LAND CRACK PLAYER

DAVY MILLIGAN TO BE WITH SOUTH BEND.

UMPIRES AFTER POSITIONS

President Carson Receives Many Applications From Men Who Want to Handle Indiator—Hennan Signs Star Trio.

Another crack player has been practically landed for the local Central league team in "Davy" Milligan, a youngster who will try for a position in the outfield. He is only 19 years old but his record in Independent ball is such that Manager Grant can expect him to make good. For two seasons the youngster has played with the crack Kewanee, Ill., club and the fans at that place are satisfied that he is one of the most reliable hitters in this section of the country. He is also a terrible terror of note and his recommendations tell of a batting record of the .300 class. Milligan does not expect to bat at that figure in league ball for unlike most players with only the experience on the amateur diamond, he is not completed over his success.

Wanda Full of Umpires.

President Carson is actively engaged in rounding up the preliminary affairs for the opening of the 1905 season of the Central league and he is now in his office in Fort Wayne and announces that he will be able to give his attention to the appointment of the staff of umpires. Of last year's Indiator men, not more than one will be found on the staff this year and Jim Hurley will probably be Bigler. He gave, next to Steve Kain, the best satisfaction of any man on the staff last year. Kain, he was predicted in The Tribune, has graduated to the American association and Bigler, who was first considered for the "jump" positions and the head of the league will have a difficult task in selecting the four men who will have charge of the diamond. Among the men who have applied for positions are Harry E. Woods, of Covington, Ky.; John Melvin, of Louisville, Ky., and Stouter, who worked in the American association last year. The latter is a nephew of Manager Grant and comes from that organization but he is satisfied that J. Ed. Grillo, is to be deposed from the presidency and is that position he will be out of a job. Woods has been recommended by Manager Grant of Kewanee, of the St. Louis Nationals, and Melvin by Steve Kain.

Melvin and Kain worked together in the Cotton States league in 1903 and the latter has written to the Fort Wayne office, of the St. Louis Nationals, and Melvin by Steve Kain.

Melvin and Kain worked together in the Cotton States league in 1903 and the latter has written to the Fort Wayne office, of the St. Louis Nationals, and Melvin by Steve Kain.

The salary of umpires as fixed by the Central migrates is $150 per month. Jim Hurley, who was a great breaker, was exceeded in several instances by Bennett who paid as high as $200 a month for some of the men in his staff.

Hennan Lands Three Stars.

The recent trip of John I. Hennan, president of the Dayton club of the Central to Cincinnati, is explained by the signing of three stars, Pitcher Thomas, Shortstop Jimmy Barton and Outfielder Maloney, who jumped the Wolverines last year to play with Dayton in the Ohio valley. Hennan expended up the ties in the city of the "Red legs" on the day following the Central league meeting at Dayton.

Hennan was conceded to be the greatest of minor league shortstops two years ago and last year when he played a few games with the Rochester team before going found out to be a cripple. Barton is said to be in splendid fine form that he showed to South Bend as a member of the Furniture Makers two years ago. He is only a fair hitman but is a great fielder, a fine baserunner and is the most intelligent player in the country.

Maloney is a .300 batsman in independent ball, a clever fast fielder and is considered a corking good all around player. He is a fine hitter, a good fielder and wields his bat. Both drew high salaries at Youngstown. Thomas two years ago was looked up as the most reliable twirler in the league.

Dayton will have a fine team in the Grand Rapids outfield, as Sargent at first will consist of Melchoir in right, Dennis in center and Maloney or Wenger in left field. Horton will fill the gap left by Barton at short and Thomas will pitch weekness, last year, and Thomas adds an old head to the twirling staff.

McKinley Leaves Baseball.

T. C. McKinley, Dayton's crack first baseman, has left the diamond to accept a lucrative position with a glass manufacturing concern. He was the strength in his position for Dayton last year. He was signed as a catcher, and was equally efficient behind the bat. There is a possibility that Dayton will have a team in the Ohio valley, but though a new frothsaman and catcher will likely be signed. The Dayton team recognizes a severe loss in the absence of McKinley. Only four of last year's team will be retained, Horton, Schlitzing, Pickett, Catcher Bert Blue wants a chance and may be given a trynut. Puskert has asked for an increase in salary and it is probable he will get it, the spirit of rivalry which always obtained between Springfield and Dayton has again been aroused by the addition of the Champion city to the Central league.

