CUBS WIN DOUBLE BILL—S-H'S CITY CHAMPIONS

CUBS CREEP UP ON NATIONAL LEADERS

YOUNGSTERS PITCH CHICAGO TO TWO SHUTOUT WINS.

SECOND VICTORY COSTLY

Cheney Suffers Broken Finger—Blow to Pennant Hopes of Windy City Club—Dashes in Brief Sport.

Making most of an opportunity to creep up on the league leaders, the Cubs yesterday captured a double-header from Brooklyn, thereby gaining six points on their rivals, the Giants. The latter are still 35 points ahead, however. Announcement was made yesterday that a protest of the Cincinnati Reds registered in the case of a game with the Cubs, Sept. 8, had been disallowed. As every game means much at this stage of the race, the Cubs are thanking their lucky stars that President Lynch could see things (he) way on this occasion, at least.

Two shutouts were administered to the Trolley Dodgers yesterday, the Cubs winning the first game by 3 to 0, and 5 to 0. Fifteen thousand fans saw the Chicago machine win its way smoothly to a double victory. Young, or talent performed with wonderful effect, while Cheney was knocked out of action and Cheney into the going to check the retreat of his forces. And the youngsters flung right nobly, although Cheney, firing in the second battle, was wounded by a fast drive of Hofman in the eighth, and forced to retire. It was a terrific line drive, at his head was partially stopped by the former Colonel at the expense of a broken little finger while the flight of the sphere was not hindered enough to prevent it from landing over the fence. Cheney staggered about the diamond a moment like a bewildered fowl, but retained possession of his mind enough to recover the ball and throwed the wilted batter out on first.

Hoffman is Star.

Hoffman was a bright and shining light in both contests, hitting hard and circling the bases four times in all.

The Cubs and Phillies will grapple tomorrow, although the day is scheduled for a vacation period for the Chicagoans and Quakers. That was the schedule if rain didn't interfere with Ty-Cy's Red-Phillie games.

Cheney's injury is a severer blow to the Cubs than at first was delivered. That as he was expected to yesterday, but the broken finger will possibly keep him out of the game the rest of the season.

Cheney's spraying a surprise on St. Louis yesterday by winning the first game of a doubleheader, and tieing five second.

Connie Mack expects to clinch the pennant in the coming week. He is far this season than in 1910. He has set the day for the finale as Sept. 28, while last season Cor Athletics were pronounced pennant winners on Sept. 18.

The Sox are pulling for Cub defeats tomorrow, as they are on a alive of ninety-seven money, by a series of battles with the National leaguers.

Triple Steal Feature.

A triple steal, by Flynn, Hyatt and Schmaller, of Kansas City, featured the Toledo-Kansas City game yesterday. McGinnis, of Toledo, hammered a double-bagger against Indianapolis in the ninth and pushed the Indians down to 4-6. Eighteen innings of excellent hurling enabled Milwaukee to take both contests. Suberman was the lad ed up for 11 hits and three runs in the first game.

In the closing battle of the season, Jacobson, ex-Central leaguer, pitched Kalamazoo Champions to victory, 2 to 6. Jacobson flung a wonderful game, allowing but three hits. The Kalamazoo Blue Sox clubs all ended their 1911 season Sunday.

Peoria made a clean sweep of its deciding series in the Three I league race with Quincy. Rube Marquard made his appearance finished in third place with his team, the Pearkeet victories in the past few days enabling Decatur to slip past Rube's bunch into second place. Thirteen points separate Quincy from second place, while Peoria led Decatur .026.

EX-BRONCS BEAT MICHIGAN CITY

TWELVE INNING GAME TERMINATES IN RIOT.

Umpire is Attacked by Rabid Fans—Grand Rapids Wins by Score of 2 to 1.

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Sept 18.—A 12-inning game here yesterday afternoon between the Grand Rapids Central league team and the Michigan City Grays resulted in a score of two to one in favor of Grand Rapids. Numerous thrillers, a riotous demonstration from 2,000 fans and the arrest of Umpire Claude Hamilton of South Bend, Mich., for engaging in an encounter with one of his fellowmenders followed the game.

The demonstrations against the umpire began in the fifth inning and grew in volume as the game progressed. The local team scored in the second inning and Grand Rapids tied in the fourth. Michigan City had a chance in third in the ninth and also in the 10th, but they were stranded because the crowd believed, the umpire was trying to rob the home aggregation. This continued until the first half of the 12th inning, when Grand Rapids scored on an error, a sacrifice and a single.

