SOUTH BEND VS. SPRINGFIELD

BASE BALL SUNDAY

SPRINGBROOK PARK, 3:00 P. M.

INFANTS SHOW FORM

SPRINGFIELD PLAYS GOOD BALL AGAINST SOUTH BEND.

LOCALS WIN SECOND GAME

Carrivean Pitches Excellent Ball But Shannon Gives Him Poor Support —Grant's Men Score Five Runs Against Visitors Outs.

Springfield braced wonderfully yesterday and made South Bend play ball in order to win the game by a score of 5 to 1. Unlike the farical exhibition of Thursday, yesterday's contest was interesting and full of life, both teams worked in good form, pulling off several pretty plays.

Carrivean and Christian were the opposing twirlers and the latter because of the brilliant playing of Sager, Grosscbow, Foy and Anderson, came out of the struggle slightly ahead on honors. That South Bend scored five runs was not the fault of Carrivean. He pitched as good a game as any visiting twirler, excepting Freeman and Miller, and but for Shannon's three balloon ascensions, would have held the locals to three runs.

It was not until the former National league catcher lost his head that South Bend succeed-ed in bringing a run over the plate. This happened in the fifth when with two men out and with Letcher and Christian on the bases, Anderson made a fake start for second. Shannon expecting a double steal threw to the second base and when Letcher came home, Anderson going to third. Had Shannon taken a second look at the "fake" he would have held the ball for when it left his hand Anderson was standing on the base and he was glued to the bag. The latter scored on Sager's hit.

F. Donahoe's error and hits by Foy and Grosscbow counted for one run in the sixth. Shannon's error was another gift to South Bend by Shannon. Anderson reached first on a perfect bunt, sliding into the bag just as Friel went to tag him with the ball. Anderson then stole second and with Hendricks required his fort and reached on third when F. Donahoe recovered the ball. Carrivean then struck Sager out, but Shannon failed to hold the ball and "Doc" dashed over the plate when the catcher threw to second. Foy then drove also made the hot run, walking to first and completing the circuit on hits by Sager and Connors.

The Infants only run was made in the second when Shannon hit safely first on his third bit, being sent to second on W. Donahoe's dandy single to center and home when F. Donahoe hit to left. W. Donahoe attempted to second on the play but Anderson threw him out at the plate.

Caught Between Innings.

Of course Wheeling also won.

Moffit expects to pitch the game this afternoon.

Vinard replaced McGivert in left yesterday. The latter is suffering with a bad foot.

Foy and Anderson let our their "fancy" playing and threw runners out at the plate.

Tieman is now catching the game of his life. His batting, too, is a tower of strength to the locals.

Plummer has been reinstated by Manager Hendricks and he will join the team to-day or to-morrow.

Manager will regret letting out W. Donahoe, but the fact is that our infield team is has been hitting the ball hard.

Mrs. Jack Hendricks and son, of Chicago, arrived in the city last night and will remain with the manager of the Infants over Sunday.

Christian pitched a fine game at short yesterday, accepting 16 chances without an error. When it comes to covering that position, there is not another man in the Central who can be compared with the local man.

Joe Cullen, who is playing the third base for Springfield, is a very promising player. In the Central league. He is an outfielder and until placed on the third sack by Hendricks, had never played th position. Cullen is a big hearted sticker of the Infants line.

Friel, the first sacker for the Infants, had better control of his home ankle yesterday and he played a pretty game at the bag. Friel played bags for Columbus, O., in the American association and it is likely that he will again take charge of the sack as soon as Hendricks can secure a man for first.

Manager Hendricks, of Springfield, says that his team is the best team in the Central league. "The local team is the peer of the clubs on the circuit," said Hendricks this morning. Hendricks was one of the players who helped to make the Western league famous and he knows the fact this time. Say, Mamy (those I have played on that diamond," he said to a representative of The Tribune, "and these fights in independent days were just as full of life as the games of to-day."

