SIXTH SENSE THIS WOMAN WAS RIGHT

FEARED NO RECORD HAD BEEN MADE OF WEDDING.

Investigation of County Books Shows No Returns Had Been Made by Men Who Solemnized Marriage.

A woman's sixth sense of intuition was the direct cause of revealing to day what appears to be a serious error on the part of the officiating justice at a wedding in South Bend, Oct. 16, 1902.

Thomas A. Smith, of Indianapolis and Martinsville, Ind., appeared at the office of County Clerk F. P. Christoph to-day and made inquiry for the record of his wedding to Emma Shepherd. A search of the records failed to show any such notation, although the clerk was positive he had issued the license for the purpose of a little girl. They have in their house also, Mr. Smith asserts, the marriage certificate properly filled out by a Justice Patton.

Just how Mrs. Smith became uneasy about the record of their wedding, Mr. Smith could not explain. Mr. Smith decided to quiet his wife's fears by coming to the office and showing her the record. The discovery of the omission was a shock. The apprehensive was Mrs. Smith. She refused to enter the clerk's office but remained with their child. She was made very nervous by the discovery, Mr. Smith said. He said he had paid for the man who officiated at the wedding and will leave no stone unturned, he says, until the record is made to correspond with the marriage certificate. The man who officiated was a minister of the Church of Christ located in South Bend, but Prof. W. A. Jenks, head of the astronomy department of Indiana university, has moved from Bedford to the other hand, has perfected a new service device. Mr. Anderson has invented a new method for making foundry moulds, while Mr. Caulfaman received his patent on a milk pasteurizing apparatus. All the patents were issued last week to the firm of George Gauch & Co., South Bend.

Budget for Running Expenses Will Total Almost $350,000.

The figures were very changed by the council, but it was discovered that a appropriation would not be the final $350,000. Included in the appropriation was $40,000 for the purchase of voting machines. Bids for the purchase of these machines have already been received and they will be opened Sept. 15.

TWO RENEWALS ARE HELD UP BY BOARD

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE PLANS TO INVESTIGATE CASES.

"Col." Sullivan and Brennan & Jones Will Have Their Records Searched by Head of Local District.

Application for the renewal of liquor licenses to "Col." Joseph M. Sullivan, proprietor of the Post saloon, 128 West Washington avenue, and to Brennan & Jones, 224 West South street, were continued by the county commissioners to-day until next Monday. The action of the commissioners followed the appearance before the board of Rev. Richard Spestagle, superintendent of the South District of the Anti-Saloon League, Rev. Mr. Spestagle asked the board to defer the renewal pending investigation of reports which, if true, would in his opinion, disqualify the applicants.

Halting "Col." Sullivan's case followed the reading before Mr. Spestagle of a report in The Tribune that Sullivan had been fined $100 in Chicago a couple years by Mr. Sullivan to the Kamm & Schellinger Brewing company, of Milwaukee, in security of a note payable at the Mishawaka Trust & Savings company. Mr. Sullivan's answer to the charges was that make affidavit to brewing company has any interest in the saloon for which they seek permits, he said. Saloon league man believes Sullivan has violated the law in this state.

Action in the other case was based upon an anonymous communication received by Supt. Spestagle to-day. The writer of the letter stated the man who is seeking the license under the name of Brennan is, in reality, Jones, who is a former saloon keeper and charged by Mr. Brandon has a bad reputation at that place.

The writer of the letter and declared that Brennan, or Brandon, has associated with his Black Hat, has been charged with being a police decoy. The anonymous letter was signed "Black Hat." Brandon's place is at 117½ South Michigan street. The writer, who, from the handwriting is probably a woman, declares Brennan, or Brandon, if that is his name, is a "Black Hat." Black Hat was the Black Hat.

Owing to the meeting of the county council to-day the proceedings of the commissioners were taken slowly that the consideration of the cases of the two saloons was not reached. Of the applications for a renewal of liquor licenses, two applications for change of location and four for the purchase of licenses.
