SOUTH BEND WINS SNAPPY GAME, 2-1

DEFEATS WHEELING IN SECOND FIGHT OF SERIES.

PLAY IS SENSATIONAL

Both Teams Field Perfectly—Eddie Smith and "Bino" Rogers Divide Honors in Pitching Performance.

In a passionate pitching performance with nine Rogers, in which Eddie Smith had sensational support, South Bend won the second game of the series from Wheeling yesterday, score 2 to 1.

Like the first game of the series, the battle was earnestly fought and Rogers pitched magnificent ball throughout the entire game with the exception of the sixth inning. Smith was in his usual good form, allowing five hits, while Rogers was shaken for seven. The fielding of both teams was perfect. Sheehan, Grant and Koehler made several snappy plays while Kurke pegged home with alarming accuracy.

Despite the fact that both teams played one of the best game witnessed here this season, attendance yesterday was very light. But those who attended displayed plenty of baseball spirit Lose Gain, but fans witnessed the battle and hardly enough was realized to meet the necessary expense of the home club.

Start Well.

From the very start of the game South Bend showed that it meant to win. In its first inning with one down Coffey connecting for two bases into right. But he expired at second when Sheehan skied to Bondelouch and Grant fanned. Sheehan then stole home Coffey led off with another swat and drew a. at second when Sheehan sacrificed. Have to Bondelouch. Haywoth brought and Kurke grounded to Carlos, ending the inning.

Fast fielding in the second and third innings kept the visitors from scoring. Ralston had lessened its for second and Houston was passed. He was tagged at second Kurke, Smith to Koehler, and Hass was also given a free pass. Smith then stole second and had was pegged out. Asher opened the third with a drive into left and Rogers stole to Koehler. Carlos flew out to Fry and Asher was placed at third when Weigel singled to right. After a desperate effort Haywoth succeeded in stealing home, tying the score with two men on bases.

The local scores of the game were made in the sixth when Coffey hit for value with Craven down. Sheehan walked and Grant was hit by pitcher, sending Coffey and Haywoth skipping home. Kurke singled to right, sending Grant across the home base but the clever backstopper was tagged in attempting to steal second. Score:
