ball.

How the Steels Won.

Holt opened the eighth with a clean hit to center. Schmick forced him at second, but Koehler hit to right, advancing Doe to second. A sacrifice bunt by Stremmel, and a wild throw wide Krey grounded to Crosder. Phil Geier spoke to right, and when the ball eluded Gillen's grasp the Bronchos circled the cushions, and clinched the game for his club when he scored. Neither side could touch the pitching thereafter.

The fifth frame pushed the Zanesvillians their coughs. Gillen, a pitcher playing the outfield for the locals in the absence of Kid Heller from the game, hanged safely to Wise. Swartling doubled, Wise stopping third, and Swartling, who accompanied drove to left, counting Gillen. Wise ten swished, but Holmes' peg to first with the bases full was returned slowly by Schmick, with a resulting score by Swartling. Score:

Reilley in Hospital.

Kid Reilley, Zanesville outfielder, is in a hospital in Columbus, suffering from a broken ankle. Reilley is one of the most popular players in the Central league. He was injured in a collision with Catcher Bender, of the Grand Rapids club, while sliding home in the game Thursday afternoon. Reilley's injury will keep him out of the game for a month at least.

JACK DIDN'T KNOW.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 26.—The veteran Jack Gifford, one-time baseball star of this city and former manager of the Minneapolis Central league club, pulled an unusually good one at Sioux City last Friday night. He did a most gay away with it. Jack, he is known, umpired a game for DePauw university and soon after, when the DePauw coach was released, was signed to handle the Methodist baseball squad. He took hold with a will, and soon had the team in shape for conference athletics. Last Saturday he had his wards in Bloomington for a game with Indiana. The crimson took the field first like a major league team; the Methodists brushed the bat and began to the pitch his another ended. Gifford, the umpire, called the game, assumed his position behind the plate, like a big-time official; and Jack, getting the habit, stepped up his position in uniform on the first base line and called the game. Jack, he says, is for that Crimson's big shindig. Jack, hearing Jack's explanation, "The fuse took more a guy two years in a DePauw uniform, don't it?" The Indiana fans went crazy, and still Goodman was endorsed. Bench throw two fits and threatened to quit the game. Jack, truly kicking on his coaching his crew, said that Goodman knew the rule, and Jack, after every kick had been frozen, after every kick had been frozen, after every kick had been frozen, Jack, he said, knew the rule, and Jack, he said, knew the rule, and Jack, he said, knew the rule, and