The home team came in the same second of ninth inning to tie the score, but Grand Rapids tied. made threats but there was no violence until a young man stepped up to Hamilton and yelled. Hamilton struck the man and two policemen pounced upon him and started for the police station. The chief Grand Rapids and the club could be attacked were led to jail, followed by a jeering crowd, who were prevented from an attack only by the threatening jibes of the officers. The score:

	R.	H.	O.	A.	E.
Grand Rapids	2	6	36	12	1
Michigan City	1	6	36	11	2

Batteries: Grand Rapids, Kaufman and Wilson; Michigan City, Martin, Schmitz and Wolf. Umpire: Hamilton.

SOMERLOTT PICKS TRIO OF WOLVERINE PLAYERS

Michigan State Man Purchased for Terre Haute Club.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 18.—Long John Somerlott, acting as scout for the local baseball club, has purchased three stars of the Michigan State league. The men secured by the first pacter are Outfielder Brief and Pfeifer and Third Baseman Ross. The trio was bought outright.

Pfeifer is a left handed slinger, having come to the Wolverines. He is hitting between .270 and .280. Pfeifer is also a fast artist, and when purchased, was .320. Pfeifer is remarkably fast, having pilfered 30 odd bases so far this season. Ross is a fast third sacker and a hard hitter. He is hitting between .290 and .300.

Owner Wagner received notice of the purchase Saturday night. To accomplish the purchase, Somerlott left Indianapolis to join a ballplayer out of the bushes. Wagner has had nothing further from Aggie Grant, further than that he has been on two or three sheets of scratch in the Blue Grass league. Grant is now searching for a catcher to replace Ed Hoy, who left Sunday night.

MAY REVOLUTIONIZE SYSTEM OF SCORING

LOCAL MAN WILL INTRODUCE NEW PLAN.

RECORDS EVERY DETAIL

Simplicity One of Chief Features of "Grafic" System—To Market Three Forms—Result of Long Experimenting.

As the result of three years' efforts of a well known South Bend man, a revolution in scoring systems may be recorded in baseball circles in the fall and winter of 1911-12. Holland Stapleton, a local architect, has evolved a plan of scoring which covers practically every detail of the sport. Its simplicity is one of its chief features.

Mastering the "convention" by which all plays are recorded appears at first glance a formidable task. Choice is made of the system perfected by Mr. Adelsperger, however, Release a simple arrangement of signs by which every point of the game may be noted and recorded in the space of a few seconds. Strikes, balls, in fact almost the sort of business a ball club would be recorded in a remarkably small space. It is claimed for the system perfected and upon the system in the hands of the Stapleton, where no fan would be detected. The South Bend man hopes to have his scoring scheme, the "Grafic Score," will have as the official system, and will have various types ready for use within a week.

"Grafic" System Explained.

The "Grafic" system is made clear in a preface to a booklet or book of instructions, simplified spelling marks the explanation of the author. The system is based on the fact that it is the most important and fundamental improvements over the present system of scoring. A single local record can be made of 16-18 plays, and the "Grafic" Score, with the historian's efforts and of the third which the historian or baseball fan can be made. Changes in players or positions can be made in a few seconds in the rapidly lasting order. As a result of the continuous, an fading being carried by drawing a line through the score after the last batter of the half, it is in no sense confusing, if a side hops more than around the batting order.

To Market Three Forms.

The three forms of the new system will be put on the market, i. e. semi-pro, big league and world's championship. The first is intended for use in the big and high schools, baseball and the world's championship for the single series for the baseball title. The first is intended for use in the big and high schools, baseball and the world's championship for the single series for the baseball title. The more intricate is made clear the recording each ball pitched, whether called or swung at, and the "Grafic" Score, though it is suggested this system would necessitate an intricate style of scoring. Mr. Adelsperger claims that the system is the most complete ever perfected, and the action of the third baseman was severely censured by the historian. An amusing feature of the incident was the behavior of the base pollen, who, when the third baseman was knocked to the ground, he leisurely strolled out to the scene of the knockdown, and while the assailant the "umps" and his teammates were trying to revive the fallen man, deliberately, ordinarily looked on.

VARNELL TO FIGHT FOR TITLE TO NAGELSON

Player Sold to Cleveland Claimed by Killian Caesar.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Sept. 18.—Claude Varnell will make a fight to retain his title to Nagelson, catcher sold by the Kalamazoo club to Cleveland. When Nagelson was sent to Kalamazoo last spring along with Bullock, it was with the understanding that the title remained in the Fort Wayne club.

When Bullock failed to make good, Nagelson was returned to Fort Wayne before regaining him. Gus acknowledging that he was not fast enough for Manager Nagelson, on the other hand, made good and was sold just before the drafting season opened up the Napa for a tidy sum. Kalamazoo, instead of drafting Nagelson, sold him to Cleveland for the purchase price, and now C. H. is kicking for his bit. He has notified the Kalamazoo management that he will appeal to the national commission, and at any rate demand a share of the money.

