

ARMY AND NAVY BOTH READY FOR ANNUAL BATTLE

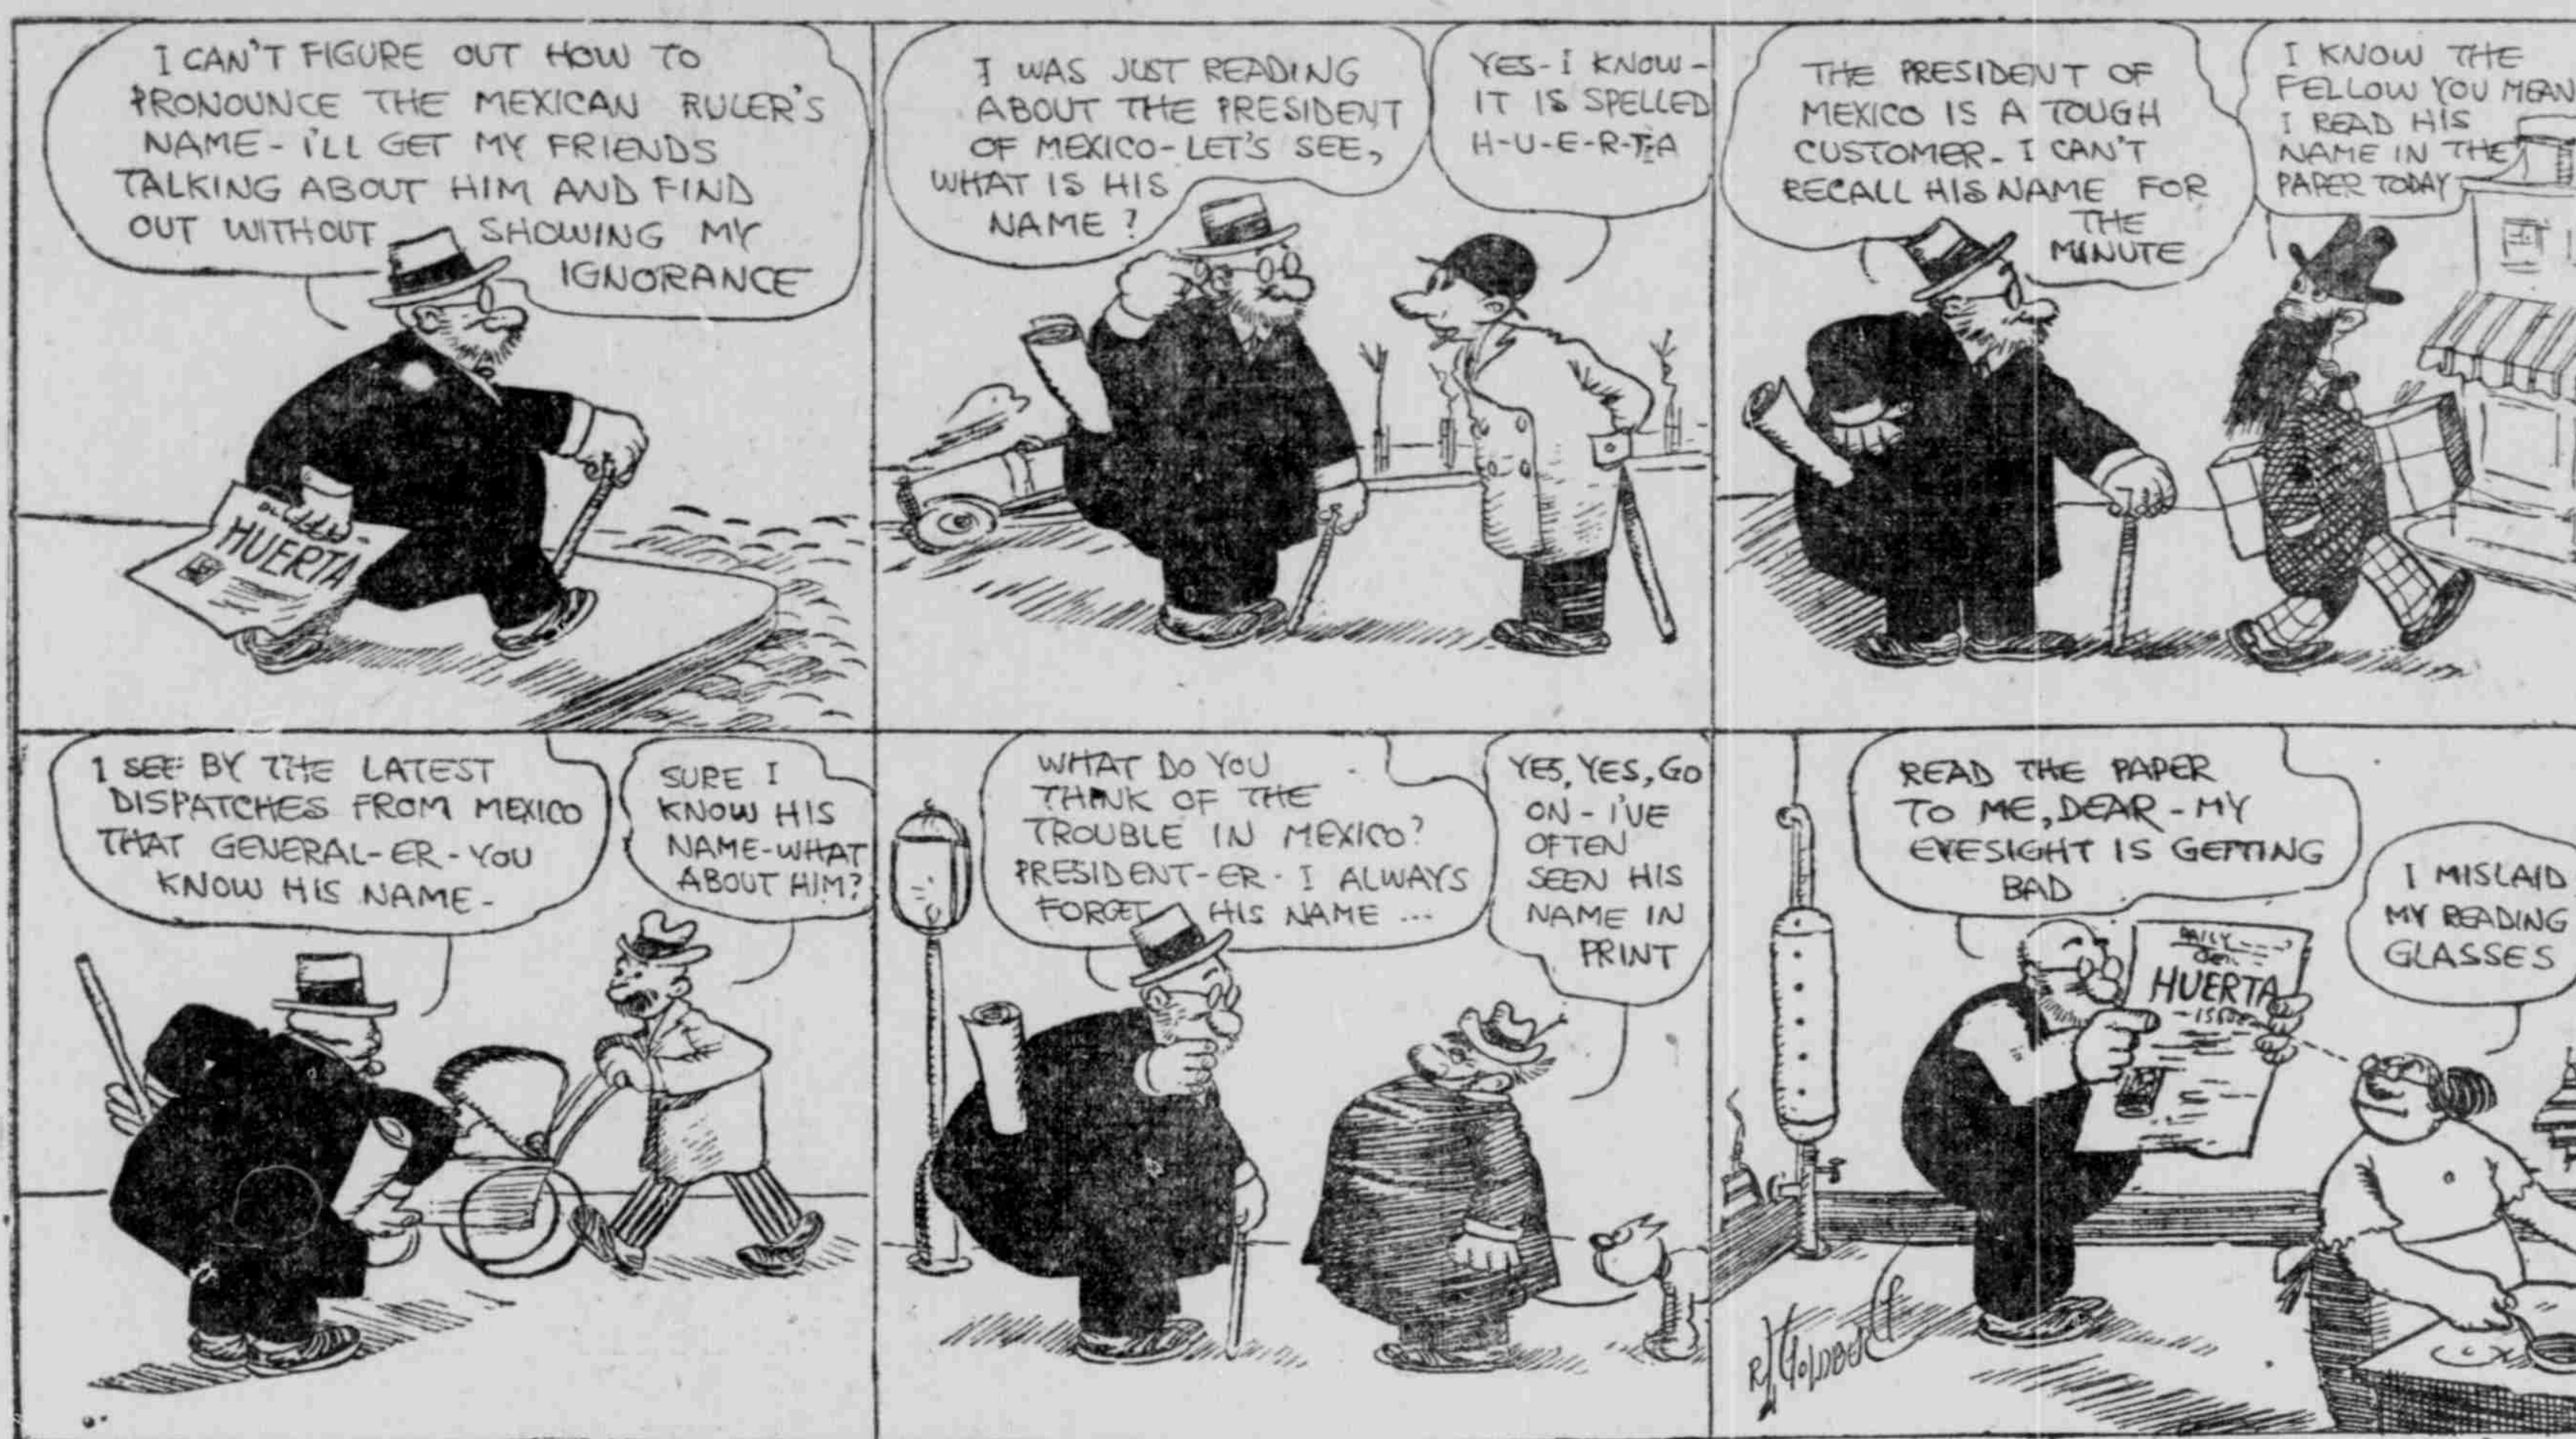

Pres. Wilson and Members of His Cabinet and Prominent Persons Will Witness Football Game at New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—With the rival teams and the advance guard of spectators already in quarters for the Army-Navy football game here Saturday, this city has taken on the unfamiliar aspect of a college town on the eve of a big athletic contest. The transformation began with the arrival of the naval and military academy eleven, substitutes and coaches, the Middle reaching here last night and the West Point cadets this afternoon. Every succeeding train brought a fresh quota of brilliantly uniformed and gowned humanity to add another tint to the color picture and tonight even the most blasé New Yorker was aware that something unusual was about to happen.

