

HOME RUN BEATS M'GRAW'S LADS

Hoblitzell Pounds the Ball to the Outfield and He and Marsans Chase Home With the Winning Runs.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 9.—Hoblitzell's home run with one man on base, and two out coming like a bolt out of the blue sky in the ninth inning Friday, sent New York down to defeat by a score of 7 to 6. It was a free hitting contest all the pitchers being held in check.

Sugars, who started the game for Cincinnati lasted six innings, while Teaneau who began for New York, was knocked out of the box in the sixth. Both Ames and Demaree who succeeded them, were hit hard, the home run of Hoblitzell coming as the climax.

Cincinnati scored the first run of the game in the first inning when Beale was given a base on balls, went to second on Marsans' single, to third on a sacrifice by Grashaw, and came home on a sacrifice fly by Hoblitzell. The locals added four in the sixth on five hits and a batter hit by the pitcher. In the ninth Marsans singled and then came Hoblitzell's run drive to deep right, which brought Marsans in ahead of him.

New York scored two runs in the fourth on Burns' two base hit. Shaffer's triple and Teaneau's out. They scored their other four in the sixth on a double by Fletcher, singles by Herzer and Wilson, an error and a base on balls.

Burns, Marsans and Hoblitzell carried off the batting honors, New York 000 204 000—6 12 1 Cincinnati 160 004 002—7 12 1 Teaneau, Demaree and Wilson; Sugars, Ames and Clark Kling; Umpires—Klem and Orth.

PIRATES DOUBLE THE BOSTON BRAVE SCORE

Huber, Perdue is Banished by Umpire and Losses Chance to Tackle Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 9.—Bunched hits off Rudolph gave Pittsburgh the victory over Boston Friday afternoon four to two. Huber, who has beaten Pittsburgh three times this year might have done it again but in the first inning he lost his temper in an argument with Umpire Eason over a decision on Butler at first base and gave the umpire a violent shove. He was ordered off the field and Rudolph went in. Louie Reulbach declared that he regretted the occurrence.

Adams pitched steady ball for Pittsburgh. Wilson singled and stole in the second and Mitchell took second on the play at the plate. Gibson sacrificed and Adams scored Mitchell with a long fly. Wilson's home run into the bleachers gave Pittsburgh another in the fourth and bunched hits in the eighth brought in the fourth run. A sensational catch of Lord's drive by Mitchell in the fourth was a feature.

A PASS TO SPEAKER IS UNDOING FOR DETROIT

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—Duzac purposely passed Speaker to take a chance on Lewis in the ninth inning of the game between Detroit and Boston Friday, with a man on second and the score tied. Lewis drove the ball to the center field fence, scoring Moseley and winning the contest for the Red Sox 5 to 4.

Detroit used two pitchers in a vain effort to stop Boston's heavy hitting. Thomas' long drives drove in two of the Red Sox runs. Janverin's batting also was a feature. Only one run was earned off Moseley.