Several clubs are after the services of Bierle, the Yale third sacker, and the magnates of Dayton will probably reconsider their determination not to sign the Yale third sacker. He made a good next season at this position, if he last year's form can be taken as an indication, and his blonde predecessor will be sold to the club offering the most cash.

Cooley to Captain Springfield.

Dick Cooley, the Springfield shortstop, fold team—which broke ill for the Tyler, Mattner, of Fort Wayne, tried to goldbrick Dugan out of his star by offering Sam Havel, but got such a cold hook and it is said he is now suffering from the chills.

Championship Series is Off.

There will be no world's championship series between Boston and New York, pennant winners of the American and National leagues in the coming fall, if the decision reached at such a contest developed yesterday when the two league presidents decided to postpone settling the details for the proposed championship.

The series, which, if the schedule—which has been agreed upon by Pulliam and Johnson is assist in making drafts of schedule to be passed upon by the leagues in their New York meetings, April 25 or 26, will doubtless open on April 25 or 26.

President Johnson, of the American league, played with the minor leagues in the commission meeting at Chicago, and the minor leaders, who were asked for new draft rules, said, advocating it their representatives told at great length how their teams were being riddled of their best players unless some protection was afforded, concluded there by offering a modified draft, which they pretend they do not want.

His scheme as previously outlined was to allow the richest big league clubs to draft from the minors, but one player from each team, and the minor leagues to take one player for every first draft made by the majors according to Johnson; throw the minors into a pool from which the majors would not be permitted to draw and allow to be drafted all the players possible, and he explained that great demands for an increase in the drafting price, if made, would be made.

Tip O'Neil Leads Western.

Morris "Tip" O'Neill, of Oakland, Cal., was elected president of the Western league at the annual meeting of the league in Chicago yesterday. Ban Johnson, of Griswold, the only other aspirant, withdrew his name before the meeting. Joe Cantillon, W. A. Rourke and George Tebeau were re-elected to the board of trustees of 1906 to succeed Sexton, Reported receipts of $76,162.11 and expenditures of $75,762.60 for the season of 1904, leaving a balance on hand of $1,215.11.

Lincoln and Pueblo franchises were dropped and protection will be paid for both by a six-club league.

Rausch Praises League.

Ed Rausch has returned from the annual meeting of the Central baseball league at Dayton, O., and Jack Ryder in the Cincinnati Enquirer. Rausch expressed himself as being well pleased with the harmonious in the history of the league, and the outlook for next season. He said: "Last year's meeting, Speaking of Dr. Carson, the new president, I believe he is the right man. I can assist "I believe the improvement made a wise move in selecting Dr. Carson to take charge of the league. He seems to be popular with all sides and I believe he will be a success. Dayton is a natural location for baseball affairs. The club owners, the coming season will see that the salary limit is not reached. Last year the limit was $1,- 000 and I know of no club that went beyond that figure and rarely that they did so. I am glad to see Springfield get in the game as the town is ripe for baseball and I think it will prove a paying investment.

Caught at the Fly.

Rock Island, of the Three I league, has purchased the release of Pitcher Hedges from Milwaukee.

Dolphin from Pontiac, Mich, fell of the marriage of Dunnigan Jones, the Jonesville Indiator twirler. Mr. and Mrs. Jonesville Indiator twirler. Dunnigan will play in the Three I league next year.

Jacobus Maulder, the Port Wayne Indiator, has left for his home in Ohio where he will spend the winter.

Elmer Hoehnle a well known Dayton, is making an effort to secure a block of stock in the Dayton Central league club, if it is offered by the promoters of the Springfield.

CENTURYS DEFEAT C.-A. CLUB.

League Bowling Team Cuts a Surprise on the Star Alleys.

There are no end of surprises in the Indiana-Michigan bowling league and last night the record was continued by the defeat administered by the Centurys to the C.-A. club, the leaders losing two out of three games by poor rolling.

The one double century mark was made during the play, but by even and steady bowling the five led by Prochaska managed to make an average of 190. For the first time this season the Centurys bowled a game over the 900 mark, Crosby being responsible for the feat. The high score was made by Prochaska who rolled 95 in his final game. He also made the best average, 190.

The Centurys made the most and the Cadonas was won by the former team. The results were as follows:

NEWS OF THE TURF.

Katie Powers, Wins Mile Handicap at New Orleans.