Jack Onslow wants to come back to Fort Wayne next year, that is if he can and make good with Detroit, by which club he is now signed.

Motorcycle Racers Hurt.

KENOSHA, Wis., Sept. 18. — Two bad accidents marked the motorcycle Racing here yesterday. Hugo Anderson was thrown from his machine and suffered injuries from the shock and from internal injuries. R. REAL WORK FOR HIGH PLAYERS THIS WEEK

Capt. Buechner Plans Busy Session for Football Men.

Beginning to-day work started in earnest for the High school football squad. Capt. Buechner, confident there will be a team this season, is determined to turn out a championship eleven. For the first time in the history of the school, two competent coaches will drill the boys.

Within the next five days a temporary schedule will be arranged, preliminary practice and a few plays outlined in preparation for the first scrimmage, scheduled for next Saturday morning at Leeper's field.

Efforts will be made to strengthen the second team, Grant and Bennett, ineligible veterans will work out with the squad for the remainder of the season. Grant is a good graduate. The probable lineup for the first team for the initial scrimmage will be:

Berkey and Wilf, ends; Buechner and McDermey, tackles; Hazard, Borg, and Hesse, guards; Brady, center; Kirby, Portiger, and Harting, halves; Martin, full back. Whitacker and Cassidy, quarter backs.

Tan and blue sweaters are arriving to turn out to the first scrimmage in order to size up the chances for a winning eleven.

S-H'S VICTORS IN TITLE BALL GAME

YOUNG PITCHES GREAT BALL AND BESTS TOROKS.

Fast Game to Ex-High Schoolers by Score of 1 to 0—Player Attacks Umpire.

While the city baseball championship cannot be need definitely, the Stapleton-Sidebrands won a firm grip on the title belt Sunday, at Springbrook park by defeating the Toroks, 1 to 0, in a well played game. Young was in the form and allowed but one hit, while Alby was touched up for but four, two being bunched in the fifth for the winning run.

The Toroks have defeated nearly every club of note in the city, and after beating the Mussells decisively several weeks ago, seemed to end their season with that game, claiming the city championship. A challenge from the S-H's, however, was accepted, and yesterday's game was the result. It.

Both teams put up strong defensive games. Boswell hit to right with no one on base in the fifth for two bases. A single a bit over the pan with Cal Young on base, tied the game.

The championship game practically closed the local independent season. Both teams will be disbanded and the South Bend have disbanded for the season.

Fans were treated to an early stages of the game when the Toroks displayed strong animosity to the decision of Umpire Hamilton called into action. Their feeling against the "ump" finally culminated in a personal attack on the offending thin shrdl infeyp. rd by a bunch of Toroks, who left the playing alley, which resulted in a knockdown score against the latter. Umpires in independent baseball have little authority over the players, who have been allowed to run the game. Hamilton called into action the Toroks tactics on the part of the third baseman was severely censured by the crowd. An amusing feature of the incident was the behavior of the base pollen, who, when the third baseman was knocked to the ground, leisurely strolled out to the scene of the knockdown, and while the assailant of the "ump" and his teammates were trying to revive the fallen man, deliberately, ordinarily looked on.

OTEY IS YET AGAIN.

"Steamboat Bill" Signs With Dayton for 1912.

DAYTON, O., Sept. 18.—Bill Otey is the first of the Old Soldiers to fall in line for the ball season of 1912. Dayton is now assured of his service, as Steamboat Bill has signed his contract. The big pitcher has just signed his contract, which will be sent to the Dayton club, and will be filed by local officials, unless some variety of federal injunction prevents. Otey has a big niche in their hearts during the season of 1911.

When Otey came to Dayton to the beginning of the season, he made a non-reserve contract. When the last game was played and the pennant won, he was a free agent, but he signed up with the club as soon as he learned that Bill was a free agent, and he quickly agreed to the terms of the Vet mastodon.

AMUSEMENTS

"THE MOLLUSCS."
A comedy in three acts by Robert Henry Davis.
Wm. Kemp ..... Frank Gelsmith
Wm. Bunce ..... Robert Henry Davis
Mr. Mollusc ..... Frank Gelsmith

"The Molluscs" a comedy in three acts, by Robert Henry Davis, was presented at the Oliver opera house last night by a company of extraordinary merit, Kyrle Bellew and Miss Isabel Irving, assuming the leading roles.