Although big college football contests are not beyond the memory of old inhabitants, the annual game between the two arms of the United States service with its distinguished and uniformed assembly of spectators is a novelty. While the sailors and soldiers have met upon the gridiron 17 times since 1890, New York never has been the scene of the game and both guests and host are preparing to make the most of the play in its new setting. Local hotels took on new picturesqueness Friday night because of the presence of army and navy officers, squads of West Point cadets and Annapolis middies. Tables were at a premium in the leading restaurants and several of the more pretentious hotels reported their capacity accommodation booked until Sunday.

President to Attend. Pres. Wilson, who will witness the game with members of his family and cabinet arrived Friday evening and spent the night at the home of friends. He will return to Washington Saturday night. During the game he will divide his time equally between the Army and Navy sides. It is expected that he will witness the first half of the game from box 20 on the Army side of the field and during the intermission will cross to the Middle stand, where boxes 189, 191 and 192 have been set aside for his party.

In addition to the chief executive there will be many prominent box holders. A partial list includes the following well known officers of the army and navy corps, the general government service and other persons of prominence:

Vice Pres. Marshall, Secy. of State Bryan, Secy. of War Garrison, Secy. of the Treasury McAdoo, Secy. of Labor Wilson, Secy. of Commerce Redfield, Atty. Gen. McReynolds, Postmaster Gen. Burleson, Admiral George Dewey, Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, U. S. A.; Maj. Gen. Thomas H. Barry, U. S. A.; Rear Admiral Charles D. Sigsbee, U. S. N., retired; Rear Admiral R. B. Bradford, U. S. N.; Rear Admiral J. A. Rodgers, U. S. N.; Rear Admiral W. N. Little, U. S. N.; Brig. Gen. A. L. Mills, U. S. A.; Speaker Champ Clark, of the house of representatives; U. S. Senators Elihu Root and James O'Gorman of New York, Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, Thomas B. Catron of New Mexico, Ollie James of Kentucky, N. P. Bryan of Florida, W. J. Stone of Missouri, H. A. Dupont of Delaware, N. Miles Poindexter of Washington, Gov. Goldsborough of Maryland, Paymaster Gen. T. J. Cowie, U. S. N.

EICHENLAUB MAY BE MADE CAPTAIN

Dorais Ends His Career With Notre Dame Team in Blaze of Glory—Members of Team to be Banqueted.

Notre Dame's victorious eleven will return home tonight or early tomorrow morning. Nothing more remains to be done during the 1913 season but to banquet the team and have the players chose their captain for the coming year.

Dorais, the gold and blue wizard quarterback, again displayed his wonderful knowledge of football at Texas, closing his college career in whirlwind style. The little general scored 17 out of the 29 points run up by the locals and startled the southerners by his versatility and speed in all departments of the game. In this battle Dorais proved conclusively that he is the man for All-American, quarterback.

On a field six inches deep in mud and water the Notre Dame man booted three successful drop kicks in five attempts, thus placing himself on a par with Brickley, the Harvard marvel. The latter was able to put but one over in seven tries under similar weather conditions in the Princeton game. Dorais also scored a touchdown for Notre Dame and placed two goals after touchdown squarely between the posts.

Eichenlaub's smashing line plunging also featured the "Longhorn" battle. In one quarter the varsity, mainly through "Eich's" assistance rushed the ball from their own seven yard line clear down the field for a touchdown. Eichenlaub carrying the ball across the line. It will be no surprise to Notre Dame men to see their favorites Dorais and Eichenlaub and possibly Rockne or "Deac" Jones picked for All-American honors.

The football banquet will be held early next month. At that time the coveted monograms will be awarded and the men will elect their 1914 leader. The name of Eichenlaub stands out most prominently as the likely captain. The big fellow has done wonders during his three years at Notre Dame and it is almost certain that he will be called upon to lead the team next fall.

JOE TINKER WANTS TO GET BACK WITH CUBS

Sounds Like Home, Sweet Home to Think About Going Back to Chicago, He Says.

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—Joe Tinker, deposed manager of the Cincinnati baseball team, called on Manager Evers of the Chicago Nationals Friday, and after a conference said he knew of no place where he would rather play than in Chicago.

No terms were discussed, and until Pres. Murphy of the Chicago club returns from Europe, no negotiations can be started between the local organization and the Cincinnati club regarding the transfer of Tinker.

