HORSEMEN ATTRACTED TO COLFAX AVENUE.

EVENTS WELL CONTESTED

Oscar Wine Hot Brush From Robert Lee After Going One Dead Heat —Results of the Afternoon.

The second matinee of the South Bend Horse Driving club for the season was held yesterday afternoon on the Colfax avenue speedway and eight fairly good events were pulled off before an interested crowd of horsemen, many of whom were from Niles, Buchanan and Dowagiac, Mich., Elkhart, Goshen and Laporte.

The best contest of the afternoon was the brush between H. D. Johnson's Oscar and Col. George M. Studebaker's Robert Lee in the first division of the free-for-all pace. These two horses started off with a dead heat, J. C. Barrett's Rotha J. finishing third. The last two heats were won by Oscar. In the second division of the free-for-all pace John Donahoe's Wilkes Gentry defeated Clement Studebaker's lone and H. M. Kniffman's J. C. D. Bobbie Burns, owned by C. E. Ross beat J. C. Barrett's Abbetor and Sam Lesger's Jersey Pete in the third division. Abbetor was disqualified for not having a driver, the driver being a professional. This set her back to third place. Jersey Pete, a favorite with The Niles sports, was very disappointing.

Mr. Studebaker, President, Wedding Chimes, owned by Dr. R. M. McDonald, and Charles Dechtel's Tack carried off the honors in the three divisions of the 2:30 pace. Billie Wilson, owned by Albert Myers, and Albert Myers, dropped dead yesterday morning of heart disease.

Hubbard, owned by J. C. Ellsworth, and Riley, owned by Albert Myers, made the two heats of the free-for-all trot.

The officers of the matinee were John C. Decker starter; J. M. Studebaker, Jr., J. M. Holloway and Charles Dechtel, judges.

AFTER THE MEETING.

News Dropped by Central League Magnates at Dayton.

Springfield fans are celebrating the entrance of Springfield into the Central league. With John L. Bushnell, son of the late Gov. A. S. Bushnell, back of the team success is assured. Joseph Hubbard will have full management of the team. The following man have signed contracts: Shannon and Curtis, catchers; Armstrong, Meyers, and Merriman, pitchers; Maas, first base; Cooley, second base; McGraw, short stop; Bibert, third base; Latcher, outfield. Hugh Collins and Ferguson are still negotiating for contracts, the former holding out for more money and the latter having lost his original contract. Tom Plummer has not as yet signed, either. Dick Hoffman, a crackerjack baseman, will capitain the team.

George Collins, whose brilliant pitching established the Connersville, Ind., team as champions for 1904 among the minor leagues of southern Indiana, has signed with Springfield.

Springfield has 22 men under contract, 14 of whom were early season winners for Marion before the lack of pitchers took all the steam out of the bunch.

Hale Myers and Jimmy Ryan, managers of the Fort Wayne and Evansville teams, respectively, both look to have good teams. Myers says he will commence early and make good, as he felt they are suffering with an excess of overtrophy.

With the three days suspension with the loss of pay hanging over his head as rule, it is probable that the rowdy ball player will find himself out of his element in the Central league. It is a wise measure and should have been put into effect long ago.

Stephen Geoslinger, of Piqua, O., evidently believes that it is only the early bird that gets the worm, for he has put his application in for the position of umpire.

The league has adopted the Spalding ball.

W. A. Dugan, of Springfield, was compelled to leave the Dayton meeting on account of his wife's illness.

Amos Scott, formerly of Terre Haute, but now of Grand Rapids, attended the meeting looking after the interests of the Furniture Makers with Heenan.

Dr. Carson has been actively identified with the league since it was formed, and is now a director of the Springfield Press Republic. He is a sport of the true type, and is not in the baseball business for the money there is in it, but rather for the pleasure he derives from it. He is now chairman of the circuit committee, and it was largely through his influence that the talk of admitting Springfield into the league was again revived this meeting. Dr. Carson has been ill for a few weeks ago he became convinced that the place would prove a paying proposition, and since then he has worked hard and long to secure its admission."

TO-NIGHT'S GAMES MEAN MUCH.

Bowling Contests Will Break Tie for Four Clubs in League.