For the benefit of that portion of South Bend who did not have the fall to see and hear the delicious humor of Mr. Davis' comedy it may be stated at the outset that the molluscs of the title are a family of people who have had developed by their surroundings as a species of shellfish. The mollusc in this case is a lazy and shiftless woman, who aided by her beauty, persists in clinging to her husband, who is trying to make efforts of a other members of the household to dislodge her. Around this idea Mr. Davis has written what virtually amounts to a sermon, the lines of the first portion of the play, being so full of logic as to command the attention of the most indifferent. The man who will readily admit that he has sometimes been the victim of a clever, the "Mollusc" detected enough in this case, can be applied to many households, and to people, especially in the city, of the little town.

The comedy of Mr. Davis shows an abundance of good material, though the plot being worked out with deliberate and without any real great exaggeration which in most comedies is the rule, the author has found it necessary to be in improper be audacious that it is not an uncommon thing to meet and be with people to be so selfish and so insensible to duty as to monopolize the time of a friend who has come to visit them in a distant city, and that to effect a cure it is necessary to resort to drastic measures, in the case of the mollusc of the play, after all other efforts fail. The author has the gauge of jealousy into her heart until it becomes a matter of pity, and the audience actually gives vent to sighs, throwing off the clinging parasite, and instead of allowing a pretty governess to be the constant companion of the husband, the author allows the wife to be the husband's, that of a real companion, willing to throw off the mask of insincerity and become a directing genius instead of the indolent, helpless mollusc.

Mr. Frohman probably could not have found a more suitable pair than Mr. Bellew and Miss Irving. Mr. Bellew was most admirably suited for the leading role, that of Tom Kemp, the brother, who directs the reformation of the mollusc. The work of this well known actor has never been better. Mr. Bellew demonstrated that he has graduated from the list of matinee idols to the ranks of the serious minded people of the stage. Not in a single instance did he resort to the mannerisms of the matinee idol, being content to let the lines naturally and with a quiet dignified grace that is the mark of the artist.

Miss Irving as Mrs. Hacker, the wife of the mollusc, was charming. Her acting was of the delicate order, and they she had previously assumed Indian parts of the character, she gave a polished and sincere picture of the modern woman. Miss Irving's acting was the best she has done.

Elderly, close to importance to the leading roles were those of the weakling husband, carried by Frank Goldsmith, who, in the opinion of many, acted by Jane Laurel, The Dorcier's impersonation of the mollusc's mother, seemed to give every which of a gentle and sympathetic character. Miss Laurel is one of the most thoroughly artistic of the women on the stage, and in the role of the mother of the mollusc, she was an excellent bit of character work. Mr. Davis has a real comedy, and that he has made an ideal Miss Roberts and Miss Irving, the author, and the actors, are to be congratulated. Mr. Bellew and Miss Irving have a delightfully artistic performance.

The story of the comedy briefly concerns the efforts of Tom Kemp, an Englishman to cure his married sister, Mrs. Hacker, of the habit of "sponging" on people, which he succeeds in doing after having shown her that she is one of the lazy, and with the aid of the husband, Mr. Hacker, who is a good fellow, and a delightfully artistic performance.

BIG FRUIT HARVEST DRAWING TO CLOSE

LATE APPLES, PEACHES AND FEW PEARS REMAIN ON TREES.

Limited Quantity of Grapes Yet to be Picked and 1911 Season Will be Over.

The fruit harvest of 1911 is rapidly drawing to a close. Starting early, the season is going to end early. For the past week there has been a gradual decrease in the shipments of fruit.

Late apples, a few pears, a few varieties of late peaches and a few grapes are all that remain to be picked and shipped. This is true in the country about South Bend and throughout the great fruit belt of Southern Michigan. The heaviest of the melon business was over a week or so ago. The early peaches passed rapidly, leaving grapes the central figure in the fruit business.

From St. Joseph, Mich., coming with the loading of refrigerator cars is practically over. The cream of the fruit has been harvested and is now on its way to distant points.

Shippers of other fruit besides grapes are not anticipating a rush of business. Some delayed picking grapes when the market was low, holding off for higher prices. Some have lots of grapes hanging yet, which there is yet a little demand for.

The decreasing fruit shipments is noticeable on the interurban lines. The number of cars run has dropped from 15 to half a dozen.

The recent heavy rains have made it imperative the fruit remaining be picked and shipped, if it is to be picked at all. It is a fine time for the fruit growers to be in the first place the crop has been so much heavier than usual that the supply of baskets ordered by growers has been exhausted. The shortage of baskets is declared, is a fruit growers' complaint. This is an organization of grape growers who banded themselves together to sell their fruit in carload lots, and who have been successful, considerably, thus far, in withstanding the leaving the association to market the grapes as best it can. It is reported it is having some difficulty in finding a market for grapes in carload lots, although it could rapidly dispose of fruit in smaller quantities.