TEXAS STUDENTS BEAT UP TEX. FOOTBALL OFFICIALS

WACO, Texas, Nov. 29.—Lieut. E. D. Johnson, Third cavalry, U. S. A., was beaten about the face by students of Baylor university following a football game between Baylor and Southwestern university, in which he acted as referee. Chas. V. Braun, umpire, also featured the "Longhorn" battle. In one quarter the varsity, mainly through "Eich's" assistance rushed the ball from their own seven yard line clear down the field for a touchdown.

Arthur Poe, one of Princeton's greatest stars, wrenched the ball from a Yale man in 1899 and fled 100 yards for the touchdown that gave the Tigers the game.

Sammy White, Princeton, was the hero of the other two. In 1911, against Harvard, White grabbed a loose ball, instead of falling upon it, and ran 90 yards for a touchdown. Two weeks later, against Yale, White grabbed a fumbled ball and sprinted 60 yards.

The Studebaker Collar shop indoor basketball team defeated the Indiana Lumber Co. team on the grounds of the latter Friday afternoon by a score of 14 to 13. Kauffman and Richard Schenberger were the butters for the Studebakers. The two teams will meet again next Friday night.

DISPUTE CHAMP CLAIMS. Manager Maurice Thornton of the Assumption school football team, disputed the city school championship with the Franklin school team. Thornton declares the Franklin boys cannot claim the championship until they consent to play his team. He says several requests for a game have been made by him but each time refused. He is willing to enter into negotiations yet, however, and asks opponents to call him at Bell phone 3934.

Last Night's Results.

Chard & Tompsett, 31; Hillers, 21. Clausers, 29; Spiros, 16. Schillings, 14; Florus, 22.

Before a gallery-filled audience the Y. M. C. A. Commercial Basketball league opened its fourth annual season in the "Y" gymnasium last night with three fast games. All games were won by decisive scores but with a few shifts in evenly matched sextette of teams is expected to develop.

As the result of the opening night attendance the physical department plans to place chairs on the floor for the meeting next Friday night.

The Chard & Tompsett looked like one of the strongest fives on the floor last night and trounced Capt. Allen and his Hillers without a great deal of trouble though the losers came back strong in the second half when they scored 14 points against the Chard & Tompsett's 15. The final tally was 31 to 21. Harrington and Hobbs starred on the offense for the victors and did all their scoring with seven field goals apiece. Allen showed flashes of form in the second period and caged five baskets.

Clausers Have Easy Time. The Clausers had still an easier time with the Spiros in the second game, winning by a count of 39 to 16. After the first few moments of play the Clausers were at no time in danger. Bacon, Clauser guard, showed promise of development in all around play, coming down the floor in the second half and dropping four goals.

The Florus were given a hard battle by Van Den Bosch and his Schillings, but assumed a safe lead in the first half and were never headed. The count was 22 to 14. The scoring by the victors was evenly divided between the two forwards, Capt. Brug and Cottrell right guard. Lineups and summaries:

GREATEST RUNS MADE IN FOOTBALL. A long run for a touchdown in a big game comes once in a lifetime. Of thousands who have played in college games in the past 35 years, but seven have more than once sprinted over 50 yards, and only two have made more than one run of over 80 yards, for touchdowns. Of the great touchdown runs six stand head and shoulders above all others. Walter Eckersall, Chicago, standing upon his four-yard line, in 1904, caught Wisconsin's kick-off and ran 106 yards for a touchdown. This distance is unequalled. In the Carlisle-Harvard game, 1903, the ball, on the kick-off, was slipped under Charley Dillon's sweater, and surrounded by his mates, Dillon ran 105 yards for a touchdown, while Harvard floundered about looking for the man with the ball. Earl Spracklin, Brown captain, all-American quarter in 1909, caught the Carlisle kick-off on his five-yard line and ran 105 yards for a touchdown. Arthur Poe, one of Princeton's greatest stars, wrenched the ball from a Yale man in 1899 and fled 100 yards for the touchdown that gave the Tigers the game. Sammy White, Princeton, was the hero of the other two. In 1911, against Harvard, White grabbed a loose ball, instead of falling upon it, and ran 90 yards for a touchdown. Two weeks later, against Yale, White grabbed a fumbled ball and sprinted 60 yards.