To-night's games in the Indiana-Michigan bowling league will be watched with unusual interest as the outcome of the two contests will decide which clubs will occupy second and fifth positions. The Tribune and Times have lost November all but two of the "Big Nine" outings voted for the company, Iowa, and Minnesota being the only ones to hold out against it.

COMMISSION NEARLY DISRUPTED

August Herrmann Will Resign From Baseball Board.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 11.—After a meeting, which at one time threatened a disruption of the national agreement so far apart were the opposing interests, the national commission adjourned to-day, after having decided to investigate the Jack Taylor case, having adopted a number of verbal changes in the national agreement and referred to the National and American leagues for further consideration the demands of the National Association of Minor Leagues.

The demands of the minors for an increase in the price for drafted players were directly antagonized by Ban Johnson, president of the American league, who made a counter proposition that the minors should be willing to be drafted but should receive the price to be paid for them. Mr. McGinnitt adhered to the plan he had advised to pay more. The representatives of the minors, Messrs. Lewis of Toledo, Griffith of Jersey City, was the spokesman, held their ground.

A resolution was adopted to-day, by the announcement that August Herrmann, chairman of the board, at the next meeting will resign as chairman of the national baseball commission. All the members of the new board, except Garvey, urged on Mr. Herrmann to reconsider his determination to resign, but Mr. Herrmann announced, however, that he would not change his decision, that he was firm and will not change his decision. The minor leagues men are particularly anxious that Mr. Herrmann be in charge, but if he insists they say they will be satisfied with Harvey Ebbets, the New York National league team, to succeed him. It is regarded as scarcely likely that Mr. Brush will accept the position. An effort will also be made to induce Mr. Herrmann to reconsider the resignation, in which event George Tebeau or Howard Griffith and one representative minor league man, possibly Pat Powers, may be admitted to the commission.

Fight Promoters Disagree.

San Francisco, Jan. 11.—James Coffroth and Harry Corbett, joint owners and promoters of the Yosemite and Coffroth athletic club, have dissolved partnership and Corbett says he is out of the game so far as being an owner of a club goes.

MRS. ALLEN PRAISES SOUTH

South Bend Woman Tells of Delightful Place Among the Hills.

Mrs. Lydia Folmer Allen, daughter of Councilman Charles G. Folmer, who is sojourning in Waynesville, N. C., writes the following interesting letter relative to her present location: "Inspired by the perfect day, also with the thought that we are beginning a new year, I'll try and tell some of my friends of this quaint mountain town where I have lived since I left dear old South Bend in March, 1904.

"It is of Waynesville that I speak, a picturesque town in the mountains of western North Carolina, with a population of 1,000, and its altitude being is 2,540 feet above the sea level. You think by that we are very high, and so we are, and still we are in a country surrounded by many high peaks.

"Junaluska Lonoc is 5,000 feet, on which is the famous Eagle's Nest hotel, a large structure of 45 sleeping rooms, with a dining room, and a delightfully inviting room, and another very high point that can be seen from the town is Lickstone, and in this mountain is mined some of the finest mica in the world. Mr. Folmer will be a source of interest to you about a five-mile drive from the town. For grand scenery and rustic beauty the little town and its surroundings is superior to anything I have met in my travels.

"As to climate, we have some pretty sharp cold winds during December and January, but remember we are 2,540 feet above it will be cool and therefore, spots are very few, which are sheltered from the winds, which blow days. As in the summer and fall it could be called a second southern Pinehurst. There has been a month in the year but that I could sit on my porch without wraps, and on the first of January, 1905, I ran on my porch writing and Old Sol is sending his warm rays into my lodge room. For a place of rest after a long year of hard work, I know of none. I feel responsible for coming here, I know it and brings to one a contentment that satisfies my needs.

"Waynesville is the county seat of Haywood county, and is one of the towns on the great Southern railway system. Even though it is said this mountain section is many years behind times, still I find it a most excellent place to live, and well to be loyal.

Board of Public Works Makes Recommendations to Railway Company.

The board of public works made the following communication was received and ordered sent to the Indiana Railway company:

"In reference to the contemplated change of service on the Hill street and the Chicago street railway line, we would respectfully call your attention to the fact that the service in the vicinity of Hill street is a 10-minute service instead of a 20-minute service as now affected.

"The number of complaints to our board from the people living in that vicinity warrants us in requesting that you consider the advisability of giving additional service on the Hill street line, contemplated change is made."
