SPECIAL CAR FOR ELKS.

Two Antlered Teams and Fans Will Leave To-morrow Morning.

A special car from Chicago will meet South Bend Elks bowlers and fans at Niles to-morrow morning and will take the party to Detroit. The delegation will leave South Bend at 10 o'clock and will reach Detroit at 2:30. The afternoon will be spent in visiting the alleys and immediately after supper, the capitals will put their teams to bed. At 10 o'clock, the teams will rise and go to the alleys where both will shoot in five-man play at 11 o'clock. The programme follows: Friday, 11 a. m.—Doubles: Carter and Hart, team 1; five-men contest Elks' team 2.

Friday, 10:30 a. m.—Doubles: Carter and Hart, Staples and Engleder, team 1; five-men contest Elks' team 2.

Friday, 11:30 a. m.—Doubles: Dennis and Clark, Eliassaer and Moore.

Friday, 4 p. m.—Singles: Casmier, Staples, Engledrum, Holland, Schielle, Clark, Eliassaer, Moore, Hart, Dennis.

Present scores at the Elks' alleys indicate the two teams will pull down some of the prize money. Leading marks at Detroit are not unbeatable and fans look for the Elks to win some money. Cincinnati is pulling down out of second place by yesterday's bowling when Erickson-Jaeger, of Oshkosh, Wis., rolled 1,213. Enthusiasts expect their favorites to climb back into the money. Bowlers and fans who will be in the party are: Mrs. Fred L. Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Strayer, L. Y. Smith, Charles Ingram, Nelson Jones, Frank Bauer, Fred Hartman, Lee Staples, Jr., Fred Staples, Jr., and Alex Fred Roberts. The South Bend party will be guests at a banquet Saturday evening of the Detroit Wheelmen's association of which organization William Rockman, formerly of this city, and a member of the Elks, is a member. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis will be present at a banquet Saturday of the St. Clair County Bowling association as guest of Jerry McGraw, leading Detroit pollsmen and president of the national bowling tournament.

A total of $25,425 will be awarded the contestants in the 16th annual tournament, according to the official prize list, issued here today. The prize money is the largest of the executive committee at the Wayne hotel.
