AMERICA'S PLACE IN LEAGUE OF NATIONS KEPT, SAYS BRAZILIAN

By Associated Press:

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, Aug. 3.—"We are keeping for the United States her place in the council of the League of Nations," said Dr. Gustavo da Cunha, Brazilian ambassador to France and representative of Brazil on the League of Nations council to the League.

"The place during the absence of American representatives is filled with the gratitude of the world, for the role of America in the war," he added.

The ambassador declared Brazil was absolutely convinced of the benefits the league would bring to the world in view of the sincere cooperation in the concert of nations.

"All the Latin-American republics have given their complete and unreserved adhesion to the organization," he asserted, "but what they cannot understand is the absence of a leading nation like the United States."

TWO KILLED WHEN AIRPLANE FALLS A THOUSAND FEET

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3.—Lieut. Lom Locklear, famous "stunt" aviator, and his assistant, Lieut. Milton Elliott, were instantly killed here last night when their airplane fell a thousand feet as they were making an exhibition flight.

According to witnesses, Locklear, who was flying with fireworks blazing from his machine, either was blinded by them or search-lights on the ground, and misjudged his altitude when he went into a nose spin, crashing before he realized he was close to earth.

FRONT PORCH IS AGAIN DISCUSSED

Sen. Harry S. New Says There
Will Be No Deviation
From Plans.

MARION, O., Aug. 3.—Sen. Harding held a conference Tuesday with Simon G. Miller, president of the International Longshoremen's association, at which the labor situation was discussed generally and the candidate was assured of the support of the labor leader. Mr. O'Connor later gave out a statement covering his views.

Previous to his conference with Mr. O'Connor, Sen. Harding had conferred at length with Sen. Harry S. New of Indiana, chairman of the republican speakers' bureau on matters pertaining to the speaking campaign. To what extent if at all, the front porch campaign plan will be deviated from is understood to have been discussed.

Sen. New asserted that no one in any event could be held to be responsible for the handicaps of a front porch campaign as compared with the Harrison campaign in 1888 and the two McKinley campaigns in 1896 and 1900. Not only are railroad rates higher, but it is impossible for the railroads to furnish equipment to conduct excursions to the candidate's home as in past years, he said.

new population as regards its effect on salaries.

Rural Districts Lose.

Another matter of discussion brought out by the census announcement, which matter is not at all legal in its aspect, regards the percentage of the county's population which is rural.

During the more than 60 years that he has devoted to making youngsters and grown-ups happy with his art as a pantomimist he has had many adventures. Often he has stood with his hand on his hip, waiting for the go into the mammoth main-tent of Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Combined Shows, someone will ask him to tell of the days gone by. Miao likes best of all to tell his stories to the younger performers. He is especially fond of reciting adventures experienced with the old Rice show when that historic institution was famous up and down the Mississippi River a half century ago.

Miao is now 81 years old.

He is as agile as any of the army clowns that make merry on the hipodrome track of the great supercircus that is coming here next Saturday afternoon and night. He can turn a "flip-flop" with the youngest of them. Bright of eye, erect in carriage, and quick of wit and gesture, he is indeed the "daddy of them all."

Supreme in the art of pantomime he this season plays an important part in the great new pageant. He heads the long list of artists who have been engaged to portray the principle characters in the fairland and nursery-tale groupings that are distributed at intervals in the processions. The big pantomimic panorama is the opening feature of the main-tent program. It is followed by almost three hours of acrobatic novelties and scenes of comedy, displays of acrobats and actors trained in a million pound elephant act and scores of superb horses supplement the men and women stars. The gigantic program is the result of merging the finest features of America's two most famous circuses and adding many acts entirely new to this country.

Clown 81 Years Old Still As Agile as Younger Performers

The Old Clown's Story

Throughout the realm of spangles there is none who can tell as wonderful stories as Al Miao, dean of all the clowns in circuses.

Conference Under League of Nations Will Be Held
Sept. 15.

By Associated Press:

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The international communications conference, called under the auspices of the League of Nations, it was announced Tuesday, will be held in Washington, Sept. 15.

Delegates from the allied and associated powers, including Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan, and the United States, are entitled to representation.

Delegates from Japan already have arrived here in preparation for the conference.

The principal business of the conference is expected to concern the allocation among the allied and associated powers of the Germanable confiscated during the war.

The United States will be represented at the conference by Chairman Postmaster General Burleson, under Secretary of State Davis and Walter S. Rogers, formerly with the committee on public information and now president of the Washington Herald Publishing company.

But the real question is about the salaries. And the supreme court will probably settle that.

UNITED STATES MUST ENTER OIL BUSINESS OR LOSE INTERESTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The United States government must enter the oil business and take steps to prevent other nations from monopolizing the world's oil supply as is expressed by the department of commerce in a report to the senate public lands commission made public Tuesday night by Sen. Phelan of California.

It appears that the British government is definitely going into the oil business," the department's report asserts. During the war England took over three-tenths of the stock of an Anglo-Persian oil company. This company has an exclusive concession for oil exploitation throughout all of Persia except the five northern provinces and has valuable concessions in Mesopotamia and other parts of the world.

It would seem imperative that our government take the same course and at least find a way of preventing, so far as possible, the monopoly of future sources of oil supply by the nationals of foreign countries.

STUDEBAKER PARK DEFEATS LEEPERS

One More Game to Win and Studebakers Have East Side Championship.

Featuring the playground contests played yesterday at the different parks was the Leepers-Studebaker senior indoor tilt at Studebaker park. Studebakers scored tallies the first frame, this being sufficient to win the game. The score was 2 to 0. The Studebaker team will meet Perley Tuesday ending the league. They have a perfect record so far, and if they can stop the Perley nine they will have the championship. If they lose, the Howard team will be tied with them.

Studebakers used two pitchers, although there was no need of it as only one hit was registered in the first game against the Gembrols.

Gembrols started and buried six innings, the lone hit being registered off him. Smith went in during the last few innings. He did not start the game, as he will undoubtedly be saved for the Perley game Thursday. Herman, the Leeper leader, also pitched tight ball, allowing only three hits.