Fifteen men were in uniform yesterday. Sager made one of the most remarkable catches ever pulled off on the local diamond, but nevertheless the fact the enthusiasm was very light. Had Grand Rapids or Springfield been in Grand Rapids or Springfield, it would have thrown the fans in a frenzy. The play in question was made on a line hit from the bat of F. Donahoe. The ball was hit to left and Sager, who had had every appearance of being a safe drive good for at least three sacks and when the third baseman leaped into the air and made a one handed catch, the crowd went wild. The fans had witnessed Sager was wish-a to tell how it happened.

TYLER CHRISTIAN IN POSITION JUST AFTER DELIVERING BALL TO THE BATTER.

Pitcher Christian, while not yet in form, showed a fairly good guess against Springfield. Christian, when in shape, is one of the best pitchers in the Central league and Grant can be depended on to keep a string tied to him. Just as long as he possibly can.

a day some of them weakened and tried to get back into the game but Mr. Hill refused to admit them and they are temporarily suspended. The girls of the high school, who are enthusiastic supporters of the track team, may decide to join the boys in their strike, and there may be no graduation exercises this year.

ONE PROTEST IS ALLOWED.

Carson Sees Wheeling-Grand Rapids Tangle In Semi-Light-Weight Tourney.

President Carson yesterday decided to allow one of the protests made by Wheeling against Grand Rapids and has seated the manager of both teams that the first protested game must be played over. The second protest was not allowed for reasons already advanced by The Tribune—that straightening out the tangle would be too complicated. This is the same light as The Tribune and his decision is in line with the argument given in this paper several days ago.

BALL FOR ORPHANS

BUSINESS MEN DISCUSS PRELIMINARY ARRANGEMENTS.

Players Decide Upon Uniforms and Make Plans for Big Success—Committees are Named.

Business men of South Bend and Mishawaka, who will meet on the Springbrook diamond June 16 in a game of baseball for the benefit of the Orphans' home, held a very enthusiastic meeting Friday evening in the writing room of the Commercial-Athletic club. Many important matters pertaining to the proposed game were discussed and the preliminary arrangements were taken up. Frazee H. Hartzog, of this city, captain of the local team, presided. Jesse B. Richards was made secretary of the meeting.

It was deemed advisable to divide the city into districts in a manner similar to the plan followed in the campaign for the Hartzog fair and last year committees of ladies and gentlemen operate in the various districts for the purpose of selling tickets to the contest. The tickets will be sold at 25 cents and will entitle the holder to the equivalent of tickets sold in advance for the entertainment. The men asserted that they would exert themselves to the utmost to make the contest a success and that the ladies will do their share in the disposing of all the tickets they possibly could.

The players will wear white duck trousers and white shirts with a red Tuxedo will be donated by Max Livingston. The ball bats will be furnished by the South Bend Tar Manufacturing company. The balls and other paraphernalia will be furnished by Spalding and other sporting goods houses upon with favor. It was also decided to make an effort to secure the retreatment privileges at the park for the contest.

A parade will be given through the principal streets of the city on the evening preceding the contest. The patrol wagon loaded with the players, the band and the Elks will be in the parade and a bonfire will be made of the fantirns. Rev. John F. DeGroote, C. S. C. pastor of St. Joseph's church, was made official score-keeper. Committees were appointed to take up the various phases of the work. They are as follows:

Advisory committee on tickets—John M. Studebaker, George Wyman and C. L. Ackerman.

Advertising and publicity committee—James S. McBeam, Arthur S. Irwin and Max Livingston.

Refreshment committee—Dr. John A. Reynolds, Dr. Frank Ross, Dr. Frank Mayer, Mrs. F. J. Stedman, Mrs. M. M. Mathews.

Committee on music—Robert Ellsworth, Frank Ellsworth and Frank Jones.

Mr. McBeam was made treasurer of the enterprise. The business men will meet at the same place next Tuesday evening to further discuss matters.

Go to National Bank Convention.

John J. McIlrath, Gus Rheling and Paul Meiner left this morning for Milwaukee where they attend a convention of the national bank managers. The session will begin this evening.