BROWNS' RALLY PULLS GAME FROM THE YANKS

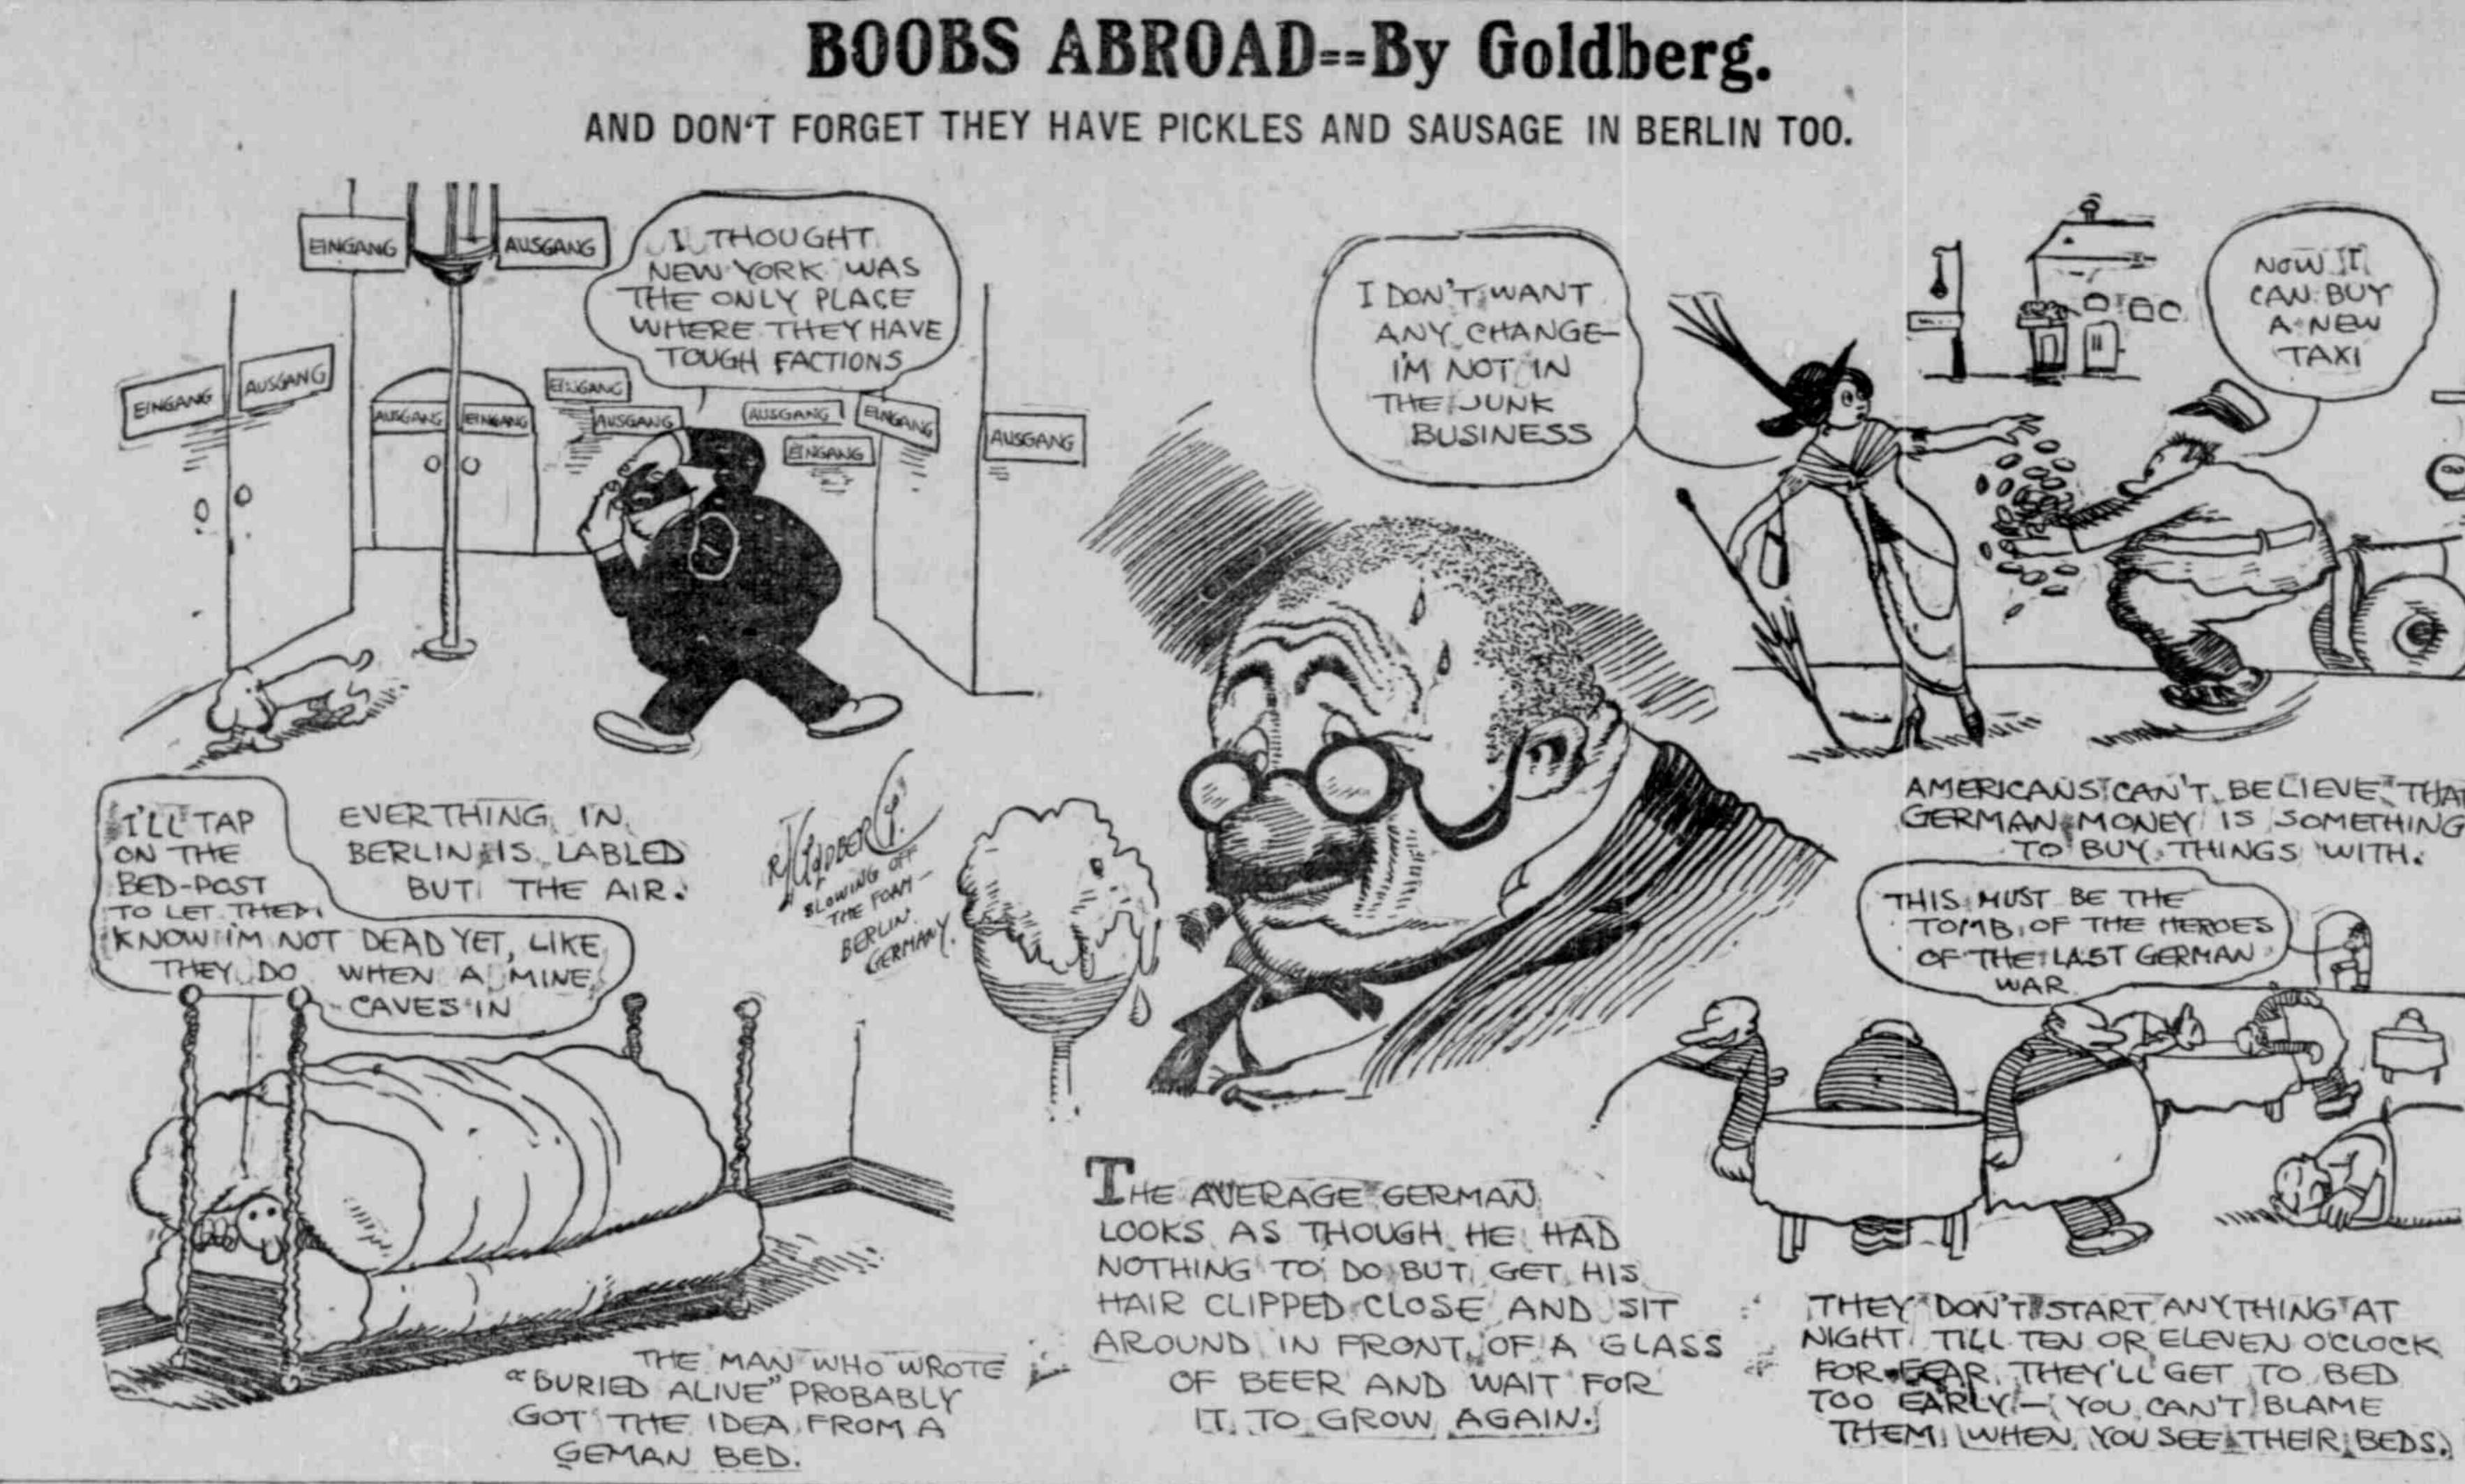

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—St. Louis took the first game of the series from New York by a score of 6 to 4. The locals had the lead up to the eighth inning, when St. Louis made a rally which drove McConnell out of the box and netted four runs. Fisher replaced McConnell with the score tied, and two men on bases.

A pass to Austin filled the bases after which Compton's sacrifice fly and Brief's double were responsible for three more runs. Hamilton was wild and was hit hard, but was effective with men on bases, 12 of the Yankees being left.

H. Williams and Cook, the Yankee's Texas league recruits, again showed up well, especially the former, who made three hits, drew a base on balls, stole base and accepted 16 chances without an error. St. Louis 101 000 040—6 10 3

ALL CUB PITCHERS SAME TO PHILLIES

Doolin's Men Hit Ball to All Corners of the Lot and Take an Easy Game by Sixteen to Three Count.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—Philadelphia buried Chicago under an avalanche of hits, which included home runs, triples and doubles, and won a fractious game 16 to 3. Manager Doolin's men started their bombardment at the start of the game and stopped only momentarily.

Lavender started to pitch for Chicago and was hit to all corners of the field for a total of four runs. He was replaced in the next inning by Earl Moore, the former Philadelphia hurler, and although he worked steadily for a few innings he too was covered with a fusillade of hits which with a base on balls netted three more runs. He finally gave way to Stewart, a pinch hitter, recently purchased from Indianapolis by the locals. Stewart made his debut by striking out.

Ritchie then went to the mound for Manager Evers' men and the cannoneading commenced afresh, the visitors making seven hits, which with four bases on balls and two wild throws by Needham, netted nine runs.

Alexander, on the other hand, was almost invincible, the locals making only three hits off his delivery up to the eighth inning when he eased up. Only one of the first three was clean. Philadelphia's lone error paved the way for the locals to score their first two runs while Alexander really handed them their third run by forcing a line across the plate.