Katie Powers, a half sister to Inspector Sims, the greatest horse that "Buck" McCarthy ever owned, showed a pair of sturdy heels to Garnish, Blowout, Gibb, Rankin, Red Ruler and Dolly Burke in the mile handicap at New Orleans yesterday.

The Western bookmakers were confronted with a disquieting problem in the Clubhouse handicap at the Ohio Jockey Club, Cincinnati, when Mr. J. N. Strode's St. Tammany and M. L. Hayman's Drum Up were against the contenders. There was not the slightest indication of the betting public. Yet it was thought wise to bet St. Tammany and Drum Up fight it out. Blood did just beat to beat St. Tammany, but the gelding caught the filly in the home stretch and won by a length and a half. Cal Ainslie, who rode the running up of his own horse, Bell Indian, after the first race. The animal was in for $800, and a local fashionable bought him. Mr. Hayman, the trainer protested him with the same $. Ainslie mistook his trainer for a stranger and bid against him, saying the horses and squandering $150.

Results at Oakley, Cincinnati, and Grand circuit in New York yesterday's racing schedule for the coming season was adopted as follows: Buffalo, Aug. 1; Empire City track, New York, Aug. 8; Cleveland, Aug. 15; Detroit, Aug. 22; Grand Rapids, Aug. 29; Lexington, Sept. 11; Columbus, Sept. 18; Memphis, Sept. 25 and Memphis, for the two weeks beginning Oct. 16.

CONDENSED NEWS OF SPORT.

Ralph Rose Shot Putter Does Not Return to Michigan.

Ralph Rose, the sensational shot putter, who stole absenteed from college athletics, has not yet returned from the east, and the wonder is growing as to whether he will go back to Ann Arbor after having learned of the action of the Michigan board of control.

The first two rounds in the second annual midwinter tournament played yesterday simplified matters considerably, and as a result Walter J. Travis will meet Jesse S. Lard, of the Columbia Golf club, Washington, and George C. Sargent, of the Ardsley club, Ardsley, N. Y., Preston F. Jr. of the Highland Golf club, Pittsburg, the Atlantic City champion, in the thirty-six-hole semi-final round, which will be played today.

Benny Yanger and Abe Attell will meet in New Orleans during Mardi Gras week, if present plans are fulfilled. Failing in this match, the southerners will be matched with Terry McGovern and Willie Lewis.

KENNEALLY TO MEET RAUCH.

Chicago Pugs Will Fight at Elkhart Next Wednesday.

Morris Rauch, of Chicago, and Pat Kenneally, formerly of South Bend, are to meet in a ten round bout at Elkhart Jan. 18. Rauch is training at his quarters in Chicago. He has a 10 round decision to Kenneally at South Bend last fall. After the contest he declared he was not in condition. This time he will endeavor to wipe out the former defeat. Rauch is matched to meet Young Corbett, formerly of Denver, in the near future.

A semi-windup of six rounds will precede the main event with "Pudy" McFarland, of Chicago, and Bobby Ferguson, of Chicago, in the lead. Both the first preliminary will be between Jack Wood and Jimmy Sager.

DRIVING CLUB FOR ELKHART.

Horsemen are Attempting to Have Snow Races.

The Tribune's Special Service.

Elkhart, Ind., Jan. 13.—Elkhart horsemen who are attending the series of snow races given by the Kenosha driving club have decided to organize a club among horsemen of their own city and steps have been taken to put a club in the field. Elkhart has a number of good steppers and the sportsmen of this city are confident that they can stack up just as good a bunch of horses as can be found in Racine. After the Elkhart horses have been tried out a contest with South Bend horses will be arranged for.

SNOW RACES ARE ON.

Card of Seven Events Affords Horseman Excellent Sport This Afternoon.

The third card of races arranged by the South Bend driving club is being run off this afternoon on Colfax avenue and a large crowd of horsemen are witnessing the events. As to-day's events bring together the winners of Tuesday's divisions the races should be especially interesting and exciting. A condition horsemen from the surrounding towns are in the city to take in the sport.

The results of the first two races which were finished at 3 o'clock were as follows:

Free-for-all Pace.

Wilbur Gentry—John Donahoe ..... 1—1
Cecor (H. E. Johnson) ..... 2—2
Bobby Burns (C. S. Ross) ..... 3—3

Second Free-for-all Pace.

Robert Lee (Col. G. Studebaker) ..... 1—1
Roths J. (J. C. Barrett) ..... 2—2
Clement Sheridan ..... 3—3
