COLORED GIANTS MIX WITH BREMEN

BOTH TEAMS PRIMED FOR GAME THIS AFTERNOON.

Studebaker Club Under New Management—Expects to Win Decision in Third Meet of Series.

The Studebaker Giants, running under a new management, invade Bremen this afternoon for the third and deciding game of the series, the clubs having broken even to date.

A. P. Simpson is now business manager, succeeding George Cassady, and "Dusty" Riddle is playing manager of the Studebaker club, stepping into pitcher Henderson's shoes. Riddles, who is hailed as a veritable Nick Altrock, as well as a valuable player, put his men through a hard workout Saturday and pronounces them fit to down the Bremen Stampers. The local team has the right to boast of a hard hitting group, with Williams batting .512, Henderson, .404, Grace, Chandler, A. Poindexter and Mitchell slugging the pill for better than .300.

The Giants are also looking with covetous eyes to the Studebaker trophy, expecting a victory over the M. & A. club Saturday afternoon. Special busses will leave the corner of Washington and Main streets at 1 o'clock this afternoon for Bremen. The respective line-ups of the two teams to-day will be as follows:
